£64,000 to be won

A total of £64.000 may be non busy in The Times Partiolia competition: £60,000 because the weekly £20,000 prize his not been won for the last two weeks and £4,000 because vesterday's daily prize was not bon.

Portlolo list, page 26; how to play, information service, back portfolio card may get one by sending a stamped, addressed envelope io:

The Times Portfolio,
PO Bo; 40,
Blackham BB1 6AJ,

100 arrested

The police arrested more than 100 peace campaigners who tried to block entrances to the American airbase at Alconhury in Cambridgeshire, Other charges, page 4

Absent leader Presiden Chemenko appar ently did not attend last nights meeting of the Praesidium of concluded from the Tass report

Krealin vaccuum, page

Plane ditches

An aircrass of the RAF Red Arrows display team ditched in the sea during a display at Sidmouth, Devon. The pilot ejected safely

£2m holiday bill

An emergency fund to help holidaymakes when tour oper-ators go out of business may have to find £2m because two companies' honds were too

Battle for cash

Leeds Pernanent Building Society has stepped up the battle for deposits with the knutch of its Liquid Gold account paying 9.25 per cent net with no penalics Family Money, page 24

Terror blacklist FEC foreign ministers have agreed to set up a blacklist to evaluate suspected terrorists from all 10 member states -

'Hoax' deaths

I we ambulance officers have been dismissed for treating as a hoay a call about an incident in which two boys fied

Merger talks

A principal Loadon jobbing tirm is holding talks aimed at merging directly with a stock-broking firm, the first time such a "marriage" his been contem-

Seoul initiative

Scoul is trying to improve relations with floscow a year after the shooting down of the Olympic reunion The Great Britain hockey team, unexpected winners of a bronze medal at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles, have been invited to reassemble or an inter-icutional tournament in London Low-key protest Protests were low-cy as Solidarity supporters marked the fourth anniversity of the foundation of the hunned Polish

Iran's plea Iran appealed to the rest of the world to bring pressure on Iraq to release the 201 passengers and crew on the Iranian Airbus hyacked to Baghdad earlier this Sightseers, page

Summer record Certain parts of Britain have had their driest six months since the turn of the century, weather statisticians said

Essex lead cut

Essex's lead over Notonghamshire in the county cricket championship was reduced to a single point when they were held to a draw by Middlesex at Chelmsford

Leader page, 9 Letters: On TUC and mines from Sir Hugh Coruzzi, and others; bookbinding, from Mr J.

Leading articles: David Owen and SDP. Trade and protection; Mrs Reagan's cricket Obituary, page 10 Dr George Hadley, Sir Randal Heymanson, Mr R. A. Wilson Classified, page 30

Home News 2-	Events 3
Overseun 4
	0 Sale Boots
Arts	7 Science
Business 21-2	Servier
Charch 1	Sport 2/-3
Crossnerd 3
Pilane	3 Mantpet 3

Revolt predicted on TUC pledge to back miners

From Paul Routledge, Labour Editor, Brighton

miners and the Governmen intensified sharply yesterday when TUC leaders promised total support" for the National Union of Mineworkers, including a pledge not to cross picket power supply and steel indus-tries, the TUC general council-voted 38 - 5 with four abstentions for a package of measures to heighten the confrontation. Their strongly-worded strategy statement will be debated by the Trades Union Congress in Brighton on Monday, and it is now assured of an overwhelm-ing majority. But it critics were compared to the control of the cont ing majority. But its critics were already predicting last night that it will be ignored by many rank and file union memnbers whose cooperation will be needed to make it effective.

Mr Bill Sirs, general secretary of the Iron and Steel Trades Confederation said: "The reality is that our members will simply not obey it, and the union leaders who voted for it know it will not work."

His remarks were echoed by Mr John Lyons, general sec-retary of the Engineers and Managers Association, which represents managers in the power stations, who added: "I don't happen to believe in kidding the miners that they are going to get more solidarity."

The statement backs the objectives of the miners' strike promises a concerted campaign to raise money for the

The conflict between striking handling and consumption of rates who believe that it cannot made and the Government coal coke and oil where it is be delivered. being used as a substitute fuel. The TUC general council believes that its initiative will compel the coal board to go back into negotiations with the mineworkers "to resolve this In a move resisted by damaging and costly disposed in the power supply and steel induspower supply and steel indus

TUC statement Tilbury appeal

moderates, on his general council believe that the coal board's "final" offer should be the starting point for a resump-tion of talks on the issue of pit

The joint text was hammered out at a three-and-a-half meeting of the general council in a seafront hotel, and it will be recommended to next week's conference and to meeting tomorrow of the NUM delegation to Congress.

The price the TUC's support is that the miners' allies must withdraw their porposals for 2 10p a week levy on all 10 million trade unionists to finance the pit strike; and instruction not to cross any NUM picket line; a24-hour solidarity strike, and the blacking of imported coal, roke and

This horse-trading exercise has produced a formula to unify week's Congress, but it is It is also proposed to impose an embargo on the movement, cynical reserve among mode-writes).

The key ingredient of yestercould yield a compromise day's development is the new level of TUC intervention in the six-month-old pit strike. Despite their consistent refusal to allow the general fusal to anow the general council to get its hands on their strike, NUM leaders are being pulled inexorably into the TUC's sphere of influence that

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 1 1984

Mr Murray described the general council's statement as "something less than the NUM hoped to get. They were not over the moon about it."

His assessment was not shared by Mr Michael McGahey, vice president of the miners' union who said he was very pleased with the final rsion of the statemen

The unions which voted against the statement were the ISTC, the bank workers' union, the electricians and plumbers, the secondary schoolteachers' union and the engineers and managers. The white collar union Nalgo abstained. But the size of the majority in favour of the statement clearly indicates that it has sufficient backing to

• The British Steel Corporation, whose financial recovery has been constantly under threat during the miners' strike, maintained a discreet silence yesterday on the general council's statement, but made it known that it was totally opposed to any interference in its steel-making operations (Our

British Steel spurns docks peace move by Moss Evans

Mr Evans had proposed talks with the British Steel Corporation to try to agree quotas limiting the import of coal to Hunterston and other ports used by the Corporation.

While saying nothing publicly, Corporation chiefs made it clear that they were not interested in any deal to "ration" the import of coal to ports which serve steelworks such as Ravenscraig and Llan-

Mr Evans' peace proposal came after dockers at Dover and Felixstowe had voted overwhelmingly to defy the strike call by his union, the Transport and General Workers' Union. The defection must come as a major blow; because of the scale of the vote

They emphasized that their responsibility was to maintain work rose again last month and the upward trend shows no sign of bathing, according to the lastest figures from the Department of Employment.

The total unemployed in-workforce, while the underlying level, which excludes schoolleavers, rose by more than 15,000 for the second month to reduce unemployment and the lunacy of strike calls which

Excluded from the total are 160,069 recent school-leavers

By Hazhir Teimourian

The Afghan tribal chieftain

Mr Chulam Hassen Khan

Karokhel, speaking from Pakistan, described the long trek through the mountains of eastern Alghanistan with 4,000 families under regular sir

The families were dispersed

werer a thousand valleys, to attack by the Russians.

who defected from the Russians with his armed militia told threatened jobs.

Jobless total up by 15,000 in August

By Peter Wilson-Smith

creased by 15.359 in August to into further education or 3,115,888 or 12.9 per cent of the government training schemes.

Mr Tom King, Secretary of State for Employment, conceded that the figures were disappointing. He said they underlined the size of the lack who cannot claim benefits until despite growth in the number of September. Mr King said it was jobs: Officials believe the a hopeful sign that there were underlying increase is running 50,000 fewer school-leavers out at 10,000 to 15,000 a month.

The number of people out of of work than there were a year

By Glen Auan

Docks union leader Mr Moss blast furnaces in full operating and workforce will now work in Lagos said there was no question of him being in object to safeguard steelworkers together to ensure traffic will be olive branch in an effort to find jobs and that "rationing" deals handled as usual. The was a formulation of the strike, But his move was resulted almost at the page of the safe traffic will be an in the page of the strike and proved including the strike and page of the page

chairman of the dockers shop stewards' committee, said that only six men had been favour of a strike when the issue was discussed by workers at the

Afterwards, Dover Harbour Board said in a statement: "It is business as usual. Management

Rejected: Mr Evans

However, government officials cannot judge how much of that drop is because shool-leavers have found jobs

because they have moved

In July, for example, 37,000 people joined the Youth Train-ing Scheme, and there were 670,000 on special employment in August. That figure, which gives the best guide to the underlying trend, has continued to rise after a brief pause towards the end of last year and stewards' chairman, Mr Brendan Lambe said afterwards There was an overwhelming vote in favour of continuing to work and Felixstowe is worki

The vote coincided with an announcement by the Port of Felixstowe Company of a £47m expansion scheme To add to his problems, Mr Evans also learnt that dockers at Bristol had called for a national ballot on strike action, and workers at Hull, always pre-viously a militant port, had demanded the recall of the union's delegate conference Speaking in Brighton, where he is attending the pre-Congress meeting of the TUC General Council, Mr Evans said: "I would be prepared to get back together with the dock em-ployers and British Steel to discuss quota agreement.

Mondale's challenge

in contemporary American politics, Mr Waher Mondale is to release a detailed, four-year budget programme outlining the domestic and foreign policy priorities he would tackle if elected president (our Washington Correspondent writes).

egy was adopted after weeks of losed-door sessions with advisers who urged the Democratic challenger to take a bold

Public opinion polls have indicated that Mr Mondale has a chance of closing the gap if he can force President Reagan to debate the issues.

Poison death A second patient from the Stanley Royal Hospital in Wakefield, West Yorkshire, Jesse Jacksons. We don't go in for stunts" Mr Brown said at Heathrow. Afghan chief tells of tribe's freedom trek to Reagan

in a decision unprecedented

The high-risk campaign stratdied yesterday from salmonella poisoning. An infection affected 200 of the 850 patients and 30

free two Britons By Henry Stanhope, Diplomatic Correspondent The Libyan leader Colonel are still in the Libyan capital for Gadafi is about to free two of today's anniversary of the the sic Britons who have been revolution there, and one of held without trial in Tripoli them, Mr Richard Balfe, was since April according to four Labour MPs who returned to London last night. Mr Ron Brown, the MP for Leith and leader of the group, said on his return at Heathrow airport that an agreement on the nen's release was "in the can". One report out of Tripoli said that the two, so far unnamed, could be on their way home this weekend while their four companions may follow shortly.

News of an impending amnesty was brought to the MPs by senior Libyan officials at Tripoli airport, as they were about to leave It appears that the officials begged them to stay another day or two, so that they could take the two freed prisoners back The MPs had to decline because of pressing engage-ments at home. "We're not

But two Labour Euro-MPs

Shamir and Nicholson-Lord writes).

Labour Party leader, and Mr Yitzhak Shamir, the Likud leader, are close to an agree-ment to share the premiership, they said in separate interviews that the proposal was included in a package agreement and that differences remained on the distribution of portfolios and points in

Address

Mr Scargill and Mr Murray in Brighton when TUC leaders voted to support the NUM

Airport crate escape by Nigerian in Dikko case

The Nigerian Airways chief wanted in connexion with the attempt to ship home the former Nigerian transport minister in a diplomatic crate is believed to have escaped using the same method

The managing director of Nigeria Airways who was being sought by anti-terrorist squad officers has escaped from Britain and is believed to have been taken through Heathrow in a crate marked as diplomatic baggage earlier this week. Group Captain Bernard Bamfa, who was wanted for questioning about the kidnap-ping of Albaji Umara Dikko on July 5, was yesterday to his house in Ikeja, a Lagos suburb, surrounded by uniformed and heavily-armed guards. A source in Lagos said there was no off that the anti-terrorist squad

was looking for him.
It is believed he hid in a Nigerian diplomatic house and earlier this week was taken through the freight terminal at Heathrow in a diplomatic crate. Nigeria Airways has daily assenger flights from Heathrow. Customs and Excise officers confirmed yesterday that they do not check diplomatic baggage if it is correctly Earlier this week Nigeria Airways staff said they did not know where Group Captain Bamfa was and would not discuss his movements. They conceded that an acting managing director had been appointed

MPs say Libya will

Escaped: Group Captain Bernard Bamfa-

Scotland Yard would only confirm that it was looking for two Nigerians and two Israelis in connexion with the kidnap-

Group Captain Bamfa, a former Nigerian Air Force officer, was appointed head of the state-run airway in January after the army coup. One of his financial affairs of other directors of Nigeria Airways and at least two have been dismissed since his appointment. He is described as a tough but small man in his mid-fifties, very much in sympathy with the aims of Nigeria's new military

Until 1980 when democracy

reported to be going to the Ministry of Justice later last

There had been reports earlier that Colonel Gaddafi, who says he is anxious to improve Anglo-Libyan relations, had proposed an exchange between the detainees and five Libyans awaiting trial

But the Foreign Office was still pressing for clarification of the position last night through its consul in Tripoli, Mr George

Anderson. A spokesman said that the four returning MPs had spoken to officials by telephone after returning to Britain.

As well as the six British detainces in Tripoli, five more

Britons are being held in prison.

• The two Britons to be released were named last night

as Mr Douglas Ledingham, the British Caledonian manager in Tripoli, and Mr George Bush, a oil worker. Both are expected to home tomorrow (David on bomb charges in Britain.

night to pursue the matter.

was restored in Nigeria, he was Commandant of Lagos airport.

The Foreign Office would not comment on the reports last night but said that if Group Captain Bamfa were wanted by the police a warrant could be issued for his arrest and extradition applied for. If it were proved that Group Captain Bamfa had been hiding in a Nigerian diplomatic house and had abused diplomatic privilege by escaping in diplomatic baggage, the relationship between Britain and Nigeria which both sides have worked hard to restore since the Dikko affair, would be shattered. Albaji Dikko, meanwhile, is at a secret location near London, protection squads. He bas not fully recovered from his Senior executives of the airline • Four men, three Israelis were recently in London and and a Nigerian, were commitmay have been kelping with red for trial at the Central charges of stealing and unlawfully carrying away Alhaji Dikko against his will and common law The affair has caused a flurry of diplomatic activity, with more than 40 British construction workers expelled from Nigeria and Mr Thomas Wyatt, the acting British High in Lagos six times at the latest count while making intermittent statements that long-term relations with this country should not be damaged, has remained ntent on seeking Alhaji Dik-

the External Affairs Ministry

Inside

Backing the right horse Alan Hamilton's Perfect Day - with a typically

The melody lingers on

Richard Strauss's final work is discovered 33 years after his death

Kent and Middlesex battle it out for the NatWest Trophy at Flushing with success

Rex Bellamy looks at the build-up to the US tennis championships Page 8 Monday

Homework is groundwork

What mothers teach children at home can set

A glimpse into the future First in a three-part series

on life in the year 2024

Scotplan lets you spend £1200 for only

Scotplan gives you continuous credit when you want it and pays you interest when you don't ...

You get a standard cheque book and cheque card to use anywhere for whatever you like. A monthly statement keeps you up to date.

Whatever you can afford to pay each month we'll give you a credit limit of 30 times that amount. For example, £40 a month lets you spend up to £1200; £30 up to £900 and so forth.

You earn interest when your account is in credit, and you can cash up to 40 cheques each year free of bank charges.

There is optional low-cost Life Accident and Sickness insurance cover. The rate of interest on money borrowed through . Scotplan is 1.6% per month (APR 20.9%). This rate may vary from time to time in line with general interest rates.

> And you don't have to bank with us to get the benefit.

To: Bank of Scotland, Central Banking Services, Freepost, Edinburgh EHI OAA. Or phone PREEFONE 8423.

BANK OF SCOTLAND
A FRIEND FOR LIFE

single casualty among the defectors, he said. resistance from the beginning of the Russian occupation, but "About 20 helicopter gui-ships and six jet fighters scoured our route, but they only had been told by the National Islamic Front to remain and infiltrate the government yesterday how he brought all his followers - numbering as many as 20,000 - out of managed in kill one camel, as we travelled at night."

All the columns, which included many young children and old people, reached the safety of Pakistan and are now eading for refugee camps. Mr Karokhel said he inhide them from the eye of the Russian Air Force in the sky."

It was a successful strategy:

the Russians caused not a

He spoke scathingly of the behavour of the Soviet officers in his country. "They treat

Afghans with contempt. They are arragant and suspicious

tended to return to Afghanistan addicted to hashish even more with his men as spon as he could, "to carry on the boly war than to wine." against the Russian usurpers".

He had intended to join the merrandoral atriori teriminal early yesterday, killing and injuring an undetermined number of people, the Afghan government radio said (AFP reports). It blamed guerrillas.

• ISLAMABAD: A bomb exploded outside the Kabul international airport terminal

It was the first time Kabul radio reported an incident of such gravity at the airport, which also serves as a Soviet

Peres may share top job Mr Shimon Peres, Israel's

After their meeting yesterday.

£40 a month.

British tourist stabbed to death and friend knifed on Costa del Sol

Linda Bradely, aged 25, from London who was on holiday in Torremolinos, on the Costa del Sol. Spain was stabbed to death yesterday by three young men when she struggled to prevent them stealing her handbag.

Her friend, Miss Christine Ann Batty, aged 30 also from London, who was strolling along Torremolinos's main boulevard with her was also severely wounded in the attack at 2am. Doctors at the Carlos Haya hospital in Malaga said after performing an operation on her liver that she was making progress although her condition combining shock and loss of blood remained grave.

Ise:

TUT:

ice

H

Rű

HIPAT.

"Tironeros", literally those who pull the violence, on the Costa nounced dead immediately on del Sol, which has been plagued arrival at the Malaga clinc. The by crime this year.

handbags from the snatchers, the death of a foreign person on although local people, resigned the crime wave confessed they often prefer to surrender their valuables instead of taking on the knife-carrying criminals.

Those strolling along the illuminated Paseo Maritimo in the early hours, local people say are particulary likely victims of the Tironeros.

According to witnesses who rushed up afterwards to help the women as they lay wounded on the ground, the three attackers The two women, who were 14 car and demanded the girls' staying in a Torremolinos valuables. The three bag-snatch-Holiday Club hotel, were the ers were able to flee in the latest victims of the so-called confusion.

Mr Atkins said: "We have recently set up our firm. Blues Ltd. and this work for Mr Palmer was our first big deal hampers, wine, and girls to decided to buy a Porsche Turbo from him, which he was offering for just over £30,000; which is about £6,000 less than the list price. He said he had contacts with German dealers.

who would supply him with right-hand drive vehicles which

When we discovered he had one we traced him to Long

A spokesman for Bletchley police, where detectives are owner of this company is supposed to be on holiday in America. We have not been in touch with the US police as yet.

ployees of his company in Milton Keynes, who have been

Queen and country. It is wrong that I should be denied a job batch of people employed with the security force when it was set up.

Since that time, the council has introduced a policy of not employing people who have taken voluntary redundancy or are in receipt of an occupational pension, so he is no longer entitled to employment with this council." She added that there are still 40 vacancies in

Parents gain by buying homes

for students

Parents of students at Oxford University are buying houses and flats for them, to overcome

a shortage of college rooms, and high rents in the private sector.

After three or four years when their children have finished at the university they often at a handsome profit.

Some parents buy large houses and rent out the rooms to

Mr John Lewis, of Carter Jonas estate agents, believes the trend of buying property for students is increasing. He said: "A lot of the wealthier parents are buying small flats and houses for their children. There seems to be a gradual decline in the amount of rented accommodation avail-

Some of the flats and houses get some rough use, but the parents rarely lose money on their investment, Mr Lewis said. When they sold the everal students.

are able to sell the property.

We have spoken to em-

Beach, and are watching him

there. We feel as if we're caught he could deliver.

in the cold".

this nature...

Pension costs old soldier council security job

the bills.

Linda Bradley was pro by crime this year.

The girls tried to defend their attack, according to local sources, was the first involving the Costa del Sol this summer.

> and thefts from cars have been an almost daily occurrence on the popularly-dubbed "Costa del Crime" this summer in spite of a specially strengthened police force having mounted a security operation "Summe *84" along the 100-mile coasta

British tourists have been among the victims, often of the Tironeros. The British Consulate in Malaga has already issued more than 250 emergency passports this year, nearly all o

Porsche offer man traced to US

The owner of the company which took deposits on Porsche imported from Germany at cutprice rates and has so far failed We prepared promotions leaf-lets for him, printed balloons for the Brands Hatch pro-motions tent, laid on food to deliver, is now in Long Beach, California, inquiries by

The Times show.

Mr Andrew Palmer can be contacted at a firm which trades attract customers.

ander the name of Trans-Ame
"At the last race meeting we rican Import, and is living in an apartment near by. His firm, based at Milton Keynes, Buckinghamshire, has taken several thousand pounds in deposits on German cars. from customers who visited a promotions tent set up at two race meetings at Brands Hatch earlier this summer.

Mr John Atkins, a joint partner in a City-based firm, Blues Ltd, which set up the Brands Hatch promotions, said United Kingdom company, TLG International Vehicle Management, owes him £34,000 for the work. His partner, Mr Lawrence Cook, also paid TLG a deposit of £7.000 for a Porsche Turbo car which had not been delivered.

Blues Ltd are paying a Long Beach surveillance agency to watch Mr Palmer so that they can recover the money they have paid if he returns to this

A former Army cook has lost his fight for a job with the Labour controlled St Helens district council in Merseyside. Mr Gordon Lyon, aged 52, who lives in St Helens, has been ruled inclinible for the council's Security force vacancy, which is still unfilled after more than

The ruling has been made despite the fact that Mr Lyon.

who left the Catering Corps in 1978 after 22 years' service, has already fulfilled a 12-months council security force contract, finishing with a glowing refer-

Behind the council's decision is his £12.50 a week army pension, but Mr Lyon said: "All

I want is a job. It looks as though I am being punished because I once served for my

RAC attacks

'bottleneck'

by-pass plans

The Royal Automobile Club

esterday criticized government

plans to build new single track

by-passes as a "short sighted and cheeseparing" move which would create accident black spots. In a letter to Mrs Lynda

Chalker, Minister for Transport, it called for an urgent review of by-pass plans to

Mr Toni Lee, the RAC's director of public affairs, said:

With many by-passes to be started soon, it is vital to ensure that design standards are

The RAC quotes as an example the plan to construct the northern section of the Liphook-Petersfield bypass - part of the London to Portsmouth road - with a single track, ten metres wide. It says the rest of the route will consist of dual satisfactory.

substitute dual carriageways.

ence from the chief officer.

Alert to keep boys in Britain

Scotland Yard and Interpo were on alert last night to stop Professor Muhammad El-Bakly of the King Faisal University in Oman, who is thought to be leaving Britain with his two Justice Wood in the Family Division of the High Court in London yesterday appealed for publicity to trace the boys, who are wards of court.

Professor El-Bakly has failed to return his sons to their mother. The boys, Yaser, aged 13, and Samir, aged seven, both born in Britain, were to be handed back to their mother, Mrs Abla El-Bakly, of Meshaw Crescent, Abington Vale, Northamptonshire, on Monday.

Airports record

A record 5.4 million passes gers used the seven airports run by the British Airports Auth-ority in July, a 7.4 per cent increase on the previous highest inquiring into a complaint by Blues Ltd. said yesterday: "The level in the same month last year. The airports are Heathrow, Gatwick, Stansted, Glasgow. Edinburgh, Prestwick and Aberdeen.

most helpful in assisting with our inquiries. We are now trying to ascertain whether there Rates retreat

Mrs Joan Le Mesurier, widow of John Le Mesurier, the actor, has agreed to pay her are any further complaints of rates after being threatened with bailiffs. Mrs Le Mosdrier had withheld more than £400 in rates in protest about heavy traffic passing her home in Ramsgate.

Suitcase scare

and I am going to carry on fighting". The meagre pension Royal Navy bomb disposal experts used two controlled has left Mr Lyon with his phone explosions to blow up a suitcase cut off because he cannot pay left in a subway near the railway station at Poole, Dorset, yester-A council spokeswoman confirmed that Mr Lyon had day. Inter-city trains were delayed for 21/2 hours. The case been turned down because he turned out to contain only receives an Army pension. She said: "Mr Lyon was in the first

TV strike talks

Talks aimed at settling the dispute which has blacked out Thames Television since last Monday will resume this morning, according to a spokes-man for the Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service.

Dugdale crash

A car driven by Miss Rose Dugdale, the Sinn Fein member, who was jailed for an £8m art robbery in the 1970s, was involved in an accident in which a man died in Dublin on Thursday night. Thursday night.

Pool baptism

A church in Nuneaton, Warwickshire, will save water by baptizing 25 new members in the town's swimming pool tomorrow. The Rev John King usually baptises people by submerging them in a 1,000-gallon pool outside the Calvary Church.

Poison claim

Police are investigating a claim by an unnamed "loyalist" group that it was responsible for hiding a scaled container of domestic poison among frozen food at Stewarts supermarket, Belfast. No stock was contaminated.

Arsonist hunt

Police were searching for an arsonist yesterday after the eighteenth blaze on the Duffryn Estate, Newport, Gwent, Most carriageways funnelling traffic property they were almost attacks into a dangerous bottleneck. certain to make a good profit homes. attacks were on pensioners'

Strangled woman was walking dog

five-minute walk to exercise her old English steepdog.

Iter boy friend, who has not yet neen named, yesterday gave police a detailed statement station.

Miss Coe's body is believed to have lain among weeds on waste ground adjacent to the car park of the busy commuter station. about how he found her body. It is understood that he worked with Miss Coe and became concerned about her safety when she failed to arrive for has passed close to the spot. Her boy friend had been telephoning the police and hospitals trying to find her after

It was discovered only 100 vards from her home in York Road. Thousands of commuters

Miss Glenys Coc, aged 27, her boy friend often went out the went to the flat and found who was found murdered in a for walks together with the dog, the dog very distressed and her station car park in Guildford, called Tara, and would arrive purse and office keys still there. Surrey, was strangled during a back at the flat late at night. Police said last night that Police said last night that house-to-house inquiries in the area of the station were continuing although they had no links which pointed to the identity of the killer.

Miss Coe left the North east six years ago and was manageress of Ladbrokes betting shop in Woking Colleagues there said: "she was extremely popular The murdered woman's next-hospitals trying to find her after with everyone and very well door neighbour, Mrs. Pamela hearing from her employers that liked. We are all terribly hearing from her employers that liked. We are all terribly shoper, said that Miss Coe and she had not arrived for work.

Fluid movement: Jeff McClintock, of Canada, and Helena Kjellander, of Sweden, in the figures event of the KP world Cup water-skiing contest at Princes Ski Club, Bedfont, west London, yesterday (Photographs: John Voos).

Tour operators' failures need £2m rescue

By Derek Harris Commercial Editor

An emergency fund set up to holidaymakers compensate when tour operators go out of business may have to find as much as £2m because two failed tour companies' bonds were too

This will increase pressures for compulsory holiday in-surance, paid for by tour

Selby, chairman of the Air Travel Reserve Fund - the "last resort" cash source for holidaymakers' losses - is preparing plans to put to the Government on compulsory insurance.

The biggest bill the fund is likely to face comes after the crash last month of Londonbased Vantage Holidays, which went out of business with 4,000 holidaymakers abroad and booked. An early estimate of the cost to the fund, taking into account Vantage's bond of about £285,000, was nearly £1.8, but the latest estimates suggest £1.5m or possibly less.

In July, Peter Holden, a Southport-based tour company. collapsed with some 3,000 holidaymakers booked to go abroad. It had pup up bond scale of the losses involved could mean a bill to the reserve fund of up to £200,000.

There have been nine other financial collapses among tour operators since April but bonding and other arrangements have been adequate. However, there are fears in the trade that there are still more to

Youth stole £10,000 for fruit

Richard Ward, a catering tudent, became so obsessed with fruit machines that he stole more than £10,000 to satisfy the mania that cost him £100 a week, Warwick Crown Court was told yesterday Ward, aged 17 of Acocks Green, Birmingham, was sentenced to a year's youth custody after admitting three charges of burglary and asking for 42

others to be considered. Mr Timothy Raggatt, for the prosecution, said Ward travelled by bus to burgle houses, where he stole watches, jewelry and coins. "Anything valuable and easily convertible into quick cash, all of which went into slot machines", he said.

From one house alone Ward escaped with property worth £3,000. He was frank with the police and showed them many of the houses he had burgled "it was a remarkable feat of memory", Mr Raggatt said.

Mr John Saunders, for the defence, said Ward had been a popular and bright student, but his obsession had destroyed his promising future. He had turned to stealing after selling all his possessions.

Mr Saunders said that a though Ward had stolen goods valued at £10,127, he had been paid hitle when he sold them. Judge Gosling told Ward: "It is terrible for a young man like you with good prospects to be hit by a mania and to satify it by committing burglaries."

Baby's mother released

A mother who left her injured baby aged 21 months at Guy's Hospital, London, earlier this week has been released by police after questioning. The police are looking for a boy friend of the woman. They said the baby's real name is Tyra Neil, not Julie Miller as previously believed. She is very AMUSING WINES LAUGHABLE PRICES.

WHERE A GOOD WINE IS EASY TO FIND

Ambulancemen dismissed for ignoring 999 call about dying boys in tank been dismissed for treating as a the brothers was opened and hoax an emergency call about adjourned for tests on the an incident in which two contents of the chemical tank at teenage brothers died, it was Tank Cleaning Service, Oak-

The Northumbria Ambulance Service issued a statement although it was reported that about an internal inquiry into they had drowned, their bodies the case. It said there had been had been badly burnt when they brother Michael, aged 14, of even if an ambulance had come Sulfolk Place, Gateshead. Tyne and Wear, died on August 18 after falling into a chemical tank.

The state of the st

when the police rang 36 minutes already dead. later that one was sent, the wellgate, Gateshead.

The boys' mother said that

"a serious breach of stationary orders that there should be an immediate response to all 999

Suffolk Place, said yesterday that he doubted whether the Tony Cowie, aged 16, and his brothers could have been saved

Patrick Henderson, aged 15, over the edge of the tank and who was with them, called an couldn't see any sign of ambulance, but it was only movement, so I think they were

He added that when he rang for an ambulance he said it was understand what I meant."

The statement by the ambulance service said an emergency call was received at 7.30 pm on August 18, but before full were completed the caller, believed to be a young man, rang off. "The call was assumed to be a hoax and no ambulance was despatched until a second call via the police at the scene of an incident at Oakwellgate was received at 8.06 pm."

One of the dismissed officers is a member of the Confederation of Health Service Employees which did not wish to comment before the inquest

The other officer is a member of the National Union of Public Employees, which also did not wish to comment.

BBC attacked over masts plan

Theatre and a Conservative MP have accused the BBC External Services of making absurd. misleading and distorted statements about its plan to site a new transmitter near the theatre at Stratford. Mr Patrick Jenkin, Secretary of State for the Environment, is international voice that a considering the evidence of a refusal of permission to build at public inquiry into a proposal to put up a transmitter at Bearley, three miles from the centre of Stratford. The theatre's joint artistic directors. Mr Trevor Nunn and Mr Terry Hands, have said in stallations or equipment at the letters to The Times, that they think the effect of high-power be affected" and that "claims of transmissions on electronic potential disaster have been equipment could kill perform- extravagant".

to the Soviet block.

The memorandum says:
"Nothing would please the Politburo more than the selfinflicted wound to Britain's Bearley would represent.

It also says that the 24 metre masts, up to 300 ft, would not be visible from Stratford, that "there is no reason to believe that commercial computer in-Royal Shakespeare Theatre will be affected" and that "claims of

But Mr Howarth said yester-An unsigned BBC External day: "It is absurd to suggest that Services defence of the plan, opposition to the choice of the received by Mr Alan Howarth. Bearley site is unpatriotic and Royal Shakespeare Conservative MP for Stratford- that Politburo members attach upon-Avon, says that the high importance as to whether scheme is crucial part of a planning permission will or will programme to boost broadcasts not be given at Bearley."

He said it was "rubbish" to suggest that the masts would not be visible from the town, and a "distortion of reality" to try to convey ythe impres that the issue wa a simpl clash between local and national

Responding to the paper's technical arguments, Mr Simon Bowler, the theatre's technical systems manager, said that its statements were "misleading and. on occasion factually incorrect". Test transmissions strengths lower than normal broadcasts in terms of bearing or frequency, had caused four "malfunctions" in the theatre's stage lighting console,

School begins with teachers' pay protest

Thousands of school children and delaying nominations for will start the new school year on the panel. Monday by being sent home early because of protest action by the National Union of

The 235,000 members of the union will refuse supervise lunchtimes, cover for absent colleagues or take part in any activities outside school hours.

The action concerns what the union claims are delays in reaching an arbitrated settledisrupted schools for most of known.

The Department of Edu-

The union says that it cation and Science called the prepared its submission to the action regrettable. It said: "We three-member arbitration panel. do not yet have the report of the once arbitration was agreed, arbitrators and even when we within days. Employers, it says, receive it the Secretary of State held up the arbitration meeting will have to consider the by delaying their submission arbitrators' recommendations"

Man in school

drowning riddle

Devon. Mr Rundie. aged 40.

appeared before a disciplinary hearing of Devon County

He has been under suspen-

Council on Wednesday.

the evening of her death.

Mr Rundle, of Cothpark.

Totnes, was questioned by

Nine people, arrested in before Huntingdon magistrates general connexion with the peace protest camp outside the next week, charged with conspiracy to cause criminal

PICK TOPMOST

FRUIT WITH EASE

They will be the first anti-damage.

John Wayne film for for Education and Science.

union's deputy general

class of 84 loses his job Students at four colleges of Mr Dennis Rundle, the man further education will watch feature films as part of their at the centre of the Cathy Pelly drowning mystery, has been dismissed as caretaker Totnes Primary School studies in the new term for Britain's first A-level course in Primary School in Classics such as Citizen Kane and The Searchers, starring John Wayne, are included in the syllabus. It will also involve subjects on the workings of the film industry sion on full pay since the nude body of Cathy Pelly, aged 16, was found in the grounds of Dartington Hall School eight; and the Hollywood star system. Theoretical studies and examination of the way racial groups and women are porweeks ago.

The day after she was found: trayed in the cinema will also he went to the police to give evidence about how he had come under the spotlight in the two-year course to be held on been teaching the girl kung fu on the banks of Folly Pool on two nights a week with places for about eighteen students.
The studies will be at

The use of conspiracy charges

Liberties, has suggested that similar charges could be made against anyone using public secretary of the Council of Civil

PADDED FINGERS

the is causing alarm within the Hounslow Borough College, West London, Loughton Col-lege of Further Education. police for three days, but no Essex, South Cheshire College, charges were brought. An inquest last week recorded an Crewe, and the Swansea College of Further Education. open verdict on the girl. Conspiracy charges after peace protest House aides have said MI Resigna does have a plan, but he will not discuss to do so Would

American air base at Alconbury. disarmament movement and

Cambridgeshire, are to appear outside. Mr Larry Gostin.

nuclear protesters to face demonstrations to vent their conspiracy charges for more grievances. He said: "The use of than 20 years. They are being conspiracy charges would pre-charged separately, and the sent a grave risk to the substance of the charges has not peace movement and other

Sock choked prisoner to death

A prisoner choked himself to The arbitration meeting was death by eating a sock in finally held two weeks ago and Winchester Prison while a fellow inmate watched, an inquest jury was told yesterday. Geoffrey Southwell, aged 50, its decision is expected to be announced next week. The arbitrators will report to Sir of Bishop's Road, King's Lynn, Keith Joseph, Secretary of State Norfolk, was serving a six months' sentence for fraud and Mr Doug McAvoy, the motoring offences when the incident happened on July 22, retary, rejected suggestions that the action was petty, as it was bound to be called off as soon as this year.

> the bed and that one of his socks was missing.

reported the incident to Prisoner Officer Derek Stuart, who told the inquest: "I went to his cell and discovered him lying dead on his bed. Another officer and I tried to resuscitate him but it was too late. The sock from his right foot was missing and there were half-chewed and wet, torn-up letters bearing teeth marks lying nearby."

Dr Robin libert, a Home Office pathologist, said death was caused by choking on a

Mr John Whitelaw, senior

woollen sock.

The inquest at Winchester was told that on the morning of his death, John Harris, a fellow inmate, was cleaning the corridor when he heard strange noises coming from Mr Southwell's locked cell. As he looked in he noticed him shaking on

In a statement read to the court he said: "It was common for people to feign illness to get attention. I thought that was

Twenty minutes later he medical officer at Winchester Prison, said that Mr Southwell was a known duferer of epilepsy. He said "I think he put the sock into his mouth during a trance-like fit, mista-king it for food and then inhaled it. There was no indication that he was a suicide The jury returned a verdict of sweeping nature. They are so ambiguous that they could cover the actions of peaceable demonstrators where there was no threat to public order or any established on January 15, the anniversary of the birth of Dr

Martin Luther King, the US civil rights leader, with the blessing of the Rt Rev Gordon

Roc, Bishop of Huntingdon,

The campers were evicted by police the next day, and subsequent attempts to reestablish the camp met similar fates. The base is the home of both FI-11 fighter bombers and reconnaissance aircraft, including one of the sevret Lockhead SR-71 Blackbird spy planes. It will be the control base for the 64 cruise missiles planned to be sited at RAF Molesworth, a few

The "Alconbury nine" who face conspiracy charges include six people who were arrested at the camp in June. Another three were arrested at later dates. One was arrested when she left

Holloway prison after serving a prison sentence for non-payment of a fine imposed in connexion with a previous miles from Alconbury.

The Alconbury camp was

Mondale in bold budget challenge to Reagan

Mr Walter Mondale has taken a decision, unprecedented in contemporary American politics, to release a detailed. four-year budget programme outlining the domestic and foreign policy priorities he would tackle if elected presi-

The high-risk campaign stralegy was adopted by Mr Mondale after weeks of closeddoor sessions with advisers who urged the Democratic challenger to take a bold step to channel the campaign debate back to issues and away from

Public opinion polls have indicated the Mr Mondale has a chance of closing the gap in the presidential race, which officially gets under way on Monday, Labour Dayu, if he can force President Reagan to debate the issues rather than campaign on his abilities as a

This was the main reason Mr Mondale decided to release, over thenext few weks, a detailed outline of programmes he will pursue to raise taxes and cut defence and domestic projects over the next four years. Democratic advisers disclosed in interviews with The Times. The aim of the campaign strategy was to force President Reagan on the defensive by pressing him publicly to respond to Mr Mondale's programme for reducing record budget deficits with specific priorities of his own.

"Either President Reagan has a plan which he will not disclose or he doesn't have one, which is even more disturbing", an adviser to Mr Mondale said.

Recent public opinion polls taken by both political parties have shown unusually strong voter concern, particularly among businessmen in town across America, over the poten tially crippling effects of budget deficits projected at up to $263bn (£200bn) by the 1989

It was in response to this concerns that Mr Mondale took the politically bold step of announcing in his acceptance speech at the Democratic convention last month that he would raise taxes to reduce the

He attempted to project himself as a strong leader who would take politically difficult steps when necessary. He accused President Reagan of hiding his own intentions. saying he had a secret, which he would not disclose, plan to raise

Initially, the Mondale strategy appeared to work. Me Reagan was forced to respond. He began by stating unequivocally he would not raise taxes, but later, under questioning on the campaign trail and response to pressure from Wall Street critics, he indicated he would raise them only as a last resort The tax issue got lost however, in the furore which what he was doing as I watched developed later over the personal finances and tax repayment records of Ms Geraldine

Ferraro, Mr Mondale's running Over the next few weeks when the campaign gets under way in earnest, the Democrats hope to take the initiative again by releasing the budget pro-gramme and hammering away at President Reagan's record on specific programmes, such as medical benefits for the elderly.

and tuition benefits for the middle class, where he is thought to be vulnerable.

Mr Mondale will launch his first official joint campaign schedule with Ms Ferraro on ing the appearance in Ms Ferraro's home state, the Democrats will make an ap-pearance in Minnesota, Mr Mondale's home state, and then on to California, a crucial state in deciding election outcomes. From the beginning, Mr

Reagan's strategy has been to avoid discussion of specific ways he would reduce the record budget deficit. White House aides have said Mr. election, because to do so would be "to throw up politically-tough issues for the other side to shoot down", in the words of Mr David Stockman, Mr Reagan's budget adviser. The disclosures of Mr Mon-dale's plans followed the announcement by the 1.9 million-member teamsters union that it would endorse the candidacy of Mr Reagan, thus becoming the first trade union to move to the Republican side.

Peres and Shamir may share job

Mr Shimon Peres, the Prime Minister designate, and Mr Yitzhak Shamir, the outgoing Prime Minister, yesterday discussed a draft agreement under which each would head the Government for two years and one month until the next parliamentary elections in

In separate interviews after their meeting in Jerusalem, the leaders said the proposal was part of a package that could not yet be wrapped up because of differences about the distri-bution of portfolios and some unsettled points on the government programme.

They will meet again tomorrow evening after consulting their associates. Whatever agreement they reach will have to be ratified by the central committee of their respective

It was learnt that Mr Shamir and Mr Peres have been

Ustinov and Gorbachov

hold the fort

From Richard Owen

Moscow

Chernenko's illness continuing to circulate in Moscow, power in the Kremlin appears to be in the hands of Marshal Dmitr

Ustinov and Mr Mikhail Gosbachov, in a temporary alliance of the old and new backed by Mr Andrei Gromyko, aged 75, the Foreign Minister. But Mr Gorbachov. aged 53, is the most senior Central Committee secretary after the absent

Mr Chernenko. Mr Gorbachov.

as the Kremlin number two, is reported to be chairing Polit-buro meetings while Mr Chernenko is away. Marshal Ustinov's visit to Czechoslovakia this week was given unusually lengthy and laudatory treatment by Soviet television. The Defence Minister was seen off and met on

Observers point to four · Accounts of the last two weekly Politburo sessions have begun with an invocation of Mr

Chemenko's name, even though he was clearly not present.

Pravda yesterday said Thurs-day's session had "discussed and approved Konstantin Cher-nenko's proposals" on the building industry. Soviet officials insist this shows that Mr Chernenko is in charge, but it is seen by diplomats as an attempt to reassure both the Soviet public and foreign

• In a practice reminiscent of Mr Andropov's illness, the press has published Mr Chernenko's replies to outdated message from abroad. The most striking was a reply to a conference in Mancherster on nuclear free

Mancherster on nuclear free zoned, which was wrongly addressed to the mayor, indicat ing that it had been concocted in haste, without the Kremlin's

Mr Chemenko did not appear for the opening of the Friendship '84 Games.

He has received no visitors

since July 12, when he saw Sedor Javier de Cuéllar, the United Nations Secretary-

General, before going to the usual attention to detail.

return by Mr Gorbachov.

puzzling developments:

Marshal Ustinov, aged 75, is generations in the Politburo.

With rumours of President

talking in terms of a Cabinet in which each party would have 12 seats but would be entitled to assign part of its quota to associate parties. Labour is committed to giving a place to Mr Ezer Weizman of Yahad, and Likud is committed to several religious groups.

Mr Peres, negotiating under mandate from President Herzog, strongly opposed rotating the premiership but softened his stand when it became clear that smaller parties in the splintered Parliament had lined up in a way that made it impossible for Likud or Labour to form a narrow-based coalition. The only options left were new elections or a broad coalition of national unity.

Mr Haim Ramon, a Labour backbencher, said yesterday he was organizing opposition in the Central Committee to the rotation agreement. Leaders of the left-wing Mapam party.

In the rival camp, the right-wing Techiya Party talked of going into opposition because they feared that Jewish settle-ments in the West Bank would be obstructed

Likud politicians demanded that if Mr Peres claims first shot at the premiership, Likud should be compensated with the defence and foreign affairs portfolios. Under the Peres proposal, Mr Yitzhak Rabin of Labour would be the Defence Minister and Mr Shamir would which occupies six of the 44 Labour Alignment seats in Parliament, said after bearing a report from Mr Peres that they would recommend breaking up the Alignment if the with the plan 25 presented.

Other Likud leaders, includ-

be Foreign Minister.

ing Mr Ariel Sharon, argued that Mr Samir should be Prime Minister for the first two years.

Crocker promotes Namibia ceasefire

From Michael Hornsby, Johannesburg

Dr Chester Crocker, the talks in Pretoria yesterday with Mr Pik Botha, the South African Foreign Minister, on the situation in Namibia and southern Africa. the talks were understood to cal have centred on a possible southern Angola by Pretoria and Luanda to Namibia. South Africa is involved in a war in Namibia against Swapo,

the organization fighting for the territory's independence.
Dr Crocker flew to South Africa from the Cape Verde Islands, which were the venue for an inconclusive meeting last July between the South African administratory general in Namibia, Dr Willie van Nie-kerk and Mr Sam Nujoma, the Swapo president.

Dr Crocker, who is due to leave South Africa today, is expected to visit Zambia and progress on Afghanistan From Our Correspondent The United Nations special representative for Afghanistan, Señor Diego Cordovez, said yesterday that the "proximity talks" – Afghan and Pakistani Foreign Ministers in separate rooms at the Palis des Nations with him shuttling between them - have made progress. Tha assessment, he emphazied was not his, but that given him, separately, by the two ministers. Senor Cordovez said they were both eager to reach the fourth round, which is expected to take place in February next year. This would be the occasion for "concrete discussions" on the two countries reactions to drafts he submitted this week. The Iranians are also being kept in the picture.

The drafts covered all main basis of UN resolutions, includ-ing withdrawal of Soviet troops political factions who fought for

Meanwhile, Mr P. W. Botha, American Assistant Secretary of the South African Prime Minister, said last night that the Nkomati Accord with Mozambique and a similar security agreement with Swaziland had "opened the door towards a new order of cooperation and No statement was issued, but development in southern Afri-"I sincerely hope that those formula for extending the states in the region who still lations with South Africa will soon realize that they have chosen an impossible path and that if they continue to give preference to a hostile and conflictual relationship their peoples are the ones who stand to suffer most in the end." The Prime Minister, who was addressing a banquet in Johannesburg, given by the South African Institute of International Affairs, was taken to be referring to Botswana, Lesotho and Zimbabwe, all of which have so far resisted pressure from Pretoria to sign formal security agreements. Democracy

UN reports day marred by violence Dhaka (AFP) - Fifty people

ing the government-sponsored day throughout Bangladesh, newspapers and police re-The demonstrations were called to show that President

Ershad and the government-backed Janadol party had wide public support, observers said. The railies were also in response to a half-day strike organized by the country's two main political alliances on Monday, they said.

A Beugali daily, Dainik Bangla, said 50 people were injured and 10 arrested in clashes between Janadol workers and opposition supporters in Sylhet in the North-Police fired rubber bullets were injured in clashes markocracy day" rallies yester-

EEC draws up blacklist of terrorists the London economic summit expected that Britain will be By Anthony Bevins Political Correspondent setting out proposals for a joint

EEC Foreign Ministers have agreed to create an anti-terrorist blacklist to bar people with suspected terrorist links from all 10 member states.

Sir Geoffrey Howe, Foreign to combat the spread of state."

approach in a number of areas. We had a useful discussion in Brussels on 23 July and further work is now under way."

But he then added: "As an example of the kind of measure we are considering, we have Secretary, says in a Commons agreed that anyone expelled memorandum published yester- from one of our countries on day: "I am glad to say that there the grounds of association with is a growing determination terrorism should not be within the Ten to work together accepted into any other member terrorism.

"We have put forward a much further than the vague discussion paper to our partners declaration of intent issued after

After the Libyan People's lard, Bureau shooting on April 17,

Mrs Thatcher persuaded her summit colleagues to consider further the need for "consultation and as far as possible cooperation over the expulsion from their countries of known terrorists, including persons of diplomatic status involved in terrorism". Further work on the EEC greement is expected to be done in Brussels next week, when officials meet again to detention and deportation or consider British proposals. It is crs against Libyan nationals

represented by Sir Julian Bul-Mr Leon Brittan, Home

Secretary, told the Commons on April 25, in a statement on the shooting of WPC Yvonne Fletcher. I am looking carefully at any evidence that the presence of any individual here is against the national interest, and I am not hesitating to use my power of removal where it is. Two Libyans have been deported since the shooting." He signed a further six detention and deportation ord-

24 missing as jumbo burns on runway

Low-key

mark 1

anniver

Solidari

libya backs

links with

Morocco

Yaounde (Reuter) - Twenty-four people on an aircraft which caught fire at Cameroon's Douals airport on Thursday were still unaccounted for last night Yaounde Radio said, In the latest of a series of conflicting reports on the number of dead and injured the radio said 90 of the 116 people on board were treated fur injuries in three Douala hospitals. Earlier it said 100 people died, though later revising this to two people. The plane, a Cameroon Airlines Boeing 737, caught fire while taxiing to the runway of Douala airport on its way to Yaounde. Police spoke of explosions. An appeal went out to passengers who escaped to present themselves to a com-mission of inquiry.

Trek to Pole called stupid

Christchurch (AP) - A plan by two Englishmen, Roben Se and Roger Mear, to walk 870 miles to the South Pole has Thomson, director of the Antarctic division of New Zealand's Department of Scientific and Industrial Research as "bloody stupid" and outdated These adventure-seeking people must realize the days for this sort of adventure are over. Two expeditions did it nearly three-quarters of a century ago

Lawyer holds up power switch-on

Berlin (Reuter) - A West Berlin lawyer, Herr Rainer Geulen, said he has won a coun injunction to stop the controversial Buschhaus coal-fired power station from going on stream next Monday. The court in Brunswick upheld his plea that health reasons overrode economic interests, be said. The Lower Saxony state government, claiming it faced huge financial penalties if it withheld a go-ahead, is to appeal.

Diplomat jailed

Frankfurt (Reuter) - A Zambian diplomat, Zulu Banda Mwenyeamanzi, aged 46, Second Secretary at the Zambian Embassy in Delhi, was seatenced to 14 years imprison-ment for smuggling 27th of heroin into West Germany. He could not claim diplomatic immunity since he was soit accredited in West Germany, where the offence was commi

Soares back

Maputo (AP) - Pertugal's Prime Minister Senhor Mark Soares arrived for a four-day official visit to Mozambique, his first since the former Portoguese colony won independence nine years ago.

Sex success

Stanford (AFP) - A centuries old African "love potion", the chemical yohimbine found in tree bark, that makes rats sexcrazy is being tested on humans, researchers at Stanford University in California report.

20 to (1777)

SELECT PROPERTY.

Sagner 1

the boards

Epolitics

Minuth Line

dah andre

John difference of the second of the second ale the inderes

A Morre

אניונבול א

Mearagua Ind

onsiders amn

Martina Hope.

4 ...

· fek

Tele !

16.

Lar

411,

Hon hijacker

man, Liang Weijiang, aged 28, who forced a Peking-bound British Airways airliner with 355 people to Taipei last March received an 18-month sus pended sentence when the Taipei District Court decided his actions were motivated by his hatred of communism. 'Plotters' freed

Dallas (Reuter) - Four

Iranians, four Jordanians and a

Taipei (AP) - A Hongkong

Syrian, all University students. who were arrested last week suspected of plotting an attack against the Republican Party convention have been cleared of terrorist suspicion and released police said. Red handed New York (AP) - A youth who lost a fingerip while allegedly trying to snatch a woman's gold chain though a bus window was arrested when he sought hospital treatment at the moment police were hand ing in the severed digit. It-was immediately reattached:

community in the UK.

The Laterness Embasey withtes to armounce that on the cocasion of the death of ME Streich Pleme Jenned, letter of ME Streich Pleme Jenned, letter of ME President of the Laterness Republic, Minister of Health, Communications and Social Attains, a book of condolence will be open at the Embassy, 21 Korralogon Pulace Gerdens, VS on Monday 3rd September, and Tuesday, 4th September 1964, from 10am unit 3pm.

ATURN AND PROCESS OF THE PROPERTY OF DATE OF THE PROPERTY OF T ATTRACTA PRODUCTS LTD. (Dept TTF36) ORDER NOW-PICK PERFECT FRUIT!

المكذا من الاعل

Low-key rallies mark fourth anniversary of Solidarity birth

"So-li-dar-nosc". jostling, joking, joining arms and waving carnations, Mr Lech Walesa and more than a thousand Solidarity demon-strators lumbled out of the gates. of the Gdansk shipyards yesterday to mark the fourth birthday of the outlawed union.

Police stood by, sardined into personnel carriers and vans, but did not intervene in Gdansk, Warsaw or any of the other expected frouble spots.

Mr Walesa, the Nobel Peace laureate, was obviously determined to avoid any head-on mined to avoid any head-on clash with the authorities. After hushing the shouting supporters around the three towering concrete-and-steel crosses near the gates of the Lenin shipyard. he decided not to deliver a prepared speech on the Gdansk

17.10

11676

in all

Instead he said simply: "We will meet again on December 16" - the anniversary of the shooting of workers on the Baltic coast in 1970. The Gdansk agreement, signed by Mr Walesa and the Polish authorities on August 31,1981, ended a series of strikes and, by extracting guarantees of better conditions for all Poles, brought Solidarity into life.

Warsaw leaflets were distributed along busy shopping streets calling for the release of Bogdan Lis. the underground leader excluded from last month's

In Wroclow and Nowa Huta there were calls for protest marches late in the evening. Most trouble was expected after church services to be held in towns and cities throughout Poland in memory of Soli-

Mr Walesa was due to attend an evening mass at the shippard church of St Brigid's, accompanied by other Solidarity leaders who have travelled to Goansk. In Nova Huta, the volatile new town near Cracow, Solidarity was a least travelle of the solidarity least travelle o Solidarity urged church congregations to lay flowers at a spot where a demonstrator was shot almost two years ago.

The police, though discreet in Gdansk, were deployed in large numbers in Warsaw, several columns of riot police, backed up by huge, clumsy water-can-non vehicles, were parked in side streets, awaiting nightime

At the steel works of Huta Warszawa, word was passed among workers that Solidarity During the day, Solidarity sympathizers should gather at a rotests were low-key. In church in the old-town area.

British journalist missing in Lebanon

From Robert Fisk Beirnt

Amid the collapse of security in Beirut and the artillery duels in the mountains above the city, another journalist - a Briton, working for Reuters - has gone missing after setting off to the scene of an Israeli air raid in the Bekaa valley in eastern Leba-

Mr Ionathan Wright, from Oxford, left Beirut early on Wednesday to visit the Palestinian guerrilla base bombed by Israeli jets the previous day, driving his own car over the mountains to the Bekaa. He has not been seen since.

According to Mr Christopher Inwood, Renters office manager in Beirut, the news agency had made contact with Palestinian officers and Lebanese authorities in the Chtaura area, where the raids occured. But it is still unclear whether Mr Wright disappeared in Syrian-occupied Lenbanon or in the Christian-held territory west of the mountains, through which he probably passed on his way to the Bekaa.

A correspondent for the American television company, Cable News Network, who was based in Beirut, went missing in the city last March and has not been seen since. Mr Wright unlike his CNN colleague spoke fluent Arabic and knew the Bekaa area well.

In West Beirut, meanwhile, hundreds of Shia Muslim Gunmen paraded through the

Beirut rally: Amal leader Nabih Berri with Shia girls commemorating Imam Moussa Sadr.

strects with automatic weapons and rocket-propelled grenades in protest at the disappearance six years ago of the spiritual leader, Imam Moussa Sadr. Convoys of lorries and cars. carrying anti-aircraft guns, drove along the sea-front Corniche, their bonnets plas-tered with coloured portraits of the missing prelate, who was almost certainly murdered by Colonel Gaddafi's Libya Of more importance in the long term were the promises made by Shia Muslim leaders in Beirut to support Lebanese guerrillas fighting Israel's occupation army in the south of

Mr Nabih Berri, leader the Amal militia and Minister of Justice in the Lebanese Cabinet, said his ministry would give support to the movement resisting the Israelis and would furnish financial assistance to the families of men held at the Israeli prison camp at Ansar.

UN fails to get ban on chemical weapons

From Alan McGregor

Geneva The UN Disarmament Conference concluded this year's session yesterday without any appreciable progress towards its priority of agreeing a text for a new convention to ban chemical weapons.

The same applied to its efforts for achieving a comprehensive prohibition of underground nuclear tests, which are likely to continue as long as the superpowers regard deterrence as their main defence. It became more apparent than ever during the session that reducing their nuclear arsenals is the key to disarma-ment negotiations in whatever

High hopes were pinned on prospects for a chemical wea-pons treaty but to safeguard against clandestine violation, verification being particularly difficult when constituents of the weapons are manufactured for legitimate industrial uses. An American proposal for inspection of production facilities by "open invitation" was rejected by the Soviet Union, which went no further than offering on-site inspection for verifying destruction of existing stockpiles.

This was described by the US delegate, Mr Louis Fields, as offering a ray of hope. WASHINGTON: Four men were charged here yesterday with illegally exporting 400,000 suits to Iran (Reuter reports).

Discovery launches second satellite

From Mohsin Ali Washington

Discovery's crew, delighted over its success on the first day, launched a second communi-cations satellite yesterday, a Nasa spokesman said.

The sattellite was apparently laced in its preliminary orbit. The crew is due to deploy the third and last satellite today.

The second sattelite, the Syncom 4, will be leased to the US Defence Department for military communications, the spokesman said.

The crew members, includ-ing Judith Resnik, the second American woman in space, capped the first day of their six-day flight with a launch of the first satellite, owned by Satellite Business Systems Thursday's success delighted the crew and ground control because similar rockets, known as Payload Assist Modules, misfired on a mission in February, sending two salites into useless orbits.

The satellite launched yesterday is not equipped with a of booster, but the satellite to be deployed today has a module and belongs to American Telephone and Telegraph

The crew will extendable solar-power panel for future space stations and will operate an experimental medicine-making machine. Discovery is due to land at Edwards Air Force Base in California on Wednesday.

Libya backs | Hernu seeks links with Morocco

Tripoli (Reuter) - Libya's General People's Congress yes-terday unanimously approved a federation agreement between Libya and Morocco signed last month.

The 1,347-member congress met in special session as Moroccans began voting in a referendum also expected to give sweeping support for the plan, signed on August 13 by King Hassan of Morocco and the Libyan leader, Colonel

The congress secretariat is expected to ratify the federation agreement formally today after receiving the unanimous vote in favour by its members, who represent 186 regional and 25 iocal people's congresses.

with the fifteenth anniversary of the revolution which overthrew the Libyan monarchy and brought Colonel Gaddefi to power in a military coup.

Seven million Moroccans are eligible to vote and a steady flow went to the 25,000 polling stations, according to reports

The agreement to establish an "Arab African Federation" 'signed in the Moroccan border town of Oujda, is the latest step in Colonel Gaddafi's attempts to achieve his dream of Arab

In 1980, Syria and Libya agreed to form a union which has never been realized because of ideological differences and geographical distance. Colonel Gaddafi has also sought unions with Egypt, now a strong critic of his policies, and Tunisia. Although Libya and Morocco are 2,000 miles apart, diplomats described the proposed alliance as a marriage of convenience with advantages for both sides.

Morocco could expect a halt to Libyan arms supplies to Polisario Front guerrillas fighting for the independence of the former Spanish Sahara from Rabat.

For Libya, the union neutralizes Morocco in Chad, where Colonel Gaddafi is backing the government of President His-sene Habré.

solution in Chad

From Diana Geddes

M Charles Hernu, the French Defence Minister, flies to Chad today to review the 3,300 French troops stationed there and to hold talks with ministers in an attempt to break the deadlock in the civil war between the Libyan-backed rebels in the north and the French-supported government forces in the south.

France feels it has become bogged down in the Chadian conflict which seems no nearer a settlement than when French troops moved in just over a year ago. France wants to get out as quickly as possible but insists that it must be an "honourable exit" - and that means seeing the Libyan forces go first, or at

While it is true that the French presence, which is costing about £250,000 a day, has stemmed the Libyan incursion into the country and has brought the fighting to a virtual halt, it has been achieved only at the cost of a de facto division of the country along the so-called "red line" of the sixteenth parallel.

All attempts to get the warring factions round a table for a peace conference have failed. The talks in Brazzaville in the Congo under the auspices of the Organization of African Unity are still blocked by the refusal of the two antagonists, Mr Goukouni Oveddel and President Hissène Habré, to accept each other's terms.

Mr Goukouni, the main rebel leader in the north and former President, refuses to meet Mr Habré

Mr Habré, who seized power from Mr Gonkouni two years ago, refuses to meet Mr Gonkouni

There have been signs recently that Libya would itself like to get out of Chad. The Elysée palace was still refusing to say yesterday where President Mitterrand was or what be was doing. The President's private time was his own, the Palace insisted. M Mitterrand has no public official engagements until next Wednesday.

It is thought that Mitterrand may have flown back yesterday to Morocco for further talks with King Hassan on the implications of the treaty of union" between Morocco and Libya for the North African region in general and the Chadian conflict in

Nicaragua Indian leader considers amnesty offer

From Martha Honey,-San José, Costa Rica

is considering accepting the force against left-wing gaeril-Nicaraguan Government's offer las. The AC 47's three rapid-"to grant him an ampesty and allow him to return home. It is the first such offer made to a leader of any of the rebel along Nicaragua's Atlantic today to discuss the amnesty Senor Rivera. with Miskito Indian elders and A close a other refugees. "In principal I am agreed to go back," he said.

US officials in San Salvador The Miskito Indian leader, Senor Brooklyn Rivera, says he firepower of San Salvador's air fire guns, each capable of 6,000 rounds a minute, can put a bullett in every square inch of a football field.

military groups.
Señor Rivera, leader of the autonomy for the Atlantic coast.
The coast which is fighting the coast of the coast which is fighting the coast of the Sandinista leader, Señor Daniel Ortega, made public the offer to

MON 10-8 | THUR 10-6 TUES 10-6 | (Scotland

(Scotland Thur 10-8)

FRt 10-8

UNTIL8

open Sunday

Schor Rivera.

A close associate of the guerrilla commander, Senor Eden Pastora, said he had also But the Sandinistas must first recently received an amnesty accept four preconditions, in-cluding recognition of Misura-resentatives came and privatley sata as the legitimate representative of the indigenous people, thinking very carefully about press freedom, release of political prisoners and negotiations official, who did not wish to be over control of the land and named, said.

BEDROOM, BEDS, LOUNGE

Hew look Superstores How Open o

AND DINING ROOM SALE.

IF WITHIN 28 DAYS YOU

NATIONALLY ADVERTISED

FOR LESS BY

ANOTHER RETAILER

Self Drive Van Hire

Only c3 Spile Rich

WITH MEI CREDIT CARE

Black discontent casts shadow over Botha foray into racial reform

replace the British-blessed Act in clashes with police on of Union of 1910 with a new Thursday near Johannesburg. constitution which strongly bringing to six the number of reinforces an already powerful deaths in unrest in townships in executive and, for the first time, recent weeks. offers non-whites some direct say in government.

uncharted terrain, the Govern-ment of Mr W. P. Botha can influence that the PFP was ever count on the overwhelming able to do alone. backing of the country's The racially segregated struc-4,600,000 whites, who ex-pressed their view in a refer-diagram), and the control which

and the current wave of protest dent's Council, means the m black schools and univer-Government will always get its sities show he has only minimal way if it wants. support from the $70,000 in practice, however, if support from the $70,000 In practice, however, if Indians, 2,700,00 mixed-blood Pretoria cares at all about the coloureds and 23,000,000 Africaredibility of its own instipast and neither will it now, The new Parliament may be an unrepresentative sham in many respects. But it will change the rules of the political game in ways not at all easy to predict.

For the first time government policy will be the product of at least a measure of inter-racial bargaining. It seems reasonable

At least three black youths Johannesburg At least three black youths
On Monday South Africa will were shot dead and 18 injured

As it sets out on this Party (PFP), will be able to the majority party in the white But last month's elections to chamber have over the office of the new tri-racial Parliament, the Presidency and the Presi-

tutional creation, particularly in Lack of popular support has the eyes of those Western never deterred Pretoria in the governments which have not condemned it outright, it will have to take some account of the wishes of the Indian and Coloured chambers.

If Mr Botha is serious about reform the new structure could help him circumvent the recalcitrants in his own party and the dichards in the opposition Conservative Party (CP), and to suppose that the 85 Coloured enable him to begin dismantling and 45 Indian MPs together the social and economic aspects white political control.

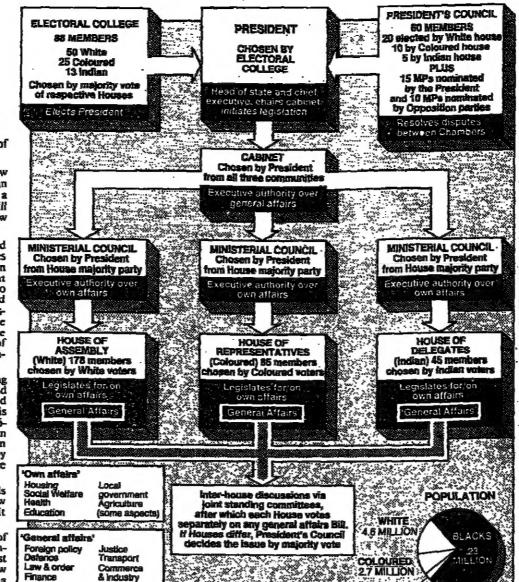

On Wednesday the new Parliament will assemble as an Electoral College and it is a foreign conclusion that it will choose Mr Botha as the new

Most media attention abroad has focussed on the intricacies of the Parliament. Less has been written about the very great powers of the President who will be head of state and government, will initiate legislation and, together with the President's Council, have the deciding say in the event of deadlock between the Parliament's three chambers.

This raises the intriguing possibility that Mr Botha could choose to side with Indian and coloured chambers against his own party in the white chamber. Some optimists envisage an era of enlightened despotism similar to that exercised by General De Gaulle in France during the Algerian crisis.

More Indians and Coloureds could be attracted to the new constitution over time, but it offers nothing to Africans.

It is the looming shadow of these frustrated and discontented black millions that must ensure that Mr Botha's "new dispensation" can only be a very temporary phase in South Africa's constitutional history.

Seoul resumes its Moscow overtures on KAL anniversary

the first official visit of a and potentially aggressive Korean head of state. Yester-Korean head of state. Tester Sung.

day, it became clear that he will Sung.

There is no indication of invite the Soviet Ambassador. Mr Vladimir Pavlov, to a diplomatic reception at the Akasaka Palace guest house.

Before the destruction of flight 007, South Korea had been trying to strengthen its ties with Moscow although the country - rigidly anti-communist - has no diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union.

Commemoration of the KAL victims is being marked this weekend over the spot where the airliner is thought to have sone down, but Realpolitik has overtaken the need to continue ordinary people of both coun-punishment of the Soviet tries. Opinion polls released

Union.
President Chun is also said to be inviting the Chinese Am-bassador in Tokyo, Mr Song Zhiguang, for what will be an historic meeting. The Chinese and South Koreans have no diplomatic relations and there was no government-level con- the Japanese as diligent; 58 per tact between the two countries cent of the Koreans surveyed in until six Chinese hijacked a South Korea said they had eo to Taiwan.

President Chun is keen to the poll takers. expand his so-called northern policy by making contact with bers of the families of the communist countries, partly victums from flight KAL 007 through a desire to make more gathered on a rainswept hill at friends to ensure the success of Cape Soya, Japan's most north-the 1988 Olympic Games in em point, yesterday to offer Seoul, but also to try to influence North Korea to take a

A year after KAL flight 007 North Korea maintains a A year after KAL fight 007 was shot down into the Sea of position independent of both was shot down into the Sea of Moscow and Peking but China Japan killing 269 people. Moscow and Peking but China President Chun Doo Hwan of and the Soviet Union are South Korea is seeking new virtually the only countries with contacts with the Soviet Union. He is due here next week for ence to bear on the reclusive > whether either or both the Soviet and Chinese diplomats will accept President Chun's invitation, but the President's Japanese hosts hope that the diplomatic opportunities the visit presents will help ease tension on the Korean penin. sula and boost the confidence of the Chun Government.

The Korean and Japanese Governments hope that President Chun's visit will help to overcome some of the mutual hatred and suspicion among the vesterday in Japan suggest the task will be a long one.

Of the Koreans surveyed, 52 per cent said they thought the Japanese were sly and 28 per cent thought they were malicious; 39 per cent felt they were polite and 33 per cent saw

The six were held until earlier word to describe the Koreans, this month and then released to indicating that the Korean prayers and vow to continue the investigation into the attack on the airliner (AP reports).

Zimbabwe fears Pretoria is backing rebels again

From Jan Raath, Harare

is concerned that recent evi-reports that Zimbabwe had dence of guerrilla activities in allowed a South African milithe Matabeleland province may tary convoy to travel from the indicate a resumption of South African backing for guerrillas.

Lary convoy to travel from the Bettbridge border through Zimbabwe to the Forbes border gagwa, the Minister of State for into Mozambique. The vehicles Security, said that two weeks had contained only tents, he said. guerrilla, one of a group of 40, with weapons and uniform of guerrilla activity all over the recent South African origin.

der Westhuizen. Chief of Staff drawn for retraining operations. (Information) in the South under the supervision of the African defence forces, and British military advisory transmajor General Sheba Gava, ing team, while the Presidential Chief of Staff of the Zimbabwe Guard, a unit of roughly brigade National Army.

Munangagwa said General van initially trained by North der Westhuizen had travelled to Korean instructors, and have Harare as a civilian for the been named as being responmeeting. Previous meetings had sible for killings and assaults on been between brigadiers of the civilians. two forces, and have taken place However, Mr Munangagwa African general assured his in the Shashi communal area on Zimbabwean coounterpart that the Botswana border, and 45 infiltrations of guerrillas from miles from the junction of the South Africa were being discon-borders of South Africa, Bots-tinued, alongside South Africa's wana and Zimbabwe. diplomatic initiatives in The dead guerrilla had been Mozambique and Angola. Mr wearing a new camouflage Munanagwa commented: "One uniform and carrying a weapon answer was no.

The minister said he did not distinct difference in weaponry meet General van der Westhuibetween guerrillas infiltratung zen, but "I knew he was from South Africa, and those around".

The Zimbabwe Government He also confirmed recent In an interview with The post just outside the castern city Times, Mr Emmerson Munan- of Mutare whence it continued

Decision or

Honecker

Since February, the level of The evidence comes after a ably and the curfew in Matameeting in May at the highest belefand South has been lifted.

Sources also said that the Lieutenant General P. W. van Fifth Brigade had been withational Army. strength, was undergoing re-Confirming the meeting. Mr organization. Both units were at Beitbridge, the town on the said he was "disturbed" at the Limpopo River, the common new evidence. The clash between guerrillas and security Sources have said the South forces two weeks ago took place of the things he said was to ask with serial numbers similar to if there had been any infil- those of other captured and trations since February. The killed guerrillas. The Government maintains there is this

Austrian novel gets the chop

From Richard Bassett

Thousands of copies of a novel by one of Austria's bestknown authors were seized last night after an anonymous protest from someone recognizing himself as one of the book's principal characters.

Holzfällen (Woodcutting) by

Thomas Bernhard attempts to chart the decline of the arts in Austria, comparing the country's artists to high-quality wood which is reduced to insignificant pulp by govern-ment bureaucracy and civil service conditions of employ-

The novel suggests that actors and musicians in Austria enjoy a security of tenure available in most countries only to civil servants. The results of this in the book are indifferent standards of performance and a lamentable waste of talent.

I/We wish the annual interest to be Paid to us/myself by warrant

Left in my/our Account

Say the Leeds' and you're smiling

حكدًا من الأجل

Paid into a Leeds Paid-up Share Account

Please tick

Although the names used in the book are fictitious, there are veiled references to Austrian institutions such as the once respected Vienna Bargtheater, which, as many Viennese insist even without the benefit of Herr Bernhard's book, is a mere shadow of its

Regardless of the controversy surrounding the novel's theme, its seizure has fuelled fears in publishing circles that neutral Austria is prepared to adopt the censorship habits of

Indian opposition unites

From Kuldip Nayar Delbi

Eight non-communist parties have agreed in principle to avoid a split in the opposition vote against Mrs Indira Gan-dhi's Congress (I) party in the forthcoming Lok Sabha elec-

The parties which include Janata, Lok Dal and Bhartiva Janaia, are meeting on Wednesday to discuss preparations for a joint list of candidates. Their immediate attention is focused on Andhra Pradesh, where no date for the assembly session has been fixed and where 300 opposition volunteers were detailed yesterday after offering hemselves for arrest. Opposition leaders are holding a protest meeting in Bangalore today to be attended by the dismissed Chief Minis ler, Mr N. T Rama Rao. In Punjab the Governmen and the Akalis are heading for a showdown. Police yesterda surrounded the temple of Shaheedan in Amritsar, the venue for the world Sikh convention called by the five Sikh high priests for tomorrow Delhi, which has banned the meeting has sealed practically all points of entry into the city

• CHILDREN IN JAIL Forty children have been held in a Punjab jail for three months since the army stormed the Golden Temple of Amritsar

Warsaw Pact neighbours the Press Trust of India said (Reuter reports).

Mulroney team in upbeat mood as Canada poll enters last round

Mr Brian Mulroney's aircraft roars off from Ottawa Airport for a day's campaigning in Toronto and the galloping sound of the William Tell Overture fills the cabin, It fits the upbeat mood of his people.

Mr Mulroney does not walk back to talk with reporters. He is not taking any chances since they reported embarrassing remarks he thought were off the record. In these final days of the election, with the polls looking so favourable and with Mr John Turner, the Prime Minister, on the ropes, there is no reason to risk unguarded words.

So he looks over the speech he is to make and Mila, his vivacious wife and an important member of his campaign team, goes back and chats.

Later she is by his side, smiling brightly and proudly as always, when he delivers his speech in his slow, deep voice. He is proud of its velvery listening. He has cultivated it as part of a smoooth, reassuring ol m had

- cut ria

Hil

mage to get him to the top.
At 45, Mr Mulroney is on the edge of achieving the leadership of Canada, an ambition he is aid to have disclosed to a friend when he was 19. His ascent has not been through the usual political ranks. He had held no elective office at all when he became Conservative leader last year. He was elected an MP, for a Nova Scotia constituency, only a year ago. It is significant that in this election he has switched constituencies and is running in Quebec, in the riding which contains his boyhood home of Baie-Comeau Quebec, a key province in federal elections, is a Liberal stronghold. In the last general election Liberals won 74 of the

75 seats. Now there are signs of a Conservative breakthrough. Mr Mulroney is committed to breaking the Liberal grip on Quebec, just as Mr Turner is trying to establish a Liberal bridgehead by standing in the Tory heartland in Vancouver.

The difference is that Mr Turner is doing badly, while Mr Mulroney looks likely to win.

Mr Muironey: Smooth image on way to top.

Mr Mulroney likes to talk or his relatively humble smalltown origins as an electrician's son. He became a Tory as a youth, almost an eccentric thing to do in rural Quebec, and while pursuing a career as a lawyer, worked as a party organizer and fund raiser, steadily building a political

When he failed to win the leadership in 1976 he went into

He has always been smart, confident, smooth and a sharp dresser. Indeed one of his image-advisers has warned him about appearing too smooth. He has developed a broad appeal by refusing to be drawn on detail, making appropriate right-wing noises, being strongly pro-business. He has united Conservatives who were for many years a divided minority party. As a bilingual Quebecker, he has the sort of knowledge of French Canada that many language rights, and sold this to the Tories, going a long way to healing destructive French-English suspicions in the party.

He has stood firm on French

Conservatives lack.

THE ARTS

Theatre

Calliper Bloomsbury

James MacDonald's new play Calliper has a compelling situation, the plight of the handicapped, as its springboard and a powerful issue, of how much physical disability can excuse, which should lift it into the realms of a Whose Life Is It Anyway? Sadly, it rarely gets off the ground the ground.

The central character has the all too apt name of Edge. He chases against everyone, the samaritans as much as the hostile. If we are to believe him an operation has left him with the calliper of the title, no job and a massive chip on his shoulder. Actually, he has defrauded the insurance com-pany for which he worked, and the disablement now saves him from judicial retribution.

His menacing brutish and tactitum character rebuffs any possibility of our sympathy. The early scenes of part-intolerance, part-condescension, in the attitudes of others go no way to explain his outlook on the world. That he manages to go on conning his way through suggests he should have a disarming charisma. As por-trayed by John Hilton he is mostly unlovely and unlikable. On a bare stage, backed only by a multiplicity of door frames, with the actors sitting upstage in quasi-Brechtian fashion, we follow his progress from DHSS waiting room, through various sponging relationships to his final exposure by a television journalist. The only character remotely compassionate is the severely disabled and pitifully duped Alan. In this part. Stephen Tredre gives the most compelling and appealing performance of the evening. For the most part the dialogue is desultory, the scenes follow one another with leaden regularity and the story - only towards the end does it become sufficiently organic to be deemed a plot – is a tawdry one. It is not helped by this production from past and present students of Exeter which Drama Department, which from some severe directorial errors, such as actors unaccountably breaking the imagined bounds to address the odd few lines to the audience. Such a serious and sensitive theme deserves better treat-

Frank Grimes' engaging Christy, with Carolyn Pickles as the tousled country beauty

Starless, but sparkling brightly

The Playboy of the Western World

Riverside

You would naturally hope for much from a United British Artists production directed by Lindsay Anderson and bringing good reports from Oxford and Edinburgh; but I never expected the like of this. The cast may be starless by conventional standards; Di conventional standards; Di So Frank Grimes' Christy, Seymour, whose costumes and rough-walled shebeen almost speak Synge's accents by themselves, is a rising star rather village with so few possibilities; than a household name. Only only some decent looks and a Beecroft has lit it so warmly and thoughtfully, is a celebrity from Royal Court days; and there is Mr Anderson himself as director. That is the key, of course

Synge's richly flavoured speech, ironic in bigger market-places there is an English coolness at when men are admired, accordwork behind it all, pacing the ing to others' fantasies, for what comedy, keeping sentiment and grand gestures in check, and they did accidentally, what they should not be admired for, or never losing sight of the waste in the circumscribed lives of these Mayo people. They speak what they may never have done

His Pegeen Mike, Carolyn Pickles, is very young, no leading lady doing a shrew turn but a tough, tousled country beauty. She could, quite credibly, have set her sights no higher than the richly-left weed Shawn Keogh, whom Kevin Lloyd makes convincing down to the last cringe. Even the Widow Quin is the sexual claims she makes in Nichola McAuliffe's performance - regally sailing in beshawled like the Carmen of County Mayo before marshalling her loyal colleens with a Playboy, pretty well complete; smiling imperiousness that would have made even Miss and Cromwell; and look at the raw material they have to work in here. There is Ronie Walsh as Pegeen's ruddy and mountainous father, returning legless from a wake, and his cronics Denis Carey, a dour wiseacre in a melancholy hat, and Derry Power, a little crab-apple of a porter-soaked wit colliding with the door-frame in his haste to see Christy pass the winning post. And after the day of glory.

Jean Brodie quail.

settle down, as Henry James said, "for life, as it were". Above this sombre truth the dialogue dances as sprightly as right age, and what aggressive it should, and such farcical episodes as the supposedly murdered da's double return from the dead with anger undiminished fill the theatre with laughter. It is Synge's they (and Pegeen with Shawn) and not to be missed on any

Gallery Folk Art of Romania Horniman Museum

It is not always easy to see fol art with an unjaundiced eye with the emphasis on the "art rather than the "folk", which always tends to have improvin ethnographic overtones. Not. (course, that many people necessarily mind seeing it in more or less scientific light, an-it is an important part of th Horniman Museum's job i-But it is always pleasing to record an exhibition which car happily be taken both ways Such a one is that devoted, unti lanuary 13, to the Folk Art c

It arises, in fact, from a long and happy connexion between the museum and the country Back in 1957 there was a previous exhibition of Roma nian Folk Art, and all the pieces shown were generously donated to the museum, giving it a remarkable collection of costumes, machines and artifacts. Many of these have been in the students if not on show. But now a lot of splendid examples have been got out, spanking fresh, combined with many other loans from the Village and Folk Art Museum. Bucharest, If embarrassment of riches, The costumes and examples of weaving, embroidery and textile design are among the most irresistibly colourful works present and seen by the right people, the intricately, elegantly frogged jackets for men and dresses for women could start a new craze. There are also some admirable simple pots - particularly fetching is a group of dark grey carthenware with designs rubbed rather than scratched into the matt surface - and some really beautiful examples of peasant woodcary-

ing which indicate very clearly where Brancusi began as a sculptor. An extra dimension is given to the show by the selection of historic photographs of peasant life, showing the clothes actually worn, the utensils actually used: for all the beauty of the things considered in a vacuum, there is undoubtedly an added strength in the feeling that this is a living culture which many Romanian artists today are still in touch with. Nothing here, anywhere, is merely quaint.

Decision on Honecker visit near | mend ways

From Our Correspondent

Chancellor Kohl said yesterday that he expected a final decision from Herr Erich Honecker, the East German leader, on his visit to West Germany, in the next few days.

. Talks between the two Germanies about the visit were well advanced, but Herr Honecker's decision was still awaited.

Asked if the apparent indecision was due to reports that President Chernenko was ill, Dr Kohl said: "I do not know exactly what is going on in the Kremlin. I do not know anyone who does know."

Herr Kohl said Herr Hans-Dietrich Genscher, the West Foreign Minister, have talks with Mr Andrei Gromyko, his Soviet counterpart, in New York on September 25 during a meeting of the United Nations General farmers who witnesses say were arrested, tortured and later.

killed by constabulary soldiers

Lieutenant-General

Greece tells US to

From Mario Modiano Athens

Greece has warned the United States that it could make life difficult for the Americans at their military bases unless they mend their ways towards their Greek

About 200 workers stageda protest march to the US Embassy on Thursday night, after lay-offs at Hellenikon air base, near Athens international

Earlier, Mr Ylannis Kapsis. the Foreign Under-Secretary, had lodged a strong protest to the American charge d'affaires. Mr Alan Berlind, and requested that the dismissals be rescinded.

An official Greek press release later said the minister had drawn Mr Berlind's atten-tion to "all the possible consequences in case the

Robert Page guiling the cast's delivery of

Me and My girl means Richard O'Sullivan and Joanne Ridley, he full of wry and roguish self-deprecation, she both innocent and knowing, and with a provocative squint. He carefully fails to conceal the fact that he has another girl (a hot property from Monte Carlo); she has no eyes for anyone else. When they sit facing each other on her bed the marital vibes are intense. He is a widower of 40; she his 13year-old daughter.

Richard O'Sullivan works in an agency called Eyecatchers with Tim Brooke-Taylor, his mother-in-law holds the money bags and cracks most of the Embarking on last night's jokes, which have the studio story, Something Private, 1

Television Business as usual: no fewer than audience in convulsions. She is found myself jotting down a five "new series" last night on a practised hand with the much more favourable verdict. ITV, two of them drames from vigorously, smallty saide, but (crisp dialogue, sharp cutting. Tim. Richard and Johnne are smooth direction) until - blo coming along fine. There is a me down if this one did not ically. There is a radiator in the circumstances in the Cotoffice which ticks chirpily away swolds). There was a conclusion until silenced by a gentle kick of sorts: the prime suspect from its owner: a not innap- hanged himself in his prison propriate fate, some viewers call. might feel, for the programme itself. Due to a little local misunderstanding I was initially shown one of the later stories in Mitch ("John Thaw in . ."). It seemed a competently produced little tale (British businessman asphyxiated in mysterious circumstances abroad) though it did not seem to have an ending.

Glaswegian au pair (Leni have an ending either (boy of Harper) who over-acts hero- ten asphyxiated in mysterious a jockey and genuinely fills a hero's role. And finds himself losing it, a trick which (though Synge does not say so) is just as like poets, naturally think of kings and saints in glory in every other phrase, and yet use their wit in taproom talk or efforts to snare a spouse with a little status-bringing land, a few cows or a right-of-way.

The very least one expects of especially when it is tricked out with elaborately conflicting clues, is a mild surprise at its resolution. Never mind, John Thaw was well on form as a crime hack who believes in his job and the supporting cast were as convincingly real as the slush

Michael Church

Gray's Elegy imagines a village with its unused Milton Anthony Masters | John Russell Taylor

BBCPO/Downes Albert Hall/Radio 3

The devil does not have all the best tunes; many of them belong to his accomplice, Death. And Thursday night's Prom was full of them. Irina Arkhipova was there - to chant Mussorgsky's Songs and Dances of Death in the Shostakovich orchestration and then there was Francesca Da Rimini. Tchaikovsky's love song heard powerfully here out of the furnace of hellfire. Even the savage than those of the a giant bell.

Nothing in Elias's previous this strenuously directed noise output nor anything in his and fury are in Varèse, whose

Promenade Concert that the title meaning to and by the blistering promi-transcend comes from the nence of E Flat clarinet and Kaddish which Elias finds less a prayer for the dead than a promise from the living. In the same way he would see his own work as "an affirmation of things that endure, a sanctifi-cation of life." I have to say I did not hear it that way. Certainly the main body of the music has a frantic rhythmic energy, but it seemed more raging than celebratory. There are incisive figures that new piece. Brian Elias's LEV- fearsome repetitions of strident lah, was all about shuffling off the mortal coil and couched in high woodwind, moments when like tear up through the orchestra, terms hardly less stark and the whole orchestra crashes like

The nearest parallel for all programme note quite prepared music was particularly called to me for this. The note revealed mind by the repetitive motive > trumpet at the top of their range and beyond. However there is much that belonged to Elias alone, like the liberal decoration that is in so unstable a balance with the hectic drive or the placing of slower sections not as periods of rest but rather as passages of tight screwed tension before renewed attack. That effect is

> It is encouraging to find a composer unaffaid of big gestures and occasional crudity: Elias was well rewarded by a performance of enormous bite from the BBC Philharmonic under Edward Downes.

produced because the slow

music so plainly echoes the fast.

Paul Griffiths

Radio

I enjoy radio's eccentric travellers - Ray Gosling, plangently astonished at the perversities around him; Tom Vernon pedalling along Roman roads or up the Massif Central, finding different contraction or was a heart-warming thing to different sorts of curiosities, or at least a different, more expensive way of looking at them. So I wish there were a bit more eccentricity in prospect in Down the Severn (Radio 4; producer, Anthony Smith) which is currently standing in on Sundays and Mondays for the "resting" Down Your Way, but presenter Tom Salmon sounds as if he is going to play it straight all the way from source

a new and rather endearingly low-key recruit to the ranks of the travelling eccentrics, although I suspect that Richard Pater of Mr Wesley's Calderdale (Radio 4; producer, Roger Hutchings) may not be intending to pursue his career amongst them. He is already set up in Kendal as an insurance statistician and Methodist preacher and it was as an extension of the latter that he mounted his horse, Hercules, last May to retrace some of John Wesley's preaching journeys in the Calder Valley of West York-

Like Wesley, he too went to preach the word, but this was an enterprise in which the only thing to arouse the people be visited was the speciacle of a solid, friendly man in the costume and hair style of the 1730s riding a solid, friendly horse. Gone are the conditions in which what Wesley said will ever again provoke hostility, much less a well-aimed clod of

And with all respects to Mr Pater's sincerity and inventive-ness, there was little evidence of

was a heart-warming thing to say, but it added to the impression given by an inti-mate, revealing binaural-stereo production that this event was primarily a curiosity, a peripa-tetic museum from which, as is the tendency, the original spirit of the exhibit had departed. As if to echo this, Mr Pater went on to muse on the failure of the contemporary Methodist message to stike home.

Was there a hint perhaps of this same hollowness perceptible to those who originally took part in The Princely Pleasures at Kenilworth (Radio 4. August 26; director, Margaret Windham) which Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester, presented at grotesque expense to Queen Elizabeth I in July 1575?

Certainly by half way through the proceedings the Queen had been heard to express a very firm preference for fewer reenactments of antiquity in the form of plays and masques and for more time in the Earl's exquisite private garden.

Derek Wilson's recreation of those 18 days of a sixteenth century summer evoked at once the splendour and the emptiness of the occasion and made us aware of its significance both

No, more likely a plea for his release from a suit which both parties knew to be hopeless and permission to pursue the most necessary objective of securing his own succession. All this was conveyed in the words of onlookers - courners, ladies-inwaiting stewards, servants and the Radio 4 series just ended.

Men Sent to Lie Abroad (producer, Brian Miller). These six "episodes in the history of diplomacy" seemed to me to lack a sufficiently strong thread to make a unity of them and have emerged as a string of barely connected, somewhat insubstantial documentaries.

l hope supporters of pro-portional representation were listening to Chaos Constituted (Radio 3, August 30; producer, Tom Sutcliffe), a talk by Tim Parks, a writer living in Verona. about the current state of civic life in Italy. One serious drawback appears to be that, owing to an oversight in the framing of the constitution, any party able to muster 90,000 votes in any one of the vast regional constituencies gets a seat in Parliament. Thus, as Mr Parks pointed out, Italy is one of the most truly democratic countries in Europe - in consequence of which it is almost ungovernable.

Appointments at every level have become political with dire results for the quality of those appointed and for the efficiency with which they discharge their duties. Taxes cannot be levied or, if levied, may be declared unconstitutional. Bureaucracy has run riot and private agencies have sprung up which undertake to see through the simple formalities of which the official bodies are incapable. Under such conditions, the emergence of another fellow promising to make the trains

run to time might become David Wade

From September 1st our door will

So, just imagine a new, exclusive London hotel where guests are invited to feel at home.

Where attentive, helpful staff pride themselves on offering a warm welcome. And going out of their way to look after you at every opportunity. To you, it can make the difference between having a name rather than just a room number.

Indeed, the 90 bedroom Belgravia-Sheraton has a inique, friendly hotel atmosphere.

And we believe that's what makes the difference. So, next time you are in town make sure you book into the Belgravia-

Sheraton. And stay

with friends.

Belgravia-Sheraton Sheraton Hotels, Inns & Resorts Worldwide the hospitality people of ITT 20, CHESHAM PLACE, LONDON SWI 8HQ, TEL: 1011 225 6040

lites

demned as a massacre.

Mauama (AFP) - No solu-tion was in sight yesterday for the 206 people on board the Air being treated as guests of Iraq, although the two countries have been at war for near four years. On Thursday, the passen-

Immediately after the hijack.
Tehran called on the UN to ensure a swift return of the passengers and the jet. Yester-day the UN had not been in considering seriously the actions which we suspect have been done by some neighbouring states in the hijacking and we are investigat-

escaped. Several weeks after the killings all 11 had been charged camp since 1976, won a day

public outcry against the killings, which Bishop Antonio celebration of Philippine Press Fortich of Negros island conFreedom Day (AP reports). emned as a massacre. Mr Ocampo, formerly busi-Langoni residents said soldiness editor of the Manila ers took 11 men from a bus and Times, which was closed under made them march half-naked to martial law in 1972, is charged a military camp where a volley with rebellion and subversion

Hijacked Iranians see the sights of Baghdad

23 Filipino soldiers face

murder court martial

Fidel

sday to Iraq, where the two touch with Baghdad. hijackers have asked for Khamenei of Iran yesterday gave Kuwait an implicit warn-

Two officers and 21 soldiers relatives the bodies of nine are to be court-martialled in men, all in their early 20s, claiming that they had been killed in a counter-insurgency operation.
Two of those arrested had in the central Philippines town • FREEDOM DAY: A Filipino journalist. Mr Satur Orampo, aged 45, who has Ramos, chief of the Philippines constabulary, said yesterday there would be no cover-up. beeen imprisoned in an army A preliminary investigation freedom yesterday to began early last month after a of shots was later heard. The as an alleged officer of the next day soldiers turned over to outlawed Communist Party.

asylum.

The Airbus was still on Baghdad airport runway, while the 195 passengers and 11 crew were taken sightseeing.

Iraqi authorities have said the 206 are all Iranians and are being treated as press of Iraq. ing over what his country sees as collusion in the hijack (Reuter report).

gers were taken to see Shia holy villages. ing," he told a prayer meeting. that power to move his

Travelling eccentrics

Happily last Sunday brought to the principal guest and her host. A gambit in Dudley's courtship of the Queen?

earth. it was rather successfully done:

4 (- 1) 1 (- 1) 1 (- 1) 1 (- 1) 1 (- 1) 1

SPORTING DIARY

Lunning Tush

ic BBC, dear old Auntie, has flown ir commentators to New York for longest televised reportage they ve ever granted to the US tennis ampionships. Dan Maskell, dear d Uncle, leads a team completed three possible successors: John irrett (the favourite). Gerald illiams and Mark Cox.

Nobody talks about Maskell's tirement. By common consent the ibject is banned - or was, until this dumn broke through the mists of scretion. He can probably go on as ng as he wants to, unless silenced terminal laryngitis. Maskell is 76 nd has been the voice of Wimble-en since 1951, but still bubbles th enthusiasm and has an isatiable appente for work.

Barrett and Cox, ex-players, are he tennis experts. Williams the lewsman and interviewer. All are co polite to be anything but imparrassed by talk of a deMas-elled Wimbledon, Meantime Tony unversational manner, has taken wer the radio job vacated by

Back home, you will have a better new of the tennis than the BBC eam or the rest of us on the spot recause the spot allocated to reporters is a lift ride (or 139 steps) nd more than 80ft above the main ourt. Refreshments available at the summit include beer brewed in

The Times has conducted an international referendum on press facilities at the major championships. The French won easily, with Wimbledon and the US level in second place. Flushing Meadow came third in the communications category, possibly because of this year's telephoning arrangements. Free enterprise has run riot. The company which formerly provided private lines and telephones has been shattered into a chaos of separate concerns.

Reporters scurry around Manhattan for phones

Now the lines come from one source, the telephones from a variety of others. Reporters have been scurrying about Manhattan to buy or rent telephones which they connect to the lines for the day's work. Then the telephones are packed away for safekeeping. In New York only the rich or the foolish leave saleable items lying

Most of the European tennis set. players and camp-followers alike. come here to pay the bills for all the nice things that happen to them elsewhere. Manhattan is a hard place. There are, mind you, psychological cushions to fall on; notably the New Yorkers themselves, the juzz clubs and the culinary diversity of the restaurants.

in comestible terms (and much else) Flushing Meadow is a microcesm of the the Big Apple. Take a less samples from the "food village" at the tournament; an egg plant and mozzarella sandwich is on offer at is chicken or beef tacos with lettuce, jack cheese (Jack who?), sour cream and salsa at £3.65 and a bagel 'smothered" with cream cheese and topped with smoked salmon and speed onion at £6.10.

The other day I caught two onceprominent players refuelling. Tom Okker ("This place is a 200") was standing in line at a stall offering seven varities of "hand-dipped" ice cream. Hand-dipped? And that sophisticated Frenchman Pierre Darmon was heavily disguised behind a half-pound charcoalbroiled hamburger with lettuce and tomato selling at £3.80. "They are expensive". Darmon said, briefly disengaging his teeth, "but really

Today's players cannot risk the bulging waistlines prevalent among speciators. The Women's Tennis Association has produced a 1985 calendar tastefully embellished by photographs of 15 svelte lovelies (all well-known players) in everything from evening gowns to bathing suits. At one time, women's tennis did not have an evertly feminine image. That has changed.

The calendar's cover-girl is Chris Lieyd, who has been around for a while, knows how to pose and waggishly mists on addressing your correspondent as "Sexy Rexy". But the rest of the chorus line are mostly youngsters, and every one of them enjoys being a dame. At £7.70 the calendar is a hot number on the souvenir stalls. Dan Maskell ("Oh, I say!") has never seen the like of it.

BARRY FANTONI

Gerald believes it's an

Peter Lennon on the discovery of a composition by Richard Strauss, unpublished and unperformed, believed lost for nearly 50 years

Maria Jeritza as Ariadne, Richard Strauss, and the music written as a tribute to their friendship

Strauss's fifth last song

A casual conversation at dinner between the young British composer Richard Blackford and the head of the manscript department of Sothe-by's, New York, has led to the discovery of Richard Strauss's last composition: a song unpublished, never performed, and unseen by the Strauss family for nearly 50 years. It was presumed lost.

The song, "Malven", was composed by Strauss at the age of 84, 11 months before his death in 1949. and was sent as a gift to the Czech soprano Maria Jeritza, who created the part of Ariadne in Ariadne auf Navos in 1912, and was a celebrated Salome early in the century.

This major musical discovery will go on sale at Sotheby's in New York in December.

Blackford, had done research in Strauss's Garmisch villa in Bavaria for the BBC documentary Richard Strauss Remembered, shown last January. He was telling David Redden of Sotheby's about his conversations with Strauss's daughter-in-law and long-time secretary. Alice Strauss. She told of a song her father-in-law had completed on November 23, 1948, during a stay in Montreux. Switzerland. The original had been sent to the soprano Maria Jeritza in New York, who had never complied with Strauss's request to send back a photocopy.

The only trace of this song, based on a nature poem by an obscure Swiss poet. Betty Knobel, was an unfinished sketch listed in the Strauss catalogue as "Fragment 304."

The effect of this anecdote on Reddern was electrifying. By coincidence. Sotheby's had just been given instructions to auction the estate of Jeritza, who died in New York last heirs. A hasty examination of her papers led to the discovery of Malven", a song for soprano and piano accompaniment.

"Superb for the voice," Blackford says. "Typical of the late period of Strauss writing. Sensuous, with that autumnal feel. But it is in a sprightly 2/4 Allegretto in E-flat major. It definitely does not belong to the set known as Four Last Songs, the fifth of which was never completed." But the song has still not been performed: Sotheby's allowed Black-ford only 10 minutes sight of the manuscript.

However, there is another dimension to this discovery to which Strauss's correspondence with Jeritza. also found among the soprano's effects, bears poignant witness. The song was composed in a room in the Palace Hotel. Montreux, where Strauss. his assets and royalties frozen by a denazification board. was living in, for him, straitened circumstances. In fact he was a multi-millionaire. The palatial Garmisch villa contained priceless paintings and musical manuscripts. But for ready cash Strauss was driven to copying his manuscrupts of Rosenkavaller waltzes, Don Juan and Till Eulenspiegel and sending them to Jeritza to sell for him in New York.

Although it has never been supposed that there was a sexual relationship between the composer, a faithful family man, and his favourite soprano, 23 his junior, this correspondence at times strikes an uncharacteristically tender note.

"Ardently loved and greatly admired Maria." the composer wrote. "I lay my fate in your beautiful hands and know you will do your utmost to help restore to me the property and income that has been impounded for the last ten (sic)

In fact it was only at the end of the war that his assets were impounded, by the Americans. The song was a gift to Jeritza in gratitude for her efforts on his behalf.

Strauss's cooperation with the Nazis is still today a much debated issue. While there was never any question of his helping them politically, when most of the great creative talent fled Hitler's Germany, he stayed on and accepted. "passively, without being consulted" - his biographer, Norman Del Mar. tells us - the post of president of the Reichsmusikkammer.

When, in 1933, Bruno Walter refused to conduct a concert, Strauss stepped in, and he wrote the Olympic Hymn for the 1936 Berlin

But when, in 1934, the name of his Jewish librettist, Stefan Zweig, Frau. Strauss publicly protested. After the second performance the opera was banned simply because of Zweig's involvement. A short time later two high-ranking Nazis went to Strauss's home and demanded that he resign as president of the Reichsmusikkammer. It was at this point that Strauss wrote a notorious letter to Hitler (quoted by Del Mar). Addressed to "Mein Fuhrer", it read: "My whole life belongs to German music and to an indefatigable effort to elevate German culture... Therefore I believe that I will find understanding from you, the great architect of German social life, particularly hen, with deep emotion and with deep respect. I assure you that even after my dismissal as resident of the Reichsmusikkammer I will devote the few years still granted to me only to the purest and most ideal goals."

However Del Mar frequently refers to Strauss's low opinion of the Nazis, and both his and his wife Pauline's lack of tact in dealing with them. Indeed, Nazi disfavour caused him to leave Garmisch, where he had lived since 1908, and move to Vienna, where he spent the war years sheltered by the Gauleiter Baldur von Schirach Nazi controller

Dr Ernst Roth is quoted in Del Mar's definitive biography as passing this judgment: "Strauss's complete detachment from all political: and national affairs was troly never monumental . . . Opinion . went so far as actually to attribute to him sympathies with the Nazi movement, but a culpable opportunism was found in his behaviour."

But Strauss had a very real reason for accepting von Schirach's protection. His daughter-in-law, Alice, is Jewish, and astonishingly she lived with him throughout the war years. working as his secretary. It was partly to protect her and his half-Jewish grandchildren, Richard and Christian, that he accepted such hospitality.

Already reviled in the 1930s by Thomas Mann (who had fled to Switzerland) for remaining in Hitler's Germany, at the end of the war Strauss had some explaining to

The correspondence uncovered in New York reveals that Strauss blamed most of the public oppro-brium heaped on him in the immediate post-war years to Mann's son, Klaus, Towards the end of the war, Klaus Mann, using the name "Mr Brown" and posing as a reporter for The Stars and Stripes, visited Strauss at Garmisch. In a letter to Jeritza on September 30, 1948, on behalf of his father. Franz Strauss wrote: "The name of Richard Strauss is not very popular just now, and the reasons are different interpretations of facts. especially the polemic of Klaus Mam who in August 1944 without declaring his name smuggled himself as a reporter here into the house. Papa gave him truthful information, all in good faith, which he then malevolently distorted." Franz reported that the press was "very positive in London" (Sir Thomas Beecham had persuaded Strauss to conduct a highly successful concert in London two years previously). "However," he says, "in the US they are against him." The actor Lionel Barrymore had invited Strauss to visit the US, but because of this public hostility and his failing health Strauss decided against.

Later, Strauss was cleared by the denazification board and his assets were unblocked. But in 1948, a time of uncertainty, distress and ill health, he composed "Malven" - in gratitude to a faithful ally.

"Before I go off on my recuperation trip to the clinic," he wrote to Jeriza. "I have prepared the enclosed little song for you." He dedicated it: "To Beloved Maria, this last rose." Now, 36 years later, both dead, a yet unchosen soprano will soon have

e honour of singing Strauss's truly

last composition: "Aus Rosen, Pflox Zinienflor ragen im Garten Malven empor, Dufilos und ohne des Purpurs Glia. wie ein verweinter blasses Gesicht. (Among roses, flocks and zinnia in the garden, mallow are towering

scentless and without the glow of the purple like a tear-stained pale face.)

Richard Owen returns to the scene of a fateful postwar meeting

Yalta: still waiting for the thaw

Valta, Soviet Crimea

Ronald Reagan's little joke about bombing the Russians is still reverberating in Yalta, as elsewhere in the Soviet Union. But his remarks about the 1945 Yalta conference and not accepting the "permanent subjugation of Eastern Europe" also arouse powerful echoes, especially at a time when Moscow is at loggerheads with two of its East European allies, Romania and East Germany.
"You see", said one Yalta resident, standing on the path outside the Livadia Palace where the 1945 conference took place, "it just goes to show what Reagan is after he wants to destroy the Soviet system and bring down the entire socialist community as well."

The white palace at Livadia, just along the coast from Yalta on the Black Sea, is certainly a good place to reflect on the course of history since the conference there. In the space of one week, the "Big Three" scaled the fate of post-war Europe as the end of the Nazi Reich approached and Soviet troops reached the gates of Berlin.

An oil painting inside the parace captures the scene: Stalin in his narshal's uniform, cigarette in hand; Churchill, opposite, grasping he arm of his chair to glare round, bulky and bulldoggish; and Roose-velt in the middle, emaciated and bespeciacled, not far from death. At their clbows Molotov, Eden, Stettinius - and standing up, a piece of paper in his hand, the tall and youthful figure of Andrei Gromyko. More than 2000 attended the conference, if you include aides. journalists and observers. But the shape of the post-war world was decided by three men, in the long, airy conference room (formerly used for balls) and in the courtyard outside. Stalin agreed to help in the war against Japan, and to join in establishing the United Nations. But the heart of the matter was Eastern Europe, and especially Poland.

The boundaries were drawn at the Curzon Line in the East and the Oder-Neisse Line in the West A 'declaration on liberated Europe" (the three scrawled signatures can be seen at Livadia) affirmed the need

Postwar accord: Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin at Yalta

"democratic institutions" in territories formerly under Nazi occupation, and Stalin agreed to free elections" in Poland.

Forty years on, with Solidarity still a fresh and worrying memory for the Russians in Poland, and with Erich Honecker, the East German leader, about to make a trip to West Germany against Soviet wishes. Yalia is again headline news rather than the stuff of faded documents. President Reagan stirred controversy this month by saying at a White House lunch commemorating the fortieth anniversary of the Warsaw uprising that the United States "rejects any interpretation of the Yalta agreement which suggests American consent for the division of Europe into spheres of influence. There was no reason to "absolve" the Soviet Union from its commitment at Yalta to independence and democracy in Eastern Europe. This approach, subsequently cehoed by George Shultz, the Secretary of State, has been seen by some as a vindication of President Roosevelt, who in the years following Yalta was accused of having brought Russia into the Far East and "sold out" Eastern Europe to Stalin. The Reagan interpretation, by contrast, would seem to be that Roosevelt and Churchill rightly bound Stalin to the idea of free elections, but that Soviet duplicity and the presence of the Red Army in Eastern Europe led to the betrayal of Yalta and the division of Europe into spheres of influence, with the resulting borders sanctified at the Helsinki conference of 1975. The corollary of that is that as the captive populations of Eastern Europe grow restive, the question of Yalta is still open,

Few Russians, most of whom regard the communist monopoly of power, the Warsaw Pact and Comecon as eternal and immutable, would take this seriously for a moment. The Soviet press none the less constantly harps on the alleged desire of both Bonn and Washington "after the agreed post-war frontiers" (known in the case of undermine communism in the Eastern bloc.

The Kremlin view, reiterated by Soviet historians and commen-tators, is that the current revival of the 1950s' policy of 'rolling back communism' began with a speech in Vienna last September by US Vice-President George Bush after his visits to Hungary and Romania.

Bush, one I-vestiva columnist said, had questioned post-war realities, and was obviously ostalgic for Eastern Europe's prewar "bourgeois regimes". He and Reagan obviously regretted that, for example, Soviet rather than American troops had entered Prague in

At Livadia, where the 1945 conference room is being carefully redecorated to measure up to the spendour of the Tsar's study and pilliard room next door, official guides underline this by claiming -without batting an eyelid - that the Soviet Union has scrupulously observed the Yalta undertaking to allow each formerly occupied nation to "choose the form of government

The guides also express regret that President Roosevelt's hope, spoken in the billiard room at the end of the conference, that allied wartime unity would continue in peacetime has been disappointed.

Down the corridor a photographic exhibition drives home the Moscow line that it was Soviet force of arms that largely dictated events, with pictures of Russian troops entering Berlin, Bucharest, Belgrade, Prague and Warsaw. For Russian visitors, the photographs are a reminder that the Soviet Union made untold sacrifices to rid Europe of Nazism, and that the peoples of Eastern Europe have cause to be grateful to Russia for liberating them and bringing them proletarian, socialist regimes rather than the "restoration of the old order" that Churchill

It is this profoundly ingrained view which still dominates the outlook or Mr Gromyko, now 75, and other members of the Kremlin old guard, and it is unlikely to

Alfred Sherman

Why we asked the unasked questions

In the moment of my departure, I would like to attempt to explain the rationale of the Centre for Policy Studies. From the outset, I conceived it as an outrider. Although the centre is frequently referred to as a Tory think-tank, we assigned ourselves a more active role, 10 undertake the reshaping of the climate of opinion nationally, in order to widen the range of options open to a Conservative government which dated take them. In its turn, we estimated that this climate would evoke a bolder response from the

My thesis was that no Conservative government or opposition, however conrageous and adventur-ous, could afford to take the lead in mooting new policies rooted in critical appraisal of the post-war settlement. The moment the critique, which must of necessity precede the enunciation of policy, is presented, it provokes a chorus of anathema from "thought guardians" in political life and media for whom early post-war thinking remains the final revelation. The British are a conservative people, but none more so than progressives in thrall to yesteryear's last word.

Young shoots of new thinking are not strong enough to stand the hot blast of denunciation. Temporisers run for cover on the grounds that the "public is not yet ready for such radical thinking". Yet - I argued unless the new ideas are fed in somehow or other, the public never will be ready, and the post-war settlement will go rolling on by its own momentum until it crushes us all. This dilemma was not invented by the temporisers: their fault lay in reconciling themselves to the con-straint rather than rising to it as a

To resolve the dilemma. I argued for some privatization of Conservative politics, with fringe organiza-tions, "outriders", who would not commit the leadership, as they breasted the waves of denunciation by the guardians, Insofar as we won eliminary skirmishes of ideas, the leadership could move on to the new ground.

of Conservative leadership rubbed off on to us. In politics, appearances are part of reality. Our standing with Margaret Thatcher helped attract supporters and participants. We became the venue for exchanges of ideas between Conservative politicians, intellectuals, journalists, businessmen, and a few trade unionists. Not all of us were of the right, however defined. Not all were-Conservative party members, or voters. A few were members or associates of the Labour or Liberal parties.

Some of the drama of the change

· My participation in speech-writing counted for more than this craft does as a rule, because of Mrs Thatcher's particular modus operandi. As a result of the circumstances in which she had won the leadership. the consolidation of her power over the party pari passu with a change in direction was bound to be a lengthy process. She therefore tended during the early years of her leadership to moot policy through public speeches and interviews more than political leaders generally would do.

Electoral victory in 1979 brought about a new phase in our life-cycle. about a new phase in our inecycle.
On the one hand, we were in a position to feed in second opinions, while remaining free to act as a clearing house for ideas and participate in the public debate. On the other hand, we found ourselves engaged, willy nilly, in an unequal relationship with the departmental civil servants. They are able to civil servants. They are able to criticize, in private sessions with ministers, the views of the outsider, who cannot as of right ask to be apprised of their arguments and data, which enjoy the shield of confidentiality, in order to respond

An organization which has access to party and government leadership and yet carns its bread by thinking the unthinkable and questioning the unquestioned must live on narrow margins. Without its connexions, real or apparent, it would be only one more voice on the fringes of political life. Let it be too closely identified with the leadership, or the leadership with the privateer, and pressures will grow to curb his incursions. Yet let its intellectual integrity be compromised by a hairsbreadth, and its wider public acceptability would evaporate over-

Over the 10 years, it seems to me that our successes well outweighed the frustrations inherent in our chosen role.

I shall leave the assessment to others. I can never be sure how far I helped make the waves or just floated on a turning tide created by deeper forces which shape the life of nations. But whether or not we made the tide, we rode high on it.

If people feet compelled to present me as an amalgam of Pere Joseph, Svengali and the Elders of Zion, they are at liberty to do so, and those who know me will think them fools. But this carping takes them no further towards explaining why a handful of people whom they disparage could make a wholly disproportionate impact on the political scene. for better or worse.

Our work in the realm of political and economic ideas may have counted less than our part in generating in the Conservative Party sense of intellectual excitement which had hitherto been largely a monopoly of the left. No one calls the Conservatives the stupid party any longer; at worse, they accuse it of indulging in ideology.

Sir Alfred Sherman worked for the Centre for Policy Studies from its foundation in 1974 until vesterday.

Keith Waterhouse

Thoughts of the great unwritten reluctant to accept that the essence of fiction is that it is made up, novelists are constantly being asked on whom this or that character is based.

In my own case, because most of my novels are effectively in the first person, even when written in the third, in that everything is seen through the eyes of the hero. I'm more usually asked if my characters are based upon myself. Little ice does it cut when I protest that if they were, I should be locked up in Broadmoor by now.

I have to admit, however, that there is one facet of Edgar Samuel Bapty, the irascible hero of my new novel Thinks, that has been lifted straight from the private life of his creator. Bapty writes letters to The Times in his head. So do I. So, I shouldn't be in the least surprised to hear, do you,

Only a fraction of letters to The Times gets printed: that's common knowledge. What is probably not so generally realized is that only a fraction of that fraction ever gets

You see otherwise normal and respectable persons sitting in railway carriages with their lips moving convulsively. They are writing letters to The Times. Soberlydressed pedestrians are to be observed bobbing their heads and twitching their arms like marionettes, only one removed from those unfortunates who stand in the middle of the road directing traffic. Do not be alarmed. They are only writing to The Times.

It is not that they do not happen to have writing materials to hand. Even as you read these words, there are thousands scanning the page opposite over the breakfast cgg who will be reaching mentally for their pens to draft a scathing reply to this or that letter. They could just as well reach physically for their pens and pop it in the post on the way to the office, but that is not their way: the embossed notepaper of the Old Rectory, in their case, will remain forever virgin of that declamatory Sir! They belong to the silent army of cerebral correspondents to

The letter that never is comes, from my observation, in two forms. The first encapsulates the "I've a dama good mind to write to The Times about it!" Punch cartoon colonel who lurks inside us all, trying to get out. Something vexes us - a sloppily dresssed railway guard, a shop assistant who can't add up, a public clock yet to catch up with British Summer Time - and we

The generality of readers being channel our indignation into a sardonic letter to the Editor concucted on the hoof. Usually it tails off around the second paragraph, the desire to express oneself in pungent phrases dying as annoyance fades. It would have to have been an irritation of epic proportions to sustain us through a blistering hundred words of so to "I am, Sir. yours etc etc".

The second form is the letter that never is at its purest. It too is never finished, but only in the sense that the job of painting the Forth Bridge is never finished. It is revised and reworked all through the day, often over several days, sometimes over the course of weeks, months or even years. It concerns, as likely as not a particular bec in the bonnet (I have one on 'decimal currency which I have been drafting since 1970).

But the subject is neither here nor there: it is the object that matters, and the object is to get the thing right, to hone and polish until it becomes the perfect letter to The Times, as much an example of the epistolary form as Lord Chesterfield's letters to his son.

Unlike the indignant fragment ("Sir: If this indeed is the age of the train...") induced by some passing imitation, the Mark II letter is seriously meant to be set down and submitted for publication. But the intention is always thwarted in the search for perfection.

I remember, in the course of some education controversy or other, coming across a letter to The Times from Kingsley Amis, one of those fellows who actually writes things down instead of sitting around thinking about them. His retort was said was "More will mean worse" which was not to be taken as meaning the same as "More means worse". I was on the tube at the time. Fellow passengers began to edge away as with the aid of gesticulating fingers. I set out to prove that Amis didn't understand his own aphorism. Unfortunately. by the time I'd marshalled my rgument and reduced it to a glittering aphorism of my own, 2 week and a half had passed and I had missed the boat. That, perhaps, is subconsciously the idea. Just as it is sometimes better to travel hopefully than 10 arrive, for some temperaments it is better to think about writing to The Times than actually to do it. Procrastination it may be, but look what we save on postage. Thinks by Keith Waterhouse will be published on Monday, September 3 by Michael Joseph, £8.95

المكذا من الاجل

111171

P.O. Box 7, 200 Gray's Inn Road, London WCIX 8EZ. Telephone: 01-837 1234

WHAT DR OWEN THINKS

Like the stimulating chill in the air which will presage the coming of autumn, the flow of the new political year's literature has now begun, heralding the party conference season. The first author in the field this year is the Social Democratic leader. Dr David Owen, not with a pamphlet but with a compendious book, based on his speeches and articles during the past year, entitled: "A Future that Will (Viking Work," hardback Penguin £12.95; paperback £2.95). The future he has in mind is one moulded by Social Democratic principles and specifically by his own interpretation of them. What Dr Owen thinks is certainly not synonymous with the thoughts of his colleagues but what he has to say deserves careful scrutiny because if anyone can give political force to the SDP it will be Dr Owen.

The first essay in his book is the key to his approach. Its subject is the Social Market, a concept and a term to which he lays claim on behalf of the Social Democrats, despite the fact that it is much more commonly used by Conservatives as the proper description of their approach to political economy.

Dr Owen claims that the term "social market" could become "a more accurate description of what many see as the correct mixture within the mixed economy", and claims that the Conservatives have misused the term to mean non-interventionism combined with support for the welfare state. In fact, he even asserts that the term is particularly associated with the 1959 Godesberg agreement accepted by the German Social Democratic Party when it abandoned Marxist economics and in consequence achieved years of electorial success in partnership with the German Liberals.

Dr Owen's history is, however, less than precise. It was originally the Christan Democrais under Adenauer who cam- ket" economy does not involve a paigned for the first post-war return to many of the old

Bundestag with the slogan "social market economy", and it was the liberalization of the market by the German Liberal Ludwig Erhard in the predominantly CDU coalition which gave the term reality. The economic miracle that followed, forced the Social Democrats to change and accept the basic principles of the social market economy as the price of their survival. Though there is government steering of the economy in consultation with industry, banks and unions, the over-riding criterion for such steering has been the avoidance of inflation and creating conditions within which free-market processes, operating for profit, really can function everywhere.

Is this really the kind of social market economy to which Dr Owen lays claim for the Social Democrats in Britain? It remains unclear.

The same kind of uncertainty attaches to his approach to the idea of an incomes policy. He thinks there should be one in some form because of the difficulty of pursuing a more expansionary policy without triggering inflation. On the other hand, he does not want the old centralized policies with fixed norms and percentages. He would like to see some kind of decentralized incomes strategy in which arbitration plays a major part. But having said this, he still thinks there must be mechanisms for restraining incomes in the last resort, including statutory powers. So where, in the end, do the Social Democrats stand on this question? It is hard to believe that Dr Owen, in talking about "a system of non-inflationary comparability for the public sector does not hanker somewhat after the old bureaucratic structures and, indeed, it is hard to be confident that his general interpretation of the "Social Marbureaucratic and planning attitudes of the Wilson years.

There is much that is good sense in his approach. He advocates a free society, free of the class-clash attitudes which disfigure Labour thinking. He is patriotic in foreign policy; con-cerned for social welfare. Much of his emphasis on industrial consultation would now be shared by Conservatives. They would or should certainly welcome much of his thinking on social welfare. For as well as placing a special emphasis on the provision of welfare, which must be inevitable for any left-of-centre politician. Dr Owen de-nounces social policy which equates material equality with social justice. His definition of equality puts the focus of policy on the worst-off groups, and his test for welfare policies is whether they help the worst off. In other words, it is a selective approach to welfare which would appeal to many Conservatives, but the question is how far it will appeal to rank-and-file social democrats and the Labour voters they need to attract. So many topics are touched upon so variously in this book (though it is often turgidly written) that one is left with the overwhelming impression that what Dr Owen and his party most badly need is political synthesis to indicate more clearly what they would like to do. Is social democracy fundamentally a return to state-planning egalitarian Gaitskellism? Or is there really an attachment to a free "social market" economy, and if there is, how do the party's attitudes to planning and economic management really stand up? Is it an egalitarian party (what precisely would it do about the redistribution of about wealth?) or is it not? Dr Owen has many thoughts and he is trying to beat a new path in British politics. But he needs to give his thoughts much more shape, simplicity and clarity if his party is to go forward.

THREATS TO FREE TRADE

committee of Gatt will meet in emergency session in Geneva in a list ditch stand to oppose the imminent imposition of tougher regulations on clothing and textile import quotas by the United States. The following week, President Reagan must decide on his response to calls by the country's International Trade Commission for tougher quotas on 70 per cent of US steel imports. His likely alternative appears to lie in a Commerce Department plan for voluntary bi-lateral agreements with several developing countries to curb their rising exports. Lobby pressure is also growing in Washington for the United States to withdraw from the so-called consensus of leading industrial nations on export credit subsidies, thus provoking an interest subsidy war.

Such moves are not unexpected. Influential members of the Reagan Administration who have stoutly resisted rapidly spreading protectionist tendencies in Congress have warned Europeans, in particular, not to overreact to what they see as inevitable gestures to protectionist lobbies by President Reagan in an election year. Both the US measures and those in Europe show quite clearly that the commitments at the London economic summit and its predecessors to contain new protectionist measures and promote freer trade are simply not holding up. Despite the is not working.

recent US prediliction for Yet quotas are the worst kind facade to movement to a more open trading system. Behind this facade, however, has grown up a plethora of quota restrictions and bi-lateral deals of a more or less voluntary nature to limit the quantity of trade in specified goods between individual countries. November annual meeting of Gatt will be presented with a dossier of quotas running to more than two thousand pages.

These represent almost entirely governments bowing to sectional interests. Few seriously question the general case for free trade in protecting consumers by competition, improving the efficiency of industry and the allocation of resources and aiding the development of the third world. It is vital that this general principle should be kept at the forefront, since protection for virtually any industry can be given a veil of intellectual justification by arguments to give new industries a chance to grow or old ones a chance to regroup and rationalise.

That is one reason for the rise of quotas and other quantitative restraints on trade. Exchange rates are fluctuating rapidly against each other, more often because of differences in interest rates than to reflect the balance of trade. The market mechanism, which should adjust for broad movements in competitiveness between countries,

September will be a crucial countervailing duties, Gatt has of protection. They stifle price month for the future of free broadly held the line on tariffs competition more than tariffs trade. On Tuesday, the textile and the various progressive tariff and, export not merely unemployment but also monopoly, since car exporters from Japan or textile exporters from Hong Kong are induced to carve up their slice of foreign markets by informal cartel arrangements.

Moreover, quotas inevitably act more harshly against new producers and exporters and freeze the pattern of world trade.

The tendency to manage trade bi-laterally through quotas will undermine all the good work on tariffs in the postwar world unless more action is taken to match fine international declarations in favour of free trade. The underlying problem is the tendency of floating exchange rates to reflect interest rates rather than trade, exacerbated by international money markets in which other currencies are no more than planets revolving round the dollar. There can be no return to fixed exchange rates, which collapsed under the pressure of international hot money. For the same reason, official intervention in exchange markets can be no more than an expensive palliative. Practically, the best hope may lie in the development of regional currency blocks around the Japanese yen and the European Monetary System to give more balance in foreign exchange markets. Within these blocks, there may be greater hope of that integration of national economic policies that has so notably failed at the world is dark and dead of night in the Affairs was summoned. On his White House There is not a sound save for the distant hum the red-faced Cousellor on of electronic security devices. Sports Affairs, who was sent for The President sleeps, with a when aides said the President happy smile on his face, dream- had a cricket problem. The ing of the campaign he will hardly have to light to secure his next term of office. His wife, without whom he could not manage, sleeps soundly by his side. But less deeply.

NOT QUITE CRICKET

The silence in their room is suddenly broken in the small pulsating, regular shrill sound. She is wide awake. Is it President, er, Chernenko on the hot line? is it an aide to whisper some news about the final tally of communist gold medals at their version of the Olympics? Is it HADES (Hostile Across Distant Early-Warning System) and just four minutes to ring to have slept more soundly. the children? The noise comes not even man made. It is a chirruping cricket somewhere in get back to sleep The next morning, the White of Nancy versus insect.

Imagine if you will the scene. It House Counsellor on Pest way in, he passed on his way out second man ordered the plants' in the President's bedroom to be removed. That night everyone went thankfully to sleep. Except Mrs Reagan.

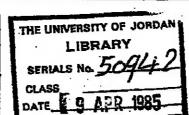

The cricket was still in there somewhere, keeping her awake. On Tuesday morning the room's hours by a sudden, insistent, air ducts were searched and the whole area sprayed with cricketkilling insecticide. That night everyone went thankfully to sleep. Except Mrs Reagan.

The cricket had expired; like England, she lay awake waiting for it to re-start. The anticipation was awful. She fretted through the night. Since then she seems

The bedume story comes from not from any telephone. It is the White House press office this week where news conferences were unusually - for the time of the room. Mrs Reagan cannot the year - packed. The nation was agog to hear about the battle

When news broke, the nation had held its breath. Cricket experts (from Sri Lanka?) offered advice and help. Insomniac groups suggested counselling, and hawks thought Nancy ought to be given the emergency code words so that she could order the bombing of Russia in the night as (a) she was the only one likely to wake up in time, and (b) even if the President said it, everyone would think he was still joking.

The loudest cries should have come from the readers of Charles Dickens. In John Peerybingle's happy home, the cricket on the hearth chirped when all was well. and was silent when unhappiness pervaded. Dickens does not tell us what would have been the state of things had Dot Peerybingle arranged for the hapless creature to be sprayed to death, but perhaps the inner realisation of what she may have unwittingly have done by producing pervasive unhappiness was what really kept Nancy awake in the small hours. It was not, Mrs Reagan, cricket, and we should know.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

obviously endless other examples.

The constitutional point is therefore, in essence, who is to decide the level of taxation, Parliament (as heretofore) or the NUM, or the

Sir. On the eve of the TUC conference I hope delegates will recognise that what is on trial is who rules - elected Parliament or the rule there is no reason why a future

oft-wing government should not face a right-wing mob. This would be called fascism - and the present

We are on treacherous ground Many, and not only Tories, will see that Scargillism must be defeated.

not to defeat unionism, but to defeat mob rule. After its defeat the more moderate union leaders will need widespread support in rebuilding

Sir. I believe Mr MacGregor should write one more short letter to each of the 180,000 miners.

Each miner would be asked to complete a tear-off section of the letter, indicating "yes" or "no" to the following question: "Do you wish the Coal Board to make a formal request that the NUM holds a ballot on the Coal Board's most

Sir. If my grandchild asks me what the miners mean by brothers and comrades what should my answer

Sir. Reference your article, "Saudis find coal in the desert" (August 29), could we not send Mr Arthur

The Protestant clergy were in charge of drains, the Jesuits taught and organized games for the young and the Belgian Consul was a splendid

The majority worked hard with

there were grumblers, but the ittle food, doing mental and dirty jobs throught the boiling hot summers and bitter cold wet winters

British always grumble: it is their safety valve and keeps people calm. Right up to the day we walked tree standards of cleanliness and fair rationing of food were upheld, despite hardships imposed after a number of successful escapes.

The atom bomb that fell on Hiroshima wiped out the family of the Japanese commandant - we really pried him. I wonder how many Japs ever pitied us under their thrall in South-east Asia?

of direction is a little more difficult

in the dark, but the real advanced course includes being able to retain the relative direction of your mental point of reference while standing in a windowless room which keeps changing direction, as in a warship or submarine operations room at sea. After that even a north/south

Whitehall running parallel to a

Yours faithfully,

The Meadows, Woodhurst Lane,

Surrey

August 29.

D. KILPATRICK,

their organisations on saner lines.

Yours faithfully.

The Athenaeum. Pall Mall, SW I

recent offer?"

Yours faithfully,

REG BOLTON.

Yours faithfully.

Corner House.

August 30.

PHYLLIS M. GREEN,

Upper Grange Road.

From Mr Ivor Berger

there on our behalf?

Yours faithfully.

IVOR BERGER,

Hartsbourne Road.

6 Shaw Close.

Bushey Heath, Hertfordshire.

August 29.

219 Westcombe Hill Blackheath, SE3.

From Mrs Phyllis M. Green

From Mr Reg Bolton

STUART JOHNSTONE

mob should be labelled the same.

If the left-wing mob is allowed to

I am, Sir, etc.

Temple, EC4. August 30.

ANTHONY CRIPPS.

Harcourt Buildings.

From Mr Stuart Johnstone

High time for Britain to resolve industrial disputes parliamentary democracy and free enterprise, this position is, no doubt.

correct. But could not the Prime Minister, with her clear and incisive mind and with the great advantage of having access to all the economic and social factors involved, give to the nation an exposition of the situation as she sees it and remind us all of the sequence of events which have led up to the present state of bitterness and violence?

Could she not tell the nation what she hopes her policies could ultimately offer to the mining slanging and slogging, and slanging and slogging are blinding reason.

speak to the nation and describe to us all the position as she sees it with a step-by-step account of how this dispute has evolved. I believe that such a restatement of the facts by her Majesty's First Minister might promote reasoning and help to bring about a solution creditable to both

From Mr Anthony Cripps, QC

Sir. The present strike situation raises not only industrial and economic problems of national importance but also a major constitutional issue.

largely out of taxation and the only democratic way in which taxation can be settled, as to how much is levied on all of us, is by Parliament.

maintained in operation that is done through taxation and subsidy-matters for Parliament to determine. If the NUM were able to insist on uneconomic pits being continued in operation that means that the NIIM is able to decide on the amount of subsidy and therefore on part of the taxation to be levied. Surely this is quite wrong on any basis of reason.

or economics, or politics. The industry at present only survives on and money, to all not involved in striking to the nation as a whole.

means that there is now conclusive evidence against nationalisation of any industry, for nationalisation puts the nationalised industry into what is a blackmail position to insist on doing what the industry wants against the wishes of the nation

The blackmail position arises out of the monopoly created by nationalising which is, however, unobjectionable on the grounds indicated provided there are not

Surely the time has come to industries which last longer than,

say, a week or two to be settled on terms decided by an independent tribunal or even by Parliament itself? This is because the strikes of any significance remove the underlying dispute from the industrial to strikes of any significance.

The great cost in convenience

huge subsidies anyhow

If uneconomic pits are to be

The coal industry is supported sides in the dispute.

Yours faithfully,

LANSDOWNE

Merkleour.

Perth. August 30.

I appeal to the Prime Minister to Fear and anger have provoked industry?

Sir. The Electrical, Electronic, Telecommunications and Plumbing Union's proposals to seek no-strike clauses in agreements on pay and conditions should be supported by everyone who wants Britain to survive and be more competitive.

From Sir Hugh Cortazzi

Those who criticize this policy at the TUC Congress next week should recognize that they will only score own goals. The main political parties and both sides of industry in this country have generally accepted that an essential part of our strategy in trying to cope with the huge trade imbalance between Britain and Japan is to be found in industrial cooperation. This means not only British and Japanese firms working together in technology, manufacture and research, but also increased Japanese investment in productive manufacture in Britain.

We have had some successes, but we need much more Japanese investment. Whenever, as British, Ambassador to Japan (October, 1980 – February, 1984) I advocated this, my Japanese interlocutors, from the Prime Minister and the Chairman of the Federation of Economic Organisations (Keidanren) downwards, invariably asked about our industrial relations record and suggested that this was a major obstacle to increased investment.

Last year I had good material to use in our defence. My successor's task this year is much more difficult. Japanese firms will pay good wages and will look after their work force in return for loyalty and hard work. But they are not prepared to be held to ransom by irresponsible behaviour or to be dragged into disputes which have nothing to do with

Dock strikes and transport strikes for political ends, to say nothing of miners striking for ever-increasing subsidies from the taxpayer, undermine all our efforts to get Japanese and other foreign companies to invest in Britain and create more jobs here.

The TUC Congress should begin with a resolution not to kick own Yours faithfully,

HUGH CORTAZZI. Ballsocks, Vines Cross, Heathfield, East Sussex.

From Lord Lansdowne Sir, This nationally disastrous strike by the coal miners has run on so long that I wonder whether they and the nation as a whole may not be beginning to lose sight of what it is really all about and why it ever started. If the employers "win", what will they have won? If the striking miners "win", what will nev dave achieved:

Apart from taking the available measures to uphold the law of the land and order, HM Government has steadfastly maintained its position of non-intervention between the NCB and the NUM.

Within the framework of British

Advocacy rights

she made.

From the Chairman of the Bar of a court or tribunal by virtue of their legal qualification and training. It was published in February, 1984, the recent discussion about the position of barristers and solicitors

to be employed in the new independent prosecution service.

Finally, I wish to make clear that an employed barrister is not permitted to appear as counsel in robes. Such robes are the insignia of the practising barrister and emphasise his independence of all parties.

Yours, etc.

MICHAEL WRIGHT,

11 South Square

to Moscow.

Yours faithfully,

European Studies.

August 28.

DENNIS DELETANT.

University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, WC1.

Gray's Inn, WCI. August 29.

Senate of the Inns of Court

Death of Antonescu

Sir, The statement in your leader of August 25 that King Michael had the pro-Nazi dictator Marshal Antonescu shot is inaccurate. After the latter's arrest by the King on August

23, 1944, he was handed over to the

Romanian communists. On September 3 General Malinovsky

demanded his surrender to the Soviet authorities and he was taken

Antonescu was brought back to Bucharest in May, 1946, to stand trial for "bringing disaster on Romania and for war crimes".

Convicted by a people's tribunal, he was sentenced to death and executed by firing squad at Jilava prison, near Bucharest, on June 1, 1946.

School of Slavonic and East

From Dr Dennis Deletant

Lunghua Camp

the political sphere.

From Mrs Irene Duguid Kilpatrick Sir, I have just seen the report by your Legal Affairs Correspondent in The Times for August 21, and would like to clarify the position by amplifying some of the points which Sir, J. G. Ballard's Empire of the Sun as fiction is interesting reading. (extracts, August 27, 28, 29) but, as he has used the name of the camp he was interned in, I feel, as an exinternee of Lunghua Camp, that in that instance the facts should have Employed barristers have for very been fairly portrayed.

Lunghua Civil Assembly Centre. many years been permitted by the Bar Council to appear on behalf of their employers before any court or seven miles outside Shanghai, was opened in March, 1943, and started tribunal which would hear them in with about 2.000 internees, British. their capacity as officers or agents of American, a handful of Dutch and Belgian families. The Americans their employers. It was, of course, and still is for the court or tribunal were evacuated six months later on concerned to decide in each case September 20 to Lourenço Marques. whether it would hear an employed except for the two Jesuit priests, who nobly declined to abandon the boys barrister in that capacity. Rights of audience are granted by the courts or they were caring for - 30 or so by Parliament, not by the Bar Council. American seamen joined the camp

The change in the Bar's code of conduct was primarily intended to The Japanese just provided food. water and guards; the only contact emphasise that employed barristers was between their commandant and have a special claim on the attention our camp representative and organizing committee set up to run the It was very well run - like a small and was not in any way related to town, with a school, hospital, churches, clubs for entertainment,

Directional thinking

From Captain R. G. Sharpe, RN Sir, Philip Howard's lack of a sense of geographical direction (article, August 17) is a widespread disability easily alleviated. The secret is to take a point of reference, usually a prominent landmark (but for a journalist your "local" will do) and then orientate your surroundings to it, using the cardinal points of the compass

Once you have acquired the habit of thinking in terms of north/south. east/west, even driving through unknown suburbs becomes a less daunting task. In unfamiliar houses most owners usually know which wall faces south and if it isn't geographically self-evident the orientation of the streets in the vicinity can easily be checked in advance from a single road map.
As Philip Howard suggests, sense

News from Uganda

From the High Commissioner for the Republic of Uganda Sir, May I be permitted to correct some of the facts reported by William Pike (August 24). Brigadier Scotsman, a cousin to each other.

predominantly east/west flowing river poses no problem (although in a different context Whitehall contrariness may have wider implications). As always, the solution is to practise until a habit is acquired; in this case the reward in terms of peace of mind is worth the effort. Yours faithfully,

R. G. SHARPE. Royal College of Defence Studies, Seaford House, 37 Belgrave Square, SW1. August 20.

Smith Opon-Acak is a Lango but not a "cousin" or any relation of President Milton Obote; unless, of course, we were to regard every Welshman, or for that matter every

Smith Opon-Acak has been appointed chief of staff and not as head of the army. General Tito Okello, incidentally an Acholi, is the commander and head of the army. After the death of the late Brigadier

David Oyite-Ojok and at the time of Opon-Acak's appointment, there was not a single brigadier in the Uganda army, so "five more senior Acholi brigadiers" could not have been "by-passed". While I am willing to accept the rest of William Pike's rantings in good humour, I strongly deprecate his deliberate and sinister attempt to drive a tribal wedge in the affairs of my country. Yours faithfully

SHAFIQ ARAIN. High Commission of the Republic of Uganda, Uganda House, 58-59 Trafalgar Square, WC2. August 24.

Books as objects From my own limited experience I know of coal sales lost which will never be regained. There are to treasure

From Mr J. A. Griffin

Sir, Christopher Hawtree's articl-(August 23) is timely, Book pro duction standards have declined to such an extent over the past two decades that conservation of recen books is presenting an increasing problem to the British Library. The imposition of value-added tax to the already high price of books can only accelerate this decline.

The abandonment in many cases of machine sewing of hardback books (hand sewing has long been a thing of the past in most cases) in favour of the cheaper adhesive binding cannot be other than a retrogade step. Thread sewing is as old as the book uself. Its strengths are intrinsic, relying on the folded edges of the gathered leaves.

The so-called "perfect" binding relies only on the extrinsic strength of the adhesive used, such as polyvinyl acetate. The processes which precede this are the same as for a sewn book. Sheets are still folded and gathered in sections. The folded edges are then lopped off, like Samson's hair, and the weak and unstable piles of loose leaves that remain are held together by adhesive.

Many modern plastics are subject cumulative depolymensation from environmental factors, such as ultra-violet light. Even at very low levels of exposure this process is inexorable. It first manifests itself as an increasing brittleness

It cannot be denied that the old animal glues were prone to suffer from the same problem, but with thread holding the book together it was only after a great deal of use that the book needed repairing Oncebrittleness appears in the spine of an adhesive bound book the conditionis terminal and can only be

That Oxford, once one of our great university presses, should be in . the van of this headlong Arimaspian pursuit of profit regardless, via the cheap and nasty, is a source of great sorrow to many hibliophiles. If the decline in standards were matched. at point of sale most Oxford books would now be sold off street-corner harmws

We are told that the digital book is almost ready to take over. The growth of home computers and the increasing availability of very highquality laser printers on a downward price scale opens the very real prospect for the keen bibliophile and bookbinder to be able in the near. future to access any book from a data base, format and print it in the typeface of his choice on the highest quality paper he can afford, and then bind it by hand to the very best of his ability, and thus some books at least will take their rightful place again as objects to treasure. Yours faithfully,

4 Hamilton Avenue. Halesowen. West Midlands. August 24.

SDP and new ideas

From Mr Dick Taverne, QC Sir, Sir Alfred Sherman (feature, study, sport and games and we turned the rough ground into productive and beautiful gardens August 28) claims that the SDP has produced no new ideas, then adds in parenthesis that "Dick Taverne's Institute for Fiscal Studies is another matter, but he stayed out of the new party".

> His implied compliments are undeserved. First, IFS is not "my institute. Although I was its original. director, and later its chairman, I cannot claim the credit for its excellent work.

Secondly. IFS has never had any connection with the SDP and is determinedly independent of all

Thirdly. I joined the SDP at the start, indeed almost before it was founded. I am a member of us National Committee: and I was chairman of the group that, incidentally, produced a programmic for the reform of social security which is much the most radical and original plan put forward by unv... party since 1945. Yours faithfully, DICK TAVERNE, 60 Cambridge Street, SW1. August 29.

The Tawney Society

From the General Secretary of the Tawney Society Sir. If the Tawney Society is without any intellectual impact according to Alfred Sherman, (August 28), whydid the society feature in the Times; news columns for two days running before Sir Alfred's piece appeared? Yours sincerely. . TONY FLOWER. General Secretary.

The Tawney Society, 18 Victoria Park Square, E2. August 29.

Thought for the day

From Mr W. E. Robson Sir, Mr Owen Curtis (August 29) asks whether "tank" in "think tank" is a cistern or an armoured fighting vehicle.

Your diary (same day) says it was founded in 1974 by Sir Alfred Sherman. I have never heard of a Sherman cistern. Yours sincerely, W. E. ROBSON

13 Prior Street, SE10. August 29. From Mrs D. M. Wells

Sir, If it is of any help to Mr Owen Curtis, in answer to his letter (August 29). I find that a nice hot bath makes the ideal "think tank". Yours faithfully, DAPHNE WELLS.

.

Snells, Great Henny, Sudbury, Suffolk. August 29.

COURT AND SOCIAL

COURT CIRCULAR

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

August 31: The Princess Anne. Mrs Mark Phillips was installed as President of The Missions to Reamen at St Michael Paternoster Royal London EC4 today.

Mrs Richard Carew Pole was in

The Princess Anne, Mrs Mark Phillips, Colonel-in-Chief, The Worcestershire and Sherwood For-esters Regiment (29th/45th Foot) this evening attended the Annual Regimental Dinner at Wadham College, Oxford. Her Royal Highness was received

Forthcoming marriages and Ms P. Green

The engagement is announced between John, youngest son of Mr and Mrs E. S. Addelsee, of Ledbury, and Polly, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs K. H. Cue, of Solihuli. Mr K. H. Bourke-Borrowes and Miss S. L. McCready

The engagement is announced between Kildare, only son of the late Mr D. R. S. Bourke-Borrowes and of Mrs Bourke-Borrowes, of Woodbridge, Suffolk, and Sarah Louise, daughter of Mr and Mrs J. R. McCready, of Naro Moru,

Mr B. I. Caulfield and Miss H. S. Wilkinson

The engagement is announced Netherton, Huddersfield, and Helen Suzanne, only daughter of the late Flight Lieutenant H. Wilkinson and Mr W. R. Sanders s J. Watson, of Cross Stone, Todmorden.

Mr S. Crawford and Miss M-L. Whitebead

The engagement is announced between Stewart, son of Mr and Mrs Raymond Crawford, of Wanganui, New Zealand, and Mary-Louise, daughter of Mr and Mrs Frank Whitehead, of Sutton Coldfield, West Midlands.

Mr G. V. Dawson and Miss V. J. E. Bull

The engagement is announced between Giles Vaughan, only son of Mr and Mrs J. N. Dawson. of Ludlow, and Victoria Jane Elizabeth, elder daughter of Mr G. J. Bull, of Guesiling Green, and Mrs H. Stackhouse, of East Presion.

Mr N. N. S. Ford and Miss A. J. Prescott

The engagement is announced between Nicholas, only son of Mr and Mrs D. N. A. Ford, of Farleigh Hungerford, Somerset, and Amanda, daughter of Mr and Mrs S. W. Prescott, of Chorley, Lancashire.

Lieutemant N. S. Kerr, RAN.

Place, North Adelaide, and Margo. daughter of the late Mr A. R. Birkbeck was best man.
Newbury and Mrs J. Arthy, of Hunters Hill, Sydney.

Wenworm-Stancy, David Gunn Mr Edward
Birkbeck was best man.
A reception was held at the bride's home.

Church news

The Very Rev Dr Ronald Jasper has York Minster, upon his retirement as Dean of York Minster, upon his retirement as Dean of York Minster.

Other appointments The Res MI II J Barrow, Vicer of St Mirhaet's Tenterden, diorese of Contri-burs, to be Team Berline of Holy Trinity and At Barnabas, Cartiste, diocese of and of Barnabes, Laruner, Chaptain at Cartisie
The Res P C Bernnson, Chaptain at Freeman Hespital, ideness of Newyastic, to be 1 tray of Advanced many discover, the Adult Education, discover of Butham, in the Devetor of Training, discover of Butham, in its
The Res R J Clorie Curate-in-charge of The Coner diocese of Rain and Wells, to be a Assistant Curate of Hardington Advivide Pendomer and East Color.

Mereorologists at the National Hurricane Centre in the United States are having to rely on scientific information

gleaned from aircraft reconnaissance and European satellite data because of an electrical fault on board their

The malfunction in the $40m satellite, GEOS-5 will make it necessary for the scientists to move its sister sutellite. GEOS-6, into a new

The latter was meant to cover most of the Pacific Ocean and part of the Caribbean but it is to be moved

castward and by next week

own weather satellite.

Science report on arrival by Her Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant for Oxfordshire (Sir Ashley Ponsonby, Bt) and the Colonel of the Regiment (Brigadier

P. Hargrave).
Lieutenant-Colonel Peter Gibbs was in attendance

The Duchess of Kent, patron, will visit the Finchale Training College Durham and also open the second cheme of the Hartlepool General tospital development on vovember 8. Hospital

The Duchess of Kent will attend the Royal British Legion Festival of Remembrance at the Albert Hall on November 10. Princess Alexandra will be present at a charity gala night, in aid of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, at Blazers. Windsor, on October 17.

Mr J. R. Lind and Miss L. L. Chesmore

The engagement is announced between Jeremy Robert, younger son of Mr and Mrs S. G. Lind, of 13 son of Mr and Mrs S. C. Lind, of 13 Campbell Crescent, East Grinstead, Sussex, and Lucinda Isabel, only daughter of Mrs I. H. Chesmore, of Bush House, South Newington, Banbury, Oxfordshire, and the late Mr P. N. Chesmore.

Mr S. P. G. Parrott and Dr H. J. Leather

The engagement is announced between Stephen, younger son of Mr and Mrs Henry A. G. Parrott, of Alton. Hampshire, and Hilary, younger daughter of Dr and Mrs Hugh M. Leather, of Yelverton, south Devon.

Mr C. Pollard and Miss S. Murray

The engagement is announced hetween Charles, son of Dr and Mrs A. B. Pollard, of Nayland, Essex, and Sarah, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Crispin Murray, of

The engagement is announced between William Ralph, elder son of M. Sanders, of Beaconsfield. Buckinghamshire, and Laurette Mary (Norme), daughter of the late Mr and Mrs H. Frank Randall, of Beaconsfield, Buckinghamshire and

M P. M. Z. Tsatsaroucos

and Miss S. A. Kerr The forthcoming marriage is announced between Pierre, only son of Mme Eva Tsatsarounos and the late M. P. Tsatsarounos, of Paris. and Sarah Anne, elder daughter of Dr and Mrs D. F. Kerr, of Wilmslow, Cheshire.

Marriage

Mr W. J. Birkbeck and Miss B. H. Carnegy-Arbetanott The marriage took place on Saturday, August 25 at 51 Audrew's Episcopal Church, Brechin, of Mr William Birkbeck, elder son of Mr and Mrs James Birkbeck, of Lima, Peru and Miss Bridget Carnegy-Arbuthnott, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs David Carnegy-Arbuthnott, of Meadowhurn of Balnamoon Brechin, Angus.

The engagement is announced between Nicholas S. Kerr, RAN, son of the late Mr S. C. Kerr and Mrs P. D. Carless, of Brougham

Heavy No. 12 (1997)

Heavy No.

Birthdays

DIFTHULLYS
TODAY: Mr David Bairatow, 33;
Mr N. H. Castle, 71; Miss Barbara
Dean, 60; Sir Errol dos Santos, 94;
Mr Gwnyfor Evans, 72; ir Chief Marshal Sir Robert Freer, 61; Mr
Allen Jones, 47; Lord O'Neill, 51;
Miss Daphne Park, 63; Sir Austin
Pearce, 63; Lord Riverdale, 83; Dr
Brian Russell, 80; Mr Milton Shulman, 66; Lord Thomson of Fleet, 61.

OMORROW: Professor C. B. Allsopp, 80. Sir Peter Boon, 68; Mrs Heather Brigstocks, 55; Professor Barbara Clayton, 62; Mr Jimmy Barbara Clayton, 62: Mr Jimmy. Connors. 32: Professor David Datches, 72; Sir Arthur Drew, 72; Lord George-Brown, 70; Sir Edward Goschen, 71; Mr Michael Hastings, 40; Air Marshal Sir Paul Holder, 73: Mr P. B. Lucas, 69: Lord Paget of Norlhampton, QC, 76: Professor Sir Desmond Pond, 65: Sir Alexander Resmond Fond, 65: Sir Alexander Ross, 77: Viscount Simon, 82: Mr Victor Spinetti, 51. Professor George Temple, 83: the Right-Rev David Young, 53.

Service dinner The Worcestershire and Sherwood

Foresters Regiment Princess Anne. Colonel-in-Chief of The Worcestershire and Sherwood Foresters Regiment, was present at a regimental dinner held last night at Wadham College, Oxford, Brigadier P. F. B. Hargrave, Colonel of the Regiment, presided.

Latest appointments

Latest prointments include: Mr Robin C. G. Chesterman to be a part-time member of the Eastern its massive walls had been Electricity Board from September 1. quarried away in the rebuilding

Bulb failure blow to weathermen

By Bill Johnstone, Technology Correspondent

survey the United States and a substantial part of the Caribmeans that there may not be adequate monitoring of the hurricane-prone islands in the east of the Caribbean, Alaska and Hawaii. A replacement satellite cannot be launched

The American weather

scientists rely on aerial satellite photographs from Europe's Meteosat spacecraft which watches for tropical disturbances as they form near

The loss of GEOS-5 had

Africa and travel westward.

before 1986.

will be positioned south of been attributed to the failure of Texas where it will be able to a lightbulb. These Tungsten-

The loss of the satellite

James Tolhurst

Of human hearts and statistics

In spite of areas of encourage ment, Christianity in Europe is on the decline. A recent encyclopedia indicates a steady loss since 1900 which is likely to result in just over half the population professing Christianity by the end of the century.

This is not simply a matter of statistics to be plotted on a graph, but a cause for pastoral concern, because we can see our churches emptying, ls there, one wonders, a correlation between the law of decreasing attendance and the emergence of the priest as a pastoral planner? Does the planning take notice of the declining numbers, or are the nubers perhaps a by-product of the planner's approach?

There is a modern school of thought in ecclesiastical circles which tends to accept the situation and without analysing it sufficiently, adopts a plan to deal with it. Thus, in certain dioceses, deacons and lay readers are being prepared for parish ministry because the decline in numbers of full-time clergy is accepted as inevitable.

Obviously, the church, like the unjust steward in the parable, must exercise basic prudence so as to use wisely what she possesses, and administration is necessary for the structure of the relief agency allows essential supplies to reach disaster areas. But as the late George Woodcock used to say, structures must serve as a function of purpose. They are not automatically self-justify-

The drawback of an administrative approach is that it will tend to accept with businesslike calm, any statistic, and plan for it, instead of acting on it by means of a structure. Administrators will argue that there is no difference; but the planer normally proposes an initiative which will be studied by a committee as the action to taken. It is this approach which we, as clergy, are increasingly adopting through our network of discesan struc-

It seems so much more efficient to deal with pastoral matters by administrative means. It has been pointed out that by using a word processor, all the parishioners can be listed at the touch of the keyboard in a way that was impossible for the rather absent-minded country clerics described by R. S. Thomas: "Venerable men, their black cloth/A little dusty, a little green/With holy mildew.

Such is the fascination of modern technology that we good of the whole community begin to think that we have in the same way that the ministered to our parishiopners

Princess as president

Princess Anne arriving at St Michael Paternoster Royal, London, yesterday before being installed as President of the Missions to Seamen. She was greeted by the Rev W. J. D.

Down and Viscount Leathers (Photograph: Paul Murphy).

Archaeology

Crusader castle used as quarry

By Norman Hammond, Archaeology Correspondent

Numerous iron corss-bow

bolts were found in the open alley between the west wall of the tower and the harracks along the outer wall, as well as a number of stone catabult balls.

The earth floor of the tower produced Byzantine pottery of the previous century, but there was no evidence that the Byzantine castle of Paphos was

East of the tower, in the angle formed with the main north wall of the inner castle, a small square chamber above a basement was found, entered through a trapdoor in the vaulted roof. Three metres of debris were removed from this chamber without reaching the floor, and it is though to have

The rock-cut ditch surrounding the castle was also exca-vated, with the line of the ditch and counterscarp being estab-lished except on the south

where a modern road runs.

STEPALL'S CATHEDRAL: HG 8. M 10.30: Benedictus Trailist Store normans. TD (Marbechel. Rev. G. Geydon: HC 11.50. Mean in three parts (Brief). H. O. Sectum convivium (Victorial E. S. 15. Mea) and Nume cimility. Wood in E. A. Green Lord of Lords (Wood). Right Br. A. Benedictus St. M. 10.30. Wood in E. 1 will lift up mine cree (Walker). Rt Hon D Bleeskiey: HC 11.40; E. S. Shambo in G. Leizkar som (Cavalle, Rev. Dr. A. Harvey: Grean recibil. 5.55; ES 6.30. Canon E. Lamera. SOUTHWARK CATHEDRAL: HC 9. SUITHWARK CATHEDRAL: HC 9. SUITHWA

ALL HALLOWS BY THE TOWER: Sung Eversariat. 11. Rev. P. Delaney.
ALL SOULS Limphan. Pleace: HC. 9.30: 11. Rev. R. Shinsant. Crurch family constuning 0.30. Rev. R. Bewes.
ALL SAINTS. Margares Street. LM. 8 and 0.10 M 10.20: HM 11. Mass. in the Playsplan Mode (wood) Rev. J. S. W. Yesing. Solemn. E. 8 and Benediction 6 Samsion in G. Rev. J. W. Holden.
CHELSEA OLD CHURCH: HC. 8: Partie Communion 11 and 2nd 6. Rev. C. E. L. Thomson.

Thomson. GROSVENOR CHAPEL South Audier Street HC, 8 15° Sung Luchards. 1.: communion Service in the Dorian Mode (Tallia). Ave Verum Corpus (Byrd) Sev Dr. A

Services tomorrow:

Eleventh Sunday

after Trinity

on this cité.

been a dungeon.

The remains of a small Cru- of Paphos after the earthquake.

sader castle have been completely uncovered in recent work in Cyprus. Dating to about AD 1200, the castle lies above the port of Paphos, and was excavated by a joint Anglo-columns", the site was a low mound littered with granite columns, and originally thought to have been a temple. Excavations in 1957 by Mr A. H. S.

Megaw, who co-directed the recent work with Professor John

Rosser, disclosed remains of a medieval castle. A chronicle recording the destruction of a castle at this spot by an earthquake in AD 1222 gave a

In the recent season, the eleventh and last, the remains of the northwest corner tower were uncovered. An embrasure

in its east flank remained intact

with its loophole, but cleswhere filament bulbs are critical to the satellite's operation ensur-ing that its timing mechanisms work correctly and allow the spacecraft to continually trans-

The failure is common,

mit photographs of the Earth.

according to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. Similar faults have occurred on two other satellites in the series, GEOS-

After the hurricane season is over, the GEOS-6 satellite will be moved to a more westerly location to monitor

the storms along the west coast of the United States

Source: Associated Press.

3 and GEOS-4.

during the winter.

firm date to the remains.

"the forty

American team.

Known as

because we can conjure their names out of the memory bank. It has been argued that even greater feats can be achieved by putting all parishes on line to a central computer, and coordinating their efforts in a larer diocesan visitation. But it is only when one is brought face to face with the consequence of the administrative approach by living it that one realizes the implications for the church. The individual parishioner reacts to being treated as so much comuter input by gradually becoming the statistic rather than an individual living presence in the worshipping community. The clergyman in his turn becomes the official who reads the statistics and whose litany is the computer manual.

Yet Christianity is a profoundly personal religion because not only is no other God so close to us as ours, but ut God has sent his Son in person to abide with us in the community of priest and people. He continues to become incarnate through human hands and human hearts, not through computer tape. That is why Chaucer could say of his parson: To drawen folk to heven by fairnesse By good example, was

It is the ability to admit of acting and being acted upon which typifies the Christain community, as Newman pointed out Administrative skill may lead you to becoming diocesan secretary but it will not warm hearts. It was not organizational ability that made such an impact on the parishioners of St Peter's, London docks in the last century, but the devotion of Father Charles Lowder, who was described in a memorial sermon, by someone who had scant sympathies for his ritualism, as "a loving and unsparing

We need to ask ourselves. would we want to be remem-bered as a good manager who carried out his task with great efficiency and saw his congregation dwindle to statistics on paper, or rather leave no great monument to organizational ability because instead we were of that number who wrote: One men's hearts and in the minds young children sublime

Too soon forgotten? It is very much a personal words

choice.
The writer is Roman Catholic parish priest of Si Mary Magdalen, Mortlake, London. The national Conference of Priests meets in Birmingham next week to discuss the

Piping gold medal for US who played Queen Anne's Lament day.

Competitors had to submit four

nonorable mention.

Lance Sergeant Huth, Scots Guards, won the silver medal competition with "Beloved Scotland". competition, the MacGregor Memorial Competition, organized by the Highland Society of London. was held on competitors, aged 21 or under, each played one tune from the Gold Medal list, and will play another at the Northern Meeting in Inverness place in heavy rain yesterday at the Games in Oban. The March, Surathspey and Reel was won by Sgr Brian Donaldson, Scots Guards, who also won the March competition. Mr Murray Henderson won the State of Part the Strathspey and Reel compe-left £54,750, some real estate and other bequests to personal legatees and the residue equally between the Spastics Society, Chest and Heart Association, RNLL. Yorkshire Cancer Research Campaign, Hull and East Riding Institute for the Blind, Hull and East Yorkshire Institute for the Deaf, RSPCA, the Soroptomists of Scarborough Housing Association, Yorkshire Naturalists Trust and the NSPCC. ing Association, Yorkshire ists Trust and the NSPCC.

Relivi Extultate justi (Viadanta).

RT PALH S. Robert Adem Street HC 11.

Rev G Cassidy: 6.30 Fev G Cassidy.

ST PETER'S. Eaton Sonare: HC 8 15:
Family Mass IL: 80-ram Mass 11: Missa
Brevis (Raisetriva) Motes: Geode Virgo
Naria (Vitoria) Fr A B Chidwick.

ST SMON ZZLOTES. HC 6. MP 11. EP
6.30 Rev Cassid.

ST SMON ZZLOTES. HC 6. MP 11. EP
6.30 Rev Cassid.

Fig. 11. Communition Refvice in C (Koffy).

Frebendary H Moore: Solema E and Beyendiction 6. Rev DT P Buller ST COLUMBIA'S (Church of Scotland) Por Street: (Beptisms); 11, 6.30, Rev W

THE GRATORY, SW7: LM, 7. 8. 9. 10: HM. 11. Missa da Batialla (Cererola), O Ro the wines of a dove (Meadelsotin); LM, 12.30, 4.30. 7; Vespers, 3.30. O bone Jeau

O.10. RECIENT SQUARE PRESENTERIAN CHURCH: United Reformed). Tavistock Place 11. Rev J Miller 6.30. Rev F Kenez. ST. JOHN'S WOOD UNITED REFORMED CHURCH (Prespyterian/Coogregationalist). Lord's Rev.

organized and personally con-ducted outstanding work in ornithology, and with the help of the British Red Cross, who sent out many musical instrupriesthood.

By Angus Nicol

Her Royal Highness Princess
Margaret presented the Highland Society of London's Gold Medal at the Argylishire Gathering at Oban.
The winner was Mr Michael Custak from Houston in the United States. The competition for the Gold Medal, with the other Ceol Mor competitions, was held on Wednestunes each from a list of seven. All were rarely-heard tunes, none of which had been in the set lists for was taken by Mr Alfred Morrison, who also played "Queen Anne's Lament". Third was Mr Roderick MacLeod playing "Grain in Hides, and Corn in Sacks", and fourth, Amy Garson, fom Otawa, who played "All the Men Paid Rent but Rory". Dr Angus MacDonald, now living in Nova Scotia, was given an

nonorable mention.

The Senior Plobaireachd, with the Grant's Whisky Plobaireachd, Trophy, was won by Mr Donald MacPherson who played the nameless tune, Cherede darievea, also chosen by Mr Hugh MacCallum who came second, and by Mr John MacDougall who came fourth. Mr Malcolm MacRae, playing "The Red Speckled Bull" came third.

Lance Sergeant Huth. Scots and...

The first part of the new ompetition, the MacGregor

The rest of the piping events took

The Hon Maxwell Stamp, of Copford, Essex, financial adviser, left estate valued at £151,302 net.

12.50, 4.50, 7; Vespers, 3.50, Q bode Jesu Upserins).
ST ANSELM AND CECHIA, Kingsway: SM 11. Mass Brevis in G GV 491 Odosari. Dominis in auditum metum Lutz.
ST ETPELIMEDIA'S, ESP Place (Holborn Circus): SM 11. Livora Pesa (Visidana).
THE ASSUMPTION, Warwick, Street (Regen Street) W1; LM 8. 10: SM 11. Mass in C (Mozeri, Exadiate Deo (Pelestrina), Ave Marie Schuberty LM, noon, 4.6. THE JESUIT CHUPCH, Parm Street 7.50, 480, 10: 11 (Sang Latin Mass), Misses alerts Carlotte and Carlotte Comments of Comments of August 18, aged 79.

many years.

Second prize in the competition

Other results: Silver medal: 1 L/Sgt Hutte. Scots Guards: 2 J B Hood: 3 L/Sgt Brian Donaldson, Scots Guards: a Cpt Condon Lang, Argyll and Subjection I-hydianeters: 5 Mr Islan Bruce March Strainspey and Reel: 1 L/Sgt Hard Donaldson; 2 P, M Lain Morrison OQN: 3 Mr Islan Beckmen. 2 Mr Michael Cleack: 5 Mr M K Scott-MacAulisov. 4 Mr Angus MacCol. 5 Mr M K Scott-MacAulisov. 4 Mr Angus MacCol. 5 Mr Michael Cleack: 5 Mr M K Scott-MacAulisov. 4 Mr Angus MacCol. 5 Mr Michael Cheach: 5 Mr M K Scott-MacAulisov. 4 Mr Angus MacCol. 5 Mr Altred Morrison: 4 Mr Angus MacCol. 5 Mr Barry Donaldson, Strathchyde Pelice.
Local March and Local Strathspey and Reel: Mr Thomas MacAulter

Latest wills

Remains of an earlier era were found, in the shape of a large bottle-shaped cistern of Hellenistic date, containing pottery thrown in when the water supply went out of use in the

In the east ditch a covered drain was found, carrying the effluent from the castle latrines towards the sea. This ditch was also where the access bridge was located, and evidence of the modification of the entrance defences was found. The original counterscarp was replaced by a wall four metres near the thought to be of a Byzantine date, and to have been buried during the Arab sack of Paphos in AD 654; centuries later the quarrying of the ruins left a substantial ramp. Associated thirteenth century pottery indi-cates that the decision to use the castle as a quarry instead of rebuilding it must have been taken immediately after the earthquake in 1222.

HOLY TRAITY, Brompton, HC 8, HC (sung) 11, Rev J T C B Collins; $8 6.30.

HOLY TRINITY Stoame Street discare source Tubes HC 9.30. The Eucharist. 10.30. Camon Roberts: HC 12.10
SI ALBANS HORDORY S. M 9.30: Fr Grand Roberts: HC 12.10
SI ALBANS HORDORY S. M 9.30: Fr Grand Roberts: HC 12.10
IN PRIVISION MARKET THE CREAT PRICES I wood in the PRIVISION MARKET STATE CREAT PRICES CONTROL OF STATE STATE CREAT STATE CREAT STATE STATE

Ettenarist, U secreto genouer (B Harwoom Rev D Baher, Picconstitut HC, 8-30; Sung ST JAMES'S, Picconstitut HC, 8-30; Sung ST JAMES'S, Westminster, Sung Ettenarist 11, Canon T Berson service to mark the Rependence of Truidad and Tokago Sont Belsnop of Truidad, Truidad ST JAMES ST JAMES TRUID Communion 9-45. Rev J Willymider MS 11-30, Rev F Shawens, HC 12-30, ES 6-50, Rev C Hedley, HC 7-30.

ST MARY ABBOTS. Kensington: HC 5 and 12.50: 9om; Euchariel 9.50 The Vicer: M 1.16. Rev M J Thompson: E 6.50. The

1.16. Rev M J TROMBOTT E 6.30. The Vicar.

ST MARY'S. Bourne Street LM 8. 9.4. 7;
HM 11 Missa Brevia Gebrield: Gustate E2
Vicets (Busc.) Dr. E. Misschell E3 and Solemn Benedigtion 6.15.
ST MARYLEBONE PASTSH CHURCH: HC
9 and 11. Tiggendmene Glaymin, O Gerran
convivium (Messiann). Rev. C. K. Hannel Coulet 6.30. Ministry of Healing, Laying on of Hands. Rev. G. K. Hannel Gooke.
ST MCHAELLS. Chester Square: HC 8.15:
Family service 11. Rev. A. G. C. Peurson; HC
6.30 Eshab, Lick Dam.
ST MCHAELS. Chester Square: HC 8.16:
Family service 11. Rev. A. G. C. Peurson; HC
6.30 Eshab, Lick Dam.
E4.00 Eshab, Lick Dam.
E5.00 Eshab, Lick Dam.
E5.00

Welley.

FRINTY, Prince Consert Rosd: HC
by Exchansi 1), Sev R Browns.

TRINTY, Sloane Street Glours

Tubay: HC 8.30: The Exchansi.

Canon Roberts: HC 12.10

BANS Hollown: S. M 9.30: Fy 16.30

A hoard of 76 bronze coins is first century AD.

gate tower.

left estate valued at £131,302 net.

Mr George Silver, of Oxford, company director, left estate valued at £992.176 net.

Mrs Emily Asenath Elliett, of Scarborough, North Yorkshire, left estate valued at £518,544 net. She left £54,750, some real estate and other bequest to personal legators.

Wenden, Mr Douglas Ernest, of Great Bromley, Essex........£336,166

Miller.
CENTRAL HALL. Westminster: 11. Rev C
GROWE 6.30. Bey D Banther.
CITY TEMPLE Holosur Vieduch: EC 11.
6.30. Rev Dr B Johanson.
WESTMINSTER: CHAPEL. Buckinghem
Cale: 11 and 6.30. Rev P T A Bassen.
WESTMINSTER: CHAPEL. City Result. 9. 11
President of the Conference. Rev G E Barritt.

did not achieve his home shores until the end of the war. Following demobilization he became Resident Medical Of-ficer at The Middlesex Hospital and was appointed physician to the staff in 1947. The same year he was elected to the Fellowship of the Royal College of Phyi-

CB. Principal Keeper of Printed edition of the General Cata-Books in the British Museum logue of Printed Books (G.K.II).

cians, London.

OBITUARY

George Dickinson Hadley

was born in Birmingham on June 30, 1908. His father was a distinguished member of the community, one-time Editor of the Birmingham Post. George was educated at King Edward

VI's School, Birmingham, and subsequently at Clare College,

Cambridge, where he obtained

first class honours in Natural

He went on to study medicine at The Middlesex Hospital, London, and qualified M.B., Ch.B. in 1934. He became a member of the Royal College of Physicians in 1937 and obtained his M.D. (Cantab) in

At the outbreak of war he joined the Army, only to be taken prisoner at Dunkirk but, typical of the man, he was in no way idle while interned. He ments, he established an orchestra which was second to none in the circumstances. He was involved in several escapes but Sciences in 1931.

1939

aged 76. R. E. writes:

DR GEORGE HADLEY

Medical man with varied interests

Dr George Hadley, Emeritus
Physician at the Middlesex Hospital, died on August 16, Whe he returned from the war difficult.

he was quiet and withdrawn and found communication with old friends and colleagues

During the immediate postwar years and very largely due to the help of his wife Jean

Stewart, the musician, whom he these problems and emerged as a quite remarkable man. It was about this time I became his House Physician and subsequently Registrar, which was an

the privilege of enjoying the master-apprentice" relation-was still a man of few words but his talents as doctor, teacher, philospher and friend soon became apparent and one began to appreciate the man. There was a completness about him, which was a reflection of so many things: his wife, his three daughters, all of whom he loved dearly, and his sense of values which I strongly suspect developed and matured when he was

George's interests stretched far beyond medicine. He was not only a musician of outstanding ability, but he also achieved such excellence that bookbinding and in a prisoner of war.

era when junior doctors still had

When I first met George he married in 1947, he overcame educated at Westminster School and at Trinity College, Cam-bridge, where he gained first class honours in both parts of of the Department and to plan the Classical Tripos. He entered the Department of Printed Books as an Assistant Keeper in 1929, and worked there with single-minded altruism for 37

Gifted with an exceptionally quick and penetrating mind, he was apt to find it difficult to be patient with the slower thinking of some of his colleagues. His character and breadth of schol-

As a Keeper, from 1952 to 1959, he was involved in the negotiations which led to the abandonment of G.K.II in

He was created C.B. in 1962.

SIR RANDAL HEYMANSON

Sir Randal Heymanson, founder of the American Australian Association and chairman of its board since 1967, died on August 27 in New York.

He was 81. Heymanson had lived in New York since 1940, and was knighted in 1972 for services to iournalism and to furthering ties between Australia and the United States.

Born in Melbourne on April 18, 1903 he studied history at Melbourne University, where he founded the university magazine, Farrago, in 1925. Two years later he undertook post-graduate studies at London University, under Prof. Arnold Toynbee, then lectured there in political science and economics

In 1940 he was appointed to open a North American bureau for the Herald and Weekly Times Ltd, Australia's biggest newspaper chain. The company's chairman, the late Sir Keith Murdoch, father of

Second World War that a group be formed in the United States to foster American government and husiness interests in Aus in 1946 Heymanson hosted a discussion in New York between Sir Keith and US business, banking, newspaper, and political leaders, and the concept of the American Australian Association was formed. It was founded officially in 1948 and is today the premier body in America as a forum for political and business leaders from both nations, Heymanson sustained it throughout without compensation. His efforts and his generosity helped to assure

He was editor of the Herald . and Weekly Times Northe American bureau until his retirement in 1969. He con tinued to work as a commen-3 tator for Australian newspapers Over a period of many years he put together a remarkable collection of books on art which he left to Australian univer played an active role in the promotion of the arts in Northern Ireland, and was herself a sculptress and painter. She caused a stir in the 1930s with a sculpture which was in effect an anti-fascist cartoon translated into "the round", representing a kneeling woman being scourged by a stalwart youth who was himself under compulsion from a colossal figure in a German helmet. The work was rejected by the Royal Academy but was shown by the talent as a caricaturist and cartoonist. She studied sculpture in Brussels and Rome. In 1929 she made her first Dr John B. Brown, who died suddenly on August 19 at the age of 58, was Physician-in-Charge of Ediaburgh University Health Service and a former president of the British Student Health Association.

Princess Natasha Bagration, daughter of Prince Constantine Bagration of Mukhrani and of Princess Tatiana of Russia.

"Mother and Child". In 1934 she married the 13th

Earl of Antrim. During the Second World War she was the leader of a hospital unit set up the Catholic Women's League primarily to look after people rescued from the con-

Ulster Drama Festivals, She was a director of Ulster

Lord Antrim died in 1977. daughter.

Cardinal Lawrence Shelian, formerly Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore and a. strong opponent of the Vietnam war, died on August 25 in and chairman of Ateliers. known Caddie supermarket i trolleys, has died in Strasbours Viktor Chukerin, a Russian gymnastics champion who wen -Il medals, including seven gold, in the Olympic Games of one of the most distinguished dealers in London used to send him manuscripts and texts for the talents there was his expertise as a fisherman - he was a master dedicated to the fly with a profound knowledge of rivers Those who knew him before and fish, which was the the war noted a marked change downfall of many a trout and in his character. Before 1939 he salmon. MR ROBERT WILSON

progress when the war reduced 34.2

the staff to a skeleton.
During those years he was

Mr. Robert Andrew Wilson, and organisation of the revised

Born on July 18 1905, he was Having an excellent com-mand of modern languages, Wilson quickly proved himself He took great pains to impreve a cataloguer of outstanding the service to readers, and ability who combined a satisfy their inquiries. passionate concern for accuracy with a capacity for productive work that few of his contemporaries could match.

completion of the latter by July 1966, in 263 volumes.

from 1928 to 1930.

newspaper publisher, Rupert Murdoch, suggested after the Whitechapel Art Gallery.

She was born in 1911, the daughter of Sir Mark Sykes, Bt. and from an early age showed that she inherited her father's Lady Johnston, wife of Sir Charles Johnston, GCMG, former British High Commissioner in Australia, died on August 26. She was the former

Baltimore, aged 86. M Raymond Joseph, founder

1952 and 1956, has died in Moscow aged 62.

active on an unofficial comits future needs and priorities. When a Deputy Keeper and Superintendent of the Reading Room, from 1948 to 1652 Wilson did valuable work in ... bringing up to date the range of reference books, specially scien-tific ones, on its open shelves.

favour of a photo-lithographic reprint, and then, as Principal Keeper, responsible for the arly understanding made him a and in 1967 married Rosemary driving force on the production Norris, who survives him.

tralia.

its future.

sities. He was unmarried.

ANGELA COUNTESS OF ANTRIM Angela Christina Countess of appearance at the Royal Acad-Antrim, who died on August 27, emy with a colossal group in > centration camps, and was active in Belsen. After the war she continued her work as a sculptress and painter. She became a member of the Northern Ireland Arts Council, a trustee of the Ulster Museum in Belfast, and president of the Association of Television.

12, 13 Travel: Hamburg, city of live-and-let-live; a train ride to the gateway of the Indies; Travel News; and Fare Deals crests

The less

and the control

Dig Cale for

ALL IN HIPPER Chichelian 11

17

 $n_{i,j}$

14, 15 In the Garden: House plants; Out and About and Eating Out on the Thames; Values: Eastern promise; Drink

16, 17 Family Life: Invading space at Blackpool; Bridge; Chess; Crossword; Review: Rock & Jazz records; Galleries

The Week: Critical guide to Television, Radio, Opera, Music, Dance, Theatre, Films, Sport and Festivals

1-7 SEPTEMBER 1984 A WEEKLY GUIDE TO LEISURE, ENTERTAINMENT AND THE ARTS

In the meadows of Kerry a fine morning beckons. A ride, a round of golf, a wager, and then to Dublin for the races, a few balls of malt and a fling with a slate-eyed girl. But what is the forgotten factor, the moth in the mind, that transforms this Irish idyll into...

Mby Perfect Day

Number 4: Alan Hamilton

It may have been the shaft of treatise of behaviour of the sun from an already azure sky sidling past the blind to splash on the crisp white linen that first stirted me awake, but I rather fancy it was Macgillicud-

the slumbering master's bedroom bearing the fruits of his two greatest talents: an ability to treate the perfect kedgeree and the influence to lay hands on a late edition of The 111sh Times lished with a pair of silver at six in the morning in the spurs, remoter corners of his native "Ye

I would not be without him while staying at Lord Fitzhetherington's pile in Kerry, where house parties are characterized by an annalgam of limitless his sum or kissed managem. hospitality and chaotic informality. The Fitzhetheringtons arrived with Cromwell, grabbed their acres on the southern Shannon shore and have size. slid so deeply into a gentle unworldliness that they are the leading remnant of the Anglo-Irish Descendancy remaining in the far west.

The present twelfth earl will have no truck with electricity or the telephone and the last time a motor car got past the lodge was when an ill-advised rabble of Fenians in a commandeered Silver Ghost swept up the drive in 1921 to take possession of the castle and were repulsed by two grapeshot from the roof of the dedicated his adult life to the compilation of a lavishly illustrated, definitive, limitededition tome on the snakes of ireland and spends many a harmless hour on the hillsides of the Slieve Mish waiting to spot his first live specimen that he might exercise his considerable artistic talents on its

l could hear Macgillicuddy running my bath as I raked the mner recesses of a vast wardrobe. My hand fell accidentally upon a pile of dusty papers bound in a bundle with rough twine. Withdrawing it to the light, I flicked through the Garda Stochana in the west of Ireland. I had no time to inspect it further, for Macgillicuddy called me to the tub, and I stuffed the bundle, intrigued, generate when shimmering into grand staircase a little later, I

She whispered to me what I thought was: "My mood wants you to be frisky", but was in fact "It's good Protestant whiskey." I was relieved not to be tempted into an abuse of the ear's hospitality, Macgillicuddy would have disapproved.

Outside stood two fine chestnut mares, their tossing heads held by O'Shaugnessy the ostler, an enormous West Indian who had left Barbados with the notion of introducing cricket to Ireland but had abandoned the scheme after finding his property. finding his carefully nurtured wicket desecrated overnight and planted with seed potatoes. We mounted and rode off into the morning the sun warming our backs and a gentle Atlantic breeze bearing the scent of wild flowers from the Kerry meadows. Ireland is truly the greenest place on earth, and that particular clarity of light in the west myests it with a luminescence that no English. -landscape can match.

To while away the hour we spoke of philosophers and poets, and the earl reminisced upon great house parties of the past, attended by every major Irish literary figure of the century; upon the night that Oscar Wilde, dressed in the uniform of a Prussian general, wrestled a Mullingar heifer all the way up the grand staircase; and upon the weekend that a visiting GBS became so outrageously drunk on Tuliamore mantelpiece of the green drawing room and recited the entire unpublished collection of Sig-

dy stuffed the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later crisely the degree of sound to generate when shirms are interested to stuffed the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitanting gallop to arrive at the gate of Ballybunion content of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitanting gallop to arrive at the gate of Ballybunion content of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitanting gallop to arrive at the gate of Ballybunion content of Signature and the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitanting gallop to arrive at the gate of Ballybunion content of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitanting gallop to arrive at the gate of Ballybunion content of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitanting gallop to arrive at the gate of Ballybunion content of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitant of the particular stuff of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitant of the particular stuff of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitant of the particular stuff of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff, exhibitant of the particular stuff of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff of the bundle, intrigued, into the capacious inner pocket of a hacking jacket for later stuff. golf course, where we dis-mounted to be greeted by a club secretary entirely unconcerned at the arrival of two players in the full working garb of the Quom Hunt

> e changed, and the earl effected an introduction to my partner of the day. Tom Watson, who plays the course before every British Open in the belief that the Ballybunion is the finest golf links in the world.
> Watson had his latest set of carbon-fibre, chrome-moly clubs Macgillicuddy had sent ahead my trusty old hickory shafts with hand-made heads crafted to my order by Tom Auchterionie in St Andrews.

> Ballybunion is one of the most challenging courses in the world, not least because it is one of the windiest. But today the Atlantic howl had died to a douce draught, just enough to blunt the cutting edge of the cloudless sun.

> Walson was one up at the turn, and we halved the tenth; my big test had come.
> The eleventh is Ballybunion's

supreme challenge; a par 4 a shade beyond 380 yards. You have to drive at least 180 yards to avoid a frightful patch of rough in front of the tee, and accuracy is essential. To the right is the sea, and to monstrous mountain of sand. Playing ahead of us, the earl had fired straight into the Shannon, and his partner had booked into the Sahara of bunkers to the landward. Watson's power let him down for once, and he drove a bare 120 yards into the

It was up to me to show them. Patting my pockets I found the countess's hip flask, took a generous suck of Black Bush, and addressed the Slazenger. You can tell when the connexion is good; no unpleasant shock waves pulse up the shaft to numb your arm, and there is almost an absence of sound. Watson whipped a tory. "Spot on", he called. "Dead athwart the bottleneck." The approach to the green is through a narrow vale between sand dunes, requiring perfect accuracy. I was six yards from the pin, but still a yard ahead of Watson's second and powerful recovery blast down the fair-way. A controlled nine-iron shot, which I always think is my best, lofted in the air, bounced once on the fast dry green, rolled obligingly to the lip of the hole, and stopped.

pocket and followed my trajec-

It may have been divine INTERVENDO stirring of the wind, but we stood in silent wonder as the white orb chose to take one more roll and drop with a resonant plop into the pot. It was only then that I saw Peter Alliss and the camera crew watching us from a distance. The camera, I noticed, was

We remained level for the rest of the round, until I managed to snatch victory on the eighteenth green with a rather fine six-yard putt. Watson instantly paid up the £50 wager, not in local punts but in the good brown Florence Nightingale stuff. Macgillicuddy had brought funning.

small brass telescope from his round the drophead Aston

Martin and we all piled in for a short drive to lunch at a cool, wisteria-clad old riverside hotel where we took our stout and ovsters on the terrace, watching opulent white yachts fazily ply the estuary. We were joined by the man who writes the parliamentary sketches from the Dail for The Irish Times and who is therefore by definition the funniest man in the western

He regaled us with much el-baced man in collariess shirt and brown felt trilby who revealed himself as P. O'Hooligan: freelance mathematician and veterinary con-

The O'Hooligan's speciality. upon which he gave the impression of having gained a doctorate at Trinity, was the 7.30 race at Phoenix Park that very evening. All Irishmen consider themselves authorities on the turf, but the O'Hooligan had patently graduated summa cum laude in his art. "Is it not me own brother is working as head lad for Vincent O'Brien himself and was he not on the telephone this very morning with the information?" The tip was Fourth Police-side of Ireland. I had, of course, reckoned without Macgillicuddy; he materialized from the shadows to whisper that, even as we spoke, a twin-engined Cessna was having its ice-box refuelled with Krug '78 in an

We lingered over lunch well wicked scandal about the fallen into the lazy, bee-loud after and yellow, but discernibly The idols of Leinster House and noon, until the Cessna whisked Fourth Policemum: a novel by introduced us in turn to a us from the dazzling western Flunn O'Brien. The earl and I light of Kerry brown middle of Ireland and the brilliant green velvet of Kildare, wheeling into Dublin over the Bay of Killiney that is so like the Bay of Naples. without the volcano.

adjacent meadow.

The president of the Irish Republic did not in the least mind us landing the Cessna in the garden of his official residence in Phoenix Park; indeed, after a hard day's presiding he felt like a bit of the horses himself, and would introduce us to a particularly trustworthy turf accountant o his acquaintance. Dangerous Dan Driscoll.

We found Dan's pitch by the rails and inquired what price he might care to contemplate for a horse by the name of Fourth Policeman. You're a brave man, sir, to be putting your shirt on an old grey mare that's never in its life seen a winnin' post for the arses of the rest of the field. For a gentleman of quality like yourself sir. a hundred to one.

I decided to stake my takings from Watson for the golf. 50 quid to win. Money, after all, was no object since my much-Scots have a higher incidence of genius than any other race on earth had entered its sixth printing within a year and we had just sold the Chinese rights.

almost forgot to watch the race, for I had become engaged in intense debate with a man at the rails whose binoculars I had merely wished to borrow, on who was the greatest comic novelist of all time. The president and the earl had joined us, and I barely noticed, nor hardly cared, that Fourth Policeman was beaten into second place by three lengths.

Argument was still raging when we bid the president good evening and adjourned to the womb-like mahogany snug of Ryan's Bar outside the park gates. The earl was mounting a stout, if bizarre, case for Kafka's The Trial, which he maintained all the way to Mulligan's Bar, then to Doheny and Nesbitt's, all through the back bar at Neary's, and finally down to the Brazen Head below Christ Church Cathedral, where he was temporarily silenced by the enchanting performance of an Irish country fiddler.

I had maintained throughout that the finest comic novel in existence was Flann O'Brien's The Third Policeman. "Knew the fellow well", said the earl suddenly. "Used to come to our house parties. Told me once he was writing a sequel, but I doubt he ever did."

An irritatingly vague thought had been flitting formlessly around the back of my mind all afternoon, like a darting moth in a darkened room. It was man, and the O'Hooligan had suddenly netted by two simulcalculated a win by three taneous events: the earl's Garrick with Lords Weidenfeld lengths. A pity, I remarked to chance remark, and the long the assembled company, that probing fingers of the disturbing Phoenix Park was on the other beautiful colleen with the deep probing fingers of the disturbing beautiful colleen with the deep searchings eyes which were running admiringly over the cut of my tweed. They found the bulky outline of the forgotten package deep in my poacher's

> In the dim light of the bar we untied the twine and peered at the dusty title page. It was faint ici out a simultaneous whoon pumped each other by the hand. and demanded large balls of malt from the potboy. But when I explained how I had come upon it in the earl's wardrobe that morning, he instantly changed his tack,

Worth a fortune, me boy. But it's mine, I tell you. Fellow was my house guest; left it in my wardrobe. Old bounder was as mad as a hatter, could never have done it without me. Tell you what, you can have it for ive thousand."

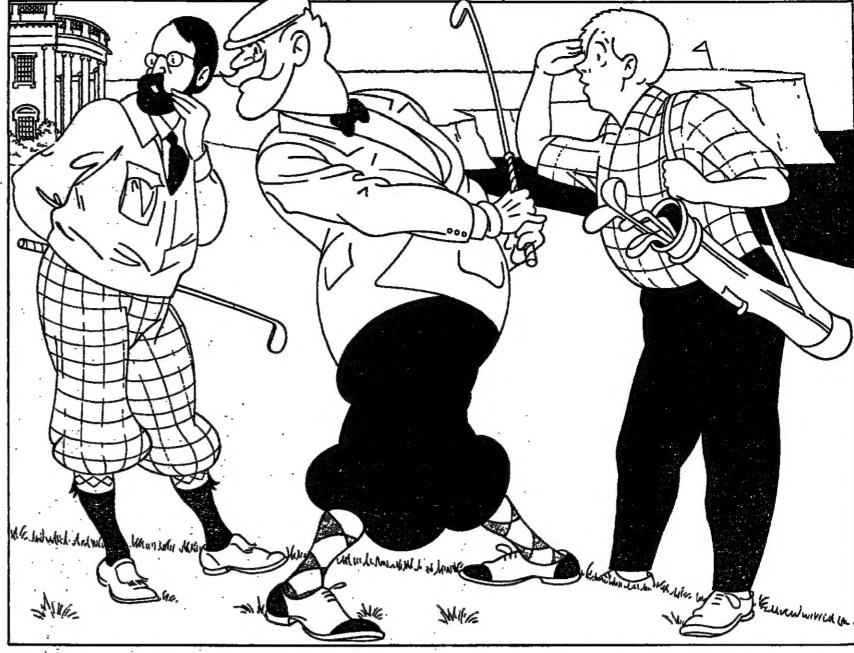

Anyway, five thousand was a London in the morning and be Driscoll paid up. That's five the toast of Bloomsbury as I thousand, exactly."

and Longford prostrating their cheque books at my feet. I made to write the earl a cheque at once: we both patted our pockets in vain for a pen, but my tweed-stroking admirer rescued the deal with a small bottle of purple nail varnish and the quill of a passing goose.

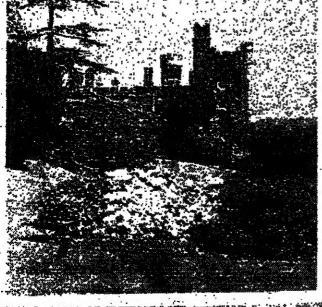

I danced all the way down Dame Street with Vanessa the slate-eyed colleen, and we cast a fresh rose in the churchyard where her Swistian namesake had been.

My suite at the Shelbourne awaited, my luggage already installed and a set of silk pyjamas laid out. I was propoed on a mountain of feather pillows dipping at random into my treasured manuscript and enjoying the boundless imagination of the man, when there was the softest of knocks on the door, Macgillicuddy shimmered in, bearing a fat brown envelope which he placed discreetly on the bedside table and made to withdraw.

"There was a stewards" There was no decently denying his proprietorial rights. whispered. "Fourth Policeman was declared the winner at a bargain: I would fly with it to hundred to one, and Dan

Castles for hire, but not Macgillicuddy

 Earl Fitzhetherngton's pile is not to be found in any guidebook, but you can rent a real-life twelfth-century Irish castle for a house party, complete with butler and cook, Lismore Castle (left), the Irish home of the Duke of Devorshire, can be rented for Ir£2,600 per week. Ideal for parties of up to ten. Contact Paul Burton, Lismore Castle, County Waterford (010 353

58 34424). Afternatively you can live in lixury in County Kerry at Caragh Village, a development of 18 luxurious threebedroomed houses in landscaped grounds by Caragh Lake. Rents Grounds by Caragn Lance. Henra (1/2200-250) per week ((1/2100-160 in low season). Contact Michael O'Connor, Caragn Village, County Kerry (018 353 66 61540).

 Ballybunion golf course (below) welcomes visitors; green fees In 10 per day including weekends. The Ambassador Hotel offers golf weekends from Ir253 per person. including green fees. The Ambassador Hotel, Balybunion, County Kerry (010 353 68 27111).

 Phoenix Park has frequent weekday evening race meetings. Admission IrS3 (IrS20 to the owners/trainers enclosure). Phoenix Park Race Course, Castleknock, County Dublin (0001

 A one-way, 5-seater light aircraft charter from County Kerry to Dublin will cost Ir2525 from Shannon Executive Aviation, Shannon Airport (010 353 51

 The Shelbourne Hotel's most luxurious accommodation is the Princess Grace Suite including 2 bedrooms, sitting room, dining room and kitchen, at Ir2250 per night. The Shelbourne Hotel, St Stephen's Green, Dublin (0001

 More information and guidebooks from offices of the Irish Tourist Board in Britain: 150 New Bond Street, London W1 (01 493) 3201); 28 Cross Street, Manchester (061 832 5981); 6-8 Temple Row, Birmingham (021 236 9724); 19 Dixon Street, Glasgow (041 221

Macgillicuddy is devoted to his master and is not available for hire.

Michael Watkins, in Hamburg, finds order and angst, big feet and warm hearts and a multiplicity of eels

Warnings in the wind for the snug city would avoid certain areas out warning, we were deluged in unless armed with a Bren gun crashing chords of Bach. It was and six-inch mortar. Hamburg a lunch-time concert, free unless enfolds one, as in a fluffy duvet.

Hamburg ist gemitlich: Hamburg is ... well, cosy. Hamburg.

I was told over dinner one evening at Fischercihasens - a redoubtable fish restaurant nverlooking the harbour - has no identity crisis. To which I was tempted to respond that perhaps it also had no identity; but on reflection I didn't think that was fair. It was a complacent remark, yet true. Hamburg accepts that it is more hourgeois than princely, that it favours conservatism over radicalism that II is slow to change and quick to condemn in 1189 the Emperor Barbarossa issued an edict giving the city the right to freedom of trade and exemption from reaster and eventpiton from customs duty along the lower Elbe. It is still free, yet lacks a sense of history. It was guited by fire in 1842, a process repeated at the hands of "Romber" Harris in 1943 when "O per cent of the city was destroyed, 40,000 of its population killed. In some ways Hamburg is only 39 years old, year One being when rebuilding started in 1945; but the new sky-line implores respect which, by virtue, it receives.

Most lake-hound cities are dramatic, and Hamburg is no exception. There is severity of line, an almost Lutheran air of non-compromise. There are copper-green roofs and, at night, the wanderfully illuminated spires of St Peter and St James. It is cold too, the sky metallic, a true northern city. There is nothing Latin about the architecture or the collective personnlity. A Hamburger is as unlikely to burst into tears as he would be to break into song. He is not spontaneous; even his reflexes are controlled. He knows precisely which side his Bny is buttered.

So it comes as a surprise to discover that it is a musical city. found myself in St Michael's Church, tiered like a baroque theatre, at the hour of midday when old men come in from the cold and old women to pray and to remember. There were secretaries with the unformed features of youth, and American tourists reading love-letters from Oshkosh. Suddenly, with-Plennigs in the box.

That evening I went to the Weber, Ude Krekow and Jutta-Renate Ihloff in Zar und Zimmerniann, It was the usual story, common to all opera plots, of a tenor and a soprano prevented from doing so by the baritone; but the singing was fustrous and at the end the audience got to their feet clamouring for nine curtaincalls. Had their idols not shown themselves, grievous hodily harm would have been commit-

It made me wonder if I had been wrong about a lack of passion. After all, Das Schiff, a converted wind-iammer specializing in Staged political satire, is sold out six weeks ahead: while the Restaurant Alt Hamhurger Aalspeicher is said to prepare more cel dishes than anywhere in the world - which is passionate enough for me.

Then there is the Reenerhahn but if you think I am going coming.

Let me tell you instead about feet. I first came to consider feet during a conducted tour of the Rathaus, the City Hall, rebuilt after the 1842 fire. In one room hangs a vast canvas, painted on a day when the light was not of the best, of a bovy of senators. Their judicial faces gave little away so, for something to do, I studied their feet. What feet! When I rejoined the human concourse in Rathausmarkt I saw immediately that this is a hereditary condition. Look into any footwear shop, men's shoes are the size of small rowing. There are alarming signs of a

Not that this in any way impedes business as usual. Billboards advertise Elton John, chewing-gum, Emmanuelle 4 and other things that make life hearable. When, a short while ago, the pet licence was doubled, 15,000 dogs demonstrated outside City Hall. The writing, even in this forensically tidy city, is on the wall; Kinder Wollen Frieden, it reads. Children Want Peace, And when, at the Captain's Table, I apologized to the waiter for leaving a plate of Labskaus piled higher than Hadrian's Wall, he answered: "Besser als umgekehrt - love-letters of life, you have another think referred, perhaps unthinkingly, to the war, to times of hunger. One marvels at the ordinari-ness of it all; there is such almost inhale it. All is well, one thinks; but here one would be wrong, for there is a deep underlying sense of anxiety. Hamburg is cut off from the natural hinterland to the east by the German Democratic Republic and while the threat of public and, while the threat of Russian tanks grinding along Junglemstieg is a possibility one must live with, the ailing port and 12 per cent unemployment are fact rather than hypothesis.

talent-drain towards the south. Bavaria, previously patronized as oalish, is being treated to keener scrutiny. The writing is on the wall for adults as well as

Which might, or might not, sail over the head of Dr Georg Syamken, curator of Ham-burger Kunsthalle, who is more than half in love with matters aesthetic. If he is interested in interest is peripheral compared with his devotion to Meister Bertram's altar-piece from Si Peter, dated 1379. This work must be his first treasure in the gallery. Others include the 12 landscapes by Caspar David my countrymen for not study-Friedrich. Manet's Nana, the ing this, he says. He is a Ono Runge collection, the beautiful man, with a massive Hockney but not alas the intelligent head. "Optimism is Warhol. To say nothing of the largest canvas Renoir ever painted; and nothing, in this respect, is surely the wisest

Next day I lunched with my friend Erich Luth in the vaulted cellars beneath the Rathaus where once he sat in Parlia-ment. Born in 1902, he was a radical pacifist until reading a book called Mein Kampf, a talehe found so cautionary that he denounced the author. Something happened then that throws a curious light on the Nazi mentality: the Gestapo imprisoned Erich's brother in error, refusing to reverse the situation even when the real

There is something messianic about Erich; he stands alone, shouting warnings into the wind, warnings which the wind gathers and hurls back. Many of is 40 books contain warnings, but no one takes notice. Meanwhile he is getting old and, in a flash, he will be very intelligent head. "Optimism is my character", he says. "pessimism is my conviction", After lunch we walked.

Bridges took us over canals. We passed at the lakeside, my hotel: Vier Jahreszeiten. Four Seasons. "How is it?" asked Erich. I told him that hanging from my bath was a large thermometer so that I could test the water without wetting my toes. It has the reputation, I told him, of being one of the best 10 hotels in the world; but how one judged the top 10 dentists, the top 10 barley-sugar manufac-turers, the top 10 hotels; was beyond me.

A stiff breeze came off the lake, ruffling feathers, mussing coiffures. We shook hands. "You must be braver than we were", he shouted into the wind. "But will you be brave?" ! watched him go, battling into the wilderness, and I wondered if I would ever see him again.

It was unlikely that we would run into each other at my evening rendezvous beneath old. His latest warning is that Bismarck's stern gaze. A mai-the Soviet Union is still den voyage along the Reeper-shocked and afraid of the bahn is like discovering that a German ethos, and that some- favourite aunt, of impeccable how they will react. "I accuse moral rectitude, Italian lovers and a penchant for naughly underwear. In less than 100 yards I was propositioned eight times by girls between, if looks can tell, 14 and 17 years old. Just on my horse from the officer. home from the office".

told them, Herbertstrasse is barred to traffic, women and minors. It is a street of houses with double windows at street level. The interiors are bathed in a pinkish, tonsillitic glow, in each window, displaying their wares, prostitutes recline, invariably in

In Grosse Freiheit are the set shows. Pornography really is at question of geography. In Amsterdam it is one thing, in New Orleans another, in Bangkok's Patpong Road it is a tittering, giggling affair, inno-Reeperbahn it is different again. mechanized, thorough, as erotic as last week's lettuce.

I flew British Airways Heathrow to Hamburg in 1 hour 15 minutes, (Club-class, £228, PEX, £115) return. On certain selected fight £74 return.) My hotel, Vier. Jahreszetten, is superb in the stately old way and superbly expensive: a double room costs 888 - £117 per hight, including tax and service (continental breaklast, £6.25). Hamburg's Tourist information Office also recommends the following more modest and moderate hotels: Graf Moltke, Steindamm I; Ibis, Wandsbeker Zollstrasse 25-29; Baseler Hospiz, Espianade II Hamburg Information, Junglemstleg 5, also offer a "Hamburg Weekend" with ive accommodation including coupons for sightseeing outings throughout the year with a maximum of three nights Fri to Moi write for details. Eating out: fish restaurants abound; by the eel soup, a Hamburg speciality. Dinner for twick namourg speciality. Diviner for my including wine, £30-£35. Service-and cooking at upper and middle-bracket restaurants is uniformly excellent. In an interview with the British Consul, he permitted me

The map on August 11:wrongly

Time and motion: Modern statuary adorns the façade of a trade anion building; St Michael's Church tower; Gresse Freiheit, in Hamburg's red light district

CRUISE BARGADA £400 ner person

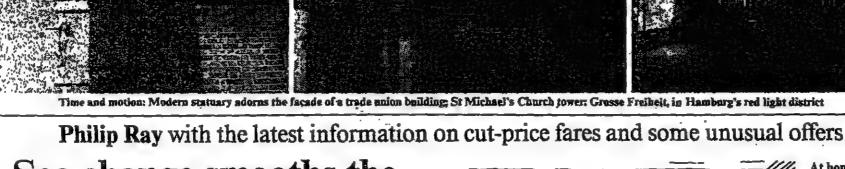

Depart Tilbury on 19th September 1984 on our fantastic 17 night Mediterranean Cruise calling at Oporto, Tangier, Cartagena. Marseilles, Genoa. Civitavecchia. Naples and Gibraltar. Availability is limited to the following:

2-berth cabins (toilet only) - £990 pp (Brochure price £1410) Port Charge £19 pp extra.

Phone 01-409 2019 9 a.m. - 5 p.nr. weekdays or 01-491 3760 Ansaphone after 5 p.m. and weekends. Or take this ad. to your local ABTA Travel Agent.

Sea change smooths the passage to the Caribbean

NEWS set to extend to

Caribbean Lines announced vesterday a starting price of to the cruise price also includes 1795 for seven-day Caribbean overnight accommodation and cruises from Miami in 1984-85. breakfast at a Miami hotel. including the return flight from London, compared with £945 last winter. Virtually all its fly-

FERRY

The price was an advance-purchase excursion Singapore Airlines, Cathay between holiday ticket in the low season [Nov 2- Pacific and Thai International operators seems Dee 7 and Dec 28-March 29). Cruise passengers also have economy return between Lon-Caribbean cruts- the option of travelling between ing next winter. London and Miami on Concorde at £709 off the normal return fare. The air-fare add-on NCL bases four ships at Miuni, including the Norway.

Economy in the East

The reductions have been schieved partly by an agreement with British Airways for lower add-on fares for the lower add-on fares for the introduced by a specialist tour London-Miami journey, which operator, Oriental Magic. The will start at only £99 return for fares are based on travel by and start at £525 for an don and Bangkok, which compares with the full economy fare of £1,446. Fares to Singapore start at £560 return and to

Hong Kong at £630. There are no advance-book ing requirements and reservations can be made up to 24 hours before departure, but a minimum stay of seven nights is required at most destinations. Information from travel agents or from Oriental Magic in Blackpool (0253 23951).

Consular care

A new leaflet published by the Central Office of Information, "Get it right before you go", gives some useful tips for travellers on the role of Britain's 1,200 consulates abroad. It explains what consuls can and cannot do to assist travellers in difficulty and gives advice on how to cope with accidents or deaths and problems like lost passports or running out of money. Copies of the leaflet are through being distributed throw ABTA-member trasel agents.

Wedding on the wing

Packaged civil wedding ceremonies in an exotic location, introduced by Wings Faraway Holidays in the Seychelles last two hotels on Bali. The price at two hotels on Bali. The price includes a champagne reception, the services of a best man and photographer, all documentation and one week's free accommodation to celebrate the first anniversary.

At home in Korea

chance to stay with a family in a typical-Korean home is provided in a new programme being launched by the country's National Tourism Corporation this month. It is a pilot scheme in preparation for the 1988 Olympic Games, when it will be fully implemented as part of the accommodation system for foreign visitors. Each family has at least one member able to speak a foreign language. The cost is £20 per night for a single room including breakfast. or £24 for double occupancy. Information from the Korea National Tourism Corporation, 1 Hanover Square, London W1 (01-408 1519).

Scandinavian September

Longship Holidays, which is run by the Danish ferry line DFDS Seaways, has cut the price of self-catering holidays in Denmark and Sweden in September. Three nights at a Danish summerhouse on the Djursland Peninsula in East Juliand, plus two nights on the ferry, cost from £46. A mini-mum of two adults must travel together, but children go halfprice and the car travels free. A log-cabin holiday in Sweden at Isaberg, costs from £53 for four nights. One child per adult travels free and, again, there is no charge for the car.

CRUISE BARGAIN SAVEOVER £700 per person

allew hirter and lattle lin

If you're looking for a late holiday bargain book now on our 6th October cruise from Tilbury. 18 pampered nights cruising to Lisbon. Gibraltur. Palma, Tungier, Tenerile, Las Palmas and Madeira. FARES PER PERSON Bouble Cakins (ST), $950: (Brochere price £1720) Double Cabins (Totlet only)- £800 (Grechuse price £1470)

*Port Charge £19 extra. Phone 01-409 2019 8 a.n. 5 p.m. weekdays or 01-491 3760 Ansaphone after 5 p.m. and weekends. Or take this ad. to your local ABTA Travel Agent.

* Geneva Poster For a free copy of an attractive 55cm x 50cm poster together with our brochurer on indove-dual inclusive holidays to this beautiful city, write Time Off Ltd., 2a Chester Close, London SW1X 7BQ.

And you receive AA 5-Star Insurance worth £29.50, absolutely FREE. Without your car Santander uself offers esplanades for strolling, good shopping, superb beaches, entertainment and restaurants. . .

For details of twice-weekly departures from Plymouth, ring Brittany Fernes today on Plymouth (0752) 263388, cr see your Travel Agent

CRUISE HALF THE WORLD TO AUSTRALIA/NZ, FLY HOME FREE.

San Juan , Montego Bay The Panama Canal Acapulco San Francisco Honolulu and Pago Pago. Fabulous places whose memory will linger long after your 5 week voyage aboard the luxurous P&O Sea Princess Sail from Southampton 11th January 1985, arriving Sydney 23rd February (Free air travel from Sydney to Auckland/Wellington/ Christchurch). Fly home free. Prices start at $3,649. The brochure is available at your ASTA travel agent, or by phoning P&O on 01-377 2551, or by posting the coupon.

To PSOBracture Service, PO Box 8, Leverpool L69 IPP

P&O Cruises

and be sure of a fabulous weekend

Come and discover the enchant-ing world of Ireland on an Aer Lingus Dublin or country weekend break. Spend an unforgettable weekend in Dublin with its fashionable shops, offee houses, restaurants, historic buildings and, of course, its famous bars. Or you can relax in Ireland's fresh, green countryside and enjoy all the pleasures of lakes, mountains and friendly villages. Prices start from £94 for the return hight and two nights' accommodation. And for just £16.50 a day

we can arrange for a self-drive hire car to meet you at the airport. For full details and cor your local travel agent of call your 'nearest Aer Lingus office.

London: 01-439 7262; Manchester: 061-832 8611; Glasgow: 041-248 4121.

QE2, CONCORDE AND NEW YORK'S FABULOUS WALDORF ASTORIA FROMONLY£995

Between September 9th and December 16th you can experience this fantastic holiday. it's been so popular we've added two more dates (October 19th & 26th).

> For full details of these. see your travel agent or contact Currand at 8 Berkeley Street, London WIX 6NR. Tel: 01-491 3930.

حكدًا من الموجلي أ

Leslie Gardiner takes a train through the gorges of the North West Frontier

Scents of quince and sheep heads

To be led towards the gateway of the Indies by this particular Pathao is to have a few illusions the British built the line 72 shattered. In the first place, his years ago. secondly, he is mild, spotty and bespectacled. Thirdly, he cannot stand heights, which is how I come to be walking alone on the austere ridges where Pakistan meets Afghanistan, where tides in the affairs of men have meeting since Alexander

"Shalo... let's be off" – the stationmaster swung his bell, the tea-boy dragged his samovar away, the platform barber gathered together the instruments of his craft, A few straw-capped tribesmen, trailing long scarves, leaped on to the trucks and a Japanese tourist who had name, Gulab, means "Rose", the Great passed this way.

Frontier satisfied all expec- got left behind. tations. Even the railway station of Peshawar Cantonment was a nostalgia trip into the wonderful

There were mock-Gothic Mail and Karachi Express, a patrolment of the Khyber dusty black locomotive blowing off steam... and the scent of brain masala (curried sheep's where you hardly dared put brain more principles competing with the little the railway cutting is 30. parties competing with the scents of belifiower, quince and bitter orange from the bungalow gardens round about. At the the insignia of the regiments, station bookstall I couldn't old and new, carved in bas relief find Kipling in the art nouveau Indian Railway Libraries edi-tions, but I did find Barbara Cartland.

Our train was assembled from odd items of rolling stock. Three tribesmen and four sheep were already in possession of the flat-topped truck. Other trucks took on loads of shapeless bundles, sacks of dates, nuts and edible seeds.

The blue car was the tourist coach. It had attracted a few German hikers, a party of Japanese tourists, a group of Old Comrades (they arrived in a grey-painted London omnibus) and an upright, skinny across the front bumper and figure in a brown robe with a another lying on top of him, tangle of grey hair curied round clinging to the radiator. Driver, tangle of grey hair curled round his turban. This man, much more my idea of a Pathan, looked sharply about him as he climbed on board, like an animal suspecting a trap.

Why should he? The route smugglers".

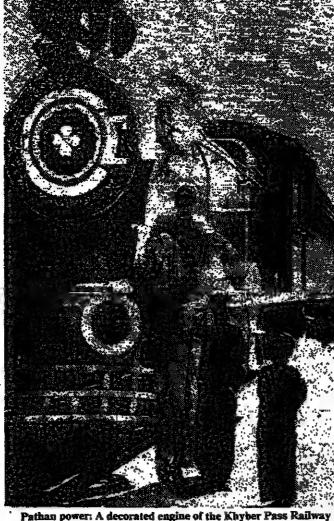

been meeting since Alexander and a Japanese tourist who had expended rolls of camera film Gulab apart, the North West on the steam locomotive almost

As an excursion it wasn't all that scenic or romantic. For half the journey we jogged across the monochromatic flatlands of the Vale of Peshawar, At the fort of portals segregating upper classes Jamrud the train collected more from lower classes, a departures livestock, more shapeless bunboard which listed Frontier dles and the flashing salutes of little; the railway cutting is 30 yards wide and 1,000 feet deep. A shaft of sunlight picked out on the rock-face - Essex, South Wales Borderers, Durham Light Infantry, Khyber Rifles,

Where the route began to look interesting, with 12 tunnels visible at the same time, we came to a cindery plateau and halted. This was Landi Kotal, journey's end for the train. Landslides have undercut the rest of the track and you descend to the frontier in a jeep. On the way down we heard rifle fire, nothing unusual for these debatable lands. A jeep came groaning up the pass with about ten Afghans packed inside it, another stretched and passengers fired festive salutes. They told us they were. freedom figurers but afterwards. Gulab scolded me for asking indiscreet questions: "Freedom He paid no fare, Gulab said, fighters is another name for Peshawar to have their photo-graphs taken." cost of living.

I left Gulab at the teahouse

At Tor Khama, the frontier post, the pageant of heavy goods vehicles and camel caravans had become a tableau representing philosophical resignation. "Many uniforms, many documentations", said

Beyond the bridge another traffic jam awaited release. The sign said: "Welcome to Afghanistan. Please drive on the right": A hammer-and-sickle waved above the customs . hut along with the blue-and-white national flag. A steady stream of gypsies, hardly distinguishable from the dirty, slouching border guards, passed back forth with cargoes of contraband. Now and again a scuffle broke out

TRAVEL

NOTES

For the independent traveller northern Pakistan is pleasant in early apring and late autumn. Costa of long-hauf travel from Britain are miligated by the cheapness of accommodation and transport full board at mountain inn or government rest house, 24 air fare from Islamabed (Rawaipindi) to Peshawar (40 minutes, three flights daily). In Peshawar we stayed at the elegant Khyber Intercontinental, single room and

November

"They said they were going to bribery tariffs fluctuate with the

"No, they are heading for and just to say I'd been in ari, where the best hash is Afghanistan, took to the ridge where the best hash is and scrambled down to the sands of the torrent which defines the frontier. Spiky shrubbery outlined its course and here and there a log-jam of empty lubricating oil cans had built up.

Down the stream came a Bactrian carnel, leading a child who, by jumping, could reach the animal's tail and give it a twitch to keep it on course. When they came to the shade of the evergreens, the camel sank to its knees and the little boy pillowed his head on its flanks and fell asleep. What with the heat of the day, the rippling stream and the distant grumble and gear-change of a jeep on the gradients of Landi Kotal, I felt quite drowsy myself.

bath £20,50: there are also Dean's Hotel, second class, £13 a day and the International, third class, rates on request. The 70-mile return rail trip from Peshawar to Landi Kotal, Fridays only, costs 12 rupees (65p) Peshawar and the Khyber region are included in numerous tours organized by PIA Tours Promotion 120 Regent Street, London W1

(439 4200). Execuse Expeditions, 100 Wandsworth High Street, London SW18 (870 0151) offers a 19-day tour of Pakistan's northern areas including Peshawar, for £940-£990 Occasional "battlefield tours" and military journals such as those of the Royal British Legion and the Officers' Pension Society.

Alex McWhirter rounds up the best buys to the US in a series on low cost air travel

Battle lines drawn up by the big boys?

coming months will be turbulent for airlines

PAKISTAN

North At-lantic route. Now that the holiday season is coming to an cnd, there are more and more empty seats available and the major carriers are becoming increasingly concerned about the number of passengers now being carried by Virgin Atlantic and People Express.

The activities of the two

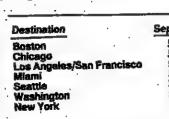

"opstart" airlines are being niched closely by the big boys and if People Express gets government approval - a decision is expected any day to operate extra flights from Stansted a new price war will probably begin: But the present transatlantic njarketplace is hardly a sleepy e. It is as volatile as ever so it news to look around for the best lare to suit your needs. Here are some suggestions: The prices of charter flights, one of the most economical ways to cross the Atlantic, are now being cut as the pro- modest. giammes start winding down, but you must remember that charters only cover limited destinations. Flights must be booked at least 21 days ahead minimum of seven days. Examples: American Airplan is offering New York for £259 return while North London's Slade Travel is charging between £250 and £294 for the same destination. Father afield, Poundstretcher charges £299 for Orlando and £399 for Los Angeles. Except for New York, almost all charter flights stop running by the end of October.

• On the scheduled scene the two chief fares offered by the major airlines (i.e. BA, Pan Am and TWA) are Stand-by and APEX (Advance Purchase Excursion). Stand-by fares are supposed to be on sale until the end of October only but they may be extended through the winter season. Available on a one-way basis, they allow you to travel to one destination and teturn from another. Seats can only be confirmed on the day of especially if you travel after November 1. Examples of return fares for travel from Monday to Thursday (a small surcharge applies Friday to Sunday) are given in the table above.

Examples of one-way fares: New York/Boston £139: Phila-llelphia £149; Washington £159; Chicago/Miami £189; San Fran-

The chief advantage of an APEX over a charter flight fare is that you have daily flights to a huge range of destinations. Moreover it is possible to combine destinations in Canada and the Caribbean on an "open basis. That means you could fly out to Los Angeles and return from Vancouver, or out to Miami and return from Montego Bay, Cancellations and amendment fees - unlike those for charter flights - are

But if you can accept some loss of flexibility you can travel by scheduled flight for less than the APEX price. Specialist operators book blocks of seats and a stay away must involve a which are sold at competitive prices. In September, Slade £269 £339 £379 £449 £369 £420 £349 £420 £409 £469 £394 £469 £369 £449 £329 Travel is selling return fares to New York for £319, Washing-ton for £311, Miami £358 and cisco/Los Angeles/Seattle £199.

APEX fares (book 21 days ahead) are also falling in price Los Angeles/San Francisco £415. If you fly with Northwest to Boston (£339) or Chicago (£409), Stade will throw in a > Booking through American Airplan enables you to undercut the APEX fare to Florida. You fly with Delta Airlines via Atlanta to certain destinations, Atlanta to certain destinations, for example, Fort Myers £388 in September, £331 in October, Daytona Beach £318/£378 and Sarasota £379/£333. With British Caledonian to Atlanta the fare is £369 and £339 and in October, Airelan's fare October, Airplan's fare to Dallas/Houston is £389 and to £198; Minneapolis £198.

> Boston it is £269. Some Contrary to what surcharges apply for weekend travel. If two people travel with British Caledonian to Los Angeles (cost £449 each). Airplan will throw in two month's free insurance.

weeks' free car hire. . companies, example Jetsave or Poundstretcher, charge the standard APEX fare but throw in free

Sky high: Lower Manhattan from Brooklyn Bridge

items like flight bags, duty free vouchers and in-flight drinks/

If you live far from London. Poundstretcher's offer of half price rail travel to the capital will come in useful.

Another alternative is to consider the low-cost airlines, People Express and Virgin Atlanic Both offer simple, cutprice fares between Gatwick and Newark airport. Virgin flies daily for £119 each way (£10 weekend surcharge until 15 September) while People Express has a more complex

Until September 9 it flies twice daily reducing to one daily service. People's fare is £122 each way and you pay extra for services like baggage check-in and food on board. Its trump card is that it can fly passengers to destinations be-yond its Newark base ... and all at low prices. Typical one-way fares from Gatwick are: Washington/Boston/Buffalo £153; Pittsburgh £160; Houston

Contrary to what most passengers might think, both airlines are not just catering for backpackers. Virgin offers first class for £1,030 each way including a limousine service from your office or home plus a butier service during the flight. Until mid-September, two can travel for the price of one. People Express has a premium (business) class which consists of first class style seats but at a cost of only £338 each way - a third less than other airlines' business class fares from Heath-

Despite being considered a prime do-it-yourself destination there are US package deals available. Besides the tra-ditional flight and hotel combinations you can choose from fly-drive and stay-as-you-please arrangements. Most major destinations are featured. Operators to try include Jetsave, Poundstretcher and Airplan and their brochures are stocked at all high street travel agents.

Agents/Airlines: Slade (01-202 0111); American Airplan (09322-46166); Dream Holidays (01-584 7371); Poundstretcher (0293 518060); Jetsave (0342-27711); People Express (0293-38100); Virgin Attentic (01-409 2429)

Alex McWhirter is Travel Editor of Business Traveller

U.K. HOLIDAYS

Meudon Luxury Cornish Hotel near Falmouth Sub-tropical gardens lead down to our private beach with slipway. Superb cuising and attentive and let us spoil you. Write or telephone now for brochure 0326 250541.

CONFERS LEISURE PARK PROUGHTREE, Newton Stawart, Wiotownshire DGS 6AN 0671 2107

24 sfc luxury chalets set in Pine Woods, Sleep 46 persons, all electric, colour TV and for the sports-man, River, Loch and Sez Angling, Riding, Shooting, all within easy reach. A golf course adjacent. FREE SALMON AND SEA TROUT

ZEMDROKESHIRE Whatever the time of year Press is the Natural Holiday Choice For FREE Colour Bro — Chure Contact Tourism Office 17 (Cambria House Have forthers or shore a house have forthers or shore the contact tourism of the Press of the P

Beaches. Charming thatch 5, Tel: 01-946 7646 (eves).

SUPERB HOLIDAY BUNGALOWS

ROCK, NORTH CORNWALL

Ring Trababatics, 6220 $861 2311 for hose

DALES NATIONAL PARK,

THE TRADDOCK, AUSTWICK LAZ 8BY

SEPTEMBER IN

THE LOVELIER

PARTS OF ITALY

Vitus and hotels by the best peaches in Sardinia: vitus, with pools in the old world charm of Revello overlooking the incredible Amail coastine or vite apert-ments in Cetatu in Sicily. All this plus Varies, the Lakes, Rome, Tuscary, two-centre or weekend heidens.

Holidays and Villas

EUROVISTA WORLD TRAVEL

Many daily departures scheduled from Heathrow/Gatwick. Also comments for business or pleasure included as required. Summer return fa and day of travel and include all taxes). Athebs £135 Lyons £119 Tel Aviv Barcelona £131 Madrid £151 Toulous Bibso £131 Marseilles £150 Venice Boltoms £143 Marian £142 £151 £150 £142 £213 £165 £65 £149 £153 Zurich LONG HAUL

> EUROVISTA TRAVEL LTD. Rofel House, Colet Gardens, London W14 9DH Telephone: 01-741 5301 (8 lines). Telex: 8956740 ATOL 1032

> > COTTAGE HOLIDAYS IN FRANCE

VFB HOLIDAYS,

pt. TC. I St. Margaret's Terrace, ellenham, Glos. (L50 45) T Tel.: 242) 5801,87 (24 hrs)

NEW LOW FARES

SKYLORD TRAVEL LTD 2 Denman Street, London W Tel: 01-439 3821 /8007 (Airline bonded)

C15th house, fully modernized Sins 4, Available raid Sept to mid Oci and in spring. Tel owner Jill Barnett Ot-624 5805.

U.S.A., Canada, Caribboan, G. T. Tri. 836 5973.

FRANCE Lucury farmhouse trages steeping 2/6. From £15 gw Panoramic views between

GARBILA/FUENCIBOLA, Lot villa Sus 10/12. 6 beds. 3 baths, own pool. Superb views, Avail 21st Sopt cowards from £295pw 0270 214388/841144.

2162. 2212. ABTA. ATIM AMERICAN TRAVEL. Contact the experts. All destinations. Nov York fr £119. + Mismi. Caribbear Caussia. Supair. Tel. 01-629 1130.

Credit Cards accepted

ARABIAN ADVENTURES-FOR THE NOMAD IN YOU On a DNATA holiday the nomad in you need not forgo the luxuries of life. Our fascinating comer of Arabia contains some of the world's best hotels, excellent cuisine and splendid cellars.

some of the wond's best notes, excellent culsine and splendid cellars. For a unique holiday, Dubai and the United Arab Emirates commend themselves to the discerning traveller. Mountaine and desert traditional villages and fine modern cities: casis and date paim groves; hot springs and magnificent beaches; ancient castles and new hortways; modern entartainments and traditional celebrations; camel racing and motor railying; fishing and falconry. All this, coupled with a virtually perfect climate from October to May. Plus some of the world's best duty free anapping help to make this one of life's mismorable experiences.

experiences Holidaya for the discerning travellar to the United Arab Enristes, the Maldives, Hong Kong and Srl Lanka-from £895. For Setails of our Arabian Advantures just write or telephone DNATA World Travel; 125 Pall Mail. London SW1Y 5AE. Phone (01) 930 5356

Flights to DELHi and holidays in KASHIMIR FLAMINGO TRAVEL 76 Shaftesbury Ave.
London W1V 70G
01-439 7751 01-437 0758
Open Saturday 19.00-1 00

AFRICA - ADVENTURE acialists offer 2/5/4 week advantures & expeditions Morocco, Egypt, Tunisia, Zaire, Konya & Traiss

From £296 Full details of these & other short & long expeditions is our brockure; GUERNA EXPEDITIONS LTD (817) Westfield House, Westbury, Wills BA13 SEP Tel (0360) 830476 (24 hrs).

JUST FRANCE

JUST FRANCE (0373) 864811 ABTA Travel ABTA. 01-836 8622.

COSTA DEL SOL (20 mins Puerto Banus, Maybella). Super house on beach, 2 rowin burns & 2 baltis en-sulte, pado, pdn. 5/poids, redistrants, superinget, dward-winning drivelop-ment. Main service. Prom. 5/250-20-Covner, 01-534-2582/0273-737708. TUSCANY, Giorious in making com-pletaly modespized farminous near Florence, All mod cons. Sleeps 8 superty views. Available Oct. 1st onwards $200 pw. Walter, 0754 732003 or 0243 572350

ORANGE PICKING IN ISRAEL Places now available for Kibbuir volumes: Project 67, 26 Cl Rossel
St. WC: Tel 01-636 1261.
CHEAP FLIGHTIS. To Athens, Confo,
Malaga & Albomic, Tel. Sus-Crift 01-870 5868 (24 hrs) ABTA ATOL
1214 1214
LANZAROTE VILLA. Private estate with pool. Steeps 4/6 rully esuipped Sept 15-20 mc. £175pm. Arrange own tight, 089 2883895.

DISCOUNT SAVINGS TRAILFINDERS

i the World from £740 44-48. Earls Court Rd. London W8 6EJ Europe/USA Phighis 01-937 8400 Long Haul Flights 01-603 1818 Government licensed/bunded
ABTA ATOL 1458

UP TO £90 OFF SEPTEMBER HOLIDAYS Corsice and Corfo - Our own Hotels on the water's edge from £224. Villas from £379. 01-785 2200 ATEA ATOL 1232

COST CUTTERS on flights/hols to Europe, USA and all destinations. Diplomat Travel. 01.730 2201. ABTA IATA ATOL 1385.

MALAGA, TENERIFE, IRIZA, 01-441 1111. Travolvine ABTA/ATOL.

AKE THITE OFF to Paris. Ameierdam, Brussets. Bruses, Liscembourg. Geneva. Routen, Lausamos, Boulogne, Diespe. Timo Of Lid. 2a Chester Close, London, SW1. 01-235 8070. winehalls And Villas Crett.

- Some with private pool daily maid.
day flights or villa bire only. - Ol402 4255. Cosmoolitan. All credit.
cards welcome. ATOL 2138 PONT DU GARD, Small village house, stps 4/5, most dates from £80 pw. (£203) 546204. (LECA) 548204.

MAJORGA, Jink. Cale G'or arve.
Swimming bool, from £50 pm; August (office hours) Mr Num £2403 4266.

MALAGA/ALICARTE/FARO Flights from £79 Tel Di 349 2921/2.

Medvilles. Medvillas.

Winfter Bi MENTON. Nov + Dec. 150 pw Incl power, mod fail. sea view, baic. 031 445 1054

FLIGHT EARGARMS. = European/workiwide. = Venbura Holidays. 01-251 5456.

TRUSTEE ACTS

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to a ry of the TRUSTEE Act. 1925 that any person having a CLAMA against or an INTEREST in the SETATE of any of the decreased persons, whose partners

on concerned before the state of the state o

AAX.-WILSON, Peter Isle of $26 Courtney Lodge, Ashurst Drive, Exercitagede, Enert Fermality of $4A York Road, Biord, Essex died on the 28th April 1984 particulars to Walker Murris and Coles, $1 Andrew House. 119-121 The Headrow, Leeds, West Yorkshire ruference RK before the 7th November 1984 AUMREERGER, MAUD, of

LEGAL NOTICES

Dept. T. Shepherds Bust Gree London, W12 BPS Tel, 01-743 9565 (reservation or 01-749 7633 (24 hours) OPEN UNTIL 7pm (5pm Saturday) SUPERIOR SERVICE

VENTURA HOLIDAYS
125 Abderogate St. Landon ECL Herspate St. Lendon EC1 Tet. 01-251 5466 anchester 061 834 5033 Sheffield 0742 331 100 ATOL 1170

INCLUSIVE HOLIDAYS MANCHESTER - PORTUGAL MANCHESTER - MENORCA 5/9, 17/9 from £189 p.p. 01-828 7682

AIRLINK HOLIDAYS

SEA FRONT FLAT. Nr Antibes and Nice. Very special rates from Sept 1st. Sips 4/5. Tel: 0222 513535.

(ARBELLA, Lucury Vijis aperton (ennis/golf/pool, Special aufu and winter rates, (0625) 61412.

ARABA/CARIBBEAN/USA. L.A. San Francisco Baltimore. Super specials. Ealing Travel, 118 South Ealing Rd. London WS. 01-579 9111.

W1. U.-885 2455 Visia Screptoru.
MALTA, GOZO. Sept/Oct. extracFishs, hotels. Elights. Bocsaventure, 01-937 1649 24 birs. ABTA ATOL.
CARESSEAN SEAT SALE Antique, St.
Lincia, Barbades, Sept 1354, Oct./Nov.
1299 Nhopobest 01-254 6788.
"SINGLES" CRETE. - Enchante villa parties in Elounda. - 01-402 4285.
Cosmopolitan. Credit tards welcome.

MALTA health farm, slave from £256 technive, Tel: Sunspot 01-653 0344.

PREP, AND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

WESTMINSTER ABBEY CHOIR VOICE TRIAL

Boys with musical ability who are need between 79 and 9% will be cligible to enter the next Voice Trial on Wednesday 3 October 1984. As boarders in the Abbey Choir School (IAFS) successful candidates will be given a full preparatory school education. Present fees, 1300 per term inclusive.

Write (stating date of boy's birth) for prospectus and application form in:
The Headmenter, Room Cl., Westimbaster Abbey Choir School, Denn's Yard, EDUCATIONAL COURSES

EXAM SUCCESS with guided home-study. GCE: O and A. BTEC. London Univ. Degrees

BA, BSc Econ., LLB, Free Prospectus. Frank Fisher, CBE, MC, MA, Dept AL4. Wolsey Hall, Oxford OX2 6PR. Tel: 0865 54231 (24 hrs)

O or A LEVELS? Individual tution in all subjects for one-term and one-year candidates. Outstidge Entrance Course. Brown & Brown Tutors 29 Warnborough Rd, Oxford Tel: (0865) 56311 and 513738 ADVICE PREE on private society with high standards pleasant surroundings. Paternoster Committancy, Climbs (1922) 64465.

WOLSEY HALL home study for GCE. London Degrees, STEC, Prospecius: The Principal, Dept. AL2. Wobsey Hall. Contract OX2 6PR. Tel: 0868-5423) 24 hrs.

RETAKING

SUPER SECRETARIES Crème de la Crème Train at ST JAMES'S (BRIDPORT) COLLEGE Tel. 0308 22447 Term starts 12th September

A RETTER chance at A & O levels at private sinth form and tutorial col-leges in Cty or country Advice free. Tel. Palernoster Consultancy. Cambridge (0223) 64465 FRANCE - Autumn course in Avignon-& Parts for achool leavers. European civilation. French tanguage: Painting. John Hall. 01-252 6900.

SUPER SECRETARIES

CHARITY TO 28,200 EC2. 6 months assignment with possible expension. The Appeal Director needs a capsible, intelligent person for this total PArole. Excellent secretarial shifts essential (100/60 wpm) + a quod appearance and malure personality knowledge of rund Raising or Public Relations an advantage. Please telephone 434 4512 Cross Corkell Recruitment Consultants. SECRETARIZE POR ARCHITECTS and Designers. Permanent/lergorary positions. AMSA Special Ists Agency (1), 734 0832.

Di the matter of EREMAR LEASING LIBERTED and in the matter of the Companies Act 1948. Notice is hereby siven that the creditors it has been conveniently wound up, are required on or before the 10th day of October. 1994, to send in their tall Caristian and surmanees and the tall of the convenient of the convenient and the convenient of their debt or claims, and the name and addressed of their Solicitors off anyl, to the undersigned David Justing Buchler FCA of 1 Surrey Street, London WCZP. 2NT the Liquidator of the said Company, and, if so required This notice is purely formal. All known creditors have been, or will be, paid in

LEGAL NOTICES

REGENCY PRODUCTS LIMITED (in Voluntary Liquidation) And the Companies Act. 1946
NOTICE IS HERRY GIVEN that the CREDITORS Of the above named company are required on or before Six October 1944 to send their names and addresses and particulars of their names and addresses and particulars of their debt. Proceedings of the said Company and it as required by notice of writing from the said Legislator of the said Company and it as required by notice of writing from the said Legislator are to come in and prove their said above to come in and prove their said above to come in and prove their said above to come in and will be excluded from the benefit of any will be applied from the benefit of any will be applied for the said for the said and the sai

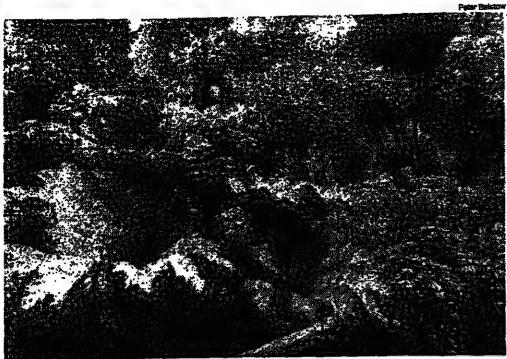

Dated this 22nd day of August 1964 David Julian Buchler CHARTERED ACCOUNT ANT

TEMPTING TIMES

TEMPORARIES We are looking for experi-enced shorthand secenced shorwards sec-retaines & accurate typists of ALL ages for long & short term bookings in the City & West End. Excellent rates & satisfying & rewarding as-signments. Ring NOW for an immediate interview.

And the second s

Down in the Long Dell: Gunters and exotic palms near the Bride's Pool

Sissinghurst's loss is Sussex's gain

In 1946, Vita Sackville-West wrote of Jack Vass, her head gardener; "Oh dear God, please let Vass live strong and healthy until he is 80 at least, and never let him be tempted away to anyone else's garden". Eleven years later she fired him. They had clashed over the garden at Sissinghurst and she suspected his political leanings.

Sissinghurst's loss was to be Borde Hill's gain, a garden of and rare shrubs rub shoulders in deepest Sussex. Borde Hill House is part Elizabethan with extensive nineteenth-century additions. The south front faces a large awn with views across a deep ha-ha to park and farmland beyond. A series of terraces rise to the west among the woodland, planting; they are devoted to plants with striking foliage and all-year-round interest, such as prostrate conifers and heathers.

Above the terrace is the Bride's Pool, recently created from an old tennis court. Semihardy plants take their chances alongside more bardy species: ceratostigma, Diplacus cinosa. perovskia are all thriving as is the delightful cosmos, its flowers like chocolate-coloured vel-

Col Stephenson Clarke, the grandfather of the present owner, helped finance many plant-hunting expeditions to the Andes, Tasmania and the Sino-Himalayan region and the fruits of his investment filled his acres. Magnolias and other unusual trees abound, such as the exotic palm, Trachycarpus Fortunci, from China, standing a good 20ft tall in a sheltered great-grandfather of the present

dell above the Bride's Pool. But for me this palm took second place to a copse of magnificent Pinus ponderosa from northwest America, tall pines in rigid Views can be had across parkland to the north of the house, while to the west one suddenly discovers a discreet herbaceous border sheltered by a tall belt of decidoous trees. This short, wide border is still full of flowers, with many dahlias, achillea and the ele-gant, white flowered aruncus which are yet to give of their best. While I was there a goldfinch plucked the seeds from the ripe head of a giant onorpordum and the seeds of a nearby Clematis tangutica hung like so many bearded chins. In this part of the garden the trumpet creeper, Bignonia radi-cans, more commonly known as Campsis radicans, is also in full Beyond the herbaceous border is an old rhododendron garden and further still a lawn dominated by a magnificent specimen of Quercus cerris, the Turkey oak, South from here is the walled garden, its inner edges given over to grey foliage and herbaceous plants. Here a bistort sported a cluster of burgundy flowers held aloft on long stems like so many burning created in 1906 and the oldest surviving plant is a huge Magnolia Delavayi, planted in 1910. But there are annuals as well, notably a lime green nicotiana behind a blue haze of spiky perovskia.

Jack Vass's role in the recen history of this 30-acre garden is honoured by a walk named after him cut through an old rhodo-deudron thicket.

Michael Young

Borde Hill Garden, Haywards Heath, West Sussex, 1½ miles north of Haywards Heath on the road to Balcombe. Plants for sale restaurant. Admission £1, children 50p. Open Wed, Thurs, Sat and

This is the time of year when indoor plants come into their own. There is so much colour in the garden that the contrast of cool green plants is soothing. Unfortunately, because of the amount of work outside house plants are often neglected, a great pity since, with a little care they will last for months or even

House plants do not need a time of year but they will never olerate neglect for long, I am often asked whether I talk to plants and the answer is yes. not because I think it does them any means that they are getting proper attention.

of water as they can tap the reserves in the ground, but obviously this does not apply to plants in pots; if they aren't watered they die. In most cases all the plant needs is enough water to fill the space between the soil's surface and the top of the pot. Allow the water to drain through and make sure that the soil or compost has not

Pruning peaches

Peach trees have got to make a strong, well-balanced framework before they can be allowed to begin fruiting. The principle of the framework is the same whether the trees are trained or bush trees. Young specimens can take years of growing before they should be allowed to carry fruit, laterals should be pinched out to direct the energies of the plant into making a strong crown.

In the summer fruiting trees need to have the laterals pinched out to reduce growth and keep the centre of the bush open. At the same time of the bush open. At the same time you should be selecting what are called "replacement shoots" to

Crop manure

The practice called green manuring is not used much nowadays. However, some farmers still use which are becoming overcropped or where they wish to improve the texture of the soil, in the short term it may, and usually does, reduce soil nitrogen. If green matter is dug into the soil it is usual for bacteria to take existing nitrogen to assist with the rotting down process. Green manuring is simply digging into the soil a crop which has been allowed to grow. There are a number of crops which give better results than other, these includes lupins, mustard (this is the yellow-flowered crop regularly seen in fields), clovers and, if necessary, peas. Legumes, or the pea family, are good as they have nitrogen-fixing nodules on their roots. amerwards it will be necessary to irrigate. Digging in in October means that piece of ground is out of action until the early summer the following year. There is a high percentage of humus added by using this method which does not enrich the soil greatly but it does improve its texture. grass, are also used. Musterd is ready to di ard is ready to dig in after This is ideal for new gardens and about seven weeks, so this is worn out soils or in parts of the usually the best one for the garden which have been amateur, if sown now it is ready to be dug in by early October. The soil

Cultivated contrast with a little inside knowledge

being absorbed rather than passing quickly down the sides. If this is the case, sink the pot in great deal of attention at this a bucket of water and remove it as soon as the air bubbles have stopped rising. The soil will now be wet through and can be gently firmed against the sides of the pot. Always err on the good in itself but because it side of underwatering - it is easier to give a plant more moisture than to dry it out.

Within reason, outdoor Overhead syringing is suit-plants are able to withstand lack able for all plants except the hairy-leaved varieties. Saintpaulias in particular will not tolerate water on the leaves. Fine sprays of water on to the foilage and around the plant to recreate its natural environment. Never spray foliage which is exposed to hot sun through a window.

Over the summer leaves tend to get covered with dust, which shrunk away from the edges of should be removed. Do not the pot and that the water is attempt to clean leaves which should be removed. Do not take the place of the older take the place of the closer-branches which will be removed after fruiting. With young plants it is also necessary to keep the end shoot, called the extension shoot.

as this builds up the framework of the plant. Wall trained plants should have all the shoots which grow towards and away from the wall rubbed out, Laterals should be pace between them. They should be tied to the wire framework which holds the tree in its position. Remove dead or diseased wood and once truit has been picked out will be still warm and the ground well charged with moisture. These are two vital conditions for are two values contained to the success. The rate is variable but if you use an owner per 16 sq yd this will give the right results.

Once the mustard is ready it should of time after digging in to allow the green manure to rot properly. If it is dry at the time of digging in or just afterwards it will be necessary to off fruiting branches, selected which are growing in much the same direction as the African violet: Saintpaulia ionathe "Englerts"

are soft, harry or a combination of the two, but only those that firm (and usually shiny). The cheapest way to remove dust is by wiping the leaves firmly but gently with a soft cloth dipped in distilled water. Distilled water is preferable because it does not leave smear marks. More expensive, but equally effective are proprietory all through the siminer, and now is the nime to think about the final feeds of the year, I am always prepared to continue feeding until the middle or even the end of September if the plants look as it they need it. Foliage plants like evengreens, never stop growing but slow down considerably during the winter The amount of feeding must be teduced during this must be teduced during this period, particularly with plant. We can still expect a nu foods with a high percentage of of hot sunny days, at an introgen. Flowering pot plants plants carefully the state.

are the exception, and must be fed until they begin to show There are a number of good proprietory pot plant foods on the market. Fertilizers which contain a high percentage of potash are most suitable now. Follow the instructions to the letter, for overfeeding is always unwise, and in foliage plants it produces the wrong type of are available in a number of windows or halls where annows of tains where the approaching they many fifth approaching they many fifth string Greate much lower intensities that flowering plants of those with various to the control of those with various to the control of these with various to the control of these with various to the control of Often trial and error did right position for an plants for soon you know plant is unbappy in its position.

them too close to west-facing windo shine it is given your out such which may sidered poor, for I have sidered plant growing in rooms when the world have thought

Ashley Stephenson

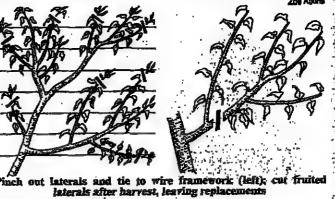

Spider Wort

Tradescantia fluminantia pi known as the Wandel as in flowering and foliage has so value, bot is nearly awall in indoors as a house plant tradescantias come under the specific name of virginia and the are a number of forms and the are a number of forms and the are a number of forms and the although it is a fairly easy plast to git a shrough if requires no special, aboution; if needs to be stad correlative. However, 15 will grow in almost any decem 50% to get mid with so many easily growing lating with so many easily growing lating with so many easily growing lating with so was a fact that the upper fives and the layer and the upper fives and the layer and will do it should be growing for the stade. Ideally it appears that the stade is done of the layer of the upper fives and the layer of the layer of the upper fives and open softward in good open softward in the stade of the layer of Tradescantias come unde tra usual height is the weight for two and a half feet. This which we are and the variety distribution has common names us and Trinity Hower heights and Trinity Hower heights and Trinity Hower heights are the particular period to he practised often to the plant of the plant of raising new plants. Figure on the plants do produce the seed and if these are allowed to seed and if these are allowed to seed and if these are allowed may have to be removed.

gardens, with dark bloeling isis is a lovely deep bloelin deeper than the lope Turfu

Dome which has purple flowers

Zwanenburg Blue has lighter , a flowers, the form Carmine Glow is a distinct carmine and iris Pritcherd has white flowers. Plants are about £1 from Blooms of Bressingham.

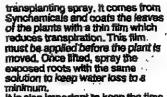

Enter evergreens

Evergreens should not be planted during the winter. Autumn and spring are the best times and che the mistard is ready it should be smashed down with a spade or run over with a roller to break down some of the tissue. This helps the rotting down process, I always like to apply a dressing of nitro-chalk before digging in as this also helps with the amount of hitrogen in the September ideal, Moisture is particularly important with evergreens. The ground is warm and the plants have their normal water supply interfered with when being moved. The preparation must take this into account. Dig deep and add organic

A hole in an area of ground which has never been disturbed could become the drain for the surrounding ground and the tree or shrub could drown.

Buying or lifting evergreens must be done with a great deal of care. Moisture loss from the plant must be kept to a minimum and lifting in the middle of a hot, windy day should be avoided at all costs. Plants should be lifted on duli days or during a spell of dull, muggy weather. Lift in the morning before the sum comes up or in the evening this is a substance called S600 which is also known as a

It is also important to keep the time between lifting and planting to a minimum. With container-grown plants there is not the same need to replant immediately, but the same care must be taken to make sure the plant does not run short of

Choisya Ternata: Evergreen

Boaters and floaters: William Hill on craft for hire along the Thames; and venues for food on water in London by Stan Hey

Low down on the river in sleek and stately style

For the Thames snob the motor than 300 affoat, including cruiser is a brash latecomer with around 180 punts, rowing boats all the charm of rain at Henley. It is noisy, clutters the locks and goes too fast for the comfort of other river users. For the keys favourite. It's heavy, awkward to the river's social order are speed and age: the slower your craft and the thicker its crust of varnish, the higher its standing among boating buils.

Precedence goes to the survivors of the river's Edwardian heyday, the punts and Thames skills favoured by the generation of day trippers that took to the water in flannels and stripy blazers. They are sleek, comfortable craft, perfectly suited to long hot afternoons dawdling on the river. But like all good aristocrats they are expensive to keep and their after each shove, dwindling numbers make it. The finest pun increasingly hard for the weekend boatman to find them.

When society gathered at Maidenhead on Ascot Sunday in 1905. Andrews, the grandest of the local boatyards, could put 150 small boats on the river to iom the fashionable logiam at Boulter's Lock nearby. Even in the 1920s there were around 30 boatyards at Richmond and Twickenham alone, employing a workforce of 250 to paich up and hire out a fleet of around 3,000 boats. Today there are just 32 yards with boats for hire by the hour along the whole navigable stretch of the river between Lechlade and

The passing of the river's great days coincided with the arrival, in strength of the motor boat with its unpleasant habit The chief casualty was the punt. low in the water with no keel and a brute to handle in the mildest swell. By the 1960s it had been all but driven off the river below Henley.

Meanwhile, the public had found new and cheaper ways of idling away their weekends than messing about in boats. Faced with a fall in demand and the rising cost of caring for aging stock exposed to a daily battering for six months of the year, boatyards lost heart and shut up shop. For the traditionally minded, the best selection of boats is now at Oxford, where the demand from tourists and undergraduates has kept more at Richmond, near the great of all description and the odd Canadian canoe.

The punt is the perennial to manocuvic, and choosy about conditions, performing hest in shallow water with a bed that is firm but not too firm. But for comfort and style, the punt is unbeatable. The stan-dard model is a 25ft hulk of oak and mahogany with sprawling Thames lore, it should be propelled stern first. Technique has been a matter of debate since the Victorians first took to the sport. For the beginner the best tip is to use the pole as a rudder, trailing it in the water The finest punting is on the Cherwell, the tributary that threads through the meadows east of the city centre past the University Parks and the botanical gardens before joining the Thames by the college boathouses. Motor boats are banned and the worst hazards are overhanging branches and inexperienced undergraduates.

There is normally a good supply of boats at Folly Bridge and Magdalen Bridge or at the Cherwell Boathouse off Bardwell Road. Outside Oxford there are still a few punts available at Hooper's in Henley and some fishing punts, forefathers of today's pleasure boat. are available at Wilsons in Sunbury.

The punt's closest rival for elegance is the Thames skiff, the clinker-built craft favoured by the Water Rat and Jerome K. Jerome. Easy to handle, this was the staple of the Victorian boathire business, an elegant affair with benches for the oarsmen and a cane-backed seat for the

But its good looks have been its worst enemy. In the last 20 years the cost of proper maintenance has destined most to be sold off or left to rot in quiet backwaters. Almost all boatyards offer only glass-fibre rowing boats, short on style and prone to wander with the wind. but easier and cheaper to maintain. Fortunately. the finest collection of veterans survive. where the river is at stateliest -

Henley heyday: Elegant Edwardians at the Royal Regatta in 1914

be shown off at the Paris Exhibition of 1884 and several others dating back to the last century. There is also a handful of authentic Thames skiffs at Martin's boatyard on the Surrey bank at Hampton Court. Motor: boats, for the most sweep of the river that takes in shocking pedigrees, are avail-Ham House, Marble Hill Park able almost everywhere along and Petersham Meadows there are still 30 or more old timers shapes and sizes from diaghies for hire.

The fleet at Thames Skiff outsize glass-fibre 10-seaters
Hire by Richmond Bridge with the looks of a ship's includes a centenarian built to whaler.

But they have thrived at the expense of their slower rivals. in 1939 the Thames Conservancy licensed 1,600; in the next 40 years the total climbed to 13.000, an eightfold increase. Not all are flash river hogs and the noblest is the electric canoe, a freak hybrid from the 1920s with a battery powered inboard etterne and idiot-proof pontrols. The sole example is at Mark Edwards's yard at Hampton, home to a small assortment of beautifully re-stored rapides storid rarries.

The only other motorized aristocratic is the Shoper stem haunch. Costom-built, for the bames, its distinctive outaway. design, with a malicipany prow sloping back to water level at the stern is intended to reduce its wash to a gentle ripple. In private hands it is most often seen with red-faced men at the controls exhorting crews in training on the upper reaches of the river. Its true home is at Henley and many can be found at regatta time, chuntering up and down at a sedate 12 knots. the top speed allowed by the Thames Water Board.

Slippers of all sizes are for hire at Hobbs and Sons and Parrott's in Henley and at Swancraft, a few miles upstream at Wargrave.

The cost of hiring varies widely according to size and location. As a general rule it is cheaper on weekdays and away from the most popular centres. A four-seater rowing boat can cost as little as £2.50 an hour while a six-seater Slipper will set you back £12 an hour or £75 a day. Many yards will also ask for a deposit. To deter the untrustworthy this can be as much as £50 for the most valuable boats. Where possible, booking is advisable at the weekends, particularly for punts in Oxford, where college block

Cruise the capital for meals on keels

For such a nautical city, London is rather short on floating restaurants. The two main waterways, the Thames and the Regent's Canal, are well-stocked with pleasure craft and sightseeing cruises, but only a handful of enterprises seem to have realized the potential of linking food and water.

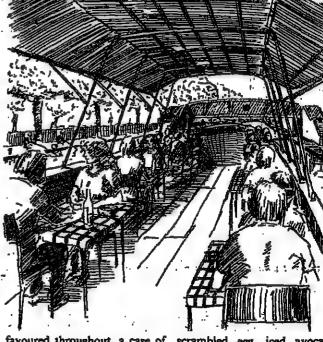

The most comprehensive operation on the Thames appears to be provided by Catamaran Cruisers, based at Westminster Pier. They offer floodlit supper cruises every night except Saturday, departing at 9pm; disco cruises, including a buffet, most Friday and Saturday nights; floating music-hall cabaret on Sundays, Mondays and Tuesdays, including dinner and dancing and finally a Sunday lunch cruise to Greenwich and back.

If the idea of a catamaran conjures up images of fail craft creating mountainous waves while plates fly everywhere, be assured that the cruisers are substantial, well-appointed vessels, comfortably accommodating up to 200 people. Tables for six or more are ranged along two decks, with plenty of window space for sightseeing and a "roll-back" roof for sumny:

Our two-hour Sunday lunch trip to Greenwich (£10.50 adults, £5.75 children, departing grapefruit segments); roast iamb, potatoes and peas; and gateau (or cheese) wouldn't win any prizes for originality, the pleasant waitresses.

The bar stays open throughout the cruise, providing another means of defeating the commentary is provided to hired en bloc for lunch (£15 a augment your illustrated placemats, though as this takes place parties. on the return trip, when the best favoured throughout, a case of 'sosh' rather than "posh". Whatever the limitations of the food, the Catamaran Cruiser trip certainly provides you with a spectacular perspective on London was a city shaped by its river.

Excursions along the Regent's Canal also provide an intriguing potted history lesson, embrac-ing the nineteenth-century elegance of Little Venice and the twentieth-century dandification of Camden Lock, not to mention industria warehouses and the zoo.

A highly enjoyable ai fresco diversion

Jason's Trip, departing from Little Venice, takes place on an eponymous Edwardian narrow adults, 13.13 changes, departing Eittle Venice, takes place on an at 72.45 pm) was a jolly affair. eponymous Edwardian narrow A three-course "traditional" boat, complete with bright limb with coffee is included in livery and brass trimmings. On the cost, and although the two afternoon cruises (12.30pm choice of tomato soup (or and 2.30pm) basket lunches can be arranged, provided they are booked in advance. The "Boatman's Basket" at £4.95 includes any prizes for originality, the a generous selection of ham, food was of an acceptable pate garlic sausage. Scotch egg quality and briskly served by and bread, plus fruit and It's simple, fresh fare, and, with a drink from the cabin (beers and wines are available) Sunday licensing laws. At this and a pleasant, leafy hour-andtime of the year, your fellow- a-half voyage, Jason's Trip-passengers are most likely to be constitutes a highly enjoyable all American tourists who, con- fresco diversion. The same ditioned by Dallas, pronounce company also operates The Southwark to rhyme with Lace Plate, a 12-scater res-"South Fork". An engaging taurant boat which must be hired en bloc for lunch (£15 a

The four-course menus availsights are on your right, able offer such imaginative starboard seats are to be dishes as Atlantic crab with scrambled egg, iced avocado soup, stuffed trout, beef Welscrambled lington and flamed pork fillets with apricots. If you can drum up 11 friends, it seems a stylish way to eat afloat.

The Regent's Canal trip will also pass the Gallery Boat Restaurant moored in Cumberland basin, and this may well tempt you to "jump ship" to sample its excellent Peking-style cuisine. The Gallery Boar is well-appointed and pleasantly staffed, and has an intimate atmosphere; though the port-holes on the lower deck don't allow much of a view of the water (the more open deck is for larger groups of eight or more). Still, the smashing Peking-style scampi, cooked in ginger and garlic, and a voluminous plate of crisp, dried seaweeds, will keep you in touch with life on the ocean wave.

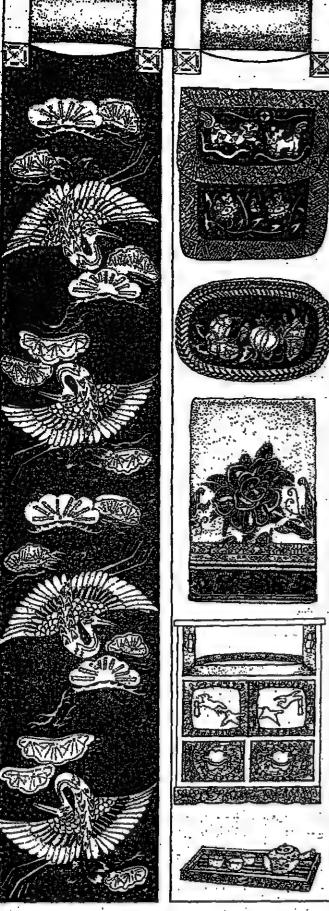

Catameran Cruisers, Westminster Pier, London SW1 (839 2349). Jason's Trip and The Lace Plate, opposite 60 Bloomfield Read, London W9 (286 3428). Gallery Boet Restaurant, opposite 15 Prince Albert Road, London NW1 (485-8127). NW1 (485 8137). All open: noon-2.30 pm and 6.30 pm-11.30 pm daily.

Blom's Bulb Book Free

64 Pages of superb colour photographs. Free from Ron Blom. 36 Gold medals at Chelsea make Blomk's bulbs some of the world's finest Many new varieties. Write to Dept T84, Walter Blom & Son, Coombelands Nursery, Wattord WD2 7BH 24 hour phone 0923 672071.

حكذا من الاعل

Above left, one of four 13in cotton strips sewn together to make a nineteenth century futon cover, which were always single bed size.

Stencil-dyed in pink and white on an indigo ground, £150 from Page & Hawkes, Right, two embroidered silk parses £5.50 each and one of a pair of red stilk armbands £5.50 all at Liberty from meticulous geometric designs.

Tuesday, Dalf's black and valid becomered tea cabinet with tray, tea made by tying and dyeing the not and the traditional five cups, 245 at Page & Hawkes. Matching. furniture fucludes dressers, chests and mirrors and a tea ceremony set, all made in the late nineteenth century.

an oil paint, thickly or thinly with a palette knite or a brush, and can be scraped off or painted over. Various surfaces can be used.—

canvas, board, card or paper - and the colour, which is a synthetic alternative to natural pigment, takes about the same time as of paint to dry. Amateurs previously put of by the difficulty of handling oils will be encouraged to try their creative hand with this much more

A complete Mastercolor painting case containing 12 20ml tubes, three bristle brushes and a palette costs £17,50 and there are three

Individual tubes are 98p.

Mastercolor is available from the art department of Hamleys, 188

Regent Street, London W1.

for local stockists.

Contact Suzie Baxter (0206 48221)

tubes of assorted colours at £5.94.

Colorsets, each containing six

Feast from the East

promise will have to head south this month. In London the collector's Mecca is Liberty's in Regent Street and in Brighton it is not the Prince Regent's dotty pavition but a small shop in Trafalgar Street which is holding an exhibition of Japanese textiles and dolls of specialist interest. This hilly back street near the station will. I am told, eventually rival The Lanes as an antiques centre in Brighton. But at the moment it is still up-andcoming like a semi-reformed down-and-out making a start by refurnishing his cardboard box with Osborne & Little. Here and there is a splash of style and the Japanese Antique Textiles exhibition at Page & Hawkes, 30 Trafalgar Street (0273 609310) is certainly worth a visit.

Brian Page has specialized in Japanese books and prints for 15 years, mixing them recently with art nouveau, which was strongly influenced by oriental design. The exhibition, which opens today for the whole of September, adds a selection of antique textiles, paintings, miniature doll's house furniture and traditional dolls collected in Japan by another expert in antiques, David Gribbin, who has lived there for 12 years.

There are 600 pieces of cotton, silk and wool on show -hand painted and embroidered kimonos, temple hangings, bedeovers and banners, dating from the eighteenth century to the present. The variety of design and technique is fascinating.

An eighteenth-century bronze silk hanging from Kyoto, still the main centre for brocades. features a 16-petalled chrysanthemum, the imperial motif, and a cotton bedcover is decorated with carp, the symbol of a young man's determination because it battles against the river like a salmon. Japanese salesmen, says David Gribbin, are always told to make eight calls on a prospective client. Even if they have had seven refusals, they have to go back once more before they can

Then there are cloths with intricate bird and cloud patterns which have been stencil dyed the stencils, made of paper pickled in persimmon juice and punched out with a fine chisel, are also for sale at about-£6 each). These also have very Beryl Downing explains why well-oriented shoppers will head for Liberty and Brighton

cally as the yarn is loomed.

"All these different styles are typical of Japan", David Gribbin says. "All the hallmarks of their civilization come from somewhere else and have been improved and adapted to their needs. They copied their navy from Britain, their army from Prussia, their legal system from France, their beer from Germany and long before that their designs were influenced by China and Korea.

"They attach no importance. to being originators. Their maxim is that if you want to be first in a race it is better to stay second until the last few yards then you run,"

Apart from the kimonos, most of the textiles are flat pieces which have been used as altar cloths, hangings or simple covers for futons and are usually bought by collectors to stretch as pictures or use as wall hangings.

The longest are banners of about 20ft, depicting fearsome warriors and other symbols of the patterns appear automati- did Japanese della become nearly as pliable as their western

Most Japanese dolls cannot be described as "user friendly" One of the most dramatic is an extremely fierce warrior waving a sword at a victim who is leaping out of his way like a startled cat. The warrior is a famous medieval character called Benkei, who was fierce but not all that bright - even today the Japanese refer to a man who throws his weight around in the office but is totally ineffectual at home as Uchi Benkei. Prices for the dolls indicate that they are not toys. Even the cheapest is £195 and Benkei under his glass dome is £1,800;they seem certain to become even more sought-after when a very handsomely illustrated book called Japanese: Antique Dolls by Jill and David Gribbin is published by Phaidon on November 8, It is the first book on the subject in English and consequently is certain stimulate wide interest.

virility. They have loops on one side through which bamboo poles would be slotted so that they could be set up in front of the houses on Boys' Day. May S.

On Girls' Day (March 3) beautifully lacquered doll's farniture would be brought out of boxes and set up on a redcovered display stand with a pair of Hina dolls (emperor and empress) on the top. Originally only the aristocracy would have such toys but in the nineteenth century they became more widely available.

They were, however, to be admired rather than played with. Many examples have therefore survived in perfect condition: the oldest pair of Hina dolls in the exhibition were made in 1650 and are still immaculate.

These and the eighteenthate costumes but are very stiffly modelled, with carred wooden of Liberty's own designs.

heads covered in a lacquer-like. Devotes of the agin

At The Liberty China Trade, which opens on Tuesday, Japan is represented by a group of woodblock prints of designs for fabrics made in the 1890s. They were originally bound in folders - probably used by salesmen as sample books - and all measure 20cm x 14cm.

There are 300 designs featuring clouds, birds, waves and flowers, each delicately drawn and coloured by some of the nineteenth-century artists who had such an influence on the artistic movements in Europe and the United States. Prices are from £25 to £35 each from-Percy Barkes at Liberty.

All the rest of the exhibition in the basement is devoted to goods, from China - carpets, silks, pearls, basketware. The show represents the longstandng association of Liberty with the Chinese; who have been century examples have clabor-ate costumes but are very stiffly the 1930s and now print many also be a pot hunters' paradise. This year's selection is of particularly high quality and there are some interesting smaller pieces - teapots, for example, which have not been included before, and a collection of scholars' requisites. These have been used for many centuries in China where the only way for ordinary people to achieve promotion was to become a civil service official by taking innumerable local country and then capital examinations. The items they required to hold their inks and brushes and scals became symbols of their endeavours. Most of those now available date from the nineteenth century as they were so much in use that very early ones have not survived. Some have the double happiness symbol which implies that the piece was originally given as a good-luckin-your-exams present. Prices are from £15 to £60.

As more people learned to write and the technique of underglaze blue painting allowed less stylized design, the scholars and their requisites also appeared as decoration on larger pots.

Prices of the porcelain range from £5 for a small tea cup or dish to £1,000 for a vase made in the Fa Hua technique similar to cloisonné, but with the outlines made of clay rather than metal.

On her expedition this year Alison Pyrah also found a collection of beautiful antique embroideries. - mostly pieces from mandarin costumes, such as arm bands and medallion motifs, which the Chinese thought she was mad to boy but which are being snapped up by home dressmakers to sew onto blazer pockets or applique onto dresses. These, all hand-made in silk, are from £5 to £30 each.

There are also interesting furnishings, from a superb pair of gilded panels intricately carved on both sides at £2,900. to modern lacquered screens, chests and tables, some inlaid with mother of pearl, from £85 for a carved drum stool to £975 for an Sfl high, eight-panelled

Visitors to the China Trade, which continues until September 22, will be welcomed with a cup of jasmine tea, so if you are feeling parched after tramping round the West End you will know where to go. But be warned with a collection like this there is no need for

Above left, a pair of Victorian Hina dolls, emperor and empress, in elaborate costume £195 at Page & Hawkes. Centre, one of a collection of woodblock prints for textiles £35 from Percy Barkes at Liberty, Below and bottom right, scholar's requisites - ink box £60, round box with double happiness symbol £60, water pot £45. Top

warp and weft in the manner of white shell finish and stuck on a collection of antique porcelain hard sell. The Chinese have itset and making detailed calculations before weaving so that body. Not until Victorian times Devotees of the annual like this there is no used for hard sell. The Chinese have inscrutable ways of lations before weaving so that body. Not until Victorian times Liberty's oriental buyer Alison making you buy: 秵ਡ羐溛ਡ笶灩ਡ梊榝ਡ퐃恊ਡ퐃恊ਡ퐃龆ਡ퐃龆ਡ퐃鐂ਡ퐃稲쁄英韶ਡ퐃馧葇稽쁄葇稲쁄苵醔ਡ퐃餢羐盂嚝梊鐂羐騒羐报ਡ퐃稲ਝ퐃艢ゞ棳ਝ퐃艋ゞ椞駋羐龆ਝ梊碯ਝ椞碯麥棳矈羐稲鵎羐稲鵎羐牊嫎箥

Master of art

the state of the s ide the 2 durid mere d

্যানাল চুক্রার শুক্রার উপ্র

TOWN WASH

Marie (Na াল মালান্ত । দুল্লাল প্রস্তান

Was grant to

LL 1 by the

3. 21

the Heathers

्रा एक्ट्राइ स्टब्स्

e de estado e estado estado

1114

93357

Some day an historians will be able to date late-twentieth-century paintings as pre-Pulikan and post-Pelikan. After five years' research this German company's chemists have just produced an oil paint which for the first time can be mixed, thinned and cleaned with water instead of the traditional turpentine and timesed cit.

ed Mastercolor; the new paint has the main properties of ordinary oils and can be used in the same way. But it is also non-toxic and car be diluted to different consistencies, so with one set of paints you can achieve oil, poster. Brushes can be washed with water, as can the clothes, skin and hair of the artists will like its flexibility and the fact that it can be used as

Prime pans

Pans do not loom large in my consciousness as objects of great beauty and desirability, but I have to say I am impressed with Tower's to say I am impressed with Tower's new Royale range, designed by David Queensberry.

The shape is pleasing, with slightly doned lids, rounded handles and knobs and bases suitable for all types of cooker, including ceramic hobs. The decoration is restrained le stripes round the base and the colours are good: ivory and burgundy, dove grey and charcoal, brown and cream.

Best of all, they have SilverStone Insides, a non-stick surface which i have used since it was introduced in 1978, it has outlasted all others. even withstanding eggs being boiled dry to the point of explosion. Shown are a 28cm lidded frypan, £18.50 and 18cm saucepan

CHARLES.

SHOPFRONT

£14.50, available in ivory or grey at branches of John Lewis. Major branches of Boots have them in a combination exclusive to them ivory and mint green - at slightly higher prices than the others. Carefree cleaners

For those choosing everyday household cleansers the Downing seal of approval is alignify less scientifically based than other. more rigorous, tests. I simply require a product to do safely the task for which it is intended. If it is economical as well, that's a bonus.

Payless.
Filetti: A Swiss washing powder for babies and people with sensitive skins: It contains no enzymes, no soda and only a little perfume. Low powders. At 79p for 550g from selected branches of Tesco or in cases of 15 packets for £13.27 from Swiss Products (UK), Web-Offset Building, Burrington Way, Plymouth, Devon. Polyvit: This silver cleaning kit consists of a metal plate and two packets of activator. Place the plate in the sink, use a handful of activator crystals per 41/2 litres of hot water and immerse silver for five minutes. Some must touch the plate and all pieces must touch action to work. And it does, particularly well on those filigree pieces which are so difficult to. clean. Made by the Polyvit

Manufacturing Company, Lawlord
House, Albert Place, Finchley, London N3, the kit costs £2.99 Iron their kind I have med. I used the bath cleaner (97p) on some very old lime stains which were improved, atthough not entirely removed - but then no other cleaner had touched them. The kettle descaler (95p) made an appallingly furry kettle usable and is non-corrosive and sale if spilled. By Ethico at branches of Tesco.

Forgotten to sew on all those name tapes? Permark produce iron-on tapes at £2.05 for 50 (plus 15p p&p); delivery takes five days. My tester says they were easy to apply but she hasn't had the chance to prove the company's claim that they stay on through all washing, boiling and dry cleaning For more details contact Permark 1 Station Grove, Wembley, Middlesex (01-903 4544).

COLLECTING

Mistakes provide pennies from heaven

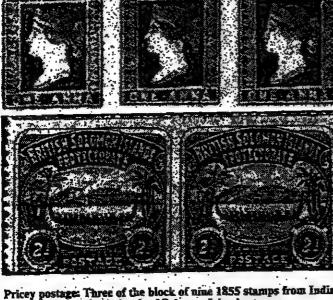

downs of the last 15 years or so, the stamp market has, for the time being, become fairly stable. Next week's sale at Sotheby's expected to be the biggest in terms of value that the company has ever held - should provide a useful barometer of trends. -

John Michael, director of Sotheby's samp department. estimates that a stamp fetching £40 in 1970 would, by 1979. have appreciated to £1,600. only to drop back to around £400 today. During the 1970s, stamps suddenly became a very popular investment and speculation was fuelled accordingly,

Unfortunately, the advice on what constituted a valuable stamp was not always sound and in many instances prices went artificially high, only to come down with a bump when the speculative bubble burst. From 1979 to 1982 the market plunged dramatically.

Since then, as Mr Michael puts it, "we have moved off the hottom". He says a good stamp should sell, as long as the owner does not try to be 100 greedy But the rare specimen that once attracted a flood of buyers now attracts inquiries from perhaps two or three people. . . Given the pound's spectacular fall against the dollar, and the powerful American interest in stamps. Mr Michael is surprised that the market is not more buoyant. Even so, he estimates that 80 per cent of the items sold next week will eventually find their way

Pricey postage: Three of the block of nine 1855 stamps from India; unperforated pair of Solomon Islands stamps

at £10,000 to £12,000, is a Cape been red came out blue and not look much, a heavily the trade calls "error of colour". Stamps for the Cape of Good Hope were printed after 1853 by the London firm of Perkins, brought in to fill the gap.

of Good Hope one penny from fourpenny stamps that should 1861. To the uninitiated it may have been blue came out red. Several examples have survived postmarked, blue triangle of no but most were poorly printed on great aesthetic merit. The key to indifferent paper. Sotheby's, its extraordinary value is what according to Mr Michael, is handling "one of the finest copies to have come on the market since the Second World War[™]

Baker and Company and sent out to Africa by ship. When one of these ships sank, the Cape found itself desperately short of coven more conservative. These date from 1855 and were conservative. printed in Calcutta by the office But the man was careless of the surveyor general to the One of the star items in the with his colours, so that one East India Company. As many Catalogue, cantiously estimated penny stamps that should have as 11/2 million came off the presses, in the space of a mere six weeks, but the vast majority were destroyed soon afterwards. when the company changed its SLEED ISSUES.

· Hence their rarity and high prices. Even a single example appears on the market seldom enough: a block of nine, unused and in pristine condition, is a treasure indeed. To find a similar offering, Mr Michael had to go back to the 1920s and he will not be surprised if next week's price goes through the philatelic roof. A third highlight of the sale is horizontal pair of Solomon Islands twopenny stamps from 1907. The point here is that one vertical row was printed without perforations so that only 10 unperforated pairs can possibly exist. Of these, seven have been located but most are in established collections and are unlikely to reach the market. Which is why Sotheby's has set an estimate of between £4,000 and £5,000.

Of 1,312 lots, the one expected to realize the highest price is a fine collection of United States stamps of the 1895 Trans-Mississippi issue. The lot comprises 165 items. from die proofs to many combinations of used and franked examples, including a registered cover to Budapest. The collection is expected to make £50,000 to £70,000.

Peter Waymark

Postage Stamps of the World" at Sotheby's, 34-35 New Bond Street, London W1 (01-493 8080). Viewing Mon-Wed, 10am-4.30pm. Sale Thurs at 10.30am and 2pm, Fri at economical as well, that's a bonus. Here are some recent successes: Solvite Clean Hands: Quick and efficient at removing garden and garage grot and grease. Also gets rid of wet paint and achesives. By Henkel Chemicals, 480ml bottles at £1.79, 240ml at 99p from Marley foam for use in any machine or by hand and concentrated, so use

Selfridges, Oxford Street, W1.

Dr. Bath cleaner and kettle descaler: Both the strongest of

In 1983 everything went well.

Most chateaux started the harvest in late September and continued until the middle of November, making on average five passages, although the pickers at Coutet went through the vineyard as many as 11

As a result everyone is agreed that the 1983 vintage in producing wines with a perfect balance between a rich, fruity sweetness and a fresh, lively acidity. The '83 sauternes are also thought to have sufficient

Sauternes is outstanding

perhaps one of the best ever

Getting it taped

Anxious wait for the noble rot in the autumn once the morning and Château Filhot, it is said, mists have disappeared it once delayed their world for should enjoy longer.

The splendid '83 sauternes have sadly been rather overlooked; unlike claret very tittle en primeur sauternes is ever released. Production is tiny and several important châteaux such as Youem and Climens do not bother with opening offers, preferring to sell their wine when it is more mature. English wine merchants and restaurants have shown a remarkable reluctance to stock a range of sauternes (or any other sweet wine for that matter). So when two of our most traditional merchants - John Harvey & Sons and The Wine Society - both had offers this summer for en primeur sauternes for the first time, it was definitely time to take note.

. The sleepy Barsac and Sauternes region, with its fortified medieval-looking chareaux complete with turrets and towers, lies to the south of Bordeaux and has a completely different climate. The region is humid conditions that give rise to horrius concrete or noble rot: the French call it pourriture nuble. The only drawback with noble rot is that it is not a fast worker and every year the Sauternais have the anxiety of deciding when to pick. Too early and they risk losing bunches that, given a few more weeks, might have developed

Intritis too late and the crop should enjoy longer, hotter

days: exactly the sort of warm.

might be destroyed by autumnal rain or hail or even the first of the winter frosts. The leading chateaux avoid this to some extent by instructing their pickers to harvest only the horritis cinerea; they go out depth and body to enable them into the vineyard as many as to mature and develop for the seven times or more during an especially long, hot autumn. The most courageous chateau much damper and moister than owners delay their final pass-

next couple of decades. John Harvey & Sons of Bristol and Henry Townsend appear to have the cheapest available and their sauternes ex primeur offer does not close until September 14. I tasted both Rieussec (£72.35 per case) and Suduiraut *83 (£95.50) with Harveys: I preferred the Rieussec with its pale gold colour and wonderful rich, full-flavoured character. It is, I feel, going to be a classic '83 sauternes. The Suduirant with its soft, almost oily, style had a shade less depth than the Rieussec and would perhaps mature sooner. If you cannot wait until autumn '85 or spring '86 when these wines are shipped, do try

Sainsbury's glorious golden '83

Clos Saint-Georges (a Graves Superieure that borders on Barsac) whose lively, lemony bouquet and intense ripe fruity mas. But the less well-funded chateaux have no alternative taste would go down well with but to pick once and pray that most of the crop has rot. summer pudding and is a bargain at just £2.80.

i was also most impressed with the '83 Sauternes Sélection Pierre Coste - a much richer, peachier wine than the Saint Georges and with real pourriture noble finesse; a snip at £4.59 (Haynes, Hanson & Clark, 36 Kensington Church Street, London W8: 17 Lettice Street, London SW6).

Jane MacQuitty

Expect to pay at least £15 extra per case for shipping, duty and VAT on the en primeur prices. The following merchants carry the widest, cheapest range of the finest '83 sautemes: John Harvey & Sons, Harvey House, Whitchurch Lane, Bristol; Henry Townsend, Chalk Pit House, Coleshill, Amersham, Buckinghamshire; Averys, 7 Park Street, Bristol; and Adnams, Sole Bay Brewery, Southwold, Suffolk.

1,000 Labels Printed The leading late label with 1 000 lasts at home and journess. State to place, place, and state at the first and th

Dept ' A 35 ABLE LABEL Steepleprint Ltd., Earls Berton Northempton NNG OLS

Prodigious efforts in fiction and fact

There has been quite a spate of rewarding basis, taking advan-novels with a chess theme tage of the fact that Paul was a recently, but, with the exception great master of the attack and of Nabokov's The Defence, also extraordinarily ac-none have seemed at all complished in the technique of interesting to me. Most have been studies of the rise and fall of a great chess-player and been based on the tragi-comedy of Bobby Fischer's winning and then rejecting the world cham- great help and interest to all pionship. In general the authors students of combinational play seem to have merely wasted and of the endgame. As an their time, expending many idle example of the first I give a words on what Milton described wonderful game he won in the words on what Milton described in just one sentence - that one talent which is death to hide".

But now, from the United States, there comes The Queen's Gambit, a really fascinating Walter Tevis (Pan, book by Walter Tevis (ran, £1.95). It has its weaknesses, including some dreary sex passages and a certain ignorance of the chess world. For instance, it refers to the French chess magazine Europe-Echecs as Echecs-Europe which jars; but it does give the painfully exciting atmosphere of the struggle for dominance in world chess and succeeds in so doing without employing technical terms that non-chessplayers might find perplexing.

However, I found some of the descriptions of play somewhat mystifying, possibly because the author was also mystified. It also seems to me to have been a mistake to describe the development of a girl chess prodigy into a great player, since there is no known case of this happening in chess. Perhaps the author's reason for having a heroine rather than a hero lay in his desire to avoid the charge that he was basing his story on that of Bobby Fischer, and it is, after all, a novel and not a history of

Nevertheless, it is an interesting story and ranks alongside works as Nabokov's book and Canetti's Auto da Fé. A reminder that one need not 13 PKB4 ONEP resort to fiction to find a Also hopeless is 13...QXNP 14 suitable story about a chess hero comes from an excellent book rublished by the Book 15 No. P.M. published by the Pergamon Press: Paul Keres Chess Master Class, by I. Neishtadt (£9.95 hardback, £5.95 paperback). Here I must declare a personal interest as Paul was my best friend among the great masters and he represented for me all that was best and brightest in a galaxy of many brilliant stars.

Neishtadt has composed his book on an original and chess, particularly of the endings. The book is not only about Keres, but also about the techniques of the attack and of endgame play. It should be of Candidates Budapest in 1950.

White: P. Keres. Black: I Kotov, Sicilian Defence. 1 P-R4 P-Q84 2 P-R83 1 P-Q4 P-R9 4 No.P 5 N-Q83 P-QR3 6 B-R2 7 B-R5 QN-Q2 8 0-0 9 B-R5 Q-B5 A better defence was 9 P-KN3 10 B-K2 B-N2

The astonishing point about White's sacrifice is that he intended replying to 10... NxB

Another remarkable move; now 11 ... NxN 12 PxN Q-B4 13 Q-Kl ch N-K4 (or 13 . . . Q-K4 14 P-KB4) 14 P-KB4 threatening 15 PxN QxB 16 PxP

Or 12 Q-K1 13 Q-Q2 threatening Q-B3 or Q-R5 ch as well as BxN. K-QL 12 8-K4 D-KA

Or 15 ... Q-B3 16 N-Q5 dis ch K-BI 17 R-B3 K-N1 18 R-B3. 18 BUF ch K-82 17 BuR B-83 18 0-02 B-83 19 QH-K1 G-M3 20 R-10 ch K-01 21 KN-K1 P-QR4 22 B-Q4 R-93 23 Q-82 B-81 BxBP 24 B-N6 ch

K-B1 25 R-B7 ch K-N1 26 RxB and White wins. 24 B-MS ch K-B1 25 R-KB ch RxR 26 RxS ch K-Q2 27 RxS resigna

Harry Golombek

Lost in space: The monster's blancmange-like exterior, countdown to blast-off with realistic flashing lights; fellow-travellers in the capsule itself

Into a black hole with white knuckles

"This new ride", said the press sized models of astronauts engineer replied. "My daughrelease, "has been built at a cost suspended in space, robots and of £1.2m - a steel roller coaster, a simulated flight deck of a And we've even tried it with "Round my waist", I ordered set in the dark, Passengers will leel weightless as they burtle through space into a terrifying black hole, at a speed of up to 65mph and a maximum G force

"Thank God", said the appended letter from a colleague, "I cannot go to this and do not suppose you want to either. On the other hand, you might". I could think of nothing, except possibly crossing the Atlantic on a windsurfer, that I would rather do less.

Nevertheless, nevertheless. I am supposed to explore all kinds of possible family outings and there are people who positively enjoy that kind of thing. And so it was that my good friend Ben, aged 15, and I found ourselves on the way to Blackpool Pleasure Beach.

We made our way along the Golden Mile, down avenues of stalls selling burgers, chips, Blackpool rock and glass seahorses, to come suddenly upon a large structure that looked as though it were extruded from bluish polystyrene: a huge blancmange from which the cook had been unable to remove the bubbles. The Space Invader.

Once inside we passed liferocket. Then up two narrow flights of enclosed stairs - the "time passage" - to a narrow, enclosed landing - the "launch pad" - for a peck at the red and silver vehicles, which were designed to look like space

We went back downstairs to be greeted with cocktails "with a difference". They were corporation baths - blue, lukewarm, but enlivened by fruit salad and sparklers, which the barman kindly lit, setting fire to a few

We peeked into the marquee where lunch awaited us sumptuous multi-coloured mountains of mousses and mayonnaise. "Presumably", said a member of our party, "We will, er, be riding before lunch?" "Oh no, Dr Who is up there with the photographers now, then there's the mayor and mayoress, the official opening, lunch and then you can have a go." "Do you provide paper bags?" someone asked.

We won the day when the chief engineer - a genial, russet haired giant - told us to follow "Is it really safe?" asked a journalist and mother of "Safe as houses", the more frightening." "Thanks".

My good friend Ben had been keeping a remarkably low profile. "How would you rate it in terms of scareability?" he enquired. The chief engineer laughed. "Oh, definitely top of the white-knuckle league", he said, "worse than the Revolution" (from which one hangs suspended, upside down, 50ft above the ground).

Ninety seconds can ... be an eternity

In everyone's life there are a few truly sickening moments when one knows, too late, that it has all been done wrong and there is no undoing it. I tried to concentrate on reporting but could think only of the sign outside the Space Invader, writ large, which warned against riding if one had a weak heart, bad back or was of a nervous disposition. How about terror, I thought, not to mention vertigo. The ride only lasts 90 seconds", I heard myself say. "I know", said Ben, "I've been timing - it can be an eternity". "You sit in the front, young man", said a mechanic. "Far

Ben's hands, reading a second sign which said something like Do not stand up, let hands drop over the sides or try to get out of the cansule once it is in motion. In an emergency, stay It was too late. We were moving through a black hole, "like a coffin". I thought,

"going through those curtains at a crematorium. How apt!" We turned a corner and climbed a steep, grey gradient, all the lights dimmed - and we came quietly to rest. I tried to comfort myself with the knowledge that the luvader has a solid state electronic block braking system. And then as our stomachs seemed to shoot into our mouths, and every semblance of stiff upper lip disintegrated we hurtled down, down, into the black void - then round and round, sickeningly fast, climbing, jolting on some unseen perimeter, only to fall again at a terrifying angle, while the air rushed past our flattened faces.

fo'c'sie of a whaler. And then it was over and an director of the Pleasure Beach

We screamed, uttering language such (as a friend used to say), as would not be tolerated in the

in a cream suit) beamed down and prised the limpets apart and helped them out of the capsules and a nightmare,

We were supposed to have seen "unfriendly aliens, danger-ous gaseous planets, shooting stars, asteroids and other spaceships" on the way, but like most other passengers on their first trip, we saw few of either because our eyes were firmly shut or because we could only think of heaving interiors and galloping hearts,

I am told that while the lady mayoress stood up well to the ordeal, several other dignitaries turned green. And there was concern among our ranks for one lady who looked blue. But perhaps that was because our cycs were a little glaucous at the time. As far as Ben and I were concerned, it would be hard to imagine whiter knuckles. And if you like sheer terror, then there is no better place to be scared, almost literally, to death than on the Space Invader. We have the white knuckles to prove it.

Judy Froshaug

You can ride the Space Invader at Blackpool Pleasure Beach, Blackpool (0253 41033) for 90p.

Outings

THE RED BARON: First inthe ICA Children's Cinema club's eason called "To The Stars", with deals with man's ambition to conjuer the limitations of space. The flat film (directed by Roger Connal made in the United States in 197), in the unless object it 1919, shows sturds, dog fights aid smazing aerobatics as Fra World War hying are Baron von Richthofen battles with the British in the first ever war in the 1". ICA, The Mail, London SW (930 3647). Today, tomorrow at 1.30pm. Adults £2.50, children £1.44 including free club memberhip.

ANIMALS AS ARCHITECTS Last chance to see this imaginate and thought-provoking exhibition for all ages, both children and adults. On display is a broad range of structures which animals build to structures which analysis but to live in or trap prey - from nets and spiders' webs to termite mounds. Natural History Museum, Crimwell Road, South Kensington, Lodon SW7 (589 6323). Today 10a.

GAMES DAY: Described as estival of adventure, board and computer games, with a wide variety of indoor games for children, adults and families lei demonstrated. They include the lesion and video games. playing and video games.
Royal Horticultural Society's Greycoat Street and Vincent Square, London SW1 (834 43 Today 10.30am-6pm. Tomoro 10am-5pm. Admission £1.25.

THE MODEL WORLD OF RODNEY PEPPE: An exhibition of original illustrations by children's author appe from books such as The Mice Who Lived in A Shoe and The Kettleship Pirates. Also on display are models on which drawings; were based and Peppé's own animated toys, based on Victorian models but designed, crafted add painted by the author himself. National Theatre, South Bank, London SE1 (633 0880). Today and Mon-Thurs, 9am-11pm, Free, A HISTORY OF TIMPLATE

PRINTING: Exhibition showing many examples of the brightly coloured biscuit and other tans. made in the late Victorian and Edwardian eras. The entire tinplating process is explained as it was performed then up to the present day. Printing and Papermaking Gallery Science Museum, London SW/ (589 3456), Until Oct 7, Mon-Say

10am-6pm, Sun 2.30-6pm, Free

TAXI DRIVER OF THE YEAR COMPETITION: Annual eventin which 73 finalists compete for the title. Competition testing their knowledge starts from the Tower of London at 10am, arriving later at Battersea Park for tests of manoeuvrability and skill in a limited space, Many other even including steam-driven carouse Metropolitan Police display, emateur wrestling, music, stalls and vintage taxls. Battersea Park, tomorrow, morning to 5.30pm., Free.

A few years ago, I was correspondents say, it would be Judy Rabin, Jacqui Mitchell, sufficiently incautious to write wise to disregard that run, Gail Moss, Carol Sanders, and able female brandishing a copy of The Times. "Are you that Scarbo male chauvinist pig, Flint?" she Jones. that was to follow.

Nicola (Gardener)

Gilbey's have generously

The fiercest challenge will

Boot on a more delicate foot | Aux chevaux! French leave in the Bois de Boulogne

It really may be said to vie with the finest English parks, said Prince Albert grudgingly, of the newly laid out Bois de Boulogne, after his visit to Paris in

After his coup d'etat in 1852, outshine the British, and planned, along with Baron Georges Haussmann, to convert the French capital into a city of wide boulevards and squares laid out on the British model. The Bois de Boulogne and the Bois de Vincennes would be for recreation.

Napoleon III's project included riding tracks in the new parks, networks of riding alleys for horse-riders. Riding had always been important to the Emperor - at school he had excelled as a superb horse rider, and with his long body and short legs, he apparently looked better on a horse than on a chaise longue.

During a stay in England, he attracted attention when he rode in Hyde Park, he enjoyed riding with the Warwickshire Hunt, and the hospitality of the Duke and Duchess of Beaufort at Badminton.

Riding in the Bois de Boulogne is the Parisian equivalent of riding down Rotten Row. Apart from Napoleon III's use of London's parks as a model, thu Anglo-French connexion works the other way too. The probable origin or William III's Rotten Row lies in the French Rouse du Roi. The Bois was the fashionable place to see and be seen, especially in carriages or on horse back.

The elegant ladies of the Belle Epoque and their escorts have been replaced by track-suited joggers and crowds using the park's boating lakes, ennis courts and smart restaurants. Yet despite the traffic thundering through it, the Bois is surprisingly rural,

A popular venue for suicides and duels

even wild, in its interior.

The Société d' Equitation de Paris, the capital's oldest riding club, is situated in the north-west corner of the Bois, and it was from here, after the traditional coup de l'étrier (copious strirrup cups were consumed) that we began our promenade a cheral.

Michel and Ghislain, my escorts, were jokingly described as "Parisian playboys". At least I think it was jokingly. They took advantage of my poor French, and when they suggested un peut galop after I'd just lost my stirrups, it was easier to smile in agreement. At least Griotte, my horse spoke fluent English, I was told. We set off au pas, riding past the Mare St James, towards the Route du Mahauna Gandhi. After a short distance we turned into our first passage de cavaliers, one of the special bridleways reserved for riders. The ground was soft underfoot, and we soon broke into a trot. It became more overgrown as we progressed deeper into the woods. The omamental park areas may have been modelled on Hyde Park, but the dark forest interior is far wilder. Tall fir trees are packed close together, and there are long grasses and stinging nettles.

The more descried parts of the Bois. with their dense trees and secluded glades, recall that in the Middle Ages this was the Foret du Rouvre ("rouvre" Jeremy Flint | is old French for "oak"), notorious for

Haughty hooves: Renoir's "Riders in the Bois de Boulogne"

harbouring bandits and a popular venue for suicides and duels. Louis XI's barber, Olivier de Daim, eventually pacified the forest, when the cing gave him the hunting rights of the Preserve of Rouvray. Louis XI also, who signed the edict giving the name Boulogne to the forest and surrounding parish. Some of the forest's woodcutters had been on a pilgrimage to the shrine of Noire Dame de Boulogne le

Much of the timber was cut down for firewood during the revolution, and British and Russian troops bivouacked in the Bois after Waterloo burned the oaks, which were later replaced by horse chestouts and sycamores.

Reine-Marguerite and the Carrefour de Longchamp, we came to the entrance to the Château de Bagatelle. The original chateau was built in 1720, set in grounds famous for their flower displays, water lillies and rose garden, and rebuilt 50 years later by the Count of Artois within three months, to win a bet with his sister-in-law, Marie Antoinette. In the nineteenth century it passed, via the Hertford family, to Sir Richard Wallace. A boulevard in the park is named after him.

Sociétà d'Équitation de Paris, Centre

Paris from: Tourisme Equestre, 15 Rue de

We emerged from the dense thickets to a busy main road, with traffic hurtling past the Grande Cascade five abreast. Here I realized Griotte was not the docile animal I'd asked for. As we did our rodeo act in front of the speeding vehicles, I wondered what kind of animal I would have got had I accepted the offer of something "a little Next to the manmade waterfall is the Châlet de la Grande Cascade, a gift to Haussmann from Napoleon III. Nearby is a restored windmill, the only remnant of the thirteenth century Abbey de Longchamp. The name, "long field", comes from the original clearing beside the Seine. It is now the site of the Longehamp racecours which is, along with the Autenil racecourse, the Ascot of Paris.

At the southern tip of the Bois, we turned north, taking a different track for our return. A few logs had fallen across our path. The easiest way onwards was to jump, so over we d'Urville, 75016 Paris. Tel 500,48.74. They have a list of clubs in the Paris area. Sports Equestres, 164 Rue du Faubourg St. Honore, Pans 8E.

Bruxelles, 75009 Paris, Tel 281,42.82. They Ligue d'Equestre de Parls, 51 Rue Dumont

How to get there: Thomson Paris operate return flights to Paris, plus two nights accommodation, from 291 from Gatwick sailed. I thought of the horse I had been shown at the stables which had leapt over a Citroen which happened to be in its way. Here we also encountered our first boules game. Cyclists and dogs I would expect to see in any London park, and I had been warned about the hazards o le jogging, but not boules-playing. It seems the riding alleys are a convenient place for indulging the craze. Best policy is to shout at them, my escorts advised. Motor cyclists trying to do cross country through the forest I decided not to argue with.

Larger 1 mg

6.4 30 percent

Sa sales in 医髓膜 医隐止性病

State of the state

41/4/14

2011/2 miles

24 2 W . . .

State of the state of the Bra je ...

Section 1997

Carl Land Land

Zhin.

ted thinks

See the con-

A st which are

Cape Will : San

A CHARLES

Tables is in Steller on the 1

Med March

of a life, rate

Jek :0/214-1

The state of the s

Man Million 1 1.

27

The planting

Jan 10 10

P# 4 1/2

All topped in the

The Pre Catelan, which we were now passing, contains a copper beech, said to be 200 years old and to have the broadest branches of any tree in Paris. There is also the Jardin Shakespeare, where all the trees and plants mentioned in the plays are growing. The garden was planted after the war, after a statue of the Bard vanished during the occupation. The presentation in English of one of Shakespeare's plays in the Jardin's open air theatre has become an annual tradition.

The Societé d'Équitation dates back to the war years too, when French Resistance officers set up a riding club in the Quartier Latin, as a pretext for exchanging information. Some of the members were arrested by the Gestapo - the only survivor is an honorary president of the club.

The original buildings were pulled down in the 1950s, and the club moved out to the Bois, to buildings formerly used for giraffes and elephants belong ing to the neighbouring Jardin d'Accli-matation. This children's zoo and amusement park now houses mainly birds, dolphins and monkeys.

Prizes and rosettes hang from every wall in the school.

The main emphasis at the school is instruction. There are professional instructors, one of whom used to be personal instructor and standard bearer to the King Morocco. There are three maneges, 2 cross country course, jumping arena and club house, and 90 horses and ponies ranging from Shedands and Connemaras to thoroughbreds. One of the school's traditions is that incoming presidents have to ride around the clubhouse on one of the smallest Shetlands, as current president Michel Leclainche did.

Prizes and rosettes hang from away wall, with the horse stops upside down. There is not the same Eighish supersution about horse shoot hanging them upside down does not mean the fuck will falliout. It was a hot day, and the acress obviously enjoyed being hosed dawn

Sir Richard Wallace showed similar concern when he donated a guit of several fountains to the French capital Apparently he had been thinking more of the thirst of horses than pedestrians. He probably knew the old Parisian proverb: Paris is a Paradise for women, a Purgatory for husbands, and an Inferno for horses. I returned to the hotel for my own Bain Moussant an article attempting to explain which did not represent their Betty Ann Kennedy, although the difference between the top true form. women bridge players and their The nucleus of the World the recent the first the nucleus of the World the recent that the nucleus of the World that the nucleus of the world that the nucleus of the nucleu the paper while I was playing in Smith and Pat Davies. To this a tournament in Dubai, I did experienced quartet the selecnot escape the consequences.

As I entered the playing inquired, in lones that left no

Today the boot is on a more delicate foot. Whereas only their most ardent supporters win the World Olympic title in coaching. Seattle, the British Women's

Their status as the current ship, was only slightly tarnished artificial systems. by their failure to win the 1983 European Championships in tors, after carefully deliberating the results of some closely rooms, I encountered a formid- fought trials, have added the bright young pair of Sarah Scarborough and Gillian Scott-.

doubt of the stormy interview provided some most welcome sponsorship. This will help the players who live far apart to congregate more frequently, and give them the priceless advanwould expect our men's team to tage of Gus Calderwood's

The two leading partnerships team, despite a powerful chal- in the women's team use lenge from America, Italy and systems which could be de-france, are undoubtedly scribed as classical. Scarbo-tavourites. play Precision, will obviously holders of the Venice Cup, the benefit especially from Gus Women's World Champion-Calderwood's experience of Calderwood's experience of probably come from the power-Wiesbaden. But as the racing ful American team, Kathie Wei.

* 1 12 12 E

CONCISE CROSSWORD (No 434)

Prizes of the New Collins Concise English dictionary will be given for the first two correct solutions opened on Thursday, September 6, 1984. Entries should be addressed to The Times Concise Crossword Competition, 12 Coley Street, London WC99 9YT. The winners and solution will be announced on Saturday, September 8, 1984.

ACROSS 1 US Congress site (7,4) • Withhold vote (7)

TV recorder (5) 11 Spread out (3)13 Smooth down wn (4) 17 Primary source to 18 Jaunty rhythm (4) Cat cry (4) 21 Agency (b) 22 Tecnage spots (4)

Agreement (3) 28 Exceed (5) 29 Prolonged applause 30 Attack on authority

Accourrements (4)

DOWN Fire raising (5) Mosque leader (4) 4 Alencon dept (4) Bees' nest (4) 7 El Salvador capital

(3,5) 8 Great War (5,3,3) 12 German emperor (6) 14 Speck (3) Diminutive (6) 19 Dome oval (7)

Large cup (3) 24 Puloul(5) 25 Oppressive hurden 26 Settee (4)

ACROSS: 1 Deejay 5 Derive 8 Awe 9 Mirror 10 Bovver 11 Tale 12 Angelino 14 Stroke 17 Autuma 19 Aba Dhabi 22 Unto 24 Hernis 15 Bedlam 26 Gal 27 Aubade 28 Energy DOWN: 2 Evita 3 Jericho 4 Yardage 5 Debag 6 Riyal 7 Victnam 13 Emu 15 Tableau 16 Kwh 17 Amiable 18 Trundle 20 Donna 21 Adage 23 Twang The winners and solution of last Saturday's

SOLUTION TO No 433

27 Prank (4)

Recommended dictionary is the New Callins Concise

they lost their American title at recent USA Spring

semi-finals proved the talking point of the competition, as Henry Francis vividly describes in the American Contract Bridge Bulletin. USA Spring Nationals. North-

South Game, Dealer South

7 107653 84 + AQ6532 0 1082 ♦ KQ4 In both rooms the contract was Six Spades by South. At one table West led a heart, East won the first trick with the VQ and unwisely attempted to cash the VA. Declarer ruffed, drew trumps, and disposed of her losing diamond on dummy's At the other table. Terry Michaels had a harder tasi when East, after winning the heart lead with the VQ. switched to the 49. With a shrug of resignation, she tried double diamond finesse. Some hours later she realized how she could have made that slam. Fishbein always told me not to take a finesse when could try a squeeze.

Terry Michaels is certainly a harsh critic of her own game But with the Ace of hearts marked in the East hand, the squeeze is a superior line because it will succeed not only when East has the OQI but when he has any four monds. This will be the five card ending:

K9 AKS 5 + 65 1062

When declarer plays her penultimate trump, discarding a diamond from dummy, East has no counter. If she parts with a diamond, declarer cashes dummy's AK of diamonds and returns to hand with a heart ruff to score the last trick with the O10. If East bares the VA declarer crosses to dummy with a top diamond, ruffs a heart, and returns to dummy to enjoy the established VK. Admittedly a difficult hand but I have every confidence that the British Women champions

would have proved equal to the

Near the crossroads of the Allée de la

Hippique du Bois de Boulogne, Route de la Muette à Neully, Porte de Neully, 75116 rls. Tel 722,87.06. Membership costs Paris. Tel 722.87.06. Membership costs F900 for first year, then F600 annual fee. Promenade accompagnée d'une heure F90. Leçon particulière F150. Metro: Pont de Neuilly (figne Château de Vincennes – Pont de Neuilly). Most rôting chuis in Paris are expensive, and a membership fee is involved to cover insurance. Details of where to ride around Paris force. Tentres Estatos to 150 along the details.

also publish a handbook, Tourism Equestre en France, with details of riding holidaya throughout France.

Anne Whitehouse

المكذا من الاصل

Slinky rhythms from Rio and vile industrial noise year's thing? Judging by the current swing back to the musical values of bebop, beat-nik and torch singers who evoke the never-had-it-so-good era. not everyone is welcoming the shock of the new with open

Given the success of contemporary artists like Sade and Tracey Thorn The Essential Astrud Gilherto is bound to be one of the year's de rigeur purchases for the "hep groovers and sultry kittens" who dictate the pace in clubland. This timely compilation, lovingly chosen and expertly sleeved. represents the epitome of a music which fused the post-bossa rhythms of Stan Getz to the nonchalant, untrained and apparently vulnerable vocal charm of Ms Gilberto.

adu.

3.5 gs

4.3

in Se i hindly by

.5 14 43

D OF ROLE

52.5

15 Th

1.64.500

N. E.

 $(v_n)^{\alpha_n}(x_n)_{X_{n+1}^{\alpha_n}}$

1 - 1 119

MPLATE

marka (g marka Markana Markana of partners,

14 12/50 14/50 14/50 14/50

 $\tau_{i}: \tau_{i} \in \mathcal{T}_{\mathfrak{M}}$

ME VEN

 $= g^{-1} e^{-\alpha \beta} e^{-\alpha}$

 (p_1, \dots, p_n)

1.14

100 miles 100 miles

the state of

1 4. Tajkit

N. 6.25

Apart from the expected inclusions. "The Girl From Ipanema" and "Corcovado". this collection is an accurate summary of the early 1960s collaboration between the pen of Antonio Carlos Jobim (translated by Norman Gimbel) and the slinky rhythms of Joao and Astrud Gilberto, which took the team out of the Rio nightspots and into the mainstream of the American charts

Nusic which has stood the test of time

What was good enough for The Beatles and Elvis Presley to flirt with then will certainly find a more lasting relationship with Working Week and Everything But The Girl, who take their inspiration from this sort of

The beauty of this music is that it has stood the test of time; it's a Copacabana mile away from the dread muzak of much new pop. Behind the frail, almost apologetic, phrasing of Astrud lies Getz's assertive tenor saxophone, a palette of subtle brush work, and Joao's latin guitar. The mix appeals as much in the original romances of "O Ganso" as it does in quirky covers of standard material like "Fly Me To-The Moon" and flt Might As Well

Be Spring". 1
The news that Astruct Gilberto will play here in the autumn, to a new and no doubt reverential young audience, recalls a recently heard cautionary tale. Apparently Ms Gilberto was not best pleased with the cover stot for the re-re-leased single of "The Girl From lpanema". "She is blonde! she looks like a common English

The Essential Astrud Gliberto (VRV6) Harold Budd/Brian Enc The Pearl Test Dept. Beating The Retreat (Some Bizarre Test 2/3)

girl". Astrud snapped. "Everyone knows that the girl from Ipanema is tall and tan and young and lovely." Touche.

The Pearl is a second collaboration between American pianist Harold Budd and Brian Eno, who may fairly be said to be the ambassador for diverse cultural exchange: Plateaux of Mirror was their first semi-ambient summit meeting Brian Eno is a rare specimen, a workaholic of taste and originality; his background stretches from the hest Roxy Music period through to David Bowie. Talking Heads, Iggy Pop and U2; we'll forget Ultravox.

But Eno has also carved out a niche with his EG Editions and related pieces (accompanying the likes of Robert Fripp, Roedlius and Jon Hassel), Here with Budd he helps to create a simple, evocative series of spare piano compositions that generally justify their dream-like of Dogs. titles - Lost in The Humming Air", "A Stream with Bright Fish", "An Echo of Night", True, the effect is almost cloying in the passive response it commands but the contemplative structures are guaranteed to soothe the savage breast. Eno fans will be pleased to hear that his Music For Airports 2 is nearly ready for launching.

Lizzy Mercier Descloux's first album for Columbia sounds almost indecently exuberant after the cool jazz of Gilberto and the refined textures of Budd/Eno. Ms Descloux is a terribly trendy young Parisian who studied at the Beaux Arts, was in on the New York New Wave and was back in time for the dawn of punk. Her press hand out is gushing yet this shouldn't detract from the joyful nature of her music, recorded in Johannesburg with an excellent band of local musicians, ably shaped English producer Adam Overall, the album is a splendid collision between French chic, or cheek, African highlife and a mess of rhythmic free form that zips from juju to rock to some lovely cajun

A record for those with catholic tastes, perhaps ranging from Clifton Chenies to Malcolm McLaren. Ms Descloux's efforts demand a physical response. I'm particularly struck by the dancing onomatopoeia of Gazelles", a "Wimoweh" for the 1980s. Unfortunately the aroum is badly packaged, with a minimum of sleeve information and one has the feeling that CBS have no idea of the commercial time-bomb in their own catadgue. Perhaps it will fare better in Europe.

Test Dept's boxed set Beating the Retreat brings as love. Theirs is an ugly industrial noise wrought out of their local New Cross landscape and performed on an anonymous selection of plant hire, 50-gallon water tanks, treated tapes and trude keyboards. The effect, which is like walking across a building site in the aftermath of a holocaust, is, as they say, shattering. It reflects an environment with accuracy but it only adds to the gloom,

In fact the Test Dept experience is so existential that they can only work properly live or with a visual accompani-ment. Beating The Retreat is likely to encourage you to turn it off. There isn't much contest between Ipanema and the Isle

Max Bell

Spontaneity and sheen add up to a perfect Brazilian blend

If Brazilian music really is going to catch on here it may very well begin with Gilberto Gil's "Toda Menina Baiana". Five years old, hidden away as a track on an album ritled Realce. it has recently been discovered and diffused by zealous discjockeys in jazz-funk clubs. prompting WEA to release the song as a single and to repromote its parent album. Toda Menina Baiana" is a suprestion of practically every-thing that is good about contemporary Brazilian pop music; all the informal lyricism of bossa nova is present in Gil's friendly voice and in the hooks which stud his delightful tune; but the music is driven by a stronger, more contemporary acoustic guitar pattern and pattering congas - than that which attracted Stan Getz and Charlie Byrd 20 years ago. The album is not consistently of the same standard. Recorded in Los Angeles with American session musicians augmenting Gil's regular performers on the violão and the baixo, it seems to have represented an attempt to capture a world market - just as Jorge Ben, Gil's great contemporary and the composer of "Mas Que Nada", tried to do a few years earlier in London.

Elberto Gil Resice (WEA International 91-022) Various That's the Way I Feel Now (A&M AMLM, 2 records). Albert King Laundromat Blues (Edsal ED 130)

Never less than pleasant, Realce does contain some other highlights: the lulling charm of ogunede", the acoustic shimmer of "Tradicão" and, perhaps most hearteningly, the title song in which Gil and his coarranger, Jerry Hey, prove that a half-and-half mixture of Malibu and Copacabana spontaneity and sheen - can made to work perfectly.

Hal Willner is the man who gave us Amarcord Nino Rota, that extraordinary album in which Debbie Harry, Steve Lacy, Carla Bley and others paid tribute to the late Italian film-music composer, a couple of years ago. That's the Way I Feel Now is a similar and even more lavish project, in which Willner has invited musicians of various styles to express their affection for the work of the late Theionious Monk by recording their own interpretations of his

Sadly, this time there is no Debbie Harry - but will Joe Jackson, Peter Frampton, Donald Fagen, Todd Rundgren, Dr John, Chris Spedding and the boys from Was (Not Was) do instead? They represent the rock fraternity, lining up with a list of jazz heavyweights including Lacy and Mrs Bley, Gif Evans, Johnny Griffia, Barrie Harris, Randy Weston, Elvin Jones and Charlie Rouse,

What could have been a respectful mess turns out to be marvellously invigorating. Griffin's tenor saxophone feature on Mrs Bley's recasting of "Misterioso" vies with Was (Not Was)'s spooky "Ba-lue- Bolivar-Ba-lues-are" and Jackson's unornamented plano-with-strings "Round Midnight" for the big band prize; Bruce Fowler's all-trombone "Thelonius". Sharon Freeman's all-French horn "Monk's Mood". Shockabilly's impressionist view of "Criss-Cross" and John Zorn's cartoon of "Shuffle Boil" (played mostly with duck-calls) are fascinatingly idiosyncratic views of one

Of the less obviously specacular pieces, mainstream jazz listeners will be delighted by the four appearances of Lacy's soprano saxophone - duets with Gil Evans ("Bemsha Swing"), Charlie Rouse ("Ask Me Now and Elvin Jones ("Evidence" and a solo exploration of man's genius.

"Gallop's Gallop", all attesting to the depth of his dedication to the study of Monkology. Even the least likely items

Spedding and Frampton making a rock guitar feature out of "Work", for example - are illuminated by the spirit of the enterprise, each seeming to catch some aspect of Monk's character. And when Dr John sits at the piano and takes "Blue Monk? for a stroll along the sidewalks of New Orleans, all the project's virtues are summa-

Albert King's "Crosscut Saw", recorded in 1966 and now reissued as part of a collection of the Mississippi blues guitarist's recordings for the Stax label, is so powerful and vivid a performance that almost anything cise heard within a day or two runs the risk of seeming lacklustre.

The magic is in the inspired juxtaposition of King's rough-hewn voice and stinging guitar style with the incomparably deft and subtle backing devised by the great Stax studio houseband of the mid-1960s - none other than Booker T and the MGs plus the Memphis Horns.

A restless tattoo of snickering rimshots

On "Crosscut Saw", there-fore, we have Booker T. Jones interjecting a little Latinesque back-to-front piano phrase during the instrumental interlude, Al Jackson laying down a restless tattoo of snickering rimshots. Steve Cropper adding barely perceptible rhythm guitar scratches and Donald Dunn spacing out a cool bass line; on top of these, at the strategic moment, the trumpet and saxophones of the Memphis Horns punch out their characteristically bruising figures with a close-grained timbre and a collective phrasing so natural that the three men must have born from the same egg.
The Memphis musicians' enthusiasm for this unusual experience spills all over the grooves of the primevally harsh Born Under a Bad Sign", the measured "Down Don't Bother Me" and the humorous "Cold Feet", adapting the techniques which were doing such marvel-lous service for Sam and Dave, Otis Redding and others, they slipped back a generation to meet King more than halfway, their sophistication suffusing his older art in such a way as to suggest how, given an accident or two, the blues might have developed.

Richard Williams

GALLERIES

Rose-coloured spectacle of the cream of Danish art

A pigeon's es view of the National Galery would reveal that a new uncontroversial extension is already in existcourtyards has been half-filled by the Bernard and Mary Sunley specialexhibitions room, after its benefactors, owners of a building firm.

Inside, the valls are coloured rose pink am tasteful grey in preparation in the inaugural exhibition, which opens on Wednesday. Fere the concept of gallery-withing gallery is repallery-withing-gallery is repeated: the shw is of the cream of Danish printing lifted wholescale fion the Statens Museum in Copenhages.
"Nothing we wanted was refused", says Alithir Smith, the exhibition organizer. "We have got the best."

Mr Smith water lyrical about which he first so in the 1970s.

"It was love at irst sight. The artists are as good as any working at that ime," he says.

have had the paintings out to such a great and spoiled public." At home, the Danish public are making do with secondary works from the store.

What is known in Denmark as the golden age of Danish painting took place mainly in the nineteenth century. The works represented in the exhibition date from 1767-1858. Many are of idyllic scenes - a church on the hill, a girl framed. between barn doors, windmills and ships seen from afar. There are a large number of portraits, some of which are only about 10in high. Many, with dark, exhibition organizer. "We have got the best."

Mr Smith wars tyrical about Danish painting — virtually unknown outsiders homeland—chins and ruddy faces. The pink—chins and ruddy faces. of the gallery walls is echoed in their complexions and their

Many of the artists travelled Mirs Bente Sovgaard, his south to study, and the exhi-fellow-organizer from the Sta-tens Museum ishowever, more Eckersberg at the Villa Bot-

little nervous about the show They took with them their because it is a trial", she says. favourite colours, and so that "It is the first time in my rosy glow appears again, now generation's knowledge that we translated into the heat of the

In the light of these works, it comes as a surprise that for the Danes the period was extremely troubled. They suffered repeated defeat at the hands of the British (for example in 1801 when Nelson destroyed their fleet at Copenhagen) and were constantly at loggerheads with Sweden. After the Napoleonic war, when the price of corn plummeted, there was great poverty and distress. The scenes the Danish artists were painting were often utopian.

The exhibition is being sponsored by Carlsberg, which is advertising it on beermats in puls throughout London. The firm is obviously hoping drinkers will view the prospect of a visit to the National Gallery in a suitably rosy light. Sarah Jane Checkland

"Danish Painting: The Golden Age" opens at the National Gallery, Trafalgar Square, London WC2 (839 8321) on Wed. Until Nov 20, Mon-Sat 10am-6om, Sun 2-6pm.

Openings

Blasts from the past: Astrud Gilberto (top) of "The Girl from Ipanema" fame; tasteful workaholic Brian Eno and Gilberto Gil

THE AGE OF VERMEER AND DE HOOGH: Major exhibition of fine seventeenth-century genre paint-ings which reflect a time of a great artistic production in Holland. Lunchtime lectures and evening concerts have been in association with the exhibition.

with the exhibition.
The Royal Academy, Piccadilly,
London W1 (734 9052), Opens Fri.
Until Nov 18, daily 10am-6pm. GETTING LONDON IN PERSPECTIVE: All about the work of artists long neglected and now being superseded by the computer the creators of the architectural perspective. More than 200 line drawings, watercolours and computer representations of London from 1702 to 1984 are on Barbican Art Gallery, Silk Street, London EC2 (638 4141). Opens

10am-7pm, Sun noon-6pm HAVE YOU SEEN THE SCULPTURE FROM THE BODY?: Show of work by sculptors who represent the body primarily through the medium of welded and forged steel. Thirteen artists are represented, all associated with St. Martin's School of Art, including Gillian Brent, Katherine Gill and Anthony Smart. Tate Gallery, Milibank (821 1313). Opens Mon. Until Oct 14,

HENRY MOORE DRAWINGS 1979-1983: Loan exhibition in conjunction with Henry Moore

Mon-Sat 10am-5.30pm, Sun 2-

Foundation of more than 50 works on paper executed over the last five years. Includes cloud and streep studies, rock formations and the inevitable quota of humans. Marborough Fine Art, 8 Albemarie Street, London W1 (629 5161). Opens Wed. Until Oct 19, Mon-Fri 10am-5.30pm, Sat 10am-12,30pm.

THE PROBLEMS OF PICTURING: Strange negative title for exhibition of new work chosen by Time Out art critic Sarah Kent. Artists include Lisa Milroy (painter of everyday ilings like records and gloves). Ameken Toren (who paints haunting grey letter forms) and Nigel Gill (whose works are in Kent's words, "postic yet political, combining for example a fighter plane with Mother's Pride"). Serpentine Gallery, Kensington Gardens, London W2 (402 6075). Opens today. Until Sept 30, daily 10am-6pm.

Selected

AUTUMN EXHIBITION The Royal Society of Painter-Etchers and Engravers, Bankside Gallery, 48 Hopton Street. Bleckfriars, London SE1 (928 7521). Until Sept 23, Tues-Sat 10am-Spm, Sun 2-5pm Work which varies in style from the twee to the sophisticated, from the generalized to the minute detail of David Wicks, who etches the Bank of England notes. Also on show is a retrospective of work by Edward Bawden, an honorary fallow of the society since the 1960s. Includes eight charming litho-cuts of Assop's tables.

BETWEEN OURSELVES The ICA, The Mail, London SW (930 0493). Until Sept 16, Tues-

Final stop in an ikon Gallery touring exhibition in which Rosa Garrard. (performance artist, sculptor, painter and installation maker), uses existing works of art to call attention to her preoccupation with women and women's roles.

ROCOCO Victoria and Albert (589 6371). Until Sept 30, Mon-Thurs and Set 10am-5.15pm, Sun 2.30-5.15pm An inspired exhibition, putting paid to any assumption that rococo equals "oppressively ornate". a partial reconstruction of the Vauxhall pleasure gardens as the centrepiece, the paintings, sculpture, porcelain and silverwork on show are as exuberant yet as is played in the background.

CREATION: MODERN ART AND NATURE AND NATURE
Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art, Belford Road, Edinburgh (031 556 8921). Until mid-Sept, Mon-Sat 10am-Spm, Sun 2-Emple

Sun 2-Sport
Sun 2-Sport
This splendidly ambitious inaugural exhibition for the new Scottish Gallery of Modern Art Includes 170
examples of how twentieth-century examples of how twentieth-centure artists have dealt with the biggest subject of all. Includes the all-embracing abstracts of Barnett Newman which attempt to capture the universal, and the minute characterization of a human being, by Stanley Spencer.

Photography

ANSEL ADAMS 1902-1984 Henry Cole Wing, Victoria and Albert Museum, South Kensington, London SW7 (01-589 6371). Until Sept 19, Mon-Thurs 10am-5.30pm, Set 10am-5.30pm, Sun 2.30-5.30pm A short lacuna between major shows at the V&A has allowed Mark Haworth-Booth to pull together a tribute to Adams from museum's collection. Adam who died recently, was one of the finest landscape photographers of the century. His work chronicles the grand, yet at times, sombre, beauty of the American terrain in a way that will not easily be

NEW PERSPECTIVES ON Open Eye Gallery, 90-92 Whitechapel, Liverpool (051-709 9460) Until Sept 22, Mon-Sat 10am-5.30pm An exhibition made up mainly of contemporary work which seeks to explore photography of the human body in a way that is freed from traditional forms.

ROBERT DOISNEAU/AUGUST SANDER SANDER
Cambridge Darkroom, Dates
Brewery, Gwydir Street, Cambridge (6223 350725). Until Sept 16, Tues-Sum noon-Spm Doisseau and Sander have pursued similar objectives – one through the meant, the other through the mind Deleneau's through the mind. Dolsneau's scenes of street life in Paris have a passionate, compulsive quality while Sander's portfolio of German people is altogether more rigorous, scientific and dispassionate.

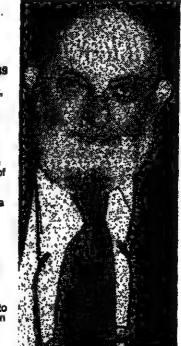

ALFRED STIEGLITZ Stitts Gallery, 105 High Street, Edinburgh (031 557 1140). Until Sept 15, Tues-Sat 12.30-5pm Retrospective of work by Stieglitz (1864-1946) which dwells on his pictures of New York at the turn of the century

ALFRED EISENSTAEDT ALTHED Elected 1 Replied Control of the Control of reportage on the city by Eisenstaedt, who worked there for two weeks in 1983 at the age of 86. Remarkable images from a man who has devoted his life to photography.

SNAP, RAZZLE AND POP Upper Gallery, ICA, The Mall, London SW1 (930 0493). Until Sept 16, Tues-Sun, noon-9pm A comprehensive show covering the world of pop and its attendant culture from 1955 to 1983. Harry Hammond was snapping Bill Haley in the 1950s in a straightforward, no-nonsense way while today's images are altogether more sophisticated, such as Brian Griffin's creations for various

MANUEL ALVAREZ BRAVO Museum of Modern Art, 30 Pembroke Street, Oxford (0865 722733). Until Sept 30, Tues-Sat 10am-5pm, Sun 2-5pm Gentle and deeply exploratory pictures by little-known Mexican Grand vision: American photographer Ansel Adams photographer Manuel Alvarez Landscape, buildings, people and objects are often used as symbols in a dissertation on mankind's fate.

SLACK AND WHITE MEMORIES National Museum of Photograp Prince's View, Bradford, West Yorkshire (0274 732277). Until Sept 23, Tues-Sat noon-8pm, Sun

2.30-6pm Portraits and fashion photography from 1948 to 1969 by David Bi rom 1948 to 1969 by David Balley, whose name is now synonymous with the swinging sixtles. Balley's Work has always possessed a natural flair for innovation and his fashion photographs, from either on the streets of New York or the studio, are inhabited by models who seem to be real people. His portraits of the rich and famous, although aggressively eclectic, never fall to demand attention.

BRITAIN IN 1984 National Museum of Photography. Details as above Various aspects of life in Britain photographed by Don McCullin, lar Berry, Ragubir Singh, John Davies and Paul Graham. The most interesting pictures are from McCullin's series on the run-down area of Spitalfields in London. He spent weeks patiently gaining the trust of the down-and-outs whom he photographed with great humility and understanding.

LIVES OF THE SAINTS Chapter Arts, Market Road, Canton, Cardiff (0222 396061). Ends today, noon-4pm Sensitive documentary photographs by Rory Coonan and Stuart Mackay of the islanders of St Helena in the south Atlantic. whose isolation has produced a distinctive and individual culture.

Michael Young

Entertainments

GLC SOUTH BANK CONCERT HALLS

Telephone Bookings 01-928 3191. Credit Cards 01-928 8800 Open all day. Free exhibitions and funchtime music. Coffee shop, buttet and bars. Free Jazz in the Riverside Cafe Friday. Saturday and Sunday evenings.

ROYAL FESTIVAL HALL

Seturday 1 Sept 7.30 pm	(cond) Philip Fowks (pixno) Marché Stave, Piano Concerto No 1, Caprocci Italian, Surle from Swan Lake, Overfure 1812 with cannon and morter effects £2.50 £3.60, £8.70, $2.80, £9.00, £8.00 V Hochhauser
Sunday 2 Sept 7.30 pm	NEW SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Brian Wright (conductor) Robert Brightmore (guster) Rosein Overture, Wilsom Tell, Rodrige Conciento de Aranjuez, Rimeley-Konsalow Statement Bottom C2 50 C3 60, 64 70, 15 80, 65 90, 65 90 Wictor Hochhauser
Sunday 9 Sept 7.30 pm	FAMILY FAVOLRITES with the Royal Philhermonic Orchestre Devid Amold (cond) Paul Hart (Asyboards) John Wellington (presenter) and special guest artists. A Popular Concert for All The Family. E2.50, £3.50, CS Groups of 4 pr more Es reduced to EA/E3.50 reduced to £3. RPO
Monday	CLEO LAINE & JOHN DANKWORTH with the Royal Philhammonic

EIGO Hoyas Primamons Orenegara in association in the Musical of Union in and of Wavendron Almass Plan

A TRIBUTE TO RICHARD BURTON THE SPY WHO CAME IN FROM THE COLD IPG; The Greater London Council presents a series of eight films sharing the great state Richard Burton in source of the most famous roles. All neats £2 Shidents Senior Citizens Unwingloyed/Schoolchildren C: 100

ROYAL PHILLARMONIC ÓRCHESTRA Andrew Litton (cond) Wynten
Marsells Itumpett Bizet Symphony in C. Prekteller Symphony No I

(Classical) The programme includes trumpet concertos by Hayan and Maximel E: 300 (4.56), 15.50 (6.56), C 50, EI.50, EI.000

A TRIBUTE TO RICHARD BLIRTON THE TAXMING OF THE SHREW (U) The Green London Council presents a series of signs in the great actor Richard Burton in some of his most famou The Common Common Common Description of Schools in Linear Description of Common Common

QUEENBEZABBITATION

Saturday 1 Sept 7 15 pm	NEVER SAY NEVER AGAIN (P.G.) 1,34 mins livin Kershner's tilm of the James Bond story by Kevin attockery, Jeck Whittingham & Ian Flesning staring Seen Connery, Klaus Kers Brandauer, Mex Von Sydow, Barbara Carrora, Kim Basinger, etc. 15.50 acts 2, 15.50 children under 14.
Sunday 2 Sept 7 15 pm	AN ITALIAN STRAW HAT (U) 90 mms Rene Clair's Classic Silent Birm Conedy with New orchestra accomponiment specially composed by Berndact Macon and conducted by Alan Fearon Plus René Clair's Entiracte (U) with Enk Salle's original score CS 57 50 Mills Morgan in assoc with the BFI
Monday 3 Sept 7,45 pm	First International Fastival of Cartibban & Latin American Culture JAMAICAN FILMS (to be announced) Costa Rican Film "Cinta-Ingo-Vady, 1820-1821". Introduction by Ingo Niettaus Siebe C: 50, E3 50 E4 50 E5 50, 55 50 Latin American Cartibban Cult. Soc.

First International Feathwal of Caribbean & Lagn American Culture Chilean Pilm "Ardento Peciencia" Introduction by Antonio Skarman Coste Rican Pilm "El Negro en Costa Rica" Subbites in English 12 50, 23 50 § 4 50, 25 50, 25 50 Lann American Caribbean Cult Soc

ROYAL FESTIVAL HALL

VICTOR HOCHHAUSER presents by arrangement with the GLC SUMMER SEASON

Popular Classics Royal Festival Hall TONIGHT at 7.30 TCHAIKOVSKY

OV. 1812' WITH CANNON & MORTAR EFFECTS Conductor: VILEM TAUSKY New Symphony Orchestra Soloise PHILIP FOWKE

DRROW at 1.50 OV. WILLIAM TELL CONCIERTO DE ARANJUEZ SCHENERAZADE BOLERO TOMORROW at 7.30

Conductor: BRIAN WRIGHT New Symphony Orchestra Guitar: ROBERT BRIGHTMORE (2.43), [7 nd, 14 fts. [7 No.] to 90), [8 moon Hall (8] 4036 Moon. Credit Cardy (6] 4036 Moon.

ENGLISH CHAMBER ORCHESTRA Conducted by SIR CHARLES MACKERRAS

MURRAY PERAHIA MENDELSSOHN Hebrides Overture

BEETHOVEN Plano Concerto No. 4 in G MENDELSSOHN Italian Symphony (2.9), (3.4), (4.5), (6, (7), (6 from Hall (0)-928 3(91) Credit Caulo (1-928 800) & Agesta Spensored by EXCO International pic

Wigmore Hall

- 1 1	the second secon
Tonight I Sept 7.16 p.m.	ALICIA DE LARROCHA paino Opening Comourt 84/85 Season Schummenti Nov lette vip.21 No S. Famas in C. Op 17, Granadoss fiscen romann, a., Fadfa, Fantasia battusi (1914). 4%, 4140, 4120, 42
Temorrow Tept 11.30 m.m.	WOURA L'IMPANY must Standay Morning Coffee Concert Benhou est would in 1 warp innot the 27 No. 2 "Mounight" Chopses 24 periode the 28 [2 40 m.] prog & ner coller, where or squa a size performance
lemorrow Nept 7.50 p.m.	RINA ARKHIPOVA metal suprano CRAIG SHEPPARD pan Ramshashorsakur iki sanga, Tehasharshay kontana itom "The Quero Spane" it sar in the taris spring, I sho noi place visa. Who did I dream o san' ri. 41 st. 42 st. 42 st. 42 bido senger bong Restal Sena
Monday 1 hept 7.30 pm	337 HUMESTON cello MONIQUE DUPHIL prano Serasmaky: Sunt Italierme, Debassoy Social (1914). Brahmer Sotiati ii 13 Op 78, Chopias Introduction & Polonare in Up (13, 1) 36, 2, 30, 2, 30.

Box Office and Credit Cards 01-935 2141 Mailing list £2 20 a year

RINTO LACRIALA pamo Brahmar "Gueta in F minor Op.5.
Probaffee: Samata No 7 in B ilat Op 0. Fitoojahami Ragistavanesi Sonati
No 1 to 9 of "Jun 6 de le fatermen". Schuttmanus Engles temptocaques
Op 14 (4, 2) 20 (2 to 1) 10 CRUSTOH-ORN TRIO us period manaments BOCHMANN'S STRING QUARTET on modern instruments Pleyel: Grand Potos Trio Op 28, Havda, Pane I no Hot XV 15, String Quartet Op 42, Beethovent String Chartet by 42, Raymonda'' (1,4) & 42, 44, (1,8) Thursday 6 Sept 7.10 pm

4.4.4 of 12 of 12 of 14 of 14

Aumies ⁰ Sept ¹ 30 pm AICHETTA GUTAR QUARTET
Larulli: Quarter in C. Dowland: Viance. Bach Brandenburg Concerto No. 1883. It Moveme Torrobus Latinges. Russi Pipus Castro para custro. Debassy: Petus batte. £4. £1.20. £2. 50. £1.80

Bash Pouglas Lid.

Britany true same (2, (1, 2), (2, 2), (3) man a sugment of the William Back Bescout Forcus, Adapts and Fugue in $4.50 Beethoven. Sometic in Fig. 4 Appendix in Summer (2, (2, 3), (2, 3), (1, 3)) man from Bod Dougles Ltd.

BRIGHTE BALLEYS memo-soyung GERARD WYSS pages Schrösissen to stope from Lenderstein (4) in Brahms i Lender, Weiff-Ferrarie & Roperts Up 11, Fasure: 4 Versame sentings. Falls. 7 Spacesh Popular Songs (4, (1, 2), (2, 3), (1, 3), (1, 3), (2, 4), (1, 3), (2, 4), (1, 3), (2, 4), (1, 3), (2, 4), (1, 4), (2, 4), (2, 4), (2, 4), (3, 4), (4, 4) PEDRO CORTINAN cohn MIGEL CLAYTON yotoo.

Mozarta Sonata in Bilat K 178, Yasaya Noto Sonina Up 27 No. 2, Brishman Sonatasin, Schero, Servanoa Estudio, Natham Milarcini Papendana. 44 2 U.N. 2 No. 21 No.

[24] [130, [250, [130]] Kantor Concert vige.

REITH LEWIS wine DAVID HARPER pane
https://doi.org/10.1009/10.1009/10.

Les Actories Lid.
Les Actories Lid. Thursda 11 Sept SHARION GOULD me MARIA TERESA CHENG O harpschord duet Felix Maximo Loper (142-142) Sonato Nos 1 & 2 Manuel Balbon 1996, Wassa de Mandel (16) Lon Petr Canase (pegos or "Gree" (14) 120, (2 %), (1 %) Alexa Kristen Mgt. Lith Masia & Baroque Series

WIGMORE HALL

TOMORROW at 7.30 p.m.

IRINA ARKHIPOVA

CRAIG SHEPPARD piano Songs by RIMSKY-KORSAKOV & TCHAIKOVSKY (200, 22 %, 3 %), [4 50 Box Office, C.C (01-035 2141) Manufestical: Dido Senger

WEDNESDAY NEXT 5 SEPTEMBER at 7.30 p.m. CRISTOFORI TRIO BOCHMANN STRING QUARTET

PLEYEL: Grand Piano Treo in D Op 29

RAYDN: Pano Treo in G Hob XV-15, String Quartet in D minor Op 42

BEETHOVEN: String Quartet in E minor Op 59 No 2 "Rasimovsky"

1 No. 2 V. 2 So. 21 No troot Per Vider Ureda Uards 01-935 2341 & Agents

Management. Stephen Neiman

Bolistan Filter Lee Banderfal der Amstender Immonischen by Jonge Santines, Subdites in English. 12-50, Elleu, bi 50-50, 50-50, 50-50 - Labn American Carlibbium Carl. Soc. AM EVENING OF SOLITH AMSTRICAN, CARRIBBEAN, ARGENTINAN A LIRKÜGLIAYAN POETRY Rend by maniferen of the Buyer Statements Company Grupo Cell Musics from Columbia and South America. Carlo Machined Brazilian Gurter Vertusen, etc. 1. Str. American Carlibbium Curbural Society 1. Str. American Carlibbium Curbur

Macfindo Brazilian Guster Virtuoso, etc.

23, 13, 25, 23, 210

Latin American Carlibbean Cultural Society PABLO INSRIUDA An Eventing in Memory of the Chileses Poet An introduction to Canto General by Robert Pring-MIL, with readings
Robert Brave (pano) from Chile/Los Asselfass
(Bolivra)/Estogio Davelos (guster)

23, 50, 55, 52, 510

Latin American Carlibbean Cult. Soc.
Pinth International Restinal of Carlibbean and Luftin American Culture
PDEMIS OF ERNESTO CARDERNAL Read by membrary of the RSC Poems from Salvador, Medico, the West Inches. Music from Central America & the West Indias, etc.

America 6 the west mode, we:
$1,0,55,58,510

Listin American Cambbaan Society
PARSIPAL (PG) Hans Jurgen Bybarberg's tilm of Wagner's open starning Retore Goldberg, Troome Niteton, Wolfgang Schöbe, Robert Lloyd, Auge Haugeland, Hans Tacheminer with the Mode Carlo Philipernonic Orchestra and Prague Philipernonic Choir - Armin Jorden (cond) ALL SEATS 255

SEATS 255

GLC.
GLC.

PURCELL ROOM

THE GLC BOUTH BANK ALTERMATIVE A Familiar of Mode, Durce & Durce by CLC copporate groups III August 5 September; 8-15 September; 7-25 September; 8-15 Septembe

GLC Working for the Arts in London

ROYAL ALBERT HALL

Compared Manager: Kensington SW7 2AP

TONIGHT 1.30 ALL MIATS SOLD	BBC SYMPRONT ORCHESTR
MONDAY I SEPTEMBER 7.30	The Whale Symphony Ost, THESTRA JOHN TAVENER Symphony No. 1 (A See Symphony) VACCHAN WILLIAMS
RICHARD HICKOX, FELICITY PA FELICITY LOTT, JOHN SHIRLEY Lundon Symphony Cherus, Woodwa S TICKETS: 1150, 1245 only	luer, Stephen Varcoel Richard Baker, Quirk

TICKETS (1.96, (2.5 coly Pre-Prom Bill by John Timens of 6 15 TLESSOAY 4 SEPTEMBER 7.30 MARK PLDER THEA MISSIAN'S MICHAEL COLLINS THEASE COLLINS THEASE (7.4, 1.5 %), (2.14 WEDNESDAY 9 SEPTEMBER 7.36 WILPRIED BOETICHER PETER MAYER! I DANTES Isle of the Doad
Control Control
Symphony is No.4 m E smoor
BRAHMS SCOTTISH CHAMBER ORCHESTRA Symplesy No.35 in D mage (Halfart, R. 185 Into the Labytenth PETER MAXWELL DAVIES
Page Concepts No.27 or B list series, R 904 PITTER MANWELL, DAVIES ALFRED BRENDEL LOS NSIL MACKIE Pur
TICKETY (150, (225 mb)
For-Print pik by Forer Manuel Davies at 6 15

THURSDAY 6 SEPTEMBER 7.36 WALTER WELLER RRYSTIAN ZIMERMAN TICKET'S CT. U. U. 94. C2.94 ROYAL PHILBARMONIC ORCRESTRA The Naussier Wirth Sympheny No.4 Paul Coccure No.2 in B Sin gaves BRARMS FRIDAY 7 SEPTEMBER 7.39
DENNIS RUSSELL DAVIES
PHOLIP FOWER
EL (ZABETH CONNELL
DALE DUESING
TILLETS 15. (150. (2.25 only BBC SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA STRAUSS in G reger RAVEL ZEMLLYSKY

PROMESADE TRIRETS AVAILABLE ON THE NIGHT ONLY £1.30 (Area) £1.10 (Galley) SUNDAY IS SEPTEMBER IN 7.36 B.M.

THE MALCOLM SARGENT SUMMER CONCERT WENTNESE EVENING

VIENNESE	EAGIMING
hr Marausa, Noos tod	Merch (The Gypsy Berus) Street
ight in Vienna	Gold & Silver Weltz Lale
cale Song (Der Schnemester) Ziehrer	On any has every half it the otorense, Dance and Vilas, and	wate (Guiditta) Lehr
Caliz (Merry Widow) Lehar	Septende
Lando et F. K.45%, for Plane	Soirous de Vienne for
Dech	Page & Orch Schobert- Linet/Toxs
own and Country - Pollus	Grazzer Gelop Schurber
Azzerica Scrumon	Pozza sto Polita Straus
Hope Swellows - Wakz Strange	The Blue Danube
MARGUERITE WOLFF (poses) MARILYN HILL SMITH (sopress)
Maleulin Sargoni, Fer	tival Chair 900 voices

WREN ORCHESTRA OF LONDON
CONDUCTOR: VILEM TAUSKY
L⁵, L⁴, L⁴, L⁵, L⁶ (1 tody): hum Hall (01-599 8212) C.C. (01-599 9465) & A Promoters The Malcolm Sarjent Cancer Fund for California

WINDSOR FESTIVAL

15th September - 1st October

Events held in Windsor Castle, Eton College Theatre Royal, Windsor and Maidenhead

City of London Sinfonia, Hickens. Robert Teuri English Chamber Orchestra. Brainia, Schiddof, Carl Davist Murras Perabla. Sir Charles Mackerras: Lencert performance 'Cesi fan suite' Antony Hopkinst Berliot 'Grande Meue des Marts': Elgar 'The Mugalom'i Amaryllis Consort Choire of Ning's Colleg. Cambridge, and St. George's Chapel, Windoor: Medos Ensemble Parikan Quintest Clea Laine and the John Donkworth Quintest rated lectures, poetry, prose and drama including 'Lady For booking broching word stamped addressed envelope to Formal Box (Mor. 2 Vactorst Street, Windoor Tet 51090

LUNCHTIME MUSIC IN THE CITY BISHOPSGATE HALL, 230 Bishopsgate, EC2 Tuesdays 1.85 to 1.50 p.m. Admission (including p

6 Neptember Gil /I.DHALL STRING ENSEMBLE Manuez Discrimento No 1 in D K 130 Barber: Adagus for strings Up.11 Griege Holberg State Op 40 Crysts of London
A song punorassa ni London II September
PETER FRANKI, pamo
Hayda: Nonata m G, H.X. I. 46
Schubert Sorata m C annot D 959 25 September PAUL CROSSLEY pans Poulence State Immense Schumment Dovidsbundler Presented by the City Music Society

QUEEN ELIZABETH HALL

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 13 of 7.48 p.m.

ROSTAL & SCHAEFER'S MUSIC NIGHT

THE BRILLIANT DUO—PIANISTS with MICHAEL WAKEHAM (Baratone)
JANICE HOOPER-ROE (Mc220-Sopraso)
JOHN BRADBURY (Volum)
RHAPSODY IN BLUE © CARMEN FANTASY
WERY WIDOW Selection © EXODUS ©
VIENNESSE & GYPSY VIOLIN SOLOS
IVOR NOVELLO © KOHANN STRAUSSS
GILBERT & SULLIVAN CIC. ©

Barbican Centre OCTOBER EVENTS

BARBICAN HALL Monday-Friday 1-5 PRIVATE EVENT Please note that parts of the Centre will be closed to the public for this event.

OPERA GALA MIGHT
Landon Concert Orchestra
Rebert - Ziegler conductor, Valerie Masterson soprano, Femiere Trumpeters
from the Bemd of the Welsh Guteda.
Lendon Cherale, Programme includes Roseini: 'William Tell' Overturs. Verdi:
'Nabucco' Chorus of the Hebrey Slaves.
'Aida' Grand March: 'La Travista' Sempre
Libera. Geomod: 'Faust' Soldiers' Chorus; Jewel Song, Wagner: 'Die Walkfus' The Ride
of the Valkyries. Berodin: 'Princs igo' Polevisian Dances.
Arts by Werdi and Pucolmi.

Polovisian Dances. Ariss by Verdi and Pucoini. 58, 57, 58, 55, 54. Raymond Gubbay Lid. Sunday 7 at 7.30pm HALLE ORCHESTRA Stanislaw Strewsczewski co Jeen-Berthard Penmiler piano. Weber: Ovarture 'Oberon'. Lizzt: Plano Concarto No 2 in A. Bruckner: Symphony No 7 in E. 58.50, 27.50, 58.50, 54, 52.80.

LONDON
SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
Haudio Abbado conductor. Claitée Assaus Consessor.

Rudolf Serils plano.

Benémicalmi Cyerture Fair Melusine's Symphony No 4 in A, Op 50 'italian'.

Miczarti Plano Concerto No 22 in Efiat. K482.

Els. D. Els. D. Els. C. Els. C. L. Els.

Sponsored by Shell UK Ltd.

Tuesday 9 at 7.45cm YIEMNA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Wolfgang Sawalitech conductor. Tomés Vásáry plano. Brahms: Trigle Overture. Beethevert: Plano Concerto No 5 in E flat, On 73 'Empany' Section of the Control of Wednesday 10 at 1.00pm ORCHESTRA OF ST JÖHN'S SMITH SQUARE John Lubbook conductor. Rosemary Physics violin: Vivadel; The Four Sessons, All seats #22.56.

AB seets 12.06. Other concerts by the Orchestra of St John's Smith Square on 24 October and 1 November, Book ell three and save £1.50,

Wednesday 10 at 8.00pm
LONDON PHILITARMONIC ORCHESTRA
In memory of David Olstraki
(Died 24 October 1974)
Rishal Tang conductor, Vehudi Menuhin violin. Leaders Overture 'Egmon' Bruchs Violin Concerto No 1 in G minoc, Op
25. Tchatkevsky: Symphony No 5 in 5
minor, Op 74 'Pathidique',
Sponsored by Mitchel Schaisin
95.50, 28, 27, 25.50, 24.50,
Raymond Gubbay Limited in association with Peter Biddulph,

Thursday 11 st7.45pm ROYAL PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA American Evening Andrew Litten conductoripiano, Dvorsky Symphony No 9 in Eminor, Op 95 'From the New World', Gershwins Phapaody in Blue; An American in Paris. E8, E7, 25.50, £4.50, £3.50, £2.50.

Friday 12 at 7.45pm LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA LONDON STEPHONY ORCHESTRA
Viem Teasky conductor. Antony Peebles piano. Ressinti Overture "The Barber of Seville", Webers invitation to the Dance.
Griege Piano Concerto in A minor, On 16.
Bestitovans Overture "Lacenore No 3":
Symphony No 5 to Cambor, Op 67.
Ed. ET, ES, ES, 2A.
London Symphony Orchestra in association with Victor Hochhauser.

Seharday 13 at 8.00pm JOHAMN STRAUES GALA Johann Strauss Orchostra Directed from the vicils by Raymond Cohen Johann Strauss Denoers in the costume Directed from the violin by Raymond CohenJebarm Birsame Descers in the costumps of the princh Ann James soprano.
Gernaldine Stephenmen choreography. The Citorious Music of the Straust Family, Including Artist's Life Waltz, Ammon Polka,
Chine Sonyan, Tales from the Vioras Woods,
Voices of Spring, Champagne Pulka, Loralei
Rhein Kinge Waltz, Pispermautchen
Polka, Radelzky March, Mit Dampil 1001
Mights Waltz, Perpetuum Mobile, Moulinet
Polka, In Flugel, Blue Dantibe Waltz, Songs from 'Die Fladermaus'.
7.5.0.6.5.9, 65.50, 64.50.
Raymond Gubbay Ltd.

Sunday 14 at 1.00pm SHELLIAS BRASS WORKSHOP LSO Principals work with young players on orchestral reportoire. £1.00. Students/OAPs 50p. ed by Shell UK Ltd.

LSO Sunday 14 at 7,30pm LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Gennedi Rozhestversky conductor Rimsky-Kersskov: Capriccie Espagnole. Prokoftev Suie 'Usertenan' Kill Tchalkevsky: Symphony No 4 in F minor, Op 36. E8.50, £7.50, £6.50, £5.50, £4, £3.

Monday 18 at 7.45pm MATT MONRO IN CONCERT with Mational Youth Jazz Orchestra 88.50, 88.50, 84.50

Tousday 16 at 7.45pm ROBERTA PLACE IN CO 210.50 W. TF.50 PS Wednesday 17 at 7.45pm ROBERTA FLACK IN CONCERT SOLD OUT

Thursday 18 at 7.45pm BARCT WILSON BUDDY SPECO ASTRUD GL BERTO

THE FOUR FRESHM £12.50. £10.50, £8.50,

Friday 19 at 7.45pm
LONDON
SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
Gensadi Rozhdestvensky conductor
Viktoria Postnikova plano.
Elgari Overtura Cockaigna
Rashunaninov; Pieno Concerto No 1 in F
sharp unitor, Op 1. Messacrysky erch.
Revest Pictures at an Exhibition.
28.50, 27.50, 26.50, 25.50, 24.

Saturday 20 at 7.45pm GALA NIGHT OF Saturday 20 21 / Appril CALA NITATT OF
GILBERT AND SELLIVAN
A complete and costumed performance of HRES Picasfore.
The London Savoyards in Concert
New Concert Orchestra
Ian McMitten conductor Patricia Cope
topranto Yveene Les mazzo-soprano
CHillen Knight mazzo-soprano Jestin
Lavender Inpor. John Reed Jestin
Lavender Inpor. John Reed Jestin
Gordon Saundison buttone. Michael Wakaham bartione. Michael Sauer bass,
London Savoyards Chorus
Tem Hawkes, director.
Sally Gibni choreographer

Sunday 21 at 7.00pm EMGLISH CHAMBER ORCHESTRA Pre Minsica Chorus of London Nichelas Krasprar conductor. Miriam Bowen soprano, Linda Finnie šito, Justin Lavender tenor. Rodoey Miscana bass. Mandek Nessiah. 22. 27, 28, 28

Gennadi Rozhdestvernsky conductor Glicker Overture Russian and Ludmilla: Proketiev: Suke Romeo and Julier Rechmaninev: Symphony No 2 in E minor. Op 27 28.50, 27.50, 26.50, 25.50, 24.

Tuesday 23
PRIVATE CONCERT
Chorale and orchestral concert given by Schools associated with the Merchant
Teylors and Skinners Company,
All enquiries to Skinners' Hell 01-235 5629.

Wednesday 24 at 1.00pm
ORCHESTRA OF
ST JOHN'S SMITH SQUARE
John Lephock conductor Vevka
Ashkanazy plane
Mezzer: Plane Concerto No 21 in C. K467
'Elsira Medigen', Symphony No 41 in C. K551
'Jupiter' 150.
Other concerts by the Orchestre of St John's
Smith Square on 10 October and 1
November. Book for all three save £1.50.

Wednesday 24 at 7.45pm ANDREI GAYRLOY Pitaro Rectal Chephy: Four Ballades; Twelve Eludes: Sociata No 2 in 8 flat minor, Op 35. 25.50, 23.

Thurnday 25 at 1.00pm LOUIS DERETRIUS ALVANIS Plane Recital Back: Toceta in D. BWV 912 Chepin: Sonata No 3 in B minor, Op 58. All seats $2.50. Group Rate $1.75.

Thursday 25 at 7.45pm GOLDSMITTHS' CHORAL UNION Musicians of London Brian Wright conductor Sarah Vivian sopano. Sunan Mason controlto. Mark Tucker tenor. Nichael George bass. Bach: Mass in B minor £5.75, £4.50, £3.50, £2.

CITY OF LOIDON SIMFONIA Christopher Warren Green directoryiolin. John Wallace bumpet, Handel: Sulie Water Music: Back: Brandenburg Concerte No 3 in G. SWY 1048. Haydes Trampat Concerto in E flet. Yivaldi, The Four Seasons. CB. E7. CB. 75. 24.

Sal 37 DETAILS TO BE AMBOUNCED

Sunday 28 at 7.30pm
ENGLISH BAROQUE CHOIR
English Baroque Orchestra
Motale for Royal Occasions
Leon Levett conductor Giffiam Pisher soprano, Margaret Cable contratto, Neil Mackie tenor, Peter Savidge báss, Bachi Brandenburg Concarto No 4 in G. BWV 1048
Hamdel: The Arrivel of the Queen of Shoba; Concation arribem The King shall rejoice*
Purcell: Sound the trumpet
Haydent Mass 'Maria Therasa'
£7.50, £8.50, £8.50, £4.50,

Monday 29 at 7.45pm SEGOVIA E7 50, £8,50, £5, £4,50, £3.

Tuesday 30 at 7 45pm ENGLISH CHARBER ORCHESTRA Sir Alexander Gibson conductor J Lloyd Webber collo. Tobasho Serenade in C for strings. Op 48. Rod Concerte come a divertimente Buck in A. Op 90 'Italian' 27 50, 28 50, 25 50, 24 50, 23 50, 22 50. In aid of the Multiple Scierosis Society.

ametane: me vissi A cycle of Lone poems, Vysehrad, Villara (The Moldaut, Sarka, From Bohemia's Fields and

regous. Admission Free

Wednesday 31 at 8 00pm
LONDON CONCERT ORCHESTRA
Russian Night
Bramwell Toray conductor Jack
Russian violin, Tchaffevrskyt 'Romeosna Juliet' Fantasy Overture, Violin Concerts in
D. Op 35 Berodic: Polywrian Darres Imae
'Prince Iger'
Rissaky-Korsakov: Scheherazade
22, 27, 28, 25, 14.
Raymond Gubbay Ltd.

ALSO BOOKING HOVEMBER

Thursday 1 at 1 00pm ORCHESTRA OF ST JOHN'S SMITH SQUARE Other concerts by the Orchestra of St John's Smith Square on 10 and 24 October. Book for all three and save $1.50.

ALSO BOOKING DECEMBER Tuesday 4 at 8.45 TONY BENNETT £12.50 £10.50, £8.50,

PARBICAN THEATRE

Measure for Measure The Happiest Days of Your Life Henry Viji Twelfth Hight

THE PITHER THOUGHT STATE TO THE

Yolpane Red Star A New Way to Pay Old Debts The Devils BARRICAN CINEMA 1/19 Mes Line

28 Sept-4 Oct The Bounty (15) 5-11 Oct Sunday in the Country (PG) 7 Oct The Leopard (U) 14 Oct 7,30pm Seamus Heaney, Graig Raine. An eye of poetry presented by the Poetry Society and Faber and Faber All pasts $2.50

12-18 Oct The Return of Martin Guerre (15) 19-25 Oct A lively selection of six new Australian Films 25 Oct-1 Nov The Right Stuff (13) Fanny and Alexander (15) Once Upon a Time in the West (15)

.

gg at a 15

British and

 $35_{44444444444}$

3125

March Land

Per were 1

2

The second second

W. W. L. C. 124

80 J

BARBICAN CINEMA 2

John Huntley's Movie Memories 7 Oct Spm. Golden Age of $1 14 Oct 3pm. Aeropiane S 21 Oct Spm. Golden Age of Music Hall 25 Oct 3pm. The History of our Times

10 8 daily inc. Sundays

BARBICAN, O1 628/8795/638 8891

ROYAL SHAKESPEARE

COMPANY

BARBICAN THEATHE.

TWELTH NIGHT 'A Night to resember thoroughly ethogobic

Can loday 2.00 & TSO HENRY VIII previews from 6 Set. Day boats £6 previews from 6 Seft. Day tests £6 from 1 Cam THE PT THE DEVILS by Join Whiting ion't 7.30 Not suitable for Children, grand 2hrt 351

BOOK TODAY!

VICTOR HOCHHAUSER presents in association with London Symphony Orchestra

TONIGHT 7.45 LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Conductor: JONATHAN DEL MAR Soldis: ANDREW HAIGH Rossials OV. BARBER OF SEVILLE. Griegs PIANO CONCERTO Schubern SYMPHONT NO.9 (GREAT C MAJOR)

SUNDAY SEPTEMBER IN 7.30 p.m. VIENNESE EVENING US LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

CONDUCTOR: PAUL MCRAE

John Streems OV, FEDERMAIN, GYFSY BARON, CUCKOO

POLAA, PERPETULIS MOBILE, VORCES OF SPRING POLIA

BARD FREE, RADETZKY MARCH, EMPEROR WALTZ, HUNTING

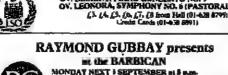

POLIA, ROSES FROM THE SOUTH, BLUE DANIBR WALTZ

WALKARDS STATES WALTZ - TAPPONY MOM

GUPTIER.

FRIDAY 21 SEPTEMBER at 7.45 page.

BEETHOVEN LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Conductor: BRIAN WRIGHT Soloist: RICHARD MARKHAM OV. EGMONT, PIANO CONCERTO NO. 3 OV. LEONORA, SYMPHONY NO. 6 (PASTORAL)

THE BARTERED BRIDE OVERTURE
CARMEN SUITE
VOLIN CONCERTO
CAPRICCIO ITALIEN ROYAL PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA Conductor: DAVID COLEMAN LELAND CHEN violes PHILIP GAMMON pissos C.C.C.C.C.B

ls aid of The Royal Marsdon Hospital and Council for Masic to Hosp SATURDAT NEXT & SEPTEMBER of $ p.m. WILLIAM TELL OVERTURE Rossini WILLIAM I REL OVERTURE Handel WATER MUSIC SUITE
RECEMBRISION RHAPSODY ON A THEME OF PAGAINNI
Rimsky-Rossins SCHERERAZADE LIMAY-EQUARMY

SCH
ROYAL PHILBARMONE ORCHESTRA

MILLION ALESSANDRO DOMENHOO SICH LANI

HOWARD SHELLE?

12. (4. 2. 14. G. B.

SUNDAY 14 SEPTEMBER at 7.30 p.m. VLADIMIR ASHKENAZY

WPDNESDAY 19 SEPTEMBER at 8 p.m. MESDAY 19 SEPTEMBER At 10 pains
Marcus Deds Messorial Concert
THE BARBER OF SEVILLE OV.
EINE KLEINE NACHTMUSEK
PIANO CONCERTO NO.23 in A K.68
REQUIEM LONDON CONCERT ORCHESTRA Conductor: SIR DAVID WILLCOCKS

JOSEPHINE BARSTOW SOUDD STEPHEN VARCOE busines MALCOLM BIRNS page LONDON CHORALE FANFARE TRUMPETERS FROM BAND OF THE WELSH GUARDS THURSDAY 20 SEPTEMBER at 8 page. Grieg BOLBERG SUITE
Measur CLARINET CONCERTO
Workid THE FOUR SEASONS

VIVIAND THE CHAMBER ORCHESTRA
RICHARD STUDY discour/voim JACK BRYMER citemet
(2:90, (1:50, [4:50, [7:50, [7:50] This rescert is speasored by Peter Biddulph TUESDAY 25 SEPTEMBER at 8 p.m. SSDAT & SEPTEMBER 21 8 p.m.
OVERTURE THE HEBRIDES (FINGAL'S CAVE)

Besthoven
Bechoven
Be E. (4, E. (6, E1, E8
Box Office: 101-628 5775) Credit Cards 101-628 58931 TUESDAY 18 SEPTEMBER #1 7.45 p.m. RARRICAN HALL IN HONOUR OF THE CITY OF WALTON LONDON

VIOLIN CONCERTO ELGAR OSCAR SHUMSKY violin BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST DAVID WILSON-JOHNSON baritone LONDON SYMPHONY CHORUS LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Conductor: RICHARD HICKOX
red by CEGE-Ash Marketing Branch va behalf of AshTech 74 Confe
[4. 16.70, [8 from Box Office (01-628 8795) Credit Cards (01-638 889);

■ ■ 01-638 8891/628 8795

BARBICAN HALL
Barbican Centre, Silk Street, EC2Y 8DS, 01-638 8891 / 628 8795 Telephone Bookings: 10am-8pm 7 days a week LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, downline Deliver (conf. Audrew Majnig (penc). Riceasis Cree The Barber of Sevalle Greep: Penc Concento (p. 4 mino), Op 18 Schabert: Symphony No 9 in C. 0944 Great (10. 17, 16, 16, 17 Victor Hockshaper of association with L.S.O. ACOMCERT OF MORTH PENCHANCIA STREAM, MOSCO, We regnet by anyounce that his concentrate been cancelled.

seignit is anniciate has this concert han been descaped, year I Phai. HARMONIC ORCHESTRA, yeld Collamos (comd. Letterd Cherrylofin). Philip Stammon gre-nethens Overture The Buntared Bode State State Comment hallowaley should Concert to D. Capricoto Indiana. J. Rotte School neal-Bollero. St. 57, EB, SS, BA. Raymond Gabbary Ltd. DYAL, PHILI HARMONIC ORCHESTRA. DUTING to indeposition, Alemandre Demonstration Demonstration of the Manual Challey (plant)
Hyeard Challey (plant)
Recentled Contract William (et Handel: Sute William Mania, Racmanteur Freezoody or a There of Pagental Richardy-Kartel
N. C. 38, C. 9. H. Represed Globby Jul.

AMERICAN CHARLES OF THE ACT OF THE CONTRACT LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, Pural McReet (coad)
Johnson Straues III "Un-Flademana", The Gyppy Beron' Cuckes Peda Peda Peda Indicate Voca of Special Englishment (Coad)
Voca of Special Englishment (Coad)
Pedatziny Alarch: Blands Walds Waldsschaft; Stedans Walds. Mocan't Symphony No. 4 |
2 Cr. Rs. Ss. Cr. Miczer Hochhauter
Berryn Cope presents GUY MITCHELL.

DE $5. $4

Saturday 15 September at 7.45 pm Barry Tuckwell conductor/horn Rossini Overture: 'The Thieving Magpie' Beethoven Piano Concerto No 4 Mozart Horn Concerto No 4, K495

Peter Katin piano London Symphony Orchestra Prices: £2.50-£8.00. Tel: 01-638 8891 Barbican Hall

Borodin Polovtsian Dances

ALBERY 836 3878 c 379 6866/579 6435. Croup Sales 930 6125/836 3962. Pully air conditioned, Eves 8.0. Trur Mals Reduced price part) 5.0 Sain 5.30 d 8.30 ROY KINNEAR, ANTHONY QUAYLE. JOYCE REZMAN In voices. Robertski Tuesdays. trai London. Concerts in UK & bad. Ring 286 8328 for audition County of the co THE CLANDESTINE MARRIAGE
"ADMIRABLY JOKEY"
"High 18th Century manners a ALBERY 836 3878 c 579 6866/379 5433. Croup Sales 930 6123/836 3962/3797179. SANDY WILSON'S NOROUS MUSICAL" MAII on S.

THE BOY FRIEND

APOLLO Shafts Ave S CC 01-437 2663. 434 3598. Grp Sales 01-437 5123. Mon to Fri 8.00. Thurs 3.00. 3ats 6.00 & 8.30.

BAXTER O'SE "THE MOST KILLING

PARTNERSHIP IN TOWN

Princh in "CORPSE!"

A CORPSE!"

A CORPSE!"

A CORPSE!"

A CORPSE!

A CORPS!

APOLLO VICTORIA 828 8665 cc 650 6262 Grp 6a4s 930 6123

STARLIGHT EXPRESS

Music by ANDREW LLOYD WEBRE!
LYTICS BY RICHARD STH. COE
LYTICS BY RICHARD STH. COE
LYTICS BY RICHARD STH. COE
DESCRIPTION
A MUSICAL THAT SURPASSES
ANYTHING AROUSED BY SEVERY
DIMERSION DESCRIPTION
EVES SO, Meth Tue & Sal 3.0.4 & 0.
BOX OFFICE OPEN 10 mm Spm
Appt daily to Boy Office for returns when available. Some 12 wanding room tichus are available is hour set off every performance for the ASHCROFT, Craydon 01-689 9291 CC 01-680 5565. Until 8 Sept ALAN AYCKBOURN'S bigh-epiriled comedy WAY UPSTREAM.

KEITH

MILO

OPERA & BALLET The fabricus messeal comety of

"A RIPPUSS SHOW...

"A RIPPUSS SHOW...

"Transcale they're probably applaying they

"LISSFPLLY FUNNY...

"The laught explode out in booke scrape up the thousant
booke scrape up the thousant booken to Tengo, with a splendid to what's On person of the thousant

What's On the second of the thousant

What's On the second of the thousant

OPENS 20 SEPTEMBER COLUMN 9 836 3161 CC 240 MINS AMBRASSADORS DE 6131 CT 74)
9999. Gry Bain 900 6131 Cy 20
Tues 7.0. St 6.300 6.30 Mys 20
Tues 7.0. St 6.300 f. St 7.000
INTIMATE EXCHANGES TO MYS A CRECKET MATCH
PURE MATCH ST 7.000
ALAN AYCKBOLIKE
"PURE BROSSER IN THENT
"BUES BROSSER IN THENT
"BUES BROSSER IN THENT
"BUE BROSSER IN THENT
"AYCKBOLIKE
"AYCKBOL Trees i Claim on the day
THE ROYAL OPERA
Ton'l, The Fri 7.30 Turandot, Personal
Booking opens today for Paris Oct 18-Dec 6. Tuckets from 25.50. ROSENTS WELLS THEATRE ECI ROSENERY AVE. Tube: Angel. 01-278

8916. Prom 11-22 Sept

ROMTHERM SALLET THEATRE
Prog 1: 11-15 Sept. The Sisseping
Reserry, Eves 7-20 SM Mar 2-50.

ROSS Selection of 1-920 6125. Wells Stage couch, a before and after show but prove 8. Offices for details after me 1900 8. Offices for details of 1-278 0856 (24 hrs). THEATRES ADELPHO THEATRE OLDES 7611/2 LENA HORNE TARD Ledy and Her Brain
STAR OF WONDER A MIRACLE OF SHOW RUSHESS SM. "UFFIMAIL "PASSION AND POISE
STONESHING". D Td. "A BIG HOWNIG EVENT. THE LEGEND IS SHAANCED" TIMES.
EVEN TIMES SAND AND POISE
EVEN TIMES.

EXTENDED TO SEPT, 28 ALDWYCH THEATRE 836 6404/836 0541 CC 379 6233. Group sales 930 6123. ROWAN ATKINSON in THE NERD A NEW COMEDY From 26 September booking until Decen

PAUL NICHOLAS

THE FUNNIEST MUSICAL PVI EVER SEANT BUS LESSEN NAME Cropp Saley 930 61 21/279 7179 Own 250 Performance

ALDWYCH S 836 6404/379 6223 Ever 7.30. Mat Wed 3. Set 4 & 7.45 Credit Cards 579 64.55 Tow RICE & STEPHEN DLIVER'S "Gettering & Entertaining" D Te-BLONDEL

CHICHESTER FESTIVAL TREATRE Box Office 243 781312 THE MERICHANT OF VENICE above rating with THE WAY OP-THE WORLD a county by William Congress Evel 7.3. Main The & SM 2.50 CHURCHILL Brookey 1.18 mins victoria) 400 667 Luttle Sept 8 - MOILINE SUBDED stars in My GIDDY AUNT MOSPIT 745, Sar 6.0, Mais Sept 6 & 8 COMEDY D1-930 2878, CC 839 1439 EVE 8. Fri & 16 6 and 8 48 BEST MUSICAL STANDARD FOR MUSICAL N/, Drama Critica 825T MUSICAL N/, Drama Critica 825T MUSICAL N/, Drama Critica 1825T MUSICAL N/, Drama Critica 1745 LETTE ERRATIOLAL SMASH HITMUSICAL OMEDY

OF MORORS

FOR A (108) VPARS Time Out
SEATS AT SOME EMPS FROM CE
Group Sales Box 970c 930 9123

COTTESLOE 928 252 cr 928 6933

S (Vational Their's mail and tortum - low pricetts.) Today 2 30

A 7.30, Mon. To 7.30 AddaMa.
FARMIN D Goorge Twell Transiers to Other Sept 211. COUNTRY SER 211.

CENTERION. Fully hir cond. $ 920

2216 CS 379 6665 762 9999/379

B.O. TRUEN, Mai 2 M Set 5-204 8-70

B.O. TRUEN, Mai 2 M Set 5-204 8-70

M. PERFECT EXAMPLE OF

BRITISH FAICE AT ITS

BES I DRY Mail

ROBIN

LAVENDER

BERNARD BESSLAW to

BINN EOD VAITO WITES

RUN FOR YOUR WIFE
WITHER & directed & RAY COONEY
NOW IN ITS ECOND SIDE SPLITTER YEAR
"OUTRAGEOUSLY FUNNY"
Daily Telescopt MAR WAREOUSE, Earlie ov Gdn. 379 666/379 6433 THE BECKETT PLAYS

OHIO MPROMPTU CATASTROPHE
WHAT VHERE
"EXTREMELY POWERFUL" TRIBES
BRILLANT NOT TO BE MASSED"
Gdn. Eves 8.30.71 a Spt 6.0 & 8.30. DRURY LANE THEATRE ROYAL OF 636 8109 OF 200 9066 OF 240 9067 DAVIE MIRRESCE'S Award Winning Broadway Musical Award Winning Broadway Musical 42ND STREET

"A BLISSPIL EVENING PYENY
71HING POSSBILE FOR A MUSICAL TO HAVE & SELL PLENTY MOMEDAZZLINGI D Mad. "ECHILARAT
ING" DT "OU WORT FRID A SHOW IN LONDON WITH MORE
EVEN 8.0. Mais wed 3.0. Sain 8.0 A
8.30. Choin Sains 0.1-930 6123
BOX OFFICE OFFICE Sec. Spain
7 DAYS A WEEK

DILCEPEE THE THE SAIN SAIS CO.

7 DAYS A WALK
DUCHESS THEATRE SES 824.5 CC
"BEST MUSICAL"
TH Coperior
SNOOPY
OVER 350 REESSTIBLABLE
PERFERBERANCES
Credit Cards 37,6433,651 1101/741 9999.

Credit Cards 5716-533/6531 101/741

SEATS AVAE, THES WESTERSHO

FILE WG, Thur GO,

FILE SIG GO and B. 50

"With Secony mersure" Card' issel

Bester vends; est. D. Micror

ATTOMOSCO TOWN 58-55

6124 Mon Set Egg 8.0, 28 Met 4.0

AMERICAN BUFFALO

DIRECT M BUFFALO

By Daid Mannet

Directed by Arvin Brown

FORTURE 86 562-500 and Cardy

FORTURE 86 502-500 and Cardy

FORTURE 86 502-500 and Cardy

FORTURE 866 502-500 and Cardy

FORTURE 8

The 836 208. ac 01 744 9999

T Mester 5796485. Grp Book 930

S. Eves. Spot. Them. Jone. Graopen d. 8.40mi

Lung. years by send find at ning for By remarkable red

Whatted,

JOHN SETTLES

JEFFRAWLE The drama ward winning SIMO GRAY DESMIT

Pully air con.

GLOSE or COLAT.1692
Andrew Lioyd wisher presents the COMEDY OF THE YEAR.
Society of West En Theatre Award
DAISY PULLS IT OFF

TO DESCRIPT THE YEAR.

THE ANALY LIFE
THE DESCRIPT SECTION OF THE YEAR OF THE YE REENWICH TRATES 01-858 7705. Ewe 7.4. Male Set 4 00. Willy Russell's ELECATING RETA.

also on page 30

هكذا من الاحل

حكدًا من الاعل

Wry reminder of a crushed rebellion

The Russian tanks that rolled into Prague in August 1968 not only signalled the end of Czechoslovakia's bid for political freedom but cut off in its prime a remarkable flowering of the Czech cinema.

Among the several "new brench cinema had one and so, in a way, did the British - the and, coming after years of name in the history books, refreshing.

Not that the typical products were necessarily critical of the theme of human relationships, observed with a keen, mildly

Satirical, eye.
The young film-makers who emerged during this period included Milos Forman, who made A Blande in Love and A A neman's Ball. Ivan Passer, director of Intimate Lighting. and Jiri Menzel, whose first full Jeature, Clusch Observed land, was the 1976 Oscar for best foreign language film.

The Russian invasion, which led to tighter censorship, effectively imposed the choice of exile or inactivity. Forman established a new career in the I nited States with Taking Off and One Flew Over the Cuckon's Next. Passer went with him, eventually anaking the excellent

Jirl Menzel was one of those who staved. Born in 1938, he had been a graduate of the Czech Film School and assistant to one of the new-wave pioneers. Vera Chytilova. Check Observed Trains, which about rebellion and reconcilisounc railway worker at a affectionate dissection of mood second World War, was fol- of bow much was lost in the lowed by an arguably even Czech cinema when the Rus-

2000年

A.da

(時代)部

. 3 7 rai 19842

A Carlotte Annual Control of the Carlotte Annual Control of th

Part State Control of the Control of Mary district of the second se

No. of Persons in Section

and the land

4: 11 2/1

end o ua≱

SPANE.

That was virtually the last the enough. West heard of Menzel for more than a decade. His 1969 picture-Larks on a String was banned by the authorities and it was several years before he worked in the cinema again. By the time bis 1980 film Cutting It Short was shown at the London Film Creck was the least expected Festival, Menzel was merely a

Films on TV

Though well received, Cutting It Short was surprisingly not given a cinema release here, and tonight's showing on BBC2 communist regime. Rather, they (9.25-11pm) is not only a typically a politics and television first but, for all except the few hundred who saw it at the National Film Theatre, the film's British premiere.

Written by Bohumil Hrabal (who also scripted Closely Observed Trains), Cutting It Short sees Menzel happily back in the gears he exploited an fraitfully before 1968, the comedy of human foibles,

Set in a small Czech town in the 1920s, the film revolves round Maria, a glamorous and sensual blonde married to the manager of the local brewery. He is dutiful but dull and when his boisterous brother comes to stay with them, Marja discovers a kindred spirit,

They embark on a series of mad adventures, which come abruptly to an end when Marja breaks her ankle. As she recovers she gets caught up in the sudden craze for shortening things - moustaches, skirts, table legs - and her waist-length hair gives way to a neat bob.

Cutting It Short is a film station during the and character. It is a reminder hetter film, & apricious Summer sians decided that enough was

Peter Waymark

Head held high: The general (George C. Scott) salutes his men in Pation - Lust for Glory (BBC1, tonight)

The Assassination of Trotsky

Burton continues with one of his more unlikely roles, as the Russian revolutionary meeting a violent end in Maxico: directed by another recently departed figure, Joseph Losey (BBC2, tomorrow, 10.25pm 12.05am).

I Live in Groevener Square (1945)*: First in a season of Anna Neagle movies, anticipating the celebration of her eightleth birthday in October; it has Neagle involved in a romantic it has Neagls involved in a romantic triangle with Rex Harrison and American Air Force sargeant Dean Jagger (BBC2, Mon, 6-7.50pm).

Also recommended

Patton - Lust For Glory (1969): Stirring biopic of the controversial Second World War general, with excellent battle sequences and a masterly performance from George C. Scott which won him an Oscar he refused to accept (BBC1, today, 8.55-11.40pm).

Rio Grande (1960): John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara lead the John Ford cavalry Western set on the Mexican border in the 1880s: typical Fordian mix of knockabout and sentimentality ((BBC1, tomorrow, 2.15-4pm). The Best Man (1964): Henry Fonda and Cliff Robertson as rive Presidential nomination in one of the best films about American politics; adapted by Gore Vidal from his Broadway play and directed by Franklin (Patton) 10.15pm-12.05am).

Billy Lier (1953): Splendid comic performance by Tom Courtenay as the North Country undertaker's clerk living in a world of fantasy; the film that launched Julie Christie (BBC2, Thurs, 6-7.35pm). Schaffner (Channel 4, tomorrow, First British television showing

Programme choice

THE LATE, LATE BREAKFAST SHOW: Returns for a new series: under the gental guidance of Noel Edmonds. This edition is all about trying to break records for crossing the English Channel, whether by hovercall, larry, waterskis, jetskis, kayak or speedboat; and to mark the seventy-fifth anniversary of the first flight across the Channel, an aerobatic steam will make the trip upside down... BBC1, today, 5.50-6.40pm.

JULIET BRAVO: Anna Certeret as Inspector Kate Longton, back on duty at Hartley police station in the well established successor to Donor of Dock Green. In this one she is trying to find out who knifed a 21-year-old ght on her way to work along a deserted footpeth. BSC1, today, 7.10-5pm.

L B. PRIESTLEY: Two programmes this weekend remember the extensible profile man of English letters who died last month at the age of 89: Postscript is introduced by Robert Robinson and includes contributions from Angus Wilson, Malcolm Muggaridge, Michael Foot, Beryl Ballibridge and Priestley's widow, Jacquetta Hawkes (BBC1, today, 6-8.55pm); while Time and the Priestleys features an interview between the writer and his son, Tom (all ITV regions, tomorrow 10.15-11.15cm).

MASTER OF THE GAME THE BBC should do its ratings a bit of good with this eight-hour adaptation of Sidney Sheldon's best selling family saga based on the South African diamond industry. Dyan Cannon, ageing from 18-90, heads the cast. the cast. BBC1, tomorrow, 7.15-9.30pm; Mon 8.05-9pm, 9.25-10.45pm; final part on Sept 9.

THE DREAM OF GERONTIUS: A chance to catch the performance of Sir Edward Elgar's great choral work which opened the 1984 Three Choirs Featival in Worcester Cathedral. With Janet Beker, Stuart Burrows, Benjamin Lucon and the BBC Weish Symphony Orchestra; BBC 2, tomorrow, 7.15-9.15pm;

also on Radio 3 in stereo. THE SIX O'CLOCK NEWS: Attempt to fit the BBC's early evening news spot, vacated by the premature demise of Sorry Minutes. Sue Lawley and Nicholas Witchell nt a half-hour programme. from Mon to Fri, followed by regional news magazines BBC 1,6-6.30pm

Smile please; Ronnie Barker and friends in a new comedy series, The Magnificent Evans (BBC1, Thurs)

LIBERATION: The story of the liberation of Brussels from the Germans 40 years ago. It is told by people who witnessed the event and, even more graphically, with black and white films shot by Belgian home movie makers; much of the footage is being shown in

BBC 2, Mon. 8,15-9pm, JANE IN THE DESERT: New series of adventures featuring the comic strip heroine, once more she her clothes to help the Atled war affort. As before, it is an Ingenious mix of live actors and animation, with Glynis Barber as Jane and Max Wall as Tombs.

Five episodes, starting on BBC 2 on Mon, 9-9.10pm THE LENNY HENRY SHOW: The engaging and talented black comedian from Three of a Kind gets his own programme, in which he moves away from 10-second gans and one-liners in favour of longer sketches and also essays, the difficult art - particularly in front of television cameras - of stand-up comedy. BBC 1, Tues, 7.30-8pm.

THE INVISIBLE MAN: The quiet village of Iping is disturbed by the arrival of a mysterious stranger, who conceals his face with bandages and dark spectacles; what terrible secret is he trying to hide? H. G. Wells's classic of science fiction adapted in six parts by James Andrew Hall, with Pip Donaghty in the title role! BBC1, Tues, 8-8.30pm

SOE - SETTING EUROPE ABLAZE: Formed in 1940 and disbanded six years later, the Special Operations Executive was a secret fighting service which promoted sabotage, subversion and guertilla warfare in enemy-occupied countries. Its exploits are recalled by surviving members in edulation of surviving marriods in edulation and many unpublished photographs. BBC1, Tues, 9.25-10.20pm.

HOW THE MYTH WAS MADE: IT IS HOW THE MYTH WAS MADE: It is 50 years since the distribution of delimination of the distribution of the maker, Robert Hisham, produced Man of Aran, an account of life on the late of Aran off the west coast of Ireland. George Stoney revisited the locations for Faherty's film and talked in some of the second who talked to some of the people who appeared in it. BBC2, Tues, 9.40-10.35pm.

THE RISE AND FALL OF KING COTTON: In India cotton has been spun and woven for thousands of years in the United States a slave society was created to produce it in Britain it helped to foster the industrial revolution. The world-wide story of this influential crop is told in six films by Anthony Burton. BBC2, Wed, 7.15-7.45pm.

MINUTER: A welcome return for one of the most pungently written and best acted series on television, with George Cole as the indestructible con-man, Arthur Daley, and Dennis Waterman his put-upon sidekick. Terry McCann, in the opening programme, Goodbye Sallor, Arthur is implicated in the theft of 1,500 pairs of expensive sports

All ITV regions, Wed, 9-10pm.

GLORIANA: Benjamin Britten's character penjantal antien's character opera, originally written to commentorate the Coronation in 1953, launches a new arts season on Charnel 4. This is the acclaimed on Channel 4. This is the accurant of production by the English National Copera, Introduced by its managing director, Lord Harewood. The part of Queen Elizabeth I is sung by Sarah Walker and Anthony Rolfe Johnson is the Earl of Essex. Channel 4, Wed, 9.15pm-12.10am.

THE MAGNIFICENT EVANS: New comedy series by Roy Clarke (Last of the Summer Wine, Open Ali Hours) set in a small Weish village and starring Romaie Barker as a flamboyant photographer and antique dealer, Plantagenet Evans. Sharon Morgan plays Rachel, who lives with Evans but cannot get him 8BC1, Thurs, 8-8.30pm.

BIRD OF PREY 2: Civil servant Henry Jay renewing battle with the multinational crime syndicate, Le Pouvoir, in Ron Hutchinson's new four-part thriller about computer fraud. The 18-stone setor, Richard Coffithe again place bleng with Griffiths, again plays Henry, with Carole Nimmons as his wife. BBC1, Thurs, 9.25-10.15pm.

CONCERTS

SACRED AND PROFAME Today, 11am, Queen's Hall, South Clerk Street, Edinburgh (031-225) 6790) Dehinssy's Dimse Sacrée of Danse Profuse beggins this concert by the Jan Latham-Koenig Ensemble conducted by Jan Latham-Koonig. Later come Massiaen's Petites Symphonies, and works by Jonathan Haivey, Rupert Nicholis and David Baldwin. In the evening, at 8pm in the Usher Hall, the Edinburgh Festival comes to an end with Delius's Mass of Life. performed by the Scottish National Orchestra, Edinburgh Festival Chorus and Soloists under Sir Charles Machierias

SCHUBERT, BÉETHOVEN Today, 7.30pm, Royal Albert Hall, Kensington Góre, Loadon SW7 (589 8212, credit cards 589 9485) Gunter Wand conducts the BBC Symphony Orchestra in Schubert's Symphony No.3 and Beethoven's Symphony No.3 "Eroica"

RUGGIERO RICCI RUGGIERO RICCI
Today, 7.30ptil. The Maitings,
Snape, Sutfolk (972 885 3543)
The greet violitiest Ruggiero Ricci opens Snape's autumn celebrity series with soliates by Bach, Beethbyen, Debussy, Ysaye, and Mistein's remarkable transcription of List's Marbisto Waltz No.

of Liszt's Mephisto Waltz No 1. ALICIA DE LARROACHA . Today, 7.30pm, Wigmore Hall, 36 Wigmore Street, London W1 (935

718 Alicia de Larroacha kicks off the Wigmore Hall's 1984-85 season with what should be a memorable plano recital: Granados's Escenas Romanticas, Falla s Fantasia Baetica, Schullarin's Fantasia

ITALIAN STRAW HAT TOMOROW, 7.15pm, Queen
Elizabeth Half, Selvedere Road, South Bank, London SE1 (928
3191, credit cards 928 8800)
René Clair s sitem film, An Italian
Straw Half, is shown with a new accompaniment composed by Benedict Mason and played here by an apparently ananymous orchestra conducted by Alan Fearon. Also included is Clair's Entr Acte for Sates $ bater, Relache, with Sates 5 orginal music.

YOYTNA
Tomorrow, 8pm, Institute of Contemporary Arts, The Mell, Contemporary Arts; The Mark,
London SW1 (930,3547)
This programme is the Musica avant garde series begins with Sucraan giving the London premiere of Duval's Yon Na. They follow it with the width premieres of Hogg's John Barteloom, Smyth's

OPERA:

Famous four (Clockwise from top left): componers Peter Maxwell Davies and Ralph Vaughan Williams; violinist Roggiero Ricci and film director René Clair

Irish Folk and, perhaps the most exciting of all, a new place, as yet unnamed, by Simon Waters.

SEA SYMPHONY, WHALE
Mon, 7.30pm, Royal Albert Hall Conducted by Richard Hickox, the London Symphony Orchestra,
Woburn Skingers and soloists perform Vauighan Williams's Sea Symphony (No 1) and John Tavener's The Whale, large canneses both canvases both.

POPULAR CLASSICS Mon, Spm, Barbican Centre, Silk Street, London EC2 (628 8795, Street, London EC2 (oza a so., credit cards 838 8891)
The Royal Phiharmonic Orchestra fields a set of very familiar nems: Smetana's Banered Bride Overture, Bizer's Carmen Suite, Tchalkovsky's Violin Concarto (soloist, Letand Chen) and Capriccio Italien, Litolif's Scherzo mmond, piano), and even Ravel's Bolero.

ISLE OF THE DEAD Tues, 7.30pm, Royal Albert Hall The metodious, artfully varied, gloom of Rachmaninov's Isle of the Dead should form a curious prelude to Thea Musgrave's Clarinet Concerto (Michael Collins, soloisti. Later: Brahms's Symphony No 4. Mark Elder conducts the BBC Symphony

RAUTAVAARA BY LAURIALA Tues, 7.30pm, Wigmore Hall Risto Lauriala plays Einojahani Rautvaara's Plano Sonata No 1 "Christ and the Fishermen". Brahms's Sonata No 3, Prokoflev's Sonata No 7 and Schumann's Symphonic Studies.

INTO THE LABYRINTH Wed, 7.30pm, Royal Albert Hall P Maxwell Davies's Into the Labyrinth, concerned with the impact of technology on the Orkneys, receives its London premiere from the Scottist Chamber Orchestra under the composer . Fore and aft: Wilfred Boeticher conducts Mozart's "Haffner" Symphony and Plano Concerto K595.

KANTRIMIUSIK Wed, 8pm, institute of Contemporary Arts Northern Music Theatre give the UK premiers of Kagel's Kantrimiusik, dascribed as "burlesque pastoral scenes". This MusiGA promotion is repeated at , the same time and place tomorrow.

SIONED WILLIAMS Thurs, 7.30pm, Sutton Place, flear Guildford, Surrey (0483 504455) On her harp, Signed Williams plays Parry's Of Noble Race was Shenkin Variations, Khachaturian's Danse Orientale, a Sonata by Krumphotz, a Sarabende by Damasse, a Serenata of her own, and a Pensive and Joyous Fantasia by John Thomas.

SCHUTZ'S TIMES Thurs, 7.30pm, Wigmore Hall The opening concert of the Wigmore's Early Music and Baroque saries, called "Heinrich Schütz and His Times 1585-1572", unearthing pieces by Poble, Tunder, Buttner, Wilche and Krieger as well as Schütz himself.

LYRICALZENUNSKY Fri. 7.30pm, Royal Albert Hall Alban Berg praised Zemlinsky's music for its melodiousness, and the Lyric Symphony is performed by the BBC Symphony Orchestra and soloists under Dernis Russell Davies: But before that Richard . . Strauss's Don Juan is heard, and Philip Fowke solos in Ravel's G major Concerto.

ROCK & JAZZ

MARIA MULDAUR Tonight and Mon to Sat, Ronnie Scott's Club, 47 Frith Street, London W1 (439 0747)
Still best remembered for the chamby "Midnight at the Oasis" a decade back, but her new album -Sweet and Slow, on the Spindrift label - artfully divides itself between barrel-house blues, with a rhythm section led by Mac Reberinack and silky ballads delicately manipulated by a team under Kenny Barron. For her season on Frith Street, Miss Muddaur Imports a crew including the former Eagle Bernie Leadon and the steel guitarist Al Perkins once of Steve Stills's Manassas and the later Flying Burrito

Brothers. JETHRO TULL 7 Tonight, Glasgow Apollo (041 332 9221); tomorrow, Newcastle City Hall (0632 20007); Mon/Tues, Manchester Apollo (061 273 1112); Thurs, NEC, Birmingham (021 780 2005); Manchester Apollo (061 273 1112); 2015): Fri to Sun, Hammers Odeon, Queen Caroline Street, London W6 (748 4081) Just what the pop scene has been missing in these drab days of panseroual T-shirt graffill, Smash Hisrand particoloured cocktails: a one-legged flute-player with an abandoned bird's nest on his head. Ian Anderson, for it is he, returns to rain Articlesor, for it is per, returns to refive the gold-record days of Aquatung and Passion Play in the company of his old comrades Martin Barre (guitar) and Dave

Tonight/emorrow, NEC, Birmingham (021 780 2016); Tues/Wed and Fri/Sat, Wembley

Arena, Empire Way, Wembley, Middlesex (902 1234) Freddie Mercury and his pals return to toy with the affections of an impressionable audience – who will, one hopes, perceive the irony in Queen's stage show, which appears to have been designed by Albert Speer and directed by Leni CLARK SISTERS Tonight, Dominion Theatre, Tottenham Court Road, London W1 (580 9562)

The huge upsurge of interest in black American gospel music has brought this duo, reputed to be among the best of current performers, across the Atlantic. Choir also appear.

IMPROVISED MUSIC FESTIVAL Tonight/tomorrow, Purcell Room, South Bank, London SE1 (928 3191)

sages from the post-jazz frontier continue tonight with the group Committee on the group Committee on the singer Maggie Nichols and the reedswoman Lindsay Cooper) and the solo planist Mervyn Afrika. Tomorrow afternoon (2.45cm) expressive saxophonist, plays duets with the planist Veryan Weston, Alan Tomlinson performs his stapstick trombone solos and the group British Summertime Ends appear. Tomorrow night (7pm) there is a summit meeting between Evan Parker, Barry Guy, Eddle Prévost and Kelth Rowe-the sort of line-up associated w the legendary Little Theatre Club in the early days of the British free sation movement.

RALPH MCTELL Tonight, Poole Arts Centre (0262 685222); tomorrow, Athenseum Theatre, Plymouth (0752 266079); Mon, Guildhall, Stives (0736 794545); Tues, Brewhouse Theatre, Taumon (0823 83244); Wed, Gloucester Lessure Centre (0452 36788); Thurs, Johnson Hall, Yeovii (0935 22884); Fri, Orchard Theatre, Dartford (0322 77331) The likeble "Streets of London" man takes to the beaches.

BASS CLEF From tonight, 35 Coronet Street Hoxton Square, London N1 (729 Peter Ind - bassist, recording engineer, former student and planner of the late Lennie Tristano deserves every success, for the jazz club which he is opening tonight in the premises which also house his Wave Studio. Perhaps it is a good organ that the inaugural sounds will be played by the quintet of Ronnie Scott. An Idea of future programming can be gained from these selections from the first week: tomorrow night, the saxophonists Bobby Wellins and Stan Robinson with the Mike Carr Trio; Wed, the excellent Terry Jenkins Ten; Thurs, the Chas Burchell Quintet; and Fri, the London Scrippi of Samba.

DR JOHN

Tomorrow, Clapham Common Bandstand, London SW4 (inquiries: 622 6655 ext 361) blues with a free open-air concert from 2-6pm featuring the great New Orieans plantst Mac Rebennack, also known as Dr John, and his British accompanists Diz and the Doormen.

TOMMY SMITH Mon, 100 Ckub, 100 Oxford Street, London W1 (636 0933) The precocious Scottish studying at Berkles College in the United States, turns up with Bill Kyle, a veteran Scottish drummer. and three young musicians from

MUSIC FOR THE MINERS Mon to Fri, Royal Festival Hall, South Bank, London SE1 (928

Loudon Wainwright III. Alexel Sayls and Rik Mayali open this short benefit season on Mon. The folkles - Dave Swarbrick, Bert Jansch and Lindişfame's Alan Huli - take over on Tues, follow Misty in Roots and others - on Wed. On Thurs come Van Morrison, Christy Moore (late of Planxty and Moving Hearts) and quests, Sayle and Mayall return for Fri's gala, accompanied by none other than Wham, Style Council's Paul Weller and Mick Talbot, and Nigel "Neil" Planer.

SISTER SLEDGE Wed, Oxford Apollo (0865 243041); Fri, Royal Concert Hall, Nottingham (0602 472328) The only current rivals to the Pointer Sisters, pop-soul supremacy, with a relssue of the glorious "Lost in Music" back in

NICO/JOHN GOOPER CLARKE Thurs, Dingwalls, Camden Lock, London NW1 (267 4967) For collectors of bizan mismatched bills, here is a minor classic.

DANCE

MALLET

SADLER'S WELLS ROYAL

Cambridge, The Big Top on Jesus Green. Advance booking at the Central Library, Llon Yard (0223 357851). Opens Mon. Until Sept 22, Mon-Set at 7.30pm, matinosa Wed and Sat at 2.30pm

circus-tent Big Top, celebrating its tenth year of ballet seasons. Swan

Marion Talt (Mon), Galina Samsova (Thes and Thurs), Margaret Barbieri (Wed matinée) and

Sherilyn Kennedy (Wed eve). Fri brings Petrushka with David Bintley

in the title part, Jennifer Jackson's

Common Ground and Kenneth

Macmilian s Eite Syncopations

The Place, 17 Duke's Road, London WC1 (387 0031), Opens

Seven dancers of Bailet Rambert

presentation in this short season, to be performed by themselves and their colleagues. Expect apprentice standards – but hope for the first have made their own works for

RAMBERT WORKSHOPS

Mon at 8pm. Until Sept 8

The new season opens in the Leke comes first, danced by

Varied talents: Ralph McTell, going on tour, Alexei Sayle, joking for the miners, and Maria Muldaur, pouring her heart out tested. Della Jones sings Rosina in the English National Opera's Barber of Seville

Something old, something new

While in general the English National Opera's current season is very much one of new productions, this week sees a couple of notable revivals. On Thursday The Barber of Seville bonnes back into town. It is a revival which has stood the test of time well enough when lifted by the panache of individual performances. This time, Alan Opie repeats his Figuro, John Brecknock is the Count Almaviva, Della Jones is Rosina, and Wyn Davies conducts: The other revival this week is David Pountney's 1982 Flying Dutchman (tonight, Tues and Fri), with a pre-performance talk on Fri at 6pm in the friends Meeting House, just 100 yards away from the Coliseum. Nell Howlett, highly praised by Paul Griffiths on the Arts Page this week, takes the title role for the first time opposite Josephine Barstow's being used for a new production: Osud, Janaček's psychological thriller which is being staged for the first time in Britain, also by David Pountney. A short, dense work, it will be presented with the Weill/Brecht Mahagonny Songs. The double bill opens on Sept 8 with further performances on Sept 11, 13, 21, 25 and For the forthcoming new production of Madam Butterfly, ENO have decided to review Precini in a new light and dispense with their old staging. John Manceri, who gave Manchester such a fine Butterfly with the Royal Opera, returns to the Coliseum to conduct natil October 20. The run starts on September 27. Before the return of Rusalka and Cost fan tutte in November. there are further chances to see Massenet's Manon between October 6 and November 2. John Copley's picturesque pro-The central revolve for the duction returns to the repertory Dutchman is, economically, with Canadian Frances Ginzer making her English debut in the title role and with Anthony Rolfe Johnson as Des Grieux his first time in the part. More unexpected opportunities, too, to see Arabella and Patience: they are being scheduled in place of the proposed new production of Orpheus in the Underworld, now postponed to give more time for preparation. All these performances start at 7.30pm at the Coliseum, St Martin's Lane, London WC2 (836 3161), and there are preperformance talks for both Osud (Sept 21) and Butterfly (Oct 4). Further information on these and other operas in the 1984-5 repertory, together with a valuable compendium of new libretto translations and introductions to the operas, are to be found in The ENO Season Book, £3 (+50p p&p) from The Coliseum Shop, 31 St Martin's Lane, London WC2 (240 0270).

Hilary Finch anniversary with a strong production of Verdi's Don Carios.

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE Covent Garden, London WC1 (240 1066) Tonight, Tues and Fri at 7.30om

Andrei Serban's new production of Turandot opens tonight with Gwyrieth Jones in the title role for this week only. (Ghena Dimitrova takes over from Sept 11. Colin Davis conducts tonight and on Tues (John Barker on Fri) and Placklo Domingo is the Calaf (Ernesto Veronelli on Fri). SCOTTISH OPERA

Theatre Royal, Glasgow (041-3322 3321) Wed at 7.15pm and Sept 8 at 2.15pm Scottish Opera return to Glasgow to start their new season with

WELSH NATIONAL OPERA New Theatre, John Street, Cardiff. (0222 489977) The season in Wales begins with two nicely contrasted productions: the restlessly merry Merry Widow in which Busby Berkeley tries to johr and Martinu's Greek Passion (Sept 8), . DORSET OPERA Sherborne School Hall, Sherborne Dorset (0935 812914) Tonight and tomorrow at 7pm Dorset Opera calebrates its tenth hands with Lehar (Thurs, 7.15pm);

olimose of new talent. Concerts: Max Harrison;

Rock & Jazz: Richard Dance: John Percival

ARDY'S WESSEX: The first of ree radio journeys through the cuntryside which so inspired homas Hardy. The series was corded entirely on location, in ereo, and thes to capture the ndscape and life of Wessex. Nigel tock plays Hardy and the rogrammes are introduced by mond Hawkins. adio 4. tomorrow, 10.15-11 pm; peated Fri 11 am.

NDER MILK WOOD: A repeat of lougias Cleverdon's famous 1963 iroduction of Dylan Thomas's play or voices, in tribute to the late lichard Burton who narrates. The ast includes Hugh Griffith and Jenon Lohne. dervyn Johns, ładio 4, Mon. 7,50-9.35 pm.

Country cottage: The birthplace of Thomas Hardy (see Radio).

THE MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF MABEL GREENWOOD: An

Kidwelly, died suddenly and when her body was exhumed after nine months of village gossip it was found to contain traces of arsenic.

Her husband was charged with murder but eventually cleared. Worsley reconstructs the case and puts forward a new theory about Radio 4. Wed, 4.02-4.40pm.

BRIERS ON HANCOCK: Richard

Mettlesome machines: Jaguar D type at Brighton speed trials in 1954 - see them racing at Donington Park today; and the Firecracker, one of many aircraft on display at Farnborough (see Other events) Hancock, who would have been 60 this year Briers traces the comedian's early career, the years of success on radio and television and the lonely suicide in June 1968. Radio 4, Wed, 6.30-7pm. investigation by Roger Worsley Into a celebrated Weish murder that took place in 1919. Mabel Greenwood, a soicitor's wife from

Auctions

NOSTALGIA ON WHEELS: Transport freaks plan an away-day at Phillips. Vintage Hornby is the cream of a huge collection of model railways. Traction engine models are in the £1,000-£2,000 class. west collector fad is old railway tickets, and an early platform ticket is estimated at £200. There are Dinky Toy cars and planes, tinplate liners and U-boats - even a Carr's biscuit tin of 1920 (£250) comes bus-shaped. Phillips, Blenheim Street, London W1 (629 6602). Viewing Tue 9am-5pm, Wed 9-11am, Sale Wed 11am, STAR SIGNS: Signed photographs of Laurel and Hardy (£50-£70) and Marlene Dietrich (£30-£50) are among the choice items in a sale of printed ephemera that also includes autographed postcards and photographs of Betta Davis, Gary Cooper and Ingrid Bergman; cigarette cards; Donald McGill comic postcards; posters; and playbilis, Christie's South Kensington, 85 Old Brompton Road, London SW7 (581 2231). Viewing Thurs 9am-4.30pm, Fri 9am-noon. Sale Fri magnificent Gothic cathedral is the setting for several highlights of this well-established festival. John Williams and other musicians give a williams and other missicans girt a concert there on Mon (7.30pm). On Wed, the building is candialit for a concert of works by Albinoni, Handel, Bach and Vivaldi, played by the Acadamy of St Martin-in-the-Fields, soloists Iona Brown and Michael Leipt (8.15pm). Meanwhile Michael Laird (8.15pm), Meanwhile, Salisbury Playhouse presents Peter Shaffer's Amadeus and Theresa Ford's Whom the Gods Love. In the Arts Centre, festivitie tomorrow, at Longford Castle tomorrow, at Longford Castle tomorrow, at Longford Castle (8.15pm), when a concert of military music ends with a Royal Fireworks

Festivals

Today until Sept 15. COVENT GARDEN MUSIC FESTIVAL: A week of kunchtime and evening music, some classical and some improvised, played in the portico of St Paul's-Church, it opens tomorrow with a premiere;
The Song of Many Tongues, composed by Tony Haynes, a cycle of songs inspired by the various communities of London (2.30-4pm), County there is On weekdays from 1-2pm, there is music from British Summertime

Festival Box Office, Sallsbury

Playhouse, Malthouse Lane, Salisbury, Witshire (0722 25173).

Ends, an improvisation band, on Mon; by Gemini on Tues and P. D. Burwell and Richard Wisson on Wad, who perform Chrononzon, created especially for Covent Garden Piazza; London Brass Academy Navan These The RALISBURY FESTIVAL: The city's Academy play on Thurs; The Endymion Ensemble on Fri and The Pearsall Singers on Sat. Performances free. Further information from Alternative Arts, 1-4 King Struet, London WC2 (240 5451). MANCHESTER FESTIVAL: The Manchester Festival: Inside Orchestra, John Dankworth and Gerald Scaris contribute to a fortnight of culture and emertainment in the city centre. Festivities open on Frievening with a choice of an organ recital, a play, ballet and jazz from Mile Westbrook Brass Band. At the westbrook Brass Band. At the weekends there are the City Centre Fun Day (Sept 8) and Castlefield Carnival (Sept 15 and 16). Festival Box Office, The Free Trade Hall, Peter Street, Manchester (061 834 0943). Friday until September 22.

Sport

NATWEST BANK TROPHY: Middlesex meet Kent in the final of cricket's 60-over competition at Lord's. Middlesex, led by Mike Gatting, have the stronger side on paper but Chris Tavere's Kent offer the stronger was not considered. a useful mix of emerging younger players like Richard Elison and

THEATRE

Mark Benson and old hands Derek Underwood and Alan Knott. Today, television coverage on BBC1 from 10.15am, switching to BBC2 at 4.30pm; highlights BBC2, 11.05-11.55pm. Ball-by-ball commentary, Radio 3 medium tasting. There is traditional English food and a grape-treading competition. English Wine Centre, Drusilla's Comer, Alfriston, East Sussex (0323 870532). Today and hammorew, noon-6pm.

INTERNATIONAL TENNIS: The United States Open Championships take place at Flushing Meadow, New York, with the Wimbledon champion, John McEnroe, hoping to land the man's singles title and Martina Navratileva going for her second clean sweep of the four grand starn Regular coverage on BBC2 starts tomorrow in Sunday Grandstand, 1.55-6pm, and continues daily throughout the week.

INTERNATIONAL ATHLETICS: The iCA Coca-Cola meeting at Crystal Palace on Friday provides the traditional finate to the athletics season. It starts at 7.30pm and many of Britain's Olympic medallists will be there. Crystal Palace National Sports Centre, London SE19 (778 0131). Fri, television coverage on BBC1, 8.05-9pm and 11.45-12.10am.

Other events

ENGLISH VINEYARD WINE FESTIVAL: The annual calebration of home-produced wine, with more than 60 examples available for temorrow, and a parade of more than 400 Jaguar E types.

Donington Park, Castle Donington,
Derby (Information 0582 4554 £2).
Racing starts today at 11, 40am and tomorrow at 12,30pm. FARNBOROUGH AIR SHOW: Among the aircraft featured this year are the BAe 146, recently year and the base 140, recently chosen to replace the aging Andovers of the Queen's Flight, and the Firecracker, Britain's contender for the RAF basic trainer contract. The latest British airship, the 500, will also be there; plus the used one, will also be mere; plus the usual spectacular flying display, with the Red Arrows.

Royal Alteraft Establishment, Famborough, Hampshire (for information telephone 839 3231) Fri-Sun, 9.30am-7pm. There is a preview on BBC2. Thurs, 8.30-

STATELY HOME CONCERT: The Musica Antiqua Cologne plays works by Vivaldi and J. S. Bach in the Long Gallery of Firle Place. The programme includes Vivald's Concerto in G major and a soneta in D minor, La Follia; and Bach's Musical Offering, written for Frederick the Great of Prussia in day celebration of famous marques organized by the Jaguar Drivers' Club. This atternoon C and D type Firle Place, Lewes, East Sussex (information 0727 37799). Frl. Jaguars will be lining up for the historic car championship race with house opens at 7pm, concert starts at 8pm, Tickets £14.50, including private view of the house, champagne and concert. Buffet supper £11.50, dinner hamper £9.50.

CLASSIC CAR WEEKEND: A two-laseratis and others, while taking part in the four-hour relay race are

FILMS

The funny, peculiar business of remakes

Until recently, Hollywood happily remade epics, melodramas and choice thrillers; comedies, however, it left alone - mindful perhaps of the problems in lifting one decade's gags and comic obsessions into another. Not any more. Next week sees the British release of Unfaithfully Yours, previously made by the great Preston Sturges in 1948. Another idiosyncratic 1940s comedy, Lubitsch's To Be Or Not To Be, emerged earlier in the year as a Mel Brooks

Foreign films are also being pressed into service: Blame It On Rio, released a few weeks written, produced and directed into practice, everything colago, pinched its plot from a by Sturges when his meteoric lapses in slapstick confusion. Claude Berri: Blake Edwards's The Man Who Loved Women, which came and went in London cigemas like an April shower. drew on Truffaut's chanvinist romp of 1977, It is a strange development, for none of the remakes ever seem to bit the box-office jackpot.

Director Howard Zieff remains moderately true to the

Out for revenge: Suspicious husband Dudley Moore

British conductor, Sir Alfred de Carter (Rex Harrison, smooth unfaithful. During a concert of Rossini, Wagner and Tchaiof action (murder, a duel, and total forgiveness); when he material of Unfaithfully Yours - subsequently tries putting them career was just beginning its Zieff and his writers inject decline. The original film more romance, and enlarge the recounts the adventures of a age difference between busband and wife (played now by Dudley Moore and Nastassja Kinski); as silk), wrongly convinced that they also reduce the plans of his wife (Linda Darnell) is campaign from three to one. The one chosen is murder. Zieff wanted to remake

kovsky, he concocts three plans Sturges's film ever since he began as a feature director with the quirky comedies Slither

(1973) and Hearts of the West (1975). At first Peter Sellers was supposed to star. "When Peter was involved". Zieff recalled, "we were going to make the conductor either German or Italian, and we were going to play him slightly larger Dudley Moore, of course, is slightly smaller than life, though his musical gifts and talent for physical comedy make him a natural replacement. "I literally blew a year of my life waiting to get the film made with Dudley", said Zieff – a year spent, on Moore's part, appearing in some particularly dreadful films (Six Weeks,

As for Nastassja Kinski, cast as a young Italian stariet, she came to the role after a heavy, bizarre schedule: she played an American fashion model in Exposed, an alluring component of the chic poetic images in Jean-Jacques Beineix's Moon in the Gutter, and Clare Wieck in a biography of Schumann, Spring Symphony. "I really needed a light movie", she has said; although on this evidence she may need several more to develop a proper knack for

Geoff Brown

Unfaithfully Yours (15) opens in London on Fri at the Studio, Oxford Street (437 3300) and Classic Tottenham Court Road (636 6148).

Openings

THE HIT (18): Playful British thriller from a writer-director team (Peter Prince, Stephen Frears) with Terence Stamp plays the criminal philosophically accepting retribution at the hands of John Hun's hit man. With Tim Roth and Laura del Sol. From Fri at the Classic Haymarket (839 1527).

SPINAL TAP (18): Acute American spool of heavy metal bands, cast in documentary form and centred on the disastrous return to the United States of an ancient British rock group. Rob Reiner directs and also appears as the documentary interviewer. From Fri at the Electric Screen (229 3894), Classic, Oxford Street (636 3694), Classic, Oxford Street (636 0310), Classic, Chelses (352 5986). GUNEY'S THE WALL (18): Yimaz Güney, formerly imprisoned in Turkey, chose the obvious subject for his first film since freedom: the for his first film since treedom: the horrifying conditions of prison life-and their particular effect upon children. A fierce, rough work, made in France. From Fri at the ICA Cinema (930 3647) and Phoenix, East Finchley (883 2233).

Selected

PARIS, TEXAS (15) Lumiere (836 0691), Gata Notting Hill (221 0220), Screen on the Hill

ew current films contain as much emotional resonance and visual beauty as Wim Wenders's intimate American epic about a man's search for his own identity and family. Wenders's camera revels in bizarre details of landscape, and plays with flusion and reality, but the fibm's real strength comes from its treatment of human

BROADWAY DANNY ROSE (PG) Screen on the Green (226 3520), Gate Bloomsbury (837 1177/8402), Classic Haymarket (839 1527), Classic Oxford Street (636 0310), Odeon Kensington (602 8644) Woody Allen stars as Danny Rose, a great Broadway manager of failures, comically enlanged with Maffa hit men and the zany girlfrland of his number one client, a roly-poly balladeer, impeccably directed and photographed.

The intermetion in this column was correct at he time of going to press. Late shanges are liten made and it is advisable to check, using

Troubles hidden under the Irish jokes involving the beating up of an IRA suspect called Michael Patrick de Valera Demon Bomber Roche and containing in the words of the author - "a lot of laughs" is likely to be a disconcerting experience. It starts with the premise of a scemingly straightforward brutalization of a suspect in a cell in an English police station by a Royal Ulster Constabulary officer sent to interrogate him, but it turns out to be far from straightforward.

The play, Rat in the Skull, the main work in a short hish season at the Royal Court opening next week, is by Ron Hutchinson, whose work includes the teasing BBC television thriller series Bird of Prey. He has also been a resident writer for the Royal Shakespeare Company.

Hutchinson, who has a Northern Irish Protestant background, has written plays about to the theme with apparent reluctance. "I never set out to write a play about Ireland. In a way I have been trying to disengage from the internal debate and would rather not write about it. I worry about what right 1, or other people, have to poke a finger in someone else's scar."

Determined doubter: Ron Hutchinson, exploring Irish Issues

understand how aggrieved the play is as much about the English response to Ireland and the crime of indifference as a plea for understanding.

"Half of me says that people are rightly indifferent; but the other half says 'Hang on'. It is not enough to be woken to the

THE GLASS MENAGERIE:

Tennessee Williams's play in a production by the well-regarded Source Theatre, of Washington,

DC. Bart Whiteman directs this study of a neurotic girl and her

Immediate ctrcle. New End Theatre, 27 New End,

Hampstead, London NW3 (435 6053). Previews on Tues and Wed

at 8pm, opens Thurs at 7pm. Until Sept 30, Tues-Sun at 8pm;

metinées Thurs at 2.30pm, Sat at

HAMLET: New production, with an McKenna as Gertrude,

Royal Shakespeare Theatre, Stratford upon Avon, Warwickshire

(0789 295823). Previews today, Mon and Tues at 7.30pm. Opens

SEE HOW THEY RUN: Philip King's returns to the West End. Directed retims to the West End. Directed by Ray Cooney. Shaftesbury Theatre, Shaftesbury Avenue, London WC2 (379 5399). Opens Tues at 8pm, Until Oct 13, Mon-Fri at 8pm, Sat at 5.30pm and 8.30pm; matinees Wed at 3pm.

Selected

Duke of York's Theatre, St Martin's Lane, London WC2 (836

Martin's Lane, London WC2 (636 5122). Until Sept 8 (may be extended). Tues-Sat at 8 pm; matinees Sat at 4 pm Already a fringe favourite, David Mamer's powerful American underworld comedy reaches the West End in a fine production dominated by Al Pacino's virtuoso lead performance.

PASSION PLAY Wyndham's (836 3028), Mon-Fri at matinées Wed at 3pm matinées Wed at 3pm Wity, sad and dazzlingly intricate, Peter Nichols's award-winning 1981 play about unwilling adultery stars Leslie Phillips, Judy Parlitt

Lyttleton (928 2252). Today and Tues at 3pm and 7.45pm, Mon and Wed at 7.45pm. In repertory Chekhov's early comedy emerges as a masterpiece in its own right, thanks to Michael Frayn's imaginative translation and

Christopher Morahan's production, maginative translation and with lan McKellen at its centre.

8pm, Sat at 5pm and 8.30pm;

Barry Foster and Zena Walker.

WILD HONEY

AMERICAN BUFFALO

wartime farce, seen earlier this year in this revival production,

Roger Rees in the title role.

Brian Blessed as Claudius, Frances Barber as Ophelia.

Wed at 7pm. in repertory.

Ron Daniels directs.

He says there is a genre of big bang. We have a responsi-plays and films about Ireland at bility to nudge around the present, and "I can well problem." Rat in the Skull alms to give Irish become at being a branch the opportunity for a new voice of the fiction industry". His to be heard - that of the RUC man whom we normally see behind a riot shield, He speaks in this play, voicing his doubts but retaining his determination to maintain his beliefs. In that he is a metaphor for the whole society, whose different sections keep problem every few months by a on believing they are right.

Hutchinson resolutely refuses the notion that his play adds to our understanding, but cautiously hopes that it might point a way forward. He has been attending rehearsals at the theatre, and rewriting it as the director, Max Stafford-Clark, and the actors get to work. "It is agony, but also fun. I belong to a generation of writers' which believes that plays cannot be written otherwise. I do not believe you can get more than 25 per cent of a play right before the director and actors get at it. Plays have to work and if a bit does not work, it has to come out. Anyway it is a treat being involved, if you live a reclusive existence for the rest of the year. and you can have a few beers

A companion piece at the Theatre Upstairs is Up to the Sun and Down to the Centre, by Peter Cox. It is based on a workshop held during four disturbing weeks with the Bogside and Creggan communities in Derry.

Christopher Warman

Rat in the Skull, Royal Court (730 1745). Previews tonight and Mon at 8pm. Opening Tues at 8pm, thereafter Mon-Sat at 8pm, matinées Sat at 4pm.

TIMES GUERNSEY FISHERMAN'S SWEATER

Previous offers for Times Guernsey knitwear have proved very popular; both men and women appreciate the warmth, comfort and easy style it provides.

This classic Fisherman's Sweater is an attractive addition to our Guernsey range. As with our previous offers it is a highquality garment specially made for Times readers in Guernsey of 100% pure new wool. This Fisherman's Sweater features a traditional style - deep ribbing on neck and cuffs, with patterning around the drop shoulders and the hem. It is available in a choice of 3 colours - Navy, Oatmeal or Red. Tough and practical, it makes for ideal outdoor wear, yet is smart enough to wear on any kind of occasion.

This classic sweater will be a welcome addition to any wardrobe.

Price - £29.95

Please note that if you prefer to wear this garment loose you should purchase a size larger than normal.

THE TIMES

The Times Guernsey Fisherman's Sweater Offer, Bourne Road, Bexley, Kent, DAS IBL Tel: Crayford (0322) 53316 for enquiries only.

All prices are inclusive of past and packaging All ders are despatched within 7 days of receipt – pleas

Crayford 53316 for enquiries only.

COLOUR	Chest/Bust	Size	(care quantity required
	Small (36m)	Medium (38in)	Large (40m)	X Large (42m)
NAVY BLUE RED OATMEAL

In preview

THE DEVIL AND THE GOOD LORD: First British production of Jean Paul Sartre's epic play, set in Germany at the time of the post-Reformation Civil Wars, John Dexter directs a cast portraying 80 characters. Four-hour production with one long interval for dining. Will the both street, Lyric, Hammersmith, King Street, London W6 (741 2311), Previews Thurs, Fri, Sept 8, 10-12 at 6.30pm. Opens Sept 13 at 8.30pm. Until Oct 13, Mon-Sat at 6.30pm. No

HENRY VIII: Stratford production, with Richard Griffiths in the title role; directed by Howard Davies. Barbican (528 8795/638 8891). Previews Thurs and Fri at 7.30pm, also Sept 8 at 2pm and 7.30pm, Sept 10 at 7.30pm. Opens Sept 11 at 7.7m in reportory. at 7pm. in repartory.

A NEW WAY TO PAY OLD DEBTS: Philip Massinger's 1620s comedy of the self-made man. Adrian Noble directs a fast-moving production. The Pti (628 8795/638 8891). Previews Wed, Thurs, Fri m 7.30pm, also Sept 8 t 2pm and 7.30pm. Sept 10, 11, at 7.30pm. Press night Sept 12 at 7pm. In repertors.

UP TO THE SUN AND DOWN TO

THE CENTRE: Peter Cox's play is the second in the season of Irish work at the Royal Court, and depicts one mother's attempts to "hold her family and herself together in the face of increasing and relentless British brutalization". Danny Boyle directs. Royal Court Theatre Upstairs, Sioane Square, London SW1 (730 2554). Previews Wed, Thurs, Fri, Sept 8, at 7.30pm. Opens Sept 10 at 7.30pm. Then Mon-Sat at 7.30pm. "hold her family and hersel

Openings

Saunders, whose Bodies transferred successfully to the West End after a run at this theatre in 1978. Three sisters raturn home at a time of family crisis; they appear at first sight to have little in common. Julie Covington, Cecily Hobbs and Sylvestra Le Touzel play the sisters. Robin Lefevre

Hampstead Theatre, Swiss Cottage, London NW3 (722 9301) Previews today and Mon-Wed at Spm. Opens Thurs at 7pm. Them Mon-Sat at 8pm; matthees 5at at

Out of Town

CHICHESTER: Festival Theatre, Oaklands Park, Chichester, West Sussex (0243 781312). The ferchant of Venice. Today and Thurs at 2.30pm, Wed and Thurs at 7.30pm. In repertory Alec Guinness, Joanna McCallum, Jane Carr, David Yelland; directed Jane Carr, David Yeuand; directed by Patrick Garland. The Way of the World by William Congreve. Today, Mon. Tues, Fri at 7.30pm. In repertory Joan Plowright, Maggie Smith, Michael Jayston; directed by William Gaskill.

LEICESTER: Haymarket, Belgrave Gate (0533 539797). A Day in the Death of Joe Egg by Pete Nichols. Previews on Tues at 7.30pm, opens Wed at 7.30pm. Until Sept 29, Mon-Thurs at 7.30pm, Fri and Sat at 8pm; matinees Sat at 4pm Christopher Timothy, Barbara Ewing, Valerie Gogan star in a revival of Nichols's touching comady about a Coursie with a comedy about a couple with a seriously crippled child. Penny Cherns directs this opening production of the theatre's new (0533 554 854). The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole Aged 131/4 by Sue Townsend. Opens Thurs at

Way of the World (Chichester)

7.30pm. Until Nov 3, Tues-Sat at 7.30pm; matinées Sats at 2.30pm, and Sept 7, 11, 12, 19, 20, 25, 26, Oct 3, 4, 9, 10, 17, 18, 23, 24, 31, Nov 1 at 2pm World stage premiere of the best-selling humorous book, with Shella Steafel, David Davenport, supporting Simon Schatzberger as

STRATFORD: Royal Shakespears Theatre (0789 295623), Henry V. Today at 1.30pm, Fri at 7.30pm. In. repertory
Kenneth Branagh, with Bernard
Horsfall, Brian Blessed, Sebestian Shaw, in a new production directed by Adrian Noble. Richard III. Thurs at 1.30pm. In repertory Anthony Sher in the title role, with gerstal.

ENSINE PIEF

"Geneva

120

Patricia Routledge, Brian Blessed, Christopher Ravenscroft, in a new production. Hamlet. Today and Mon-Wed at 7.30pm. In repertory Roger Rees, Brian Blessed, Kenneth Branagh, Virginia McKenna, Frances Barker, directed by Ron Daniels.
The Merchant of Venice. Thurs at 7.30pm. In repertory lan McDiarmid, Frances Tomelty. Amanda Root, Josette Simon, directed by John Caird. The Other Place (0789 295623). The Party by Trevor Griffiths. Tues and Wed at 7.30pm.in repertory Roger Allam, Ian McDiarmid, directed by Howard Davies with

David Edgar Romeo and Juliet, Fri
at 7.30pm. In reperiory
John Laird directs Amanda Root,
Simon Park out Simon Templeman, Sold out. Camille by Pam Gens. Thurs at 7.30pm. In repertory New interpretation of La Dame aux Camelias with Frances Barber, Alphonsia Emmanuel, Nicholas Farrell, Ron Daniels directs.

WATFORD: Palace Theatre Clarendon Road (0923 25671).
Raffles by E. W. Hornung and Eugene Presbrey, adapted by Leon Rubin. Opens Thurs at 7.45pm, until Sept 28, Mon-Thurs at 7.45pm, Fri and Set at 8pm; matinees Sept 22, 25, at 3pm Simon Cadell and Alap Dobie in the original 1901 play, from the popular stories about a "gentiemen thief". Leon Rubin directs his own adaptation, the opening production of the theatre's new season.

Week compiled by: Peter Waymark; Festivals: Louise Nicholson, Theatre: Anthony Masters

FINANCE AND INDUSTRY

Executive Editor Kenneth Fleet

Thousands of Brooke Bond shares sold to takeover Brooke Bond is developing into a deeply absorbing middle game. Brooke Bond complained to the City Takeover Panel yesterday that Tate had not made a profit forecast and was therefore depriving Brooke Bond share-holders, who are being offered half the price of the bid in paper, of essential information.

The Takeover Panel swiftly and firmly rebuffed Booke Bond on the ground that the Code does not require a company to make a profit forecast. Since the complaint had about it the air of a spoiling factic, Brooke Bond can hardly have been

Both parties know that the crucial move governing the game is the white knight supposedly coming to rescue Brooke Bond. Tate has said that it does not believe in such a creature and that only persistent rumours are supporting the Brooke Bond share price above the level of the offer. It has demonstrated faith in the argument - for the moment at least by merely extending the original offer.

Certainly, Tate has little to lose. If Brooke Bond slips in the market Tate will pick up shares more cheaply than if the stakes had heen raised; if the price holds steady, there is plenty of time to attack.

Part of Tate's approach had been to stress to institutions that it really believes the extended offer, worth about 103p a share, is fair and that it will not become trapped in an auction with a financially stronger competitor.

Brooke Bond, will hope that these price, about 110p at the moment. The are their most pressing problem. They fear company is pleased that Thursday's moves to reduce the Bank's activities by announcement by Tate did not depress the curbing its ability to borrow dollars. Some price. But it is far from definite that the fear that unless they resist American present level can be maintained indéfinitely without some hard news.

Sir John Cuckney's visit to the United States has yielded nothing publicly, perhaps ending up on the other side of the Atlantic, but whether there is any fresh dealing or whether this is just the pass the parcel game normal to such takeover battles is unclear.

Brooke Bond, moreover, has fired a great deal of ammunition. It may betempted into a forecast for 1985, but that is unlikely to alter the balance of the argument decisively.

Tom Clausen faces Reagan backlash

Relations between the Reagan Adminisa low ebb, giving rise to persistent speculation that if Mr Reagan is reelected as President of the United States, Mr A W 'Tom' Clausen will not be reappointed as president of the World Bank.

In recent months, the Administration has rebuked the bank openly for attempting, as Reaganites see it, to carve out a larger role for itself in managing the global debt crisis.

There is widespread speculation that Mr. Paul Volcker, chairman of the US Federal Reserve Board, will be asked to replace Mr Clausen, former head of the Bank of America, when his first term expires in

During the debate which precede Mr Volcker's reappointment in June 1983 to a second four-year term, it was rumoured widely that he had made a secret pact with President Reagan to step down voluntarily carly in the second term to pursue other Increasingly shaky relations between the Bank and the United States are crucial. The US is the largest shareholder, plays a dominant tole in its operations, and sees the appointment of its president as something like appointing a viceroy in Victorian England.

Administration officials gave a series of background briefings in which they criticized the Bank for its energy loan policies; its programme of increased, longer term balance-of-payments financing and Mr Clausen's insistence on naming his own man, rather than one recommended by the Treasury, to head the International Finance Corp.

Mr Clausen chose Britain's Sir William

Ryrie for the important post as head of the Bank's affiliate, which invests in private enterprises in developing countries, over a Latin American candidate who had been put forward by the US Treasury.

The tension is expected to provoke a sharp debate over the resources and future role of the institution at the joint annual meeting this month of the Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

In recent weeks, the Treasury has been highly critical of the Bank's increased balance of payments assistance programme which it regards as the traditional role of the IMF. The programme of longer-term balance of payments lending has increased sharply to 28 per cent of the Bank's total loans.

The United States Treasury also warned the bank to reduce its loans for energy projects in Third World countries unless they are matched by similar commitments from private investors.

Mr David Mulford, a Treasury official, said: "Our opinion is that not enough is being done to encourage direct investment in Third World countries.

Brooke Bond, will hope that these devices will not keep a lid on the share relations with the United States Treasury curbing its ability to borrow dollars. Some efforts to dictate policies, the Bank will lose control of its operations. Clausen's head may be their scarificial offering.

Signs of renewed confidence at Lloyd's

Things seem to be looking up for London's hard-pressed marine insurance market. The decision to raise premiums on renewals of ships' hull insurance by at Least 10 per cent indicates that underwriters are more confident that the market is past its worst.

London's marine underwriting market has faced severe problems over the last four or five years. Intense competition and premium cutting ate into the underwriting profes of Linguis syndicates and London insurance companies slike. Charging higher premiums to fleets with bad claims records also led to a drain of business to the United States and other overseas markets which were offering lower rates.

But for more than a year greater caution among insurers and insured has been reversing the trend. Many shipping fleets have begun to have doubts about the security of their new insurers, while the overseas insurance markets themselves have started to be more selective about their business.

The decision by the joint hull committee of the Institute of London Underwriters - including representatives from Lloyd's and more than 100 insurance companies - not only to raise rates but to maintain the differential on fleets with poor claims records, suggests a new confidence in London.

True, the committee's decision is only a guide, but the likelihood of serious undercutting of the new levels is remote. As Mr Dick Outhwaite, chairman of the committee, commented; "underwriters are looking at such bad results they cannot afford to undercut and still make any money". But although this is a start there is still a long way to go to reach realistic premium rates.

NEWS IN BRIEF

nor Variable

The second section is a second section in the second section in the second section is a second section in the second second section is a second secon

1

g and the same according

g agg

اد. ۱۳۰ کیون

-

مان المعام

1.00

. 113-

 $\mathbf{z}^{\mathrm{algin}}:$

Bigger stake in Geneva for Midland

Midland Bank has stepped up its shareholding in Handelsfi-nanz Midland Bank of Geneva from 69 to 85 per cent by acquiring the 16 per cent stake held by Banca Commerciale

The move was envisaged in the original agreement with Banca Commmerciale Italiana, which gave Midland control of the Geneva bank in September

Union Bank of Switzerland still owns 10 per cent and Credit Suisse the remaining 5 per cent.

• HOLDINGS in Land Securities should be reduced according to the stockbrokers Laim & Cruickshank. The broker had few fears about the property group's short term peformance, but notes that retained revenues are insufficient to cover the rising cost of modernization work. No new debt has been taken on since 1975, and the balk of funds for modernization lieve been generated by asset sales or equity

Tempus, page 22

Church, the shoe manufacturer, is to pay an unchanged interim Inchape in Hongkong and dividend of 3p, after pretax China consists mainly of veprofits rose from film to £1.4m hicles, liquor, textiles and in the six months' to June 30... garments.

Tempus, page 22 Mr. Turnbull, aged 57, whose

Bid for Lincroft extended

The hard-fought bid by John

By Jeremy Warner

the stock market yesterday. In fact, it was reacting more to comments made by Sir David in Hongkong about the group's trade with China which her expects to increase by 60 per cent to about $80m (£61m) this

The two-way trade between inchape in Hongkong and China consists mainly of ve-months ago.

obliged to reveal the total number of acceptances until disputes Lincroft's views.

In the meantime, any accept-Finlan, the property and construction company, to take over Lincroft Kilgour was due to close today but has been extended to next Tuesday. The delay is to give the City Takeover Panel time to consider information and claims of the company is not been ditional. The company is not the company is not been distinguished to the company is not been distinguished to the company is not be company is not been distinguished to the company will be held to pending the Panel's decision. In an announcement released to the company will be held to pending the Panel's decision. In an announcement released to the company to take over the company will be held to pending the Panel's decision. In an announcement released to the company will be held to pending the pending sider information, and claims, ditional the company is not about the companies made by Lincroft on August 24. Finlan

Stockjobber aims at first direct merger with broker

One of London's principal aimed at a direct merger with a firm of stockbrokers. This will be the first time that such a marriage" has been contemplated. Unit now, brokers and jobbers have been paired only through a would-be parent company takeover.

Barclays Bank has already announced that it wants to put together the jobbers Wedd Durlicher Mordant with the stockbroking forms of Muliens & Co and Rowe and Pitman under the umbrells of Mercury The latest plan is for a direct jobber-broker merger outside any such umbrella arrangement, although a merchant bank may take a stake in the combined As the merged business would patently possess dual capacity in stock market terms, the Stock Exchange will permit the two firms to go no further

Electrolux

and Zanussi talks go on

By Jensthan Clare

ux. Zanussi and 24 banks met yesterday in London to try to break the impasse which has delayed the creation of the world's biggest manufacturers of washing machines and othe domestic appliances. Electrolux, the Swedish white goods company, offered several alternatives to the 24 non-Ita-lian banks which are owed millions of pounds by Zanussi.

its Italina rival. Zanussi and its domestic Italian bankers - which are owed almost £500m have already agreed to a rescheduling of the company's debts and to Electrolux taking a

49 per cent stake in the company. Mr Anders Scharp, Electrolux's managing director, said talks were still underway and he did not know whether agree-ment could be reached before

Mr Lennart Ribohn, Electrolux's finance director, is in London with the power to make an instant agreement if the right formula can be found.

The 24 foreign banks have complained that they have not been kept as well informed as their Italian counterparts and that Electrolux expects them to write off more of Zanussi's debts than they want. Yesternext week.

Representatives of Electro-

Michael Sandberg: bank set for 29.9 per cent Capel stake than a statement of intent. Even a minority investment will be

This new twist in the stock market's preparations for freely negotiated commissions has emerged as another big stock-broker. James Capel, an-nounced that its lengthy talks with Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation whose berg: has produced agreement for the bank to take an intial 29.9 per cent, followed by a full takeover when the rules change.

Capel will continue to operare independently, but will form part of Hongkong and Shang-hai's growing range of financial services round the world. It has already bought the London accepting house, Antony Gibbs, now renamed Wardley, and has a leasing arm.

Mr Keith Heathcote, Capel's them and the Department of senior partner, said last night:

There have been friendships at the Governor, Mr Robin board level hetween the two companies for more than 20 years. The combination will reinforce the momentum of Capel's development."

The shareholding partners will be encouraged to stay after the merger through having the payment for their shares phased over several years.

chairman is Mr Michael Saud-, could expect to be valued at about £100m. There are 62 partners, including one of the few women partners, Miss Haruko Fukuda. • The Bank of England confirmed yesterday that the Governor's advisory committee on the regulation of the City has proposed that the City should be supervised by a limited number of self-regulatory agencies, and that there should be an Leigh-Pemberton, is expected to include the committee's opinion in his formal advice to Mr Norman Tehbit, the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry. This in turn will form part of the input to the White Paper which the Government plans to publish in November.

The White Paper will in effect the Government's considered response to the Gower Report on investor protection.

Officials of Eximbank, the US export credit insurance agency, yesierday said that recent investigations had shown blatant misuse of mixed credits

in three important contracts involving two won by the

STC backing expected

The £410m takeover bid by Standard Telephone and Cables for ICL, Britain's leading computer manufacturer, is expected to be given clearance next week by Mr Norman Tebbit, the Trade and Industry Secretary, Mr Peter Shore, the Shadow

Trade and Industry Secretary, has called for a full investisation of the deal by the Monopolies and Mergers Commission because of STC's strong connexions with ITT of the United States which will retaln a 29.9 per cent stake in the group after the merger goes

But the Office of Fair Trading is believed to have accepted STC's case that it is now a fully independent British company, and recommended that the merger be allowed to go ahead without a reference.
The Government's decision is expected on Wednesday, STC's offer closes for the first time on Friday. The bid has yet to cross the hurdle of formal renegotiation of ICL's collaborative agreement on computer tech-nology with Fujitsu of Japan.

STOCK EXCHANGES

FT-SE 100 Index: 1103.9 up 2.0 (high: 1104.6; low: 1100.2)
FT Index: 853.7 up 1.2
FT Gilts: 79.75 unchanged
FT All Share: 520.47 up 1.65
Barghius: 19.345
Datastream USM Leaders Index: 102.04 up 0.43 New York: Dow Jones Industrial

Average: (letest) 1217.64 down 70kya: Nikkei Dow Janes Index 10,584.20 down 2.07 Hongkong: Hang Seng Index 926 78 up 4 01 Amsterdam: 164.5 down 0.1 Sydney: AO Index 733.4 down 1.3 991 9 up 4.7 Brussels: General Index 157.16 up

Zurich: SKA General 307.10 down

CURRENCIES LONDON CLOSE

Sterling $1,3080 down 30 pts Index 75,1 down 0.1 DM 3.78 down 0.0075 FrF 11.5875 down 0.0150 Yen 316 down 0.2 Dollar Index 136.5 unchanged

DM 2.8860 unchanged NEW YORK LATEST Sterling $1,3085 Dollar DM 2,8880 INTERNATIONAL ECU £0.591497 SDR £0.775271

INTEREST RATES

Domestic rates Bank base rates 10% Finance houses base rate 11% Discount market loans week fixed 3 month interbank 1013/18-1011/18

3 month Fr F11% - 11%

US rates Fed tunds 11% Treasury long bond 99%-100 ECGD Fixed Rate Sterling Export Finance Scheme IV Average reference rate for interest period July 4 to August 7 1984, inclusive: 11.781 per cent.

GOLD

Lendon fixed (per ounce): am $347.70 pm $348.25 close $347.75 - 348.25 (£265.50 -New York (latest): $347.75

No price has been published, but as Capel is one of the Report on investor protection, biggest firms in the market it as a prelude to legislation. Europe accused of reneging on OECD deal

Mixed credits anger US

limit the use of mixed credit

earlier this year, only to find the Community countries backing off from the deal under pressure from France. The EEC proposal was that individual countries

mixed credits.

The United States is demand- accepted an EEC proposal to ing that other Western governmants must offer mixed credits to Third World customers only if they contain at least a 50 per cent grant element.

It is furious about the increasing use of such financial packages, which use beavy slices of aid to make bids more utractive, to snatch major foreign contracts away from competitors.

The tough United States proposals has been tabled for what promised to be a highlycharged meeting of the Organization for Economic Cooper-stion and Development in Paris on September 17.

The Americans are particularly upset because they quickly are just stealing business."

spot in Europe", a senior United States finance official said in Washington yesterday, "and then the EEC refused to accept its own proposal." "Countries have come in

would have to give advance notice of their intention to use However, there is no ques-tion of the US threatening other "We accepted that on the Western governments that it will pull out of the consensus agreement, which limits minimum interest rates on loans to developing countries, if a mixed credits deal is not done on September 17. Mr John Bohn.

using official backing literally as close as three days before a deadline, saying that it is foreign aid, he added. They make-or-break session. Gibbs Mew Venezuela and banks nearer deal on debt

By Peter Wilson-Smith, Banking Correspondent

Talks between Venezuela and billion over nine or 10 years at its bank advisory committee are due to resume next week on rescheduling a large part of the country's external debt amid signs that the gap between the two sides is narrowing.

day's discussions involved both Mexico's bank advisory way of monitoring economic roup is also expected to meet performance - a key part of the group is also-expected to meet written off an alternative again in the middle of next solutions such as interest relief. week before circulating all the A spokesman for one of the banks said they were not happy with Electrolux's initial offer made in June, but if the Swedish company now pro-vided "a half decent compromise, we would probably accept But he warned that the large Monetary Fund economic pronumber of banks involved meant formal acceptance of any proposals could be 10 days

Electrolux's agreement with Zanussi is conditional upon the foreign banks accepting the terms. It involves the payment of about £15m to the controlling Zanussi family, and to its other big shareholder, an Austrian gramme - is not expected to several hundred creditor banks with details of the multi-year rescheduling deal for Mexico. Venezuela, which has no need for new loans - and has therefore managed to avoid adopting an International win such generous terms from the banks as Mexico. Originally, the Venezuelans proposed a rescheduling of $22 billion (£16.8m) of the $34 billion total external debt over 15 years at a margin of 7s per cent over London interbank Commercial banks offered

instead to stretch out $16

11/2 per cent over London interbank rate and with a prime option. Further progress is reported to have been made However, finding a suitable

Mexican deal - could still prove difficult and some banks are also unhappy at Venezuela's failure to bring up to date about $1 billion of arrears on debts of the private sector. This week, Brazil completed agreement on the latest stage of its extended arrangement with the IMF and fresh talks are starting soon with the country's bank creditors in the United States and Britain. Talks on a multi-year rescheduling deal for Brazil are expected to begin in earnest during the autumn. Some London bankers believe that Mexico is gaining significant concessions in the multi-year rescheduling deal

postpones account By Our City Staff

vice-chairman of Eximbank, who is in London for a conference, yesterday denied a report that he had called it a

Gibbs Mew, the Salisbury brewer, which came to the Unlisted Securities Market last January, has again delayed publication of its accounts for the year to the end of March because of problems with its 3 month dollar 11 % 1111/11 Robert Porter bottling offshoot

The company said that its accounts would be out be yesterday when it announced a month ago that it would miss an earlier profit forecast because a special investigation had uncovered "a further material delicit" at Robert Porter.

The directors now decided that further work is required on the Robert Porter figures. Mr Peter Gibbs, chairman, said that malpractice was not suspected. "It has just taken longer than expected to complete the work. That is all.

"I expect Robert Porter to be back in profit this year. Otherwise we would have taken more stringent action than we Krugerrand* (per coin): $358.00 - 360.00 (£273.75 - 274.75) Sovereigns* (new): $81.50 - 82.50 (£82.25 - 63) Excludes VAT

COMPANY NEWS IN BRIEF £9m Australian deal settled

Keywest investments and Kortaki have settled their conditional contract to acquire Associated National Life Insurance from National Life Insurance from Nationale-Nederlanden Australia.

The AS15m (£9.5m) purchase was made through a new company A. N. L. Holdings, owned equally by Key-West and Koitaki.

Mr Garnet Harrison, managing director of Keywest, said: "We plan to use the resources of Keywest's funds management subsidiary, Clayton Robard Management, 10 develop a range of new investment. develop a range of new investment products linked to both property and equities markets.

THOMSON ORGANISATION: Six months to June 30.

costs 296.1 (260.5). Protax profit 6.4 (9.4) after not interest expense 3.9
(3.1). Tax 3.3 (2.4). Extraordinary profit 19 (nil) profit on sale of Reuters shares.

 CHEMICAL ASSOCIATES: Six months to June 30 (figures in $000s). Sales 5.043 (4.054). Rental 216 (312). Lease (4,054). Rental 216 (312). Lease interest 142 (63) making total revenue 5,401 (4,429). Trading profit 262 (262). Interest 126 (44). Translation and exchange losses 9 (78). Pretax prefit 126 (140). Tax 109 (66). Minorities nil (3). Net income 17 (71). Net income per share $0.001 (0.006).

· ALLNATT • ALLNATT LONDON PROPERTIES: No dividend (5.2p) (Figures in pounds millions)... Turnover 306.4 (273). Trading profit 10.3 (12.5) after operating making Ip (6.2p) for year to March

31 (figures in 2000s). Pretax profit 10,584 (9,471). Tax 3,790 (4,190). Extraordinary debit 289 (credit

ALEXANDERS HOLDINGS: Half year to March 31 (figures in £000s). Turnover 25,700 (25,900). Pretax loss 348 (loss 91). No tax (nil). Extraordinary debit 7 (7). Loss per share 1.1p (0.3p). Shares 7 ½p down ½p.

• TADDALE INVESTMENTS Final 1.25p making 2.25p (2.25p on old cap) for year to April 30. Turnover £17,432,918 Turnover £17,432,918 (£14,037,836). Profit on ordinary activities before tax £2,044,340 (£1,305,351). Tax £46,952 (£52,563). Earnings per share 4.1p

Mr Ronald Shuck, chairman of Espley Trust, plans to

Ronald Aitken to the board. Mr Aitken was a director of Espley when it was floated on the stock market by Carr Sebag in 1981. He was senior partner of Binder Hamlyn, the chartered accountants, and has been connected with Barker and Dobson, Kunick Holdings and Belhaven

Brewery. Espley shares fell from a 1984 peak of 97p to their present 30p in the wake of news that the company's attributable profits fell from £954,000 the year to September, 1982, to £392,000 for the 15 months to the end of 1983. But the company has been holding meetings for City groups in recent weeks to explain the return of Mr Aitken, which will form part of the

Among these is expected to be the appointment of Mr

Quarterly Income totalling — A YEAR— †PAID FREE OF TAX Minimum Investment £1,000 -EASY ACCESS

YOUR INVESTMENT - Your money will be invested in Britannia Jersey Gilt Fund Limited, a fund that invests primarily in "exempt" British Government securities (Gilts). These are Gilts which pay dividends without deduction of U.K. taxation.

You can encash your investment at any time

 $\pm NOTE-$ U.K. resident shareholders will, depending on their circumstances, be liable to U.K. taxation in respect of dividends they receive. Investors should recognise that whilst Gilts provide a very high immediate return, the prospects of capital gain in the future may vary. The fund, should therefore be considered as part of an overall balanced portfolio.

*Calculated as at 24th August 1984. Britannia Jersey Gilt Fund Limited

P.O. Box 271, St. Heller, Tersey, Channel Islands. Telephone: 0534 73114. The Fund is based in Jersey and is listed on The Stock Exchange, London.

City welcomes motor chief's appointment Turnbull takes Inchcape challenge

George Turnbull: Impressive track record

modest manner seems strangely at odds with his record as a highly successful industrialist, is expected to receive a warm reception from the City.

"I would not wish to be seen as a new measiah. Sir David has industries and made himself a millionaire, Mr Turnbull ended up at Talbot UK where his brief already done great things at Incheape. But I do know there is a huge job to be done in has pinpointed for the future," he said from the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Trad- a very different sort of job and I ers office at-Belgravia, where he think in many respects more has been working since leaving Talbot (UK) at the end of The City is right to be impressed with his track record.

At 42 he became deputy chairman of the British Leyland Motor Company and over the next five years he was respon-sible for creating its Austin Rover division. "It was one of the most difficult management jobs I have ever done and I would not want to do anything like it again," he said. From there, by way of South Korea, and Iran, where he helped set up national car was to restore the company to making things happen in the was to restore the a That completed he began to look for challenges. "Inchcape is > to make big decisions which had an immediate and obvious impact. "Incheape represents more than 2,500 manufacturers with companies operating in more than 60 countries. We have a unique trading network that can be built on. This is essentially a slow man-management task which requires careful monitor-interesting than the ones I have done before. At Talbot one had are improving on their market shares. Mr Turnbull expects to spend the next six months towing the group's far-flung operations.

Meanwhile, Incheape is recovering strongly anyway from the low-ebb it reached a few

Aitken may join Espley

forestall critial questions at Wednesday's annual meeting with the announcement of new plans for the company.

ing from the centre to make sure that all parts of the groups company's transition from property to industrial activities.

R. J. Reynolds emerges as favourite to bid for Imps

As stock market specuation ontinued vesterday about the mperial Group, the brewing nd cigarette complex, the merican R. J. Reynolds obacco group began to emerge s the City's favourite candidate o mount a bid.

This week a variety of umours have swirled around mps, ranging from the sale of loward Johnson, its troubleome US catering and hotel roup, to the disposal of the ourage on wing group. There have also been suggesions that Imps will sell some of s British production capacity Philip Morris, another major S eigarette group. But through the cloud of rumours, an outright bid from Philip Morris had been regarded by many as the most likely possibility.

However Philip Morris is a significant force in the British tobacco market in tis own right and also has a substantial shareholding in Rothmans International, A bid for Imps sould almost certainly be referred to the Monopolies

An R. J. Reynolds shot, nowever, would have a better chance of avoiding monopoly problems, Unlike Philip Morris, Reynolds him little representation in Britain and Europe - a state of affairs it has been trying to remedy. Two years ago it attempted to link with Rothmans only to be pipped at the post by Philip Morris.

The suggestion that R. J. Reynolds was interested in

Base Lending Rates

Adam & Company 10 1/2 % Continental Trust 1012% Lloyds Bank Midland Bank ... 1012% Nat Westminster Williams & Glyn's 10/2% Citibank NA 1012%

7 dos deposits on sums of under £10.000, 71 Ac. £10,000 up to £50,000, 8%, £50,000 and over, $74%.

By Derek Pain

Imps gathered strength as the stock market enjoyed another rumour - that Imps itself was and Spencer and John Menzies about to launch a bid for all achieved useful gains. Northern Foods, the milk, meat nies to beer group. NF shares gained 10p to 180p before the company's chairman. Mr Nicholas Horsley, trimmed the gain to 8p when he said he was aware of the bid rumours but "there is no truth in these rumours at all".

Imps shares, in active two way trading, closed 1p lower at 160p. They had at one stage recorded a 1p gain. Again there were signs of American buying.

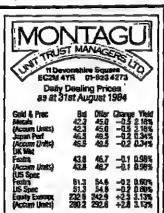

Shares of Horizon Travel, the package holiday group, rose 7p to 180p as new time buyers banked on a bid from Grand Metropolitan in the next account, GrandMet, which has 4.96 per cent of Horizon, has remained strangely quiet about the intentions since the holiday group called off take over talks.

The long three week account ended on a firm note with food shares particularly strong. Ensituation at Brooke Bond - a counter bid, probably from America, is still widely expected there was in impressive array

J. Bibby jumped 12p to 230p; Dalgety 6p to 420p; Unigate 4p to 131p and United Biscuits 3p to 149p. The excitement split over to food retailers. Argyll Group gained 6p to 185p; Dee Corpor-ation 10p to 548p; Kwik Save 10p to 172p and William Low

The high street names generally had a good day. Boots;

cally said that the concept had no merit, it was not acceptable to us and there was no basis British Homes Stores, Burton whereby the shares" of CCL Group, Currys Group; Marks could be exchanged for those of Brooke Bond closed in lower ut 110p. Six million shares changed hands yesterday and there is speculation that a 5 per cent shareholding will be disclosed on Monday

Premier.

The nearness of Farnborough

Air Show helped Armstrong

Equipment, up 2 1/2 p at 31 1/2 p and Flight Refuelling, 10p higher at 257p.

Memory Computers, the Irish

stock which has more than halved following a miscalcu-lation on its profit figures, recovered 10p of the decline to

Scanro, the windsurf board group, made a USM splash. Placed at 105p the shares bit

Shares of Mr Asil Nadir's two quoted companies - Polly Peck and Cornell - were strong yesterday after the opening of the much trumpeted mineral water plant at Niksar, Turkey, this week Polly Peck shares rose

18p to 332p and Cornell gained

Elsewhere bid speculation

BICC, figures on Wednesday, lost ground and Davy Corpor-ation eased a few coppers on fading bid hopes, But Bridon, on takeover chatter, rose 4p to Insurance and banking had a quiet day although properties were again firm.

LCP Holdings, the industrial group, rose to 95p on hopes that its successful US side, the

Whitlock car acessory group, is

Equity bargains on Thursday were valued at £272.362m.

Number of transaction was 17,498. Gilt bargains totalled 2,406. The number of UK and rener is appointed director.

Grants of St James's: Mr

Jeremy Bennett, vice-chairman of Haich, Mansfield, has been appointed corporate affairs director of Grants from September 17. At the same time Mr

John Taylor will become a director of Grants and chair

12p to 223p.

up 8p to 245p.

to be floated off.

APPOINTMENTS

155p before settling at 140p.

The FT 30 share Index consolidating its recent pro-gress, ended the account with a 1.2 points gain to 853.7 points. points up at 1,103.9 points. Aithough firm throughout the day, the market finished with a flourish as buyers became much more aggressive in after hours The industrial uncertainties were largely ignored. But once agin trading was quiet and sitation stocks attracted the buying limelight. Government stocks dozed contentedly through another quite day. They were largely unchanged although long dated Glanfield Lawrence, garage group rose 3p to 52p as Gregory Securities, the com-pany controlled by Mr Jim Coregory, chairman of Queens for yet another speculative run, Park Rangers Football Club, acquired a major shareholding and promised to bid 49.5p a share for the rest of the capital.

appears that Mr Christopher Selmes, the controverisal 1970s financier, may have sold his significant share stake.

Oil shares recorded some strong progress with Enterprise Oil up op at 102p and Lasmo 20p higher at 328p. The battle for Consolidated Premier Consolidated Oilfields rumbled on with Mr Roland Shaw saying that bidders Carless Capel and Leonard had "a half a dozen times during the last nine months" suggested a merger mainly as a defence against larger predators". Each time we very specifi- Irish stocks traded was 154.8m.

Carl Byoir & Associates: Mr

Terence Franklin is named as

Alfred Robens Associates: Lord Robens of Woldingham

becomes chairman of the board.

Mr Harry Paten Evans joins the Williams becomes finance

Heron Homes: Mr Roderick

executive vice-president.

board as director.

COMPANY NEWS IN BRIEF

• EX-LANDS: results for half year to June 30. Pretax profit £9,824 (£3,204) after interest paid £2,386 (£5,204) but including dividends received (£21,950). Interest on deposits £110 (714) and dealing profits £10,131 (ail). Surplus on disposal of listed investments £16,374 (£25,028). Tax £5,551 (£6,080) Extract new there 2,465 (£6,080). Earnings per share 0.46p (0.5p). ● ELYS

(WIMBLEDON): Twenty six weeks to July 28. Interim dividends lp (same). (Figures in £000). Turnover 3,470 (3,496). Pretax profit 82 (22). Tax 41 (12) Earnings per share 3,44p (0,89). MOLYNX HOLDINGS: Str months to June 30. No interim dividend (nil). (Figures in £000]. Turnover 835 (644). Pretax profit 26 (17). Tax nil (nil) as no liability to

CHURCH & CO: Interim 3p (same) (figs in £000). Turnover 22.721 (20.146) for six months to June 30. Pretax profit 1.447 (1.051). Tax 487 (268). Minorities 6 (3). Earnings per share 18.3p (15p). The Chairman says the year as a whole should be another good one for the

GOLD AND BASE METAL MINE: Half year to June 30. Pretan loss £7,699 flow £9,423) including dividends recommended £6.02 (£5.910) and interest on deposit £2,332 (£1,108). Surplus on disposal of lined investments £15,530 (£11,025). Tax £550 (£383). Earning per share 0.11p (0.02),

 FLEMING FLEDGELING INV TST: The board says there have been some satisfactory divi-dend increases this year. Indication are that revenue available for distribution for the full year will be similar to last year's. The board will have no difficulty in recommending a maintained total dividend for the year.

One of New Zealand: Interim dividend 7.5 per cent. (Figures NZ$000), Turnover to third parties 17,151 (15,672) for first half. debits 6 (5), associates profits 534 (399). Pretax profit 1109 (630), Tax 459 (185). Earnings per share 7.2 cents (4.9 cents).

 SCOTTISH AGRICULTURAL INDS: Six months Interim dividend 5.5p (same), payable on November 5. (Figures in Em.) Sales 51.4 (52.5). Trading profit including grants 1.6 (2.4), pretax profits 1.8 (2.2), after interest pay nil (0.3) but including interest receivable 0.2 (0.1). Tax 0.5 (0.8). Extraordinary debit 0.1 (nil). Entraings per share 14.2p (16.5p) including extraordinary debit.

Shares 315 down 5.

OIL INVESTMENTS: Operating profit A$524,000 for the half-year to June 30. (Loss A$262,000). Turnover A$1.08m (A$424,0). HARTOGEN ENERGY: Operating profit A$6.44m (A$3.83m). Turpover A$9.7m (A$7.4m). The chairman, Mr P. N. Burke said the

to a reduction in indebtedness; as operating profit by oil investments; increased sales volumes of gas and liquids; and higher average prices for gas. • PACIFIC SALES ORGANIS ATION: Results for year to June 30 (18 months) no final, as indicated in prospectus. Figures in £000, Turnover 3,205 (5,386). Pretax and TEMPUS

Land Securities pays price of keeping up with fashion

Sell, or at least reduce exposure to. Land Securities is the bold advice from Mr Chris Turner, property analyst at Laing & Cruickshank, who deploy a sonhisticated line of reasoning to justify dumping the largest and arguably safest of Britain's property companies. At around 290p, the group is capitalized at nearly £1.5 billion, and the shares are trading near the top end of the 12-month price range. group has virtually no indus-trial property in the portfolio. Most assets are in city centres or downtown areas.

Mr Turner argues that the portfolio requires continuous expenditure on improvement and modernization even to maintain, let alone, enhance, its lettability. Land Securities may now be spending up to £45m a year on modernization.

The group is being forced to spend this money because fashions are changing. Britain, particularly in Central Loudon, the pace of change towards better quality floor space is quickening. Britain's property sector is moving towards a North American attitude, where city centre buildings may enjoy a life of no more than 30-50 years. Land Securities is particularly vulnerable to the vagaries of fashion, because the bulk of its assets dates from the Fifties and Sixties. But the market's perception of these buildings. has changed since 1980. Layout and design standards have changed radically, following alterations in modern office technology.

Hence possibly the reason why Land Securities' Grand Buildings in Trafalgar Square is to be demolished, just nine years after modernization, or why 13-23 Fenchurch Street been extensively refurbished, 15 years after completion. The problems of refurbishment are not peculiar to Land Securities. But what is enique is the way the group chooses to combine the modernization programme with other policies hich effectively leave is assetrich but cash-poor.

Land Securities has been running a "closed portfolio" strategy since 1973 - investing fresh money in adjacent properties, rather than new areas. As a consequence the new growth areas in the Home Counties. Total debt has been run down consistently, and now stands at under 10 per cent of assets, Ten years ago, it equalled 49 per cent of assets.

The combination of these two factors has obliged the group to use equity issues or asset sales to generate funds. Between 1975 and 1984, Land Securities raised £126m from two rights issues, and £275m from property disposals.

Perhaps a big debenture issue is the only way to break the vicious circle of rising operating expense, debt reduction and property sales, But the group might prove unable to earn enough on the fresh capital to cover the cost of the debt, hence threatening earnings.

Thus, discretion seems to be the better part of investor valour on the group, until management takes a fresh look

Church

Any group which reports an interim profits gain of 38 per cent, after sales rose by 13 per cent, plainly has a cheery tale to tell. Margin gains of a point, in this case from 5.2 per cent to 6.4 per cent, are always hard to Church's starting point is demand. The classic English look for shoes is in vogue across the United States and in but skilled labour shortages are earned from the US deficit.

starting to appear.

The weaker pound has helped. Church exports about two thirds of its men's shoe With profits apparently well set to soar beyond the £3m mark (1983: £2.8m), investors may well wonder why the interim dividend is unchanged at 3p. Church argues that it was generous last year, and that a decision on the final payout has yet to be taken. Last night's Hp rise in share price to 411p ests that investors agree with the directors.

Wall Street

Wall Street duly learned this week that the Fed had decided portfolio is geared to large blocks of higher cost city centre property, with low exposure to rangel from 74-114 per cent to rangel from 71-111/2 per cent to 8-10 per cent.

> To some investors, however, the whole issue of the Fed stance towards interest rates has become academic, since monetary growth is now plainly undershooting the target range.

> On this basis, the whole issue of the Reagan fiscal laxity seems tikely to subside into a soft landing for the economy, as the growth rate slows down.

What dimorts this happy line of argument is the continuing deterioration of the US current account. The July trade deficit reached a record $14 billion (£10.6 billion) also revealed this week, while for the first-seven months the deficit at $73.8 billion already exceeds the 1983 full year outturn, ?

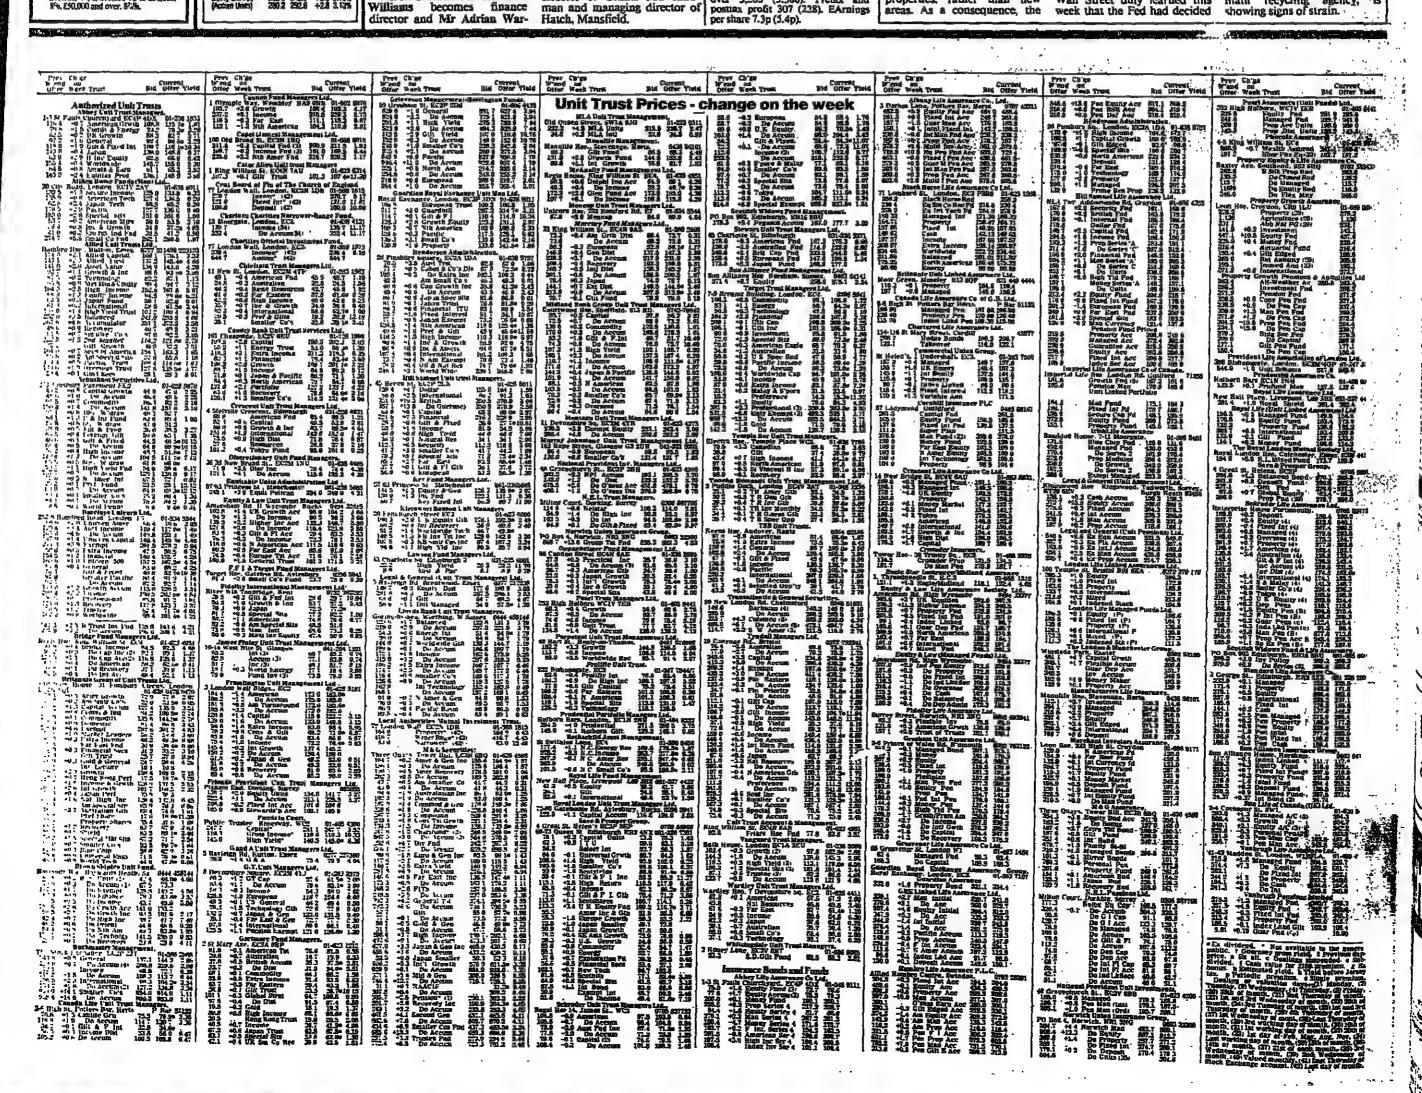

An analysis in the Federal Reserve Bank of New York Quarterly Review of the way in which the US has financed its current account deficit emphasizes how unstable the current financing structure has become. The Bank says that in 1983, the enlarged $41.6 billion deficit was financed by a $70 billion switch in the direction of banking transactions' between the Eurodollar market and domestic money markets.

The trend is continuing, The pace of US economic recovery made its credit markets taut relative to the Eurodollar market, where liquidity was high as world Europe. The group's manufac-turing side is working flat out, exporters deposited dollars

> Yet no country in living memory has managed to finance deficits up to 3 per cent of GDP on a continuing basis, and in its own currency.

The bank says that any number of events - an infation rise; better investment opportunities elsewhere; an improved international political climate - could shock foreign dollar holders' confi-

Equally, the US needs to attract new capital inflows of up to $100 billion a year, while retaining all old capital inflows. And the banking system, the main recycling agency, showing signs of strain.

WALL STREET

M1 fears trim Dow at start

New York (Reuter-AP-Dow Jones) - Wall Street prices opened lower in active trading. The Dow Jones industrial average fell 3.53 to 1,219.74. shortly after the market opened. Declines led advances 470 to 299 among the 1,237 issues Analysts said that many traders had taken the whole week off before Monday's Annata Labour Day holiday. Some investors were disturbed by the Federal Reserve's report on Thursday that the nation's money supply rose £1.7 billion (£1.2 billion) in the latest statistical week

The increase was larger than expected and increased nerintentions on interest rates. Mr David Jones of Aubrey G. Lanston said: "Some people feel, although I do not agree, that the Fed has been firming or is about to do so." He said the board had maintained a stable policy since ast March. Prices of American govern-ment notes and bonds were little changed from Thursday's closing levels,

Coupon issues fell 5/32 to up The Treasury's beliwether. long bond rose 2/32 from Thursday's close at 99 14/32 to yield 12.57 per cent. The old long bond at 104 12/32 was

Federal funds at 11 11/16 per cent, down slightly from their opening level of 11 5/8 per cent, were "where they should be," according to the New York.

MONEY MARKETS

Angest August

Standard Chartered Trust Company (C.I.): Mr John Shield has been made managing director and Mr John Ruddy a director.

Beatson Clark: Mr Gordon deputy chairman, in addition to

Cifer: Dr John Waddington has joined the board as sales

RCA/Columbia Picture Internation Video: Mr Patrick

Campbell becomes president. Charthire Service: Dr Martin

M&G Securities: Mr A. J. Ashplant has been appointed secretary of the company,

E.C.C. Quarries: Mr G. R. Shove has been appointed a director and is to succeed Mr H. Bailey as regional director (Southern).

Distributive Trades Economic Development Committee: Miss Ann Burdus has become chairman.

chairman until May 31, 1988. Aidcom International: Mr

Institute of Administrative Management Mr Roger Henderson has been named chairman of council for the institute.

STERLING SPOT and FORWARD RATES

Markel rate

interbank money held [] 14-Il /s per cent in London most of the morning, coming down to If %-11 per cent at midday: The rate widened to 11 %-11 per cent at lunchtime, and there was late drop to 3-2 per cent before the close came at 4-2 per cent.

s Colu

 $\phi^{(1)} \in \mathcal{C}_{k+1}^{k+1} \subseteq \mathcal{C}^{(k)}$

Finance House Beer State 114: Applications: EALA.690m

libber, coffee, coses, in £'s per toune; legar and gas off in $ per motife tenne.

Address

245-27

INVESTMENTITRUSTS

COMMODITIES

FOREIGN EXCHANGES

Currency trading was low-key The few operators involved limited their efforts to book-squaring before the long weekend in the US with markets closed on Monday for shade in the wake of the larger-than-expected $1.7 billion (£1.2 billion) rise in US M1 money supply for the last reporting

But as the market wound down, so rates drifted aimlessly. Sentiment on the pound continued to be supported by the level of opposition to the dockers' leaders call for strike

But in the absence of anything other than small commercial business, sterling eased 30 points against the dollar at $1.3080, and closed 0.1 off at 78.1 on the effective exchange rate index. .

Deutschemarks DM2.8860; and French francs, Fr8.8550, were continental currencies to finish unaltered to the dollar. Swiss francs cheap-ened from SFr2-3980 to softened from

MEAT AND LIVESTOCK COMMISSION Average Interck Prices of representative restricts on August 25 kg hv (+0.65). GR: Cattle, 96.01p per kg est d c v GR: Speen, 147 15p per kg est d c v

EURO-$ DEPOSITS

Labour Day.
The dollar initially firmed a

(%) cans. 11%-10%; seven days. 111% The yen softe 117% one month. 117%: 117% 117% 117% Y241.20 to Y241.60.

APPOINTMENTS

Thompson has been appointed his responsibilities as technical director.

Rohan Group: Mr Donaid

Christopher, professor of marketing and logistics systems at Cranfield School of Management, becomes a non-executive

Post Office Users' Council for Wales: Professor J. R. Webster has been reappointed

Richard Cockman, managing director of Cockman, Copeman and Partners, has been appointed a director of Aidcom.

FAMILY MONEY

Invalidity payment can mean big saving for the taxpayer

Beauregard has joined the It can come as an unpleasant surprise to many who reach state retiring age to find that after paying National Insurance out of taxed income, they then have to pay tax on their state pension as well.

The problem is that the state pension is regarded as fair game for the taxman. If the pensioner had no other income tax allowances mean he or she can usually escape paying tax. But with the growing number of company pensions, that is less and less the case.

There is an exception - anyone who falls ill before pension age (65 for men, 60 for women) and draws the state invalidity pension is not taxable yet, although it could well become so, in the meantime, if you have it at retiring age, you can choose to keep it -at least for as long as you are ill -t for up to five years past pension age.

retirement pension at any time company pension, means that equation, taking the highest you want, but you have to do so all the retirement pension in any case at 65 for women, 70 for men.

There can be quite a considerable tax saving in staying a single pension, and nearly £961.74. with invalidity pension, it used £16.50 on the married rate. to be the same amount as retirement pension, but this is £530 and £850 respectively a not the case now. The difference year. But by keeping invalidity crept in several years ago because invalidity pension was not taxed - it is therefore lower.

Retirement pension is £34.05 £728 in a year. week for a single person and £54.50 for a married couple. Invalidity pension is £32.60 single and £52.15 married. Those differences amount to about £75 and £122 a year respectively, so anyone who does not pay tax could actually stand to lose by not taking retirement pension then entitled

However, for the taxpayer there are big savings. Assuming becomes taxable.

You can then change to a that other income, such as a would be taxed, someone in this position would have to pay more than £10 a week in tax on £926 (£54.50 + £7.15 × 52 = £3.205.80. Tax at 30 per cent =

> That works out at around pension, the same person would lose either £75 or £22 in benefit, but would not pay any tax on it -e net savings of about £455 or Another complication is that in many cases, invalidity allowances ranging from £2.30 to £7.15 a week, can be paid with invalidity pension. The amount depends on age on falling sick. Like invalidity pension this is not taxable.

When someone drawing invalidity pension changes to retirement pension, the invalidity allowance stays, but it this situation to do his or her sums carefully.

weekly amount, the annual tax

By sticking with invalidity

Obviously, is it not as simple as that because people's circumstances - income, tax allowances - vary, The examples

assume that basic rate tax would be paid on all the retirement pension. A small income, with only part of the pension being taxed would give different figures. Higher rate would pay everyone who is in

Despite the complications, it tax payers would also do better.

pension, there is a benefit loss of £122, but no tax to be paid - a net saving of £840.

Ian McDonald

THE COST OF DYING

It's your funeral – on hire purchase This allows individuals to register their wishes for a £3 fee.

An organization has been set up to arrange and pay for members' funerals.

But although the basic idea behind PRMS - Personal Request Memorial Service - is worthy, there may be better and more reliable ways of providing for your funeral than paying its £500 membership fee, or £20 a year subscription.

There are three problems to face - ensuring that your wishes about the funeral are carried out; providing the money to pay for it: and trying to make it available at the time of the funeral rather than months

PRMS was set up by an insurance broker. Mr Derek Bolton, of Bradford, who says the average cost of the sort of funeral covered by the service is between £450 and £550. PRMS will pay the full cost of the funeral no matter how costs

It can do this because members' payments are passed ance Company, of Sussex, which invests it in a unit-linked managed fund. This has pro-vided a 17 per cent average annual growth since it began in January, 1983.

As all investors unit trusts are warned, units can go up as well as down but, "RPMS takes the risk", according to British National Life's Mr Tony

So you may think it better to invest the money on your own account in a high-risk highearning enterprize such as a unit-linked managed fund, or you may feet happier with the money more staidly invested in, say, a building society.

This would have the added advantage of being easily accessible after your death because when estates are believed to be below the £5,000 probate level, the building society will release money immediately to the person they believe is entitled to it. If the estate is above £5,000, the to British National Life Assur- building society will release funds only to cover capital transfer tax.

> Even insurance policies taken out specifically to cover funeral costs are caught up in the probate process and this takes an average of six weeks to sort

PRMS provides members with a plastic card to notify the next of kin, or whoever has responsibility for the body to contact PRMS. Mr Bowton said: "If a body is buried without us, we will reimburse the estate with the cost of the funeral at the time of death, If after, say, 100 years, if there has been no claim on behalf of a member, we will donate an equivalent amount to the Royal Association for the Disabled and Rehabilitation." But if your main concern is to ensure that your wishes about your funeral are carried out, there are an increasing number of organizations following Sal-ford Age Concern's Funeral Planning Society.

been copied by other branches of Age Concern, the Salvation Army in Brent, north west London, and the Quakers in Edinburgh. ● A selective £250 death grant to replace the present £30 grant has been urged by the Welsh

Relatives can then telephone for information, but if they wish it the organizers will negotiate with funeral directors for the best price, then organize the six months ago and has already

This began as a pilot study

registered funeral.

Consumer Council A report sent to the government committee reviewing the supplementary benefit system much responsibility. Funerals are carried out to accord with legal and public health requirements as well as to satisfy the needs of the deceased and bereaved, and the state should be prepared to provide realistic assistance to people who cannot afford the cost of a funeral"

FAMILY MONEY MARKET

Current account - no interest paid. Deposit accounts - Midland, Barclays, Lloyds, 7.25 per cent, seven days notice required for withdrawals. National Girobank 6 per cent. Lloyds extra interest 10.25 per cent. Nat West 11 per cent. Fixed term deposits 22,500-£25,000, 3 months 10 per cent. 6 months 10% per cent. Rates quoted by National Westminster. Other banks may differ.

MONEY FUNDS 10.25 10.74 10.00 10.47 10.00 10.47 10.38 10.53

10.5 10.92 9.9 10.4 10.50 11.02 10.75 11.30 10.75 11.11 11.90 11.27 10.25 10.65 10.36 10.76 10.5 10.93

10.31 10.81 0752 261161 Account 10.00 10.47 01 638 5757 M & G Hica 19.3 10.85 01 826 4588 HFC Trust 7 day 10.5 10.77 01 236 8381 National Savings Bank Ordinary accounts - interest 6 per cant on 2500 minimum on deposit for whole of 1984, otherwise 3 per cant. Investment Account - 12% interest paid without deduction of tax, months notice of withdrawal, maximum investment 250,000. National Savings Certificates 28th Return totally free of income and capital gains tax, equivalent to an annual interest rate over the five-year term of 9.00 per maximum investment 25,000. National Savings Income Bond Min - investment £2,000 - max. £50,000. Interest - 12.75 per cent variable at six weeks notice - paid monthly without deduction of tax.

Repayment at 3 or 6 months notice National Savings 2nd Index-linked Maximum investment £10,000,

Return tax-free and linked to changes in the retail price index Supplement of 0.2 per cent per month up to October 1984 pa new investors; existing holders receive a 2.4 per cent supplement between October 1983 and October 1984 4 per cent bonus if held tull five years to maturity. Retirement issue Certificates purchased in Southerness 1970. chased in September 1979, £160,93 including bonus and National Savings Deposit Bond Minimum Investment £250 max £50,000, 12.75 per cent variable at six weeks notice Credited annually without deduction of tax. Repayment at three months' notice.

National Savings Yearly Plan A one year regular savings plan converting into four-year savings certificates. Minimum £20, Maximum £100 a month. Return over five years 9.06 per cent - tax free.

Local authority yearling bonds
12 month fixed rate investments, interest 11½ per cent basic rate tax deducted at source (can be reclaimed by non-taxpayer), minimum investment £1,000, purchased through stockbroker or

Return paid net of basic rate tax, higher rate taxpayers may have a further liability on maturity.

2 years Canterbury Life 8.25 per cent. 3 years Tyndall 8.75 per cent. 4 years Providence Capital 9.5 per cent. 5 years Premium Life 9.3 per cent.

Building societies
Ordinary share accounts - 7.75 per cent. Extra interest accounts usually pay 1 per cent over the savings schemes - 1.25 per cent over BSA advised ordinary share tax. Five-Fifty scheme: 6 months 11 rate. Rates quoted above are those per cent; 1 year, 11% per cent; 2 most commonly offered, individual SOCIET different rates. Interest on all accounts paid net of basic rate tax. Not reclaimable by non-taxpayers.

Investors in industry Fixed term, fixed rate investments of between 3 and 10 years, interest paid half-yearly without deduction of tax: 3-10 years, 12½ per cent;
information from 91 Waterloo Road, London SE1 (01-928 7822).

Finance house deposits (UDT) Fixed-term, fixed-rate deposits, years, 11% per cent.

Foreign currency deposits
Rates quoted by Rothschild's Old Court Intl. Reserves 0481 26741
seven days notice is required for withdrawal and no charge is made for switching currencies

July RPI: 351.5

Which Building Society – Amongst the 'Top Twenty' has * The highest reserve ratio * The lowest administrative costs * No branch offices

344.00-344.00 360.50-351.00

612.00-612.00 618.00-619.00

We offer the Moorel discourse on the market. Telephone of write to-CHELSEA FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD Relate House, 24 Brayhound Heed, Londin WE BIX Tigh: 01-351 6247 (24 hrs) BEFORE YOU RIVEST CONTACT US LAST! INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL ee LtsL Switnsk 1 3210 1 3210 CENTENARY SHARES GROSS 13.78% MITEREST HALF YEARLY MATELY WITH MA PARTY PROPERTY

First National Securities Limited announces that with effect from 1st September 1984 its base rate for lending will be reduced to 12%.

First National Securities Ltd., First National House, College Ru Harrow, Middlesex HA1 1FB. Telephone: 01-861 1313.

The Independent Investment Company

The Company's policy is to invest for long term growth in listed and unlisted companies involved in technology with particular emphasis on electronics. Its shares were issued in November 1980 at net asset value of 107 pence: this figure stood at 278.04 at 30 June 1984. The majority of the Company's holdings is based in the United States with significant holdings in the United Kingdom. Year to 30 June 1984.

Net asset value per ordinary share 278.04p Dividend per ordinary share 0.50p

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT WORLDWIDE. ONE CHARLOTTE SQUARE • EDINBURGH EH2 4DZ • TELEPHONE 031-225 1357

To: Ivory & Stree plc, One Charlotte Square, Edinburgh EHZ 4DZ.

Please send me a copy of the 1984 Annual Report for The Independent Investment Company pl

Address

FAMILY MONEY edited by Lorna Bourke

Telecom fact sheet

The Government is leaving nothing to chance in its attempts to persuade the investing public that British Telecom is a

Everything you need to know about the public offer for sale is contained in the British Telecom Share Offer Information Sheet, which answers questions ranging from - What is Privatization? to Can I get

My Money Back? If you write for a copy of the information sheet you will also be sent a copy of the prospectus including a share plication form. The fact sheet is available to anyone who writes to (or telephones) the British Telecom Share Information Office (Tele: 0272-272272) PO Box 1, Bristol, B$99

Greater return

From this weekend, the interest rate on National Savings Income and Deposit Bonds goes up from 10 per cent to 12.75 per cent. Interest is taxable but is paid in full without deduction of tax.

From Monday, the minimum purchase and minimum holding of National Savings Deposit Bonds is reduced from £500 to £250. Minimum investment in the Income Bond remains at £2,000 but it is worth remembering that interest is paid

Monthly income

Peckham Building Society will be introducing a monthly income facility on its Super Shares from September 1.
These offer a rate of 9.75 per cent of basic rate tax, equivalent to 13.93 per cent gross, and account holders can receive their interest monthly, if required on accounts with balances of £2,000 or

Withdrawals are allowed without notice and without any interest penalty as long as the balance remains above the £2,000 threshold. Further details from Peckham Building Society (Tel: 01-639)

Better cover

Midshires Building Society is improving the terms of its Unicover buildings and contents insurance. For £2.50 per £1,000 insured, buildings are covered plus contents insurance of up to half the amount of the buildings cover - with a limit of £35,000 Under the new terms, Unicover provides insurance against accidental damage to television, videos, home computers, hi-fl systems and for deterioration of deep-freeze contents. There is also a guarantee of full rebuilding costs even if they exceed sum insured. Householders may have to pay more than the basic £2.50 per £1,000 if they live in a high-risk area.

Oppenheimer launch

Oppenheimer, the final manager, is launching four unit trusts, European Growth, High Income, UK Growth and Pacific Growth. They will be available from Monday. Minimum investment in each fund is £1,000 and there is a fixed price initial offer which closes on September 17 at 25p a unit.

The Oppenheimer funds, which have been in existence long enough to establish a track record, have turned in a respectable performance. A sum of £1,000 invested in Oppenheimer's Income and Growth fund five years ago would be worth £1,945 as at July 1, compared with £3,276 from top performing Henderson Income and Growth and £1.123 from the tail-ender. Duncan Lawrie Income

Tax warning

ricty delighted investors and administered a blow to its competitors with the launch this

veck of its Liquid Gold account, paying a generous 9.25 per cent net of basic rate tax, with instant access to cash and no penalty on withdrawal.

This is the highest return

available on a no-notice

account from any of the big five building societies, and is likely to force a rethink on rates

We think we will clean up on this one," commented Mr Michael Megarry, of Leeds Permanent, Minimum invest-

Leeds is expecting the money to come rolling in although no one is prepared to commit themselves on just how much the account is expected to attract. The aim is to get rid of home loan queues at Leeds branches. "Mortgages on de-mand is what we want," Mr

Overall the societies have had a poor month - net receipts are not expected to exceed £300m

compared with £608m in July

"We thought long and hard before introducing this account. The move places us in a very competitive position that will and £630m during June.

ouse is ransacked.

among other societies.

ment is £500.

The Inland Revenue is getting tough about charging interest on overdue tax, according to accountants, Dearden Farrow. In its August clients newsletter, Dearden Farrow says: "Estimated assessments to higher rate tax on taxed investment income will be arriving in the autumn and if there is insufficient information from which to make accurate calculations of tax liabilities arising, interest will run on underpayments after

Guardian Supershares Teachers Bullion

Town & Country 90 Nottingham Oddfellows

Monthly Income Peterborough Monthly

Marsden Supershares Paddington Maxi

Guardian Supershare

St Pancres Extra Yield

Hemel Hempstead Cent Share Bolton 3 Month

Source: Building Society Choice

be difficult to beat," said Mr

Peter Hemingway, chief general manager of the Leeds.

Nearest rival to the new

Leeds account is the Cheltenham & Gloucester's Cheltenham Gold account, paying 9 per cent, which has been market leader among the big national societies since its launch in April, 1981. The Leeds move prompted an instant reaction from the C & G, which announced an immediate re-

(m) - monthly income

Income Bond

Income Bolton 1 Month

"The Revenue now has power to charge interest even if it has failed to raise an estimated assessment where details of chargable gains (in excess of annual exemptions) and new sources of income have not been fully reported

Hallmark winner

For the highest return from a building society you usually have to commit your money for a fixed period. The new Hallmark Account from the Midshires Building Society offers investors the best of both worlds – a high interest rate of up to 10 per cent and access to your money

BUILDING BOCIETY BEST BUYS

BUILDING SOCIETIES

Leeds steps up battle for deposits

investri 3

3.000

10,000

1,000

1.000

1,000 2,000 1,000 1,000

1,000

6.000

view of the rates paid on the Cheltenham Gold account.

general manager of the C & G, said: "The Cheltenham Gold monthly interest account, offering a return of 9.38 per cent. siready beats the rate announced by the Leeds, for investments over £5,000.

However, we are determined that the Cheltenham Gold

A Board meeting will be held remains the best."

BURGLARY

Mr Andrew Longhurst, chief

auoted interest rate

9.98 9.88 9.85 (m) 9.84 9.88

(m) 9.84

9.83 9.88 10.04 10.04 9.75 9.98 9.98

You can invest in a Hallmark account for fixed periods of three, four or five years. Your money will sam 9.5 net of basic rate tax for the three-year term; 9.75 per cent for four years rising to 10 per cent over five years.

The differentials over the ordinary share rate are guaranteed, if you need some or all of your cash, you can withdraw it provided you give 90 days

But there is a penalty. You will have 90 days interest on the sum withdrawn deducted from your account if you take money out before the fixed period expires. The Minimum investment is 2500 and you can add to the account.
Details from Midshires Building.
Society Branches or from head office at PO Box 81 Wolverhampton, WV1 1EL

Index-linked Avon:

Avon insurance is introducing a home and contents insurance policy with the option of paying the premiums in stalments over 12 months. Both the Standard and Extra cover are index-linked, removing the need to increase the sum insured. Features of the new SuperAvon Rollcy include cover for contents being moved professionally to a new home, replacement of external locks if keys are

Peter Hemingway

to review rates and it seems likely that there will be an increase and possibly a reduction in the minimum qualifying investment in the account.

Cheltenham Gold account which put the first nail in the coffin of the Building Societies Association's interest rate car-

Competition between the

the largely defunct term share with the launch of its high yield, three-year term share paying which have long been paying

Smaller societies, many of 9.75 per cent.

tel - now totally demolished.

it was the launch of the stolen, and contents in the garden up to Details from Avon Insurance, Stratford-upon-Avon (Tel: 0789 204211).

Financial first

A group of London businessmen think it is time British investors were offered a way of channelling their money into sociatly beneficial enterprises, so it has launched the first "solcally and ecologically responsive venture capital service". The Financial Initiative.

Promoters of FIL say it offers an investment consultancy and mangement service to individuals, orgaizations and institutions who wish to see their investments generate wealth for the community as well as financial gain for themselves

Mr Giles Chitty, chief executive, said:
In the States and Europe, particularly Holland, there are a range of channels between which the socially conscious investor can choose, but in England there has so far been very little choice of this

FIL will act as brokers for equity Fit, will act as brokers for equity finance for socially and ecologically advantageous business, both new and going concerns. A Business Expansion-Fund will be established in due course. Details from The Financial Initiative. Yondover House, Stratford Toney, Slaisbury, SP5 4AT (Tel: 07227 223)

national societies, are fighting to maintain

Societies offering above average returns on accounts with no restrictions at all include the Wessex (ordinary shares - 9.4 per cent) Aid to Thrift (share account - 9.35 per cent) and Mornington Building Society (share account = 9.3 per cent).

On regular savings schemes, societies like the Sheffield are offering as much as 11.3 per cent though the account is restricted to those aged under 18. Hinckley and Rugby Self Service Shares – another regular regular savers.

den (04493) 287.

fiercely

INVESTMENT

Time to increase liquidity

Investors should consider increasing the liquidity in their portfolios, according to the stockbroker Sheppards and Chase.

Its latest newsletter to clients says: "The rally in the UK market has regained much of the lost ground but unless there further unexpectedly favourable interest rate developments, the best has probably been seen.

fundamentals "Economic will reassert themselves and clients should start to increase iquidity again".

The investment review along highlights a little known advantage in a married couple being taxed separately for Capital Gains Tax purposes.

It is widely known that a husband and wife can claim only £5.600 of exempt gains between them in the current tax year. What is not so widely appreciated, however, is that they can elect to be taxed, separately for CGT purposes, and that such an election can produce tactical benefits as far, as the carry forward of losses is concerned. Take, for example, the situation where a wife's port-folio contains a £5,600 capital. gain, and the husband's portfolio contains a £5.600 loss. If they are taxed jointly, no tax is payable but the gain will cancel out the loss as far as the future.

is concerned. if they are taxed separately, however, the wife's £5,600 gain is exempt, and the husband's loss can be carried forward for future use. This separate elec-

Strong dollar boosts trusts saving plan - is paying 10.85 per cent. while the Swindon Pormanent and Leeds United both offer 10.3 per cent to investment trusts continue to outperform the market with a rise in the Financial Times. Actuaries Investment Trust The message for building society savers is definitely, to shop around. And it is worth getting hold of a copy of Building Society Charce, which index of 176.9 per cent over the five years to July 31, 1984. compared with an increase of only 144.7 per cent in the FT Actuaries All Share index over societies is producing a rash of new schemes — this week National & Provincial revived the largely defined to the

the same period.
With 33 per cent of investment trusts' assets invested in North America, the strength of the dollar over sterling during July boosted the underlying asset values of investment trusts and helped to alleviate the falls on Wall Street.

TOP 20 FIVE YEARS TO ...

+259.7 +256.0 3roup -228.6

LIMITED ISSUE

9.8%=14%

TAX ADVICE

Guide for the non-expert published this week, aims to sidered. provide practical tax advice for the non-expert. The book sets out in detail how British tax liabilities are calculated and how they can be minimized by sensible planning but it does so in an uncomplicated manner. The guide explains the general principals of each of the main taxes and in the remaining chapters takes everyday commercial and personal stuations and highlights all the revelant

Tolly's Tax Guide 1984-85, taxes which must be considered.

As a general introduction to the tax system and a guide to some of the planning points which could easily be overlooked by the layman, it will be very useful although it will not replace the financial adviser for the more complex tax affairs.

*Tolly's Tax Guide 1984-85 is available in bookshops now, price £10.50 until September 15

BUILDING SOCIETY 1 YEAR BOND

10.6% = 15.14% to 30% tax payer Minimum investment £5,000

Michael Steed Registered Insurance Brokers, Dept T1, Freepost. 9A St Mary's Street, Stamford, Linca PE9 28R

CAN YOU AFFORD TO

OSE MONEY? The right investment portfolio for you depends on so many different factors that we question whether it is ever right to "do it yourself". Consider all of these factors - and you'll see what we mean:-

★ Unit trusts or investment bonds?

National Savings or a building society? ★ Life assurance or unit trusts for regular savings? * Pension planning — whether you're employed or

These are just some of the choices you have to make - and the wrong decision will cost you

To see if you are on the right lines, complete and return the coupon without delay. We'll send you a Confidential investment Brief, so that you can give us the information we need to conduct a confidential, independent appraisal of your investment position. There will be no charge for this service — which is offered without obligation.

To Reed Stenhouse Gibbs,

self-employed?

REEPOST, London SW1W OBR (no stamp required). Tel: 01 -730 8221.

Please contact me with a copy of your Confidential Investment Bnel

Tax Rate __ Date of Birth . Present liscome €. Lump sum amount available for investment E ___

Amount available for regular savings 🗈 🕳 Treetsed Dealer in Securities Group established in 1904-197 offices in 35 countries. Registered in Edmburgh No. 4798-miserable performance of household insurance business y the insurance companies. They make a paper loss on this sort of cover and keep doing it only because they can play the markets with the premium money before they have to pay it all out again in claims.

REED

And the losses suffered by the householder are reflected in the

Surprisingly, few insurance companies give householders any financial incentive to take sensible precautions such as security locks, bolts and burglar

Sun Alliance offers a 10 per cent discount on premiums for "good quality protection" (not necessarily a burglar alarm) on their up-market Firemark polwhich has a minimum contents cover of £20,000. The other discounts in the market are tied to a particular burglar alarm company. Comhill offers a 5 per cent reduction on premiums where Chubb alarms are fitted and the Economic through Life and General offers 10 per cent discount if you install Hoover burgiar alarms.

"The cost of verification has been one of the reasons why major insurers have not offered security discounts before," says Sun Alliance, "It remains a

Burglary has become so wide-spread that every 90 seconds a business, but Sun Alliance feels ouse is ransacked. that the higher sums insured under Firemark policies do ngless, until it happens to you. justify rewarding, the careful

Despite the discount, the Firemark policy is not the cheapest you can find. But, different policies are not strictly comparable - the Firemark offers lots of finils such as cover for money, travel tickets and credit cards and the replacement of locks if keys are lost or

A house in central London (but not in the area's highest risk parts) would rate a premium of £3.15 per hundred for high risk items and £1.08 for all other property with the security discount.

But under the TSB scheme which grades minimum cover according to the area and of the house - a four bedroom semidetached house in central London requiring a minimum of £20,000 cover would cost 75p per £100 for contents. For all risks cover you pay 60 per cent of the premium for 10 per cent of the cover (i.e. £90 for £2,000 cover which works out at £4.50 per £100).

The high risk rates at the Economic are 75p per £100 for contents, £2.50 per £100 all risks before the 10 per cent security discount.

Vivien Goldsmith

Insurance discounts at a premium answer to Budget

riendly societies have come out with revised schemes since their wings were clipped in the last Budget. The societies were required to cut the size of their schemes by more than half and both the Family Assurance and the Lancashire and Yorkshire have launched schemes up to the maximum allowable rates. The plans arm to give everyone over the age of 18 the opportunity to invest for 10 years in a scheme which gives them a maximum tax-free return on their savings. Investors can contribute £100 a year, or £9 a month with Lancashire and Yorkshire or £8.65 with Family Assurance. On the former plan, a lump sum investment is also available costing £766 for an individual, a discount of 25 per cent.

Further details available from: Lancashire and Yorkshire, Tel. 01-935 5566; Family Assurance on Brighton 671111.

SAVINGS Friendly

ing at least six copies costs

£10.95 and is available from

Research and Information, Riverside House, Rattlesdon, Suffolk, IP30 OSF, Tel: Rattles-

The first of the tax-exempt Lowland

The plans have the added bonus of giving automatic life cover of up to £750 per person, depending on age and state of health. On the Lancashire and Yorkshire scheme, for example a married couple saving £9 a month each for 10 years (assuming a 15 per cent growth rate) can expect to see their savings grow to £3,860, tax free.

Trust Crescent Japan GT Japan Berry Fleming Japanese Greenfriar Northern Secs Murray Income Edinburgh Amer Assets ondon & Gartmore English & Scottish

> leming Far Eastern London & Strathclyde Scottish Mortgage Flectric & General Drayton Japan Source: The Association of Invest-ment Trust Companies.

SIX MONTH TERM Minimum investment £2,000

MEDIATE WITHDRAW LEAMINGTON SPA BUILDING SOCIETY
PO BOX 1. Imperial House, Hidly Walt, Learnington Spa,
CV32 4QA, Tel: (19926) 27920

THE GROWTH OPPORTUNITY

Many investors overlook Europe. Yet, since the beginning of 1984. Europe has produced eight of the top ten best-performing stockmarkets in the world (according to the Investors Chronicle's latest survey). Spain topping the table with a gain of 41.1 per cent!

ON YOUR DOORSTEP

To enable investors to take advantage of this performance, Oppenheimer are launching their European Growth Trust at a fixed price of 25 pence per unit until 14th September. For further information, return the coupon without delay or telephone us on 01-236 3885.

To. Oppenheimer Trust Management Ltd., Mercantile House, to Canton Street. London EC4N 6AE. Please send me details of the Oppenheimer European Growth Trust.

Name Mr Mrs Mrss.

This advertisement is not an invitation to subscribe for or to purchase any securities

Thew Engineering Group plc (Incorporated in England under the Companies Acts 1948 to 1983 Number 993677)

Offer for Sale þν HARVARD SECURITIES LIMITED · (Licensed Dealer in Securities)

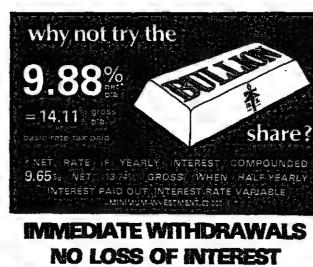

4,784,001 Ordinary shares of 1p each at 25p per share payable in full on application

The subscription lists will open at 10.00 a.m. on 3rd September, 1984 and will close at 3.00 p.m. on 12th September, 1984 No application has been or is proposed to be made for any part of the Company's share capital to be admitted to the Official List of

The Stock Exchange or to the Unlisted Securities market. Harvard Securities Limited has undertaken to make a market in the Ordinary Shares of the Company. Application forms and copies of the Prospectus dated 30th August, 1984 upon the terms of which alone applications can be made can be obtained from:

Harvard Securities Limited Harvard House 42-44 Dolben Street London SE1 OUQ 01-928 2661

TEACHERS'

Name (Mr/Mrs/Miss)... Shares and deposits in the Society are Trustee Investments Member of the Building Societies' Association.

CONTAINERWORLD SERVICES LTD HIGH INCOME PLAN Minimum Investment £2000 Containerworld Services Umited based in Southampton manage and operate a first class world wide container leasing service to the shipping industry and specialise in providing investors with a High Fixed Income with security For full details of this High Income Plan, complete and return the coupon today. CONTAINERWORLD SERVICES LIMITED
25 Queen's Terrace, Southcripton SOI 18G or letephone our London Office D1-499-5501

by return details of your High Fixed
•
26 1984 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985 1985

Tel No (work)... CONTAINERWORLD SERVICES LIMITED FREEPOST SOUTHAMPTON, 509 180

المكذا من الاصل

janville c

£2m tars

an sha

FAMILY MONEY

LEGAL EXPENSES

Cover that meets the cost of justice

conveyancing monopoly has forced a re-think among the legal profession about the levels of charges. The signs are that in the face of the likely incursion of banks, building societies and estate agents, solicitors are been self-financed. reducing their conveyancing

Morever, with the legal profession shortly to become free to advertise, charges should become more competitive. Nevertheless, litigation costs will still remain high and often be a strong deterrent discouraging aggrieved parties from seeking to enforce their legal

Until fairly recently, legal aid or substantial private resources provided the only financial incentives to pursue a claim. At least that was the position until legal expenses insurance became widely available

Those most likely to benefit from this insurance are people who do not come within the narrow financial limits for legal aid. But even if your finances do qualify you for legal aid this should not automatically lead you to discount legal expenses insurance altogether.

Legal aid is not all-embracing you cannot, for example, obtain legal aid for representation before an industrial

There are several reasons why you should consider legal expenses insurance. In the usual forum for resolving consumer disputes - county court arbitration for cases involving under £500 - each side normally has to bear its own costs, whatever the outcome.

Even in civil disputes too large to come within the arbitration scheme, awards of costs to the winner are rarely a full indemnity for one's outlay. The standard practice is for the losing party to pay approxima-tely two-thirds of the winner's costs, leaving the winner to pay the balance.

Moreover, in addition to indemnifying you for costs, insurance can often secure you a higher settlement for your claim than you would obtain had you

This is because the pressure on you to accept a lower settlement figure than your case merits is alleviated by the fact that the insurance company will be paying your come Low tactical offers of settlement the favourite ploy of litigants, particularly insurance companies - can be rejected until you receive a reasonable offer.

What will legal expenses insurance cover you for? Most companies will provide cover for practically any form of contentious issue, whether you contentious issue, are pursuing or defending the action

Consumer and employment disputes, personal injuries claims, motoring offences and accidents, landlord and tenant disputes - these are a few examples of areas where legal expenses insurers offer comprehensive cover.

But bear in mind that noncontentious matters such as conveyancing or probate charges will not be covered. And only limited cover is available for matrimonial disputes.

Premiums vary considerably is does the amount of cover offered so you must shop around, in addition all policies limit the amount of the indemnity against your legal

Take for example the family legal benefits policy marketed by Legal Benefits. Basic cover for costs of up to £5,000 is available for a premium of £80 per annum or £90 if you pay in monthly instalments.

The premium will provide cover for the policyholder and immediate family living in the home in respect of claims by or against them and not already

Taking cover: it pays to shop around for the best policy covered by existing insurances. This encompasses defending motoring offences, pursuing or defending disputes over the ownership of land, consumer claims and applications by employees to an industrial

Some companies offer specific policies to cover particular legal areas where problems frequently occur.

For an annual premium of £40 D.A.S. Legal Expenses Insurance will provide cover of up to £10,000 for homeowners who let their homees intending to reoccupy them later. This will cover the costs of pursuing claims for rent arrears, damage, and possession proceedings.
Such problems are common in short-term private lettings where having the law on your side often does not avoid months of expensive litigation. The D.A.S. poicy will also cover hotel expenses of £25 a day for days while the tenant unlawfully remains in occu-

Another useful facet of legal expenses insurance is the 24hour legal advisory service which companies such as Hambro Housely and Legal Benefits include in the insurance package. This gives policyholders free and instant eccess to legal advice over the telephone on practically any legal problem. Legal expenses insurance is available either as a seperate policy or as an optional extra to household insurance. There are also a host of commercial legal expenses policies for the company, sole trader or partnership, often providing group cover at discounted rates.

However, although legal expenses insurance may seem like a relatively inexpensive way of guaranteeing untroubled sleep at night, it certainly will not give you carte blanche to go litigation-crazy.

For a start the insurance companies invariably reserve the right not to accept a claim even where the subject matter falls squarely within your indemnity policy. If the company does not think you have a reasonable chance of success it will not provide the indemnity for your legal costs. In other words the company always has the final say, although you have to plough through the small print of the policies to discover

Moreover, once over this hurdle and into the realm of insured legal costs, you are never in full and final control of YOUR CASE.

Most policies oblige you to refer to the insurance company before your solicitor incurs sizable items of expenditure, such as barristers' fees, and all policies reserve the right to terminate cover should you not accept an offer of settlement which the company thinks is acceptable.

All policies also have specific exclusions which are more fully detailed in the policy itself rather than the promotional leastlet which you are sent at

Among the standard ex-clusions will be costs incurred in proceedings against you alleging dishonesty or inten-tional violence – unless, of course, you turn out to be

Furthermore you cannot take out legal expenses cover for impending lingation where you knew or ought to have known that you were likely to be involved in a claim at the time you took out the policy. If the claim materializes it will not be covered under your policy.

The moral must be that, if you are contemplating legal expenses insurance, shop around and always ask for a specimen policy

Further information may be had from D.A.S. Legal Expenses Insurance Co (Tel: 0272 290321); Hambro Housley Legal Protection (Tel: 0206 870570); Legal Benefits (Tel: 01-661 1491); and IRPC Legal and Personnel Insurance Services (Tel: 0455-614349).

Martin Griffiths

INSURANCE

'Unrealistic' projections criticized

Norwich Union has added its voice to the growing criticism of those life assurance companies which sell with-profit policies on the basis of unrealistic projections of future returns.

In recent years, the future projections by companies have been used increasingly by both intermediaries and clients as the yardstick by which to measure competing policies, said Mr Hugh Scurfield the managing director of Norwich Union life. These projections were often misleadingly high.

Many companies example, have been publishing projections for new 25-year endowment polices which anywhere between 30 and 50 per cent more than they are actually paying out on similar policies now.

One reason for this is that many companies base their terminal bonus projection on a percentage of their annual bonus figure, but there is no reason to suppose that annual bonus figures would stay at their high levels over 15 or 20 years, said Mr Scurfield.

The problem of projections has become particularly acute because rates of return on life company investments have been unusually high over the last few years. This has enabled companies to pay historically high bonuses. But to assume this rate of growth will continue over long periods - as the projections do-is unrealistic.

One obstacle is simply that the companies that do have a genuinely good investment record and can expect to do well in the future do not want any system which would not let them take full advantage of this

Richard Thomson

This superbly flexible plan offers a regular income completely free from income tax at the level you select plus excellent prospects of long term capital

You can choose to receive a fixed level of income or, alternatively, a percentage of the value of your investment. e.g. 71/2%, 10% ... even 121/2%, payable monthly or half

As well as an income free from income tax, you have excellent prospects of capital growth. Your money will be invested in the fund which has grown by a remarkable 1009% over the last seven years — outperforming every other unit trust (Money Management, April 1984).

Although past performance cannot necessarily be taken as a guide to the future, and unit values can go down as well as up, £10,000 invested in June 1976 increased to £112,681 (including reinvested income) by April 1984. Assuming your Capital Goins Tax allowance of £5600 is not exceeded.

BUSINESS EXPANSION SCHEME

Granville confident of hitting £2m target for third fund

Granville, the market maker Over-The-Counter shares, has launched its third fund in the crowded. Business Expansion Scheme field. - -

The fund aims to raise £2m by October 15, and in spite of the difficulty some funds have had in raising cash, Granville is confident of reaching its target. It believes that many inves-tors have been deterred by fears of difficulties in getting out of investments once the five years of tax relief are over... But Granville's own Over-

The Counter market, which matches buyers and seliers of shares in unquoted companies, gives a potential "in-house exit"

A company would have to be in a healthy shape to make it possible, but Granville is committed to making a market or persuading the managers to buy in shares. Granville's experience with unquoted companies gives it a track record, and indeed its last BES fund - 1984/5, invested £1.8m in seven companies, all of which are making profits.

But the seven companies, which are involved in greeting, cards, computer disk packs, self-assembly kitchens, boat accessories, animal feed, the Magnet division of BOC (a management buyout) and commercial video, were already profitable at the time of investment. the time of investment.
We look for attractive propositions without high risk". id the managing director, Mr Robin Hodgson.

The management charges

Robin Hodgson: avoiding risk

have been cut from 6 per cent-on the last BES fund to 4 per-cent, after complaints that the charges were too high.

Granville says that now it has experience in the BES field it can set up a fund more cheaply. For instance, forms of words have been agreed with the inland Revenue, which can be used again without protracted.

The minimum investment is £2,500, although the average investment made by the 300 investors in the last fund was between £6,000 and £7,000.

Britannia is launching a new fund this weekend which will be open for six weeks until October will be viable as long as it pulls in at least £500,000. Last year Britannia aimed for £2.5m, but received £1.4m.

The Britannia fund charges 5 per cent initially, plus a 5 pe cent exit fee based on the final value of the investment.

That means that we get rewarded if we do well - the client will be pleased and so will we," said Mr Richard Bagge, the marketing director of Britannia unit trusts.

Britannia, unlike most companies, does not reserve the option to take up shares in the companies in which it invests.

The funds have to be invested before the end of the tax year for investors to qualify for tax relief at their marginal rate. The later that funds leave their closing date the more difficult it will be to find quality investments.

Yet the funds have to balance this against investors' desire to hang on to their money as long as possible.
If investors buy in early they do not have a complete picture of their tax position for the year, and they forego interest, which instead accrues to the fund.

Vivien Goldsmith

BES FUNDS STILL OPEN

Closing data Sept 14 Sept 21 Sept 25 Oct 12 Oct 15

Second Yorkshire Fund (Capital for companies) Second Buckmaster Develop Second Minster Trust BEF

Can share prices go on rising forever?

Investors have seen major stock markets show exceptionally healthy growth over the last two years.

It must now be right to ask whether this growth will continue and if not, what walking implications be?

The investor with vision needs a. portfolio that looks beyond stocks and shares. He must protect himself against the unwelcome possibility of a downturn in share prices, by spreading his investment into other

This is where commodities become. important By prudent dealing in futures, money can be made in falling as well as rising

Successful commedity investment can generate profit even in a stormy economy. Of course, commodities have the reputation of being almost dangerously.

Certainly the pace and character of the commodity markets means that both gains and losses can be charmatic. Commodities are not for the timid or for the right budget. But as long as the world needs cottee and cocon, sugar and silver, then commodities will be traded.

And that creates an opportunity for investment that's very different from stocks

. If you would like to know more about that opportunity please contact us.

We have seats on every market and offices not only in England but also in the Channel Islands, Geneva and Sydney. Telephone Peter Bank on 01-480 6921.

(tolex 885346); or send the tourpon to: G.W. Joynson & Co Lrd., 14 Trinify Square, London EC3N 4ES.

To: C.W. Joynson & Cultd.

14 Trinny Square, London EC3N 4ES. (Telephone: 01-480 6921) Please send me more information about your

G. W. Joynson & Co. Limited Commodity Brokers since 1890.

New from Nationwide THE DOUBLE TOPCHOICE

Two ways to earn 9-46% worth 13-51%

New Bonus-90 for flexibility

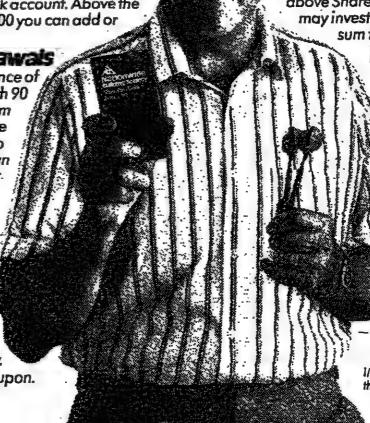

This new account pays the top rate of 9.25%, worth 13.21% to basic rate income tax payers. If you leave the six-monthly interest to be added to the account; it compounds to 9.46%, worth 13.51%.

With new Nationwide Bonus-90 you have the flexibility of a passbook account. Above the minimum investment of £500 you can add or withdraw as you wish. No-notice withdrawais

You have the reassurance of no-notice withdrawals, with 90 days' interest lost on the sum withdrawn. Or you can give 90 days' notice and lose no interest. In addition, you can withdraw without notice or penalty from balances above £10,000.

Monthly income With £3,000 or more invested you may take your interest as monthly

For top earnings with top flexibility invest in Nationwide Bonus-90 now. Please call in or use the coupon.

Capital Bonds for 1½% guaranteed extra

Nationwide Capital Bonds pay the top rate of 9.25%, worth 13.21% to basic rate income tax payers. If you leave the six-monthly interest to be added it compounds to 9.46%, worth 13.51%. Whatever happens to rates in the future, Nationwide Capital Bonds guarantee 11/2% extra above Share Account rate for three years. You may invest what you wish above £500: a fixed sum for a fixed term of three years.

No-notice withdrawals

There are no-notice withdrawals, with a loss of 90 days' interest on the sum withdrawn. Ór you can give 90 days' notice and lose nothing.

Monthly income

You may opt to take your interest as monthly income, even with the minimum investment of £500. For top earnings with quaranteed extra interest, invest in a Nationwide Capital Bond now. Please call in or use the coupon.

All rates quoted are variable, except the guaranteed extra on Capital Bonds.

To Nationwide Building Society, Investment Department, FREEPOST, London WC1V 6XA. I/We enclose a cheque for £. the accounts indicated (£500 to £30,000 or up to £60,000 in a joint account).

DBonus-90 account DCapital Bond ☐ Interest to be paid monthly

Address

Postcode

It pays to decide Nationwide

THE TIMES

Portfolio

STOCK EXCHANGE PRICES

Firm end to account

THE TIMES

DAILY £4,000 Claims required

WEEKLY DIVIDEND £60,000 Claims required for

ACCOUNT DAYS: Dealings Begin, Monday. Dealings End. Sept 14. § Contango Day. Sep 17: Settlement Day, Sep 24. § Forward bargains are permitted on two previous days. for #121 points +39 points You must always have your card available FOODs Nurdin & Peacoc Glass Glo Und Re 17.0 25.6 28.6 8.4 40.0 46.4 3.9 Guerra GKN Kersh BUILDING AND ROADS INDUSTRIALSS-Z ● -4 ■ -4 +3 OVERSEAS TRADERS E-K 如何的对象的16号(16号),这个人的,我们是一个人的,我们是一个人的,我们是一个人的,我们也是一个人的,我们也是一个人的,我们也可以是一个人的,我们也可以是一个人的, 16号,我们们也是一个人的,我们们也是一个人的,我们就是一个人的,我们也是一个人的,我们也是一个人的,我们就是一个人的,我们就是一个人的,我们就是一个人的,我们 Pmp & Rev FINANCE AND LAND 43 65 PAPER, PRINTING, ADVERT'G はいないないのはいないのは、 -15 +1 -18 INSURANCE Weekly Dividend FINANCIAL TRUSTS Phrase make a note of your daily totals to the weekly dividend of £60,000 in today' Newspaper. Claimants should ring 0254-53272 BRITISH FUNDS PROPERTY FOODS 10.458 10.467 10.667 10.567 10.934 11.145 11.258 11 LEISURE STATES AND STATES. CHEMICALS, PLASTICS 2517674347772366336683566835668 | The color of the 10 M 95", 16", 106", 94", 94", 45", 100", 59", 100", 59", 97. 1983 117. 1989 97. 1989 107. 1989 107. 1989 10.316 11.831 10.288 11.042 10.742 90°1 90°1 95°1 11.956 11.809 11.865 11.859 11.886 73 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 127 | 1 Johanne & FB
Johnson & FB
Johnson & FB
Johnson & FB
Johnson
Jose & Brigania
Jose & Brigania
Jose & Brigania
Jose & Brigania
Kalenazzo
Kalenazzo
Kalenazzo
Karatar
JA
Rackan (Plot Taylo
Count-6-7b 100 A 0.7 0.9 1 (15.27 7 0.23 9 0.23 9 0.23 Ang year Ang year Ang year Ang year Ang Guide And To Anglowalla And To Anglowalla And To Anglowalla 100分類分析技術の場 のはいるのではないので 79 122 40 184 60 187 41 187 42 60 60 170 60 150 60 的方式而是不能够到方式的最近的10万万种的有名的语言的 Hindon (Hrinas)
Horne Ferris
Lens (Hrinas)
Lones (Hrinas)
Lones (Hrinas)
Lones (Hrinas)
Heathwes (Hrin 214324 のでは、他のでは、これのでは、これのでは、これのでは、他のないでは、他のないでは、他のないでは、他のないでは、他のないでは、これでは、これでは、これではないできない。 これではないないできない。 これのないできない はいかん これのない これのな 11,847 10,162 11,829 8,416 8,416 11,914 11,847 11,879 11,879 11,879 11,879 11,872 11,873 11,8 1990 1990 1990 1997-4 1997-1 1997-1 1997-1 1992 1992 1992 1993 1993 1993 1994 1994 530 54 54 54 54 54 54 54 54 50 100 64 ,但是他们是4万的打成是自己从于不断了眼睛中的4万里的,是在这种不是在这种不是一种,我们是一种,我们是一种,我们是一种的一种,我们是一种的一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们是一种是一种,我们也可以是一种,我们 新年级的上面各名大学的中国的专辑中国的名词形式在大学中中的政治性中的主题中上的现在中国的主题的各种的现在分词的计算可用的对数。 1997年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,1998年,19 77年到前天光光光色说来到77年代的前期中还以为性心的交易需要为关键被读《书书》对话的"说"都看这一个个人说话的现在分词,不是这种的"不是这种的"的"我们是这种的"我们 CINEMAS AND TV HOTELS AND CATERERS 10.7 6.4 17.1 16.8 11.6 1.7 0.1 177 78 270 274 156 30 155 14.9 13.3 9.6 12.0 7.4 11.8 15.2 のである。日本のでは、日 Trease Gas riaccercoseces estaces estaces and expensive e $25 360 2985 360 80 80 129 134 78.8 9.5 13.8 12.4 78.9 14.7 16.4 17.8 27.1 DRAPERY AND STORES 5115144200 141504776551668844655522150650854221586495555521402440245756854435122354576855443512535440455555240 更新明明的时间, 更为对于多处计算是多种的第三人称单数不同的的有效处理,这个人们的现象工物和自己的政治,也不是这种的方式和非常的非常是一种的计算,并不是为了这种人的特别的 《如果作品》,是我们不是我们的"我们的"我们的"我们的",我们们们们的"我们们",我们们们们的"我们",我们们们们们们们的"我们",我们们们们们们们的"我们", INDUSTRIALS A-D AAAI
AGG Pleasearch
AAI
AGG Pleasearch
AAI
APV Aerovisori
Arva
Aerovisori
Aerovisori
Aerovisori
Aerovisori
Aerovisori
Aerovisori
Aerovisori
Aerovisori
Aerovisori
Bestori
Arva
Bestori
Bestori Anneo Br Ports
Br Commonweal
Caledoria
Fisher (Jemes)
Graig
Hurbing Gibson
Jensbis (M)
LOPS
Lyte Lives
Lives
Cosson Trainingorit
P & O Did
Restriction (Webse)
Turntist Boots
Turntist Boots 250 220 200 136 700 103 61 87 113 480 486 186 186 177 98 813 103 22 3 37 109 315 34 91 司 (権) 計 (権) (権) (() () () ・ 1000年 10 SHOES AND LEATHER $2 42 156 107 75 49 450110 62 450110 62 66 45 72 50 64 107 64 75 62 64 15 214 242 168 45 194 133 57 238 171 9:::7::: 195 145 39 160 93 65 140 94 198 104 96 1477 70 98 80 27000 Vid punce % P/E

97 63 11
16.8 4 225
41 37 67
19.5 42 13.9
19.5 42 13.9
19.5 42 13.9
19.5 43 13.1
19.5 60 65
19.6 43 13.1
19.5 60 65
19.6 43 13.1
19.5 60 65
19.6 43 13.1
19.5 60 7 65
19.6 43 13.1
19.5 60 7 65
19.6 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
19.5 13.1
1 TEXTILES 6 A: 1.4. March. 26574775766926767372682889656515557140755225365 25年出版的50年前,20年出版 19年1年 1 MOTORS AND AIRCRAFT Alland-Lycotan
Basel Basel
Basel Basel Refrance
Basel Refrance
Basel Refrance
Basel Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel
Basel 明·467月16日,1900年1900年1900年1900日,1900年1900日,1900年1900日,1900年1900日, 25 27 188 527 AE

Acquiryard

Antagon Molec

Antagona Molec

Antagona

Antagona

Antagona

Barrai

Barrai

Barrai

Barrai

Conte (1)

Devis(Godins)

Devis(Godins)

Devis

Conte (1)

Devis(Godins)

Devis

Conte (1)

Devis(Godins)

Devis

Agent Reference

Graph Reference

Graph Reference

Graph Reference

Graph Labor

Hengia

H +1 -3 -1 -5 13.5 8.9 8.4 10.1 7.9 84 87 84 87 84 87 87 250 42 118 84 207 • Sale Tang Sale T 的数日本日初日与通名的景况的现在分词,因此为《新兴园》 BANKS DISCOUNT HP Allied Irish Accidentive (New)
Accidentive (New)
Accidentive (New)
Accidentive (New)
Berk Of Instance
Berk Of Instance
Berk Of Scotland
Berk Of Scotland
Berk Of Scotland
Berk Of Scotland
Cattles
School J Rittschild
College
Content School
Content ELECTRICALS 65 17 12 13 32 11 15 19 15 67 21 11 67 21 15 80 93 25 26 21 +3 41 TOBACCOS よれな数十. 本品 176 133 110 大大大 大大小な 258 252 260 260 261 354 対象が可能は

صكدًا من الملاصل

Cricket: Old rivals meet in NatWest final at Lord's while Nottinghamshire edge closer to county championship

Gatting could tip the balance in the direction of Middlesex

Frophy at Lord's today between remission for the guilty): Ed-Middlesex and Kent offers monds, I fancy will go to India about as appealing a match as the sponsors could wish for. I suppose a northern element might have added something has not been or will not more to it, but the game we become a Test cricketer. Nine more to it, but the game we have has no lack of flavour and brings together some of the best young players in the game, as well as such old favourites as Radley, Knott and Underwood,

There are factors which favour Middlesex, not least that for them it is a borne fixture, and others which point to Kent. In the end the conditions could be crucial. A bright day and bony pitch would suit the faster. potentially more hostile Middlesex bowling. If the ball seams and swings around, it should be to Kent's advantage.

Except for Alderman, the Kent side are home-grown. Kent and their Australian bowler have struck up a good relationship. After a slow start to the season Alderman has done them very well, and the two parties will have taught each other no bad habits.

In the Middlesex side are five players of West Indian extraction. The match does have fringe similarities with the Test series. As fierce a spell of fast bowling as I have seen this season was by Daniel, for Middlesex against Lancashire, in the quarter-finals of this competition. Kent have nothing to match that. But Middlesex have no one to compare with Alderman and Ellison should September mists make it a cobwebby sort of day.

Also playing are the two best slow left-arm bowlers in England, Underwood and Edmonds. Underwood, I expect, will be back in the England side next scason (he probably would be now it, like most

The final of the NatWest societies, cricket practised a this winter, after a period in the wilderness. There is, in fact, hardly anyone in the match who of the Middlexsex side already

> Both sides are unpredictable, though Middlesex do not always give the impression of being as closely knit as Kent. When they met at Lord's in the Benson and Hedges Cup final early in the season, Kent were vastly more impressive. Next day, in the John Player Sunday League, Middlesex won. Having beaten Somerset at Taunton in the NatWest quarter finals, Kent, with half an attack, were given a hammering by the same Somerset side on Thursday.

The bookmakers have made Middlesex the short-priced favourites. It looks more evenly balanced than that to me, if only because Middlesex depend so heavily on one man, their captain, for a winning total. Gatting has been the inspiration of most of their best performances this season

These are seldom easy occasions, anyway, for captains. In the general commotion, communication on the field can be difficult, and there is the problem, if the toss is won, of deciding whether to give one's bowlers the advantage of the pitch's morning life at the risk of batting in the dark. In eight of the last 10 years the side batting second has won the final. Kent did so in 1974 and Middlesex in 1980. Neither Kent nor Middlesex have won since NatWest became the competition's sponsors in 1981. Whoever wins today, English

cricket should be seen in a

Saturday. There will not be the same lack of conviction and enterprise as there was then. Play starts at 10.30 and all the tickets have been sold. Anyone wanting a drink had better bring his own.

The Tavern bar, one of the three that serves the public, will be closed for the day. Many speciators, no doubt, have had their day ruined in recent finals by the mindless behaviour of a better light than in the Test few drunken hoodlums on the mate against Sri Lanka last Tavern forecourt. It is a sad commentary on the times, however, when one of the ground's most famous features. an important facility and, in the past the focal point of so much fun, has had to go. A temporary stand has been built for today below the Tavern boxes.

MiDDLESEX (from): "M W Getting, G D Barlow, W N Slack, C T Raciey, R O Bulcher, the R Downton, P H Edmonds, J E Embury, S P Hughes, N F Williams, N G Cowans, W W Daniel, J Carr. Umpires: B J Meyer and H D Bird.

KENT (from): "C J Tavaré, M Fl Benson, N R Taylor, D G Asiet, C S Cowdray, G W Johnson, †A P E Knott, D L Underwood, T M Alderman, K B S

Alderman hopeful

Brian Luckhurst, Kent's manager, said yesterday that Terry Alderman was responding to treatment and was expected to be fit for today's NatWest Gloucestershire's only chance of survival lay with the overnight battmen, Russell and Graveney. In the second over of the morning, however, le Roux bowled a yorker at Russell which struck him full on the

Russell hobbled off, Lawrence and Jones a career-best five for 29.

Jones was impressive. He takes a long run, but gets to the crease by the shortest route, in his action, and his eagerness, he is reminiscent of Peter Lever, formerly of Lancashire and England. Gloucestershire's batsmen, admittedly a forlorn lot, were regularly discomfitted by him.

MOTOR CYCLING

Heat is off for new champion

From Michael Scott

Mugello

With Freddie Spencer still absent, the new world champion, Eddie Lawson, was playing it cool in the baking Italian sunshine yesterday, content to let his Honda rivals set

he pace in the San Marino Grand

However, the quiet Californian did not rule out fireworks in the final grand prix of 1984, although he

with his title already secure.

afford not to finish the race,

Barry Sheene was back in the saddle three weeks after he was

Prix practice circuits.

injured in Sweden.

has an answer to Marks

By Peter Marson

TAUNTON: Somerset (6pts) drew Somerset briefly caught the scent of victory here vesterday, when Vic Marks put in his best bowling performance taking eight for 141, as Kept were rounded up in their second innings for 314, Aslett alone second innings for 314. Aslett alone had been equal to Mark's examination in 45 searching overs. In an excellent innings of 152 in 216 minutes, in which he hit a six and 20 fours. Asient gave Kent's innings substance until be became the seventh wicket to fall at 285, by which time his side had moved into a lead of 81 runs. Marks. with Booth's belp, then smartly polished off the remainder for 314 and with 13 overs to go that left Somerset with a barget of 111 runs to win.

with a target of 111 runs to win.

Somerset's nine runs in the first over meant they were goig at the required rate, but Waterton and Underwood combined to bring down Botham in the second over and with Topplewell and Crowe falling to catches. Kent had done enough. Somerset conceded with two overs remaining, 48 runs short. two overs remaining, 48 runs short.
Somerset had batted on in the morning and Underwood received compensation for some unusually rough handling on the previous day when he caught and bowled Gard. KENT: First lenings 290 (N R Taylor 139, | T Bothers 5 for 57).

V Johnson e Popplevell b M I Taylor How b Marks I V Vassenon e Gand b Boot Underwood How b Marks I Masters b Marks I S Jayve not out

FALL OF WICKETS: 1-15, 2-38, 3-34, 4-45,

Only Aslett Middlesex frustrate Essex but give Nottinghamshire joy

CHELMSFORD: Essex (8 pts) drew with Middlesex (4).

To the understandable disap-pointment of the home crowd, Middleses gave priority yesterday to saving their match with Essex, which they did very comfortably. rather than making even a passing attempt to win it. As a result. Nothinghamshire must now be firm favourites to win the county nic Assurance.

They are only one point behind Essex and have a match in hand. If Nottinghamshire win one of their lan two games that should be enough, though neither Sussex at Hove nor Somerset at Taunton will be a pushover.

Yesterday's match was allowed to become a larce, and it should not have been. Fletcher's declaration, leaving Middleses to score 340 to win at approximately three and half runs an over, erred, perhaps, on the cautious side. Except when Gooch was in, no one had scored freely and also confidently on the first two days, and, to win, Middlesex would have had to make the highest total of the match. It was a tallish order.

of the match, It was a tallish order.
On the other hand, Fletcher so manipulated the play that by teatime he had cajoled Middlesox into a position from which it seemed well worth their while to have a go. Forty overs remained and Middlesex, needing another 193 to win, still had nine wickets left. Stack was in the questies with Gamine vel. was in the nuncties, with Gatting yet to come.

For all I know, Middlesex had an old score to settle, and the chance to frustrate Essex, as they did, was too good to miss. Or they may, I suppose have thought they owed it suppose have thought they owed it to Nottinghamshire to do nothing foothardy. At the same time, they have their own position in the championship to think of (there is £3,500 to be won by the side finishing third) as well as their members. They could have made an effort to win last night and at the same time and little side of losing.

effort to win last night and at the same time run little risk of losing. In the first hour yesterday Essex added 57 runs to their overnight 176 for 1 while losing three more wickets. At lunch Middlesex were 31 without loss. An hour afterwards Fletcher dangled his first carrot, bringing Lever on to bowl some orthodox, left-arm spin. With it Lever took his 100th championship wicket of the season when he had Barlow caught in the covers. By tea Fletcher had begun to taunt Middlesex with some high droppers of his own. But it was to no avail. of his own. But it was to no avail. Gatting's mind was made up.

G A Gooch b Cowers

C Gladelin run out
P J Prisonni I b-e b Coven
R S LacE-en o Embury b C
D R Princip not out
K W R Flatcher not out
Extras (b 4, l-b 14, n-b 7) BOWLING: Williams 14-1-47-0; 14-1-58-3; Hugher 12-0-68-0 2-0-11-0; Emburey 3-0-24-0.

Tactics 'amaze' Fletcher

Essex's captain, Keith Fletcher, chared himself amazed that Niddlesex made no attempt to chase the 340 target he set them in 95 overs. "I just couldn't understand Aliddlesex's tacties", he said. "They should have at least made the

Middlesex's captain, Mike Gat-Mindresex's captain, Pinke Car-ting, said: "If Essex wanted to win that badly they should have provided as with more incentive, A target of 310 in around 100 overs would have been much more realistic."

Championship table

Kent vice-captain under scrutiny for England tour place

Young Cowdrey makes a name for himself

In recent years, the NatWest would ask why I did'nt score 1983, in Christopher's finest father," they used to tell him in HOVE Sussex (23 pts) bear Glouces-ton Gillette) final has become any runs coming from my season yet, after seven years on Yorkshire. Perhaps not – but he played for England.

Sussex put a swift but not exactly whater's tour. A century or five score, they expected it. They wickets can secure an England place, Today, England's selec-tors will concern themselves in particular with a Cowdrey, A slimmer version than Colin, this one, sharper in his out-cricket and a different version altogether at the crease. But there is much in a name, and much in this name that is more of a hindrance than a help.

Christopher Cowdrey has gone much of the way towards overcoming the handicap stowed upon him at birth. When he joined Kent's staff, aged 17, straight from school, he was under no illusions as to what was expected of him. "I shall not mind", he said, "if I'm not as good as my father, so long as

I'm good enough." It was always unlikely that he would be as good as Colin Cowdrey, who possessed a gift for games that bordered on genius. It makes Christopher's achievement in becoming a recognized cricketer in his own right all the more laudable. There were occasions when Kent's followers, accustomed to success at the time Christopher-joined the staff, did not help. "It I was out for a duck, people seemed to think I was in the side only because of my father.

"Subconsciously, I aitered my an off-side batsman so

Cowdrey has overcome the handicap of being a famous son to develop a fine technique aged over 50.

This summer he has followed the path his father trod, back in but they are inevitable. The yesterday, Victory was always going most obvious difference between to be a formality and Gloucester-the Cowdreys is that whereas shire must have hoped that Sussex Colin persuaded the ball to the would do what they had to as but they are inevitable. The 1952. his first representative match was also for MCC, and boundary, Christopher is look-humanely as possible. ing always to propel it. The elegance of the former has biven four second innings wickets in hand. he went on to win more than 100 England caps. Is his son, now way o the adaptability of the 26, and Kent's vice-captain, good enough to follow him? He latter in a different era and a

Colin was a specialist slip however, i fielder. These days, with so much limited-overs cricket, he left analysis would need to be competent away from the bat as well, as his son is. He might even be bowled by Jones. The dismissals of required to bowl, although Walsh and Gravency — who had probably something more conprobably something more containing than the leg-spin at followed with equal rapidity.
which he was once onte adent. Le Roux finished with four for 24 which he was once quite adept. Christopher, of course, has always been a useful medium-

A most likeable person, with perhaps more in common with his father than is generally nght, Christopher has already captured a Kent side in which his youngest brother, Graham, was playing. One day he intends to write the definitive biography of his family. His grandfather, who named Colin in the initials of MCC, certainly started something.

Sussex bring painful Hampshire in party business to an end mood beat Yorkshire gressive, disciplined cricket, and in Colin Wells and Parker have two batsmen at the peak of their form. SUBSEC: First Innings 345 for 5 dec (P W 0 Parter 140, C M Webs 121; J N Shepherd 4 for GLOUCESTERSHIRE: First snings 137 () A Gratg 4 for 50).

Graig 4 for 50).

Second Innings

A W Stovoid b is Roux.

P W Romaines c Gould b is Roux.

C W J Anys b Graig.

P Beinbridge b Parker b Jones.

A J Wright c Gould b is Roux.

J N Shepherd c Gould b Jones.

18 C Russell b Jones.

TO A Gravensy i-b-v b is Roux.

D Y Lawrence c Graig b Jones.

G E Seinsbury not out.

Extres 6 3.1 b 1. w 8. b-b 8.

FALL OF WICKETS: 1-0, 2-8, 3-11, 4-14, 5-15, 8-07, 7-113, 8-120, 9-121, 10-180

TODAY'S FIXTURES

Natwest bank trophy final LORD'S: Middlesex v Kent (10.30, 60

Tour match SCARBOROUGH: DB close XI v Sri Lankers (12.0 to 7.0) John Player League (2.0, 40 overs)
DERBY: Derbyshire v Essex
SOUTHAMPTON: Hampshire v Notting-

It is hard to see Gloucestershire improving on their lowly position next season without reinforcing their batting. The absence of Zaheer has been keenly felt, although it was grit, as much as class, that was needed here. Surrey EDGBASTON: Warwickshire v Glamorpan WORCESTER: Worcestershire v Kent needed here. Sussex, meanwhile, played ag-

BCWLING: In Flour 16.4-3-4, Jones 15-5-29-5; C M Wells 5-1-22-0; Greig 12-2-24-1; Resve 5-3-13-0.

TOMORROW

TRENT BRIDGE: Nottinghamshire v

The Asda Challenge may not have the resonance of the national

SCARBOROUGH: Hampshire beat

one-day competition's, but in fact it is one of the most demanding titles to win in the season It was a challenge Hampshire met with panache, partying longer and better than anyone and showing the same zest on the field to entertain a

6,000 crowd on the final day. The present team are obviously in-heritors of the tradition set by Ingleby-Mackenzie in the sixties. who laid down a strict curfew: "I insist they are in bed by breakfast

It was all too much for Yorkshire, vhose decision to bat in yesterday's final rebounded badly,

Yorksbire's consolation less Carrick claiming the bowling award for his five for 13 in the semi-final against-

Warwick v Sri Lankans

BRI LANKANS: First Imings 301 for 7 dec S A R Sive 161 not out). Second Innings
S A P Silvs c Dyer b Humpage
D M Von Hegt & Tedetone b Lethbridge
TD S B Kuruppu I-b-w b Lethbridge
R S Madugale not out

S Madugate not out 51 Ransturgs c P A Smith b Humpage 13 R Ratinsyste not out 12 Extras (b 2, Hb 4, n-b 12) 18 Total (5 wide deci ... Total (s with old)

A de Silve, S D Annesin, M M Yusuf and A D A Samarasyske did not bet.

BOWLING: P A Smith 11-2-40-1; Well
7-2-28-0; Leithbridge 11-1-53-2; Ferrain
5-1-22-0; Morton 11-2-32-0; Humpage
8-0-44-2; Dyer S-0-38-0.

Total (7 wids, 50 gyans) 219 M.C.J. Micholas & Sharp b Boyo Total (3 wkis, 47.1 overs). BOW INC Standardos 10.3-27-2 Jervia 8.1-1-50-1; Mason 8-0-34-7; Obtain 10-0-33-0; Garrick 10-0-41-0; Boycott 2-0-13-1.

G Boycolt o Parks b Connor M D Moxon e Pocock b Con

"tD L Bairstow b Retion

Carrick not put

Second Innings
R I H B Dyer c Silva b Ramayeke
K D Smith b Samera Ramayeke K D Smith b Samarawayako
D L Amiss c Ramahanga b Samaranayako
P A Smith b Ramayako
G W Humpega b Ramahanga
A I Kalikharran b Ramayako
A M Ferreira c Samaranayako b Ramayako
C Labbridga not out.
Extras (b 2, Hb 8, n-b 5)

Total (7 wicts).... S Weil and W A Morton did not but. BOWLING: Ratnsyette 21.2–2-93–4; Same-ransyske 29–0-95–2; Yusuf 3–0-19-0; Ranatunga 5–0-26–1

Umpires: C Cook and N T Plews

Lloyd makes more progress

John Lloyd, Britain's leading Gerulaitis said he would bet his player, has advanced to the last 32 house the Martina Navratilova men. There is no comparison", of the United States singles could not beat the man ranked Mrs Lloyd added. "My brother championship for the fifth time. In 100th in the world. Currently that the second round, as in the first, he beat a more highly-ranked player in straight sets. His victim yesterday, Libor Pinek, is still learning the trade – especially on hard courts – and did not look in the same class.

Lloyd beat him 6-2, 6-1, 6-2. The match was fougher than the score match was tougher than the score suggests. The clear-cut margin arosi because Lloyd played the important points better than Pimek. Lloyd had a run of 11 consecutive games. At 30 Lloyd is playing the most consistently competent tennis of his career and, as his record indicates, is very much at home in the environment of Flushing Meadow. The courts here are medium to fast in page and provide a true bounce. All that suits Lloyd's game, which reflects his forthright, restlessly active nature. He likes to get on with the job. Americans respond to that. They also respond to his handsome, clean-limbed bearing and the fact renowned and respected com-

Pimek, aged 21, is one of three Czechoslovaks ranked amone the 28 leading players. The others are Ivan

100th in the world. Currently that happens to be Derek Tarr, of South Africa. Miss Navratilova reckoned she would "have a shot" and suggested that men at that level would not want to play her if they were restricted to only one service. Chris Lloyd said Miss Navrau-

This futile exercise in comparing the incomparable is interesting only because it could, if the money is right, lead to another "battle of the sexes." Bobby Riggs, remember, beat Margaret Court but lost to Billie Jean King.

RESULTS FROM FLUSHING MEADOW

Perkiss (Isr) bt J Matthe and E Sharbeck (US), 6-3, 6-3; M Edmondson and S Sharent (Aus) by Kretzmann (Aus) and B Levine (US), 6-4, 6-4; 6 Sarbosa (Br) and J Fillol (Choie) bt S Colombo and G Ostoppo (to. 6-2, 6-3; 5 Davis and B Testerman (US) bt B Lutz and S Smith (US), 6-2, 6-4.

WOMEN'S DOUBLES: First round: L Alien and K Sheefer (US) bt P Louis and H Ludioff (US), 6-2, 5-7, 6-3; S Mascarin and K Rhadid (US) bt. Fe; S Graff (WG) and T Phelps (US) bt. H Crows and K Stalmestz (US), 6-1, 7-6; B Nagusten and A White (US) bt A and K Holion (US), 6-2, 7-8; P Barg and B Gerken (US) bt. P Fundick and J Hattheringoon (US), 6-3, 6-4; L Antonopits and B Mould (US) bt Y Brzakova (Cz) and P Huber (Aus), 6-1, 6-3. Thursday's late results
MEN'S SINGLES: Second round: M Witander
(Swe) bi M Kures (US), 7-8, 6-3, 6-4, 7 Caph
(Aus) bi B Gilbert (US), 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, T

volutions Sandiuse Second round: C Lioyd (US) bit 7 Holiaday (US), 6-1, 6-1; P Delhese (Switz) bit P Keppelder (WS), 6-0, 7-6: M Jasovoc (Yag) br A Hernfeldson (US), 6-1, 7-6; A Mimer (Aus) br M Skuthersto (Cd, 6-2, 6-1; S Hernika (WS) bt K Stromsta (Cd), 6-3, 8-2; M s risines (WG) bit K Sicronoles (C2), 6-3, 6-2; M Navratilove (15) bit A Learnd (US), 6-4, 6-2; B Burga (WG) bit I Budarova (C2), 2-6, 7-5, 6-1; M Gurney (US) bit R Cassis (US), 6-0, 6-3; P Huber (Austrie) bit C Anderholm (Swe), 7-5, 6-0; B Gadusek (US) bit P Cassis (US), 2-8, 6-3, 6-6; B Moutd (SA) bit G Rush (US), 5-2, 6-4; K Gomperi (US) bit B Gerken (US), 6-2, 6-1; A White (US) bit E Inova (Jepan), 6-3, 4-6, 7-5.

Favourites fall to Ireland

From George Ace,
Dublin
Ireland turned the form book upside down in the European youth team solf championship at the team golf championship at the Hermitage Club, Dublin, yesterday, when they defeated the reigning champions, and pro-tournament favourites, Scotland by the decisive margin of five and a half matches to one and a half: The foundations for the surprising win were laid in the morning loursomes with Ireland winning both matches. In the top match, one of rare quality in anything but pleasant conditions, with a strong wind posing numerous problems. Murphy and M'Henry were two under par in defeating Montgomeric and Vannet one up. Carvill and O'Connell ended a titanic struggle against Easingwood and Buchan on the 20th with a par four after Essingwood punched an eight-iron second, from a difficult lie, into a greenside bunker. Iteland booked a semi-final place against Sweden by winning the first two singles, with Murphy defeating Montgomerie two and one, and O'Connell winning the battle of the feenagers by a similar margin against Vanner, the current British against Vanner, the current british boys' champion. It is current british boys' champion. Indian 19:: Seamainess (related names first Polymond 19:: Seamainess (related names first Polymond 19:: Seamainess (related name first Polymond 19:: Seamainess (related name 2 for Polymond 19:: O'Conneg by Vanner 2 Mortgomeris 2 and 1; O'Conneg by Vanner 2 for 19: Territory but to C Brooks 2 and 1; I North at Essinguoud one hole. Registed Only 19: Seamainess (Carvell best to C Brooks 2 and 1; I North at Essinguoud Ore hole. Registed Only 19: Seamainess (Polymond Chapter) 2 and 1; I North at Duris not to R Nasson ad S Boort one hole. Seamainess (Saidford by M Boort one hole. Seamainess (Saidford by M Boort one hole. Seamainess (Saidford by S Boort one hole. Seamainess (said by S Boort one hole.)

game. My father was primarily concentrated more on playing to leg. It put me back, and it has taken time to iron out my technique. In the last year I have played straighter and developed my shots to the off." This approach resulted, in lated, means he is observing the basic rules of golf, which are to look at the ball, keep the head still and swing slowly. Since Anderson is now 54 usder par for his 14 rounds

- in Dublin, York, Frankfurt and here on the Crans-sur-Sierre course over the last five weeks, it must be

Moreover, as he freely admits, he has become one of life's great survivors. In 1927, his first season from which he stepped with three ribs cracked and twice as many again severely bruised. Two years later he was "schmozelled" in a boat which he was piloting, on the St Lawrence when another wassel rammed into his at more than 20 knots. Then, last year, he was involved in another raod accident when a car travelling at 50mph careered into his own. He and his wife Barbara, stepped out un-

"I've started to feel like a cat with nine lives, says the 28-year-old from Toronto. So I've only got six to go and I better do something

When Aderson turned professional there were many observers in Canada who considered it to be madness. His record as an amateur suggested that his future was far the Midas touch.

repted that he currenlty possesses

Anderson moves out in front

From Mitchell Platts, Crans Montana

Jerry Anderson not only owned. from bright. He, however, was the outright lead after the second round of the European Masters, importantly, work to succeed. It is ponsored by Ebel, yesterday – he also introduced a new vocabulary to the game. After attaching a 66 to his.

Anderson modelled his game on the German Open. Bernard Langer, in spite of being involved in a rules decision when he are compared to gamble, and, more task in tyrus to go one better than last week when he was runner-up in the German Open. Bernard Langer, in spite of being involved in a rules decision when he Anderson modelled his game on the fiming of Bruce Crampton; the rhythm and smoothness of Julius Boros. In truth he resembles Lee penalty, put towards one-shor both in characteristics. asso introduced a new vocability to the game. After attaching a 66 to his first round of 63 for a halfway aggregate of 129, which is 15 under par, the chunky Canadian revealed the secret behind his astonishing both in character and in the manner he fades the ball from left to right. transformation from an everyday journeyman to the player they all I'm just keeping my eye on the Chigu sucker and accelerating through," explained Anderson. Which, trans-

He grew up playing on the Chiguacousy course at Brampton, half an hour from Toronto, and since that course is built on the side of a hill be clearly feels at home here more than 4,500th high in the Alps. In two rounds Anderson has dropped only one shot and, with four birdies and an eagle vesterday he moved into a three-stroke lead over the former US. Open champion, Hubert Green, who was round

Howard Clark (71) is only one stroke further. LEADERS: Alter second round, (35) sniets stated; 128: J Anderson (Cart), 63: 86: 12: H Green (US), 67: 68, 134: H Cart 63, 71: 136: J Cartizares (Sp.), 58, 68; 134: H Cart 63, 71: 136: J Cartizares (Sp.), 58, 57: 136: M Mannest (sp., 59, 67: J Jacobs (US), 67: 68; M Pinero (Sp.), 56, 71; J Gorzalez (Br.), 70; 56: 137: P Terrevision (US), 72; 65: A Raffery 71, 66: N Restricte (Auct, 65, 72; B Davis Plus), 68, 68: S Torracca 50; 71; S Béshop 71, 67; A Garrido (Sp.), 56; 71; E Pottand 69, 68; A Forstband (Sws), 70; 67: B Charles (RZ), 67, 71; 136: M James 59, 58; J Band (SA), 68, 72; 136: C Cox 68, 71; M Gardia (Sp.), 73; 68; H Satocons (SA), 59, 77; R Lee 71, 58; A Crocine (R), 63, 71; D J Russell 53, 71

Miss Stewart in front

The professionals made some inroads into the amateurs' lead on the third day of the women's the third day of the women's European Open golf championship, sponsored by IBM, at the Belfry, Sutton Coldfield yesterday, but Gillian Stewart the Scottish cham-mon, is still out in front on 225 (75 pion, is suit out in most on 233 (15)
Penny Grice, the English snoke-play champion (74). Beth Boozer (73) of the United States, however, has supplanted the third amateur, Nicola McCormack (76) in third If Miss McCormack has to give place to Miss Boozer at the tail of the field today, it was she who first drew the attention yesterday. She opened with a par four from two bunkers followed by a birdie at the second and two pars of morthodox

Miss Stewart, meanwhile, ha dropped two shots early on and in spine of a birdle at the sixth, she discovered that her lead of four shots over Miss McConnack had vanished. For all that, she was swinging with a lovely rhythm and left Miss McCormack far behind with birdies on the 12th and 13th. In spite of ramours of stirring deeds up ahead by Miss Boozer. Miss Grice remained the principal

Britain trail W Germans

Deplind the Chamban testin.

Overnight results (after dressage): Testins: 1.

Germany, 14.8; 2.68, 157.8; France 161.8.

Individual: 1, Viebig (f. Kasparet, Germany)

44.2pts: 2, Substitut (f. Kirshiner, Germany)

44.2pts: 3, Hitles (f. Kosciesid, Poland) 48.

Bittish placings: Heasan (f. Schibbury) and Sparnorism's 1 (f. Strewson') 51.4; 12. Coher

de Lion (M. Orchard) 51.8; 13, Friday-Fex (R.

Hurd) 54.8; 19, Headiny Guidator (f. Miccill) 57;

29, Otton 8 (f. Schward) 59.

INJURED IN SWELLES 1, R Roche (F.), Honda, 2min 63.75soc 2, R Marnola (US, Honda, 204.00; 3, T Katayama (Japan), Honda, 204.81, R Hallam (GB), Honda, 204.82, R Hallam (GB), Honda, 204.82, F Linne (GB, Aust, 205.27) Other piscings: 9, W Garther (Aus), Honda, 206.82, 11, 8 Sheeper (GB), Buzuki, 205.35; 14, R McElnes (GB), Buzuki, 205.35; 14, R McElnes (GB), 206.87; 35 S Payman (GB), Yamaha, 211.57; 38, K Huewen (GB), Honda, 214.56; 40, G Lingham (GB), Suzuki, 215.48. EQUESTRIANISM

At the end of the first day of the Young Rich European champion-ships at Lhumphlen, West Ger-many, yesterday the British team was lying in second place 17 points behind the German team.

leading players. The others are Ivan
Lendl and Tomas Smid. There is 6ft Sin of Pimek and his legs would have been the longest and boniest on view yesterday but for the presence of Shahar Perkiss, of Israel, on another court. Pimek is already a fine player and will be even better when the assurance he shows on clay has been extended to other surfaces.
The last British challenger in the Women's event. Virginia Wade, was beaten 6-2, 2-6, 6-3 by "Peanut"
Louis of California.
There was an enduring rumble of controversial speculation about comments made at the previous day's press conferences. Vitas

M Beater (US) and S Mayer (US) and I Mortinism (Dis), 6-4, 6-4, 6-3;

M Beater (US) and C Micro (Par) and M Merchall (US), 6-4, 6-4, 6-4;

M Beater (US) and C Micro (Par) and C Micro (Par), 6-4, 6-4;

M Beater (US) and C Micro (Par) and C Micro (Par), 6-4, 6-4;

M Beater (US) and C Micro (Par) and T Guilliagon
(IS) by P Mechanos and L Jensen (US), 6-4, 6-4, 7-8;

Simonston (Swe), 6-1, 6-3, 8 Brawley and H
Sands (US), 6-4, 6-4, 9-7, Pragnarial (Jus)

There was an enduring rumble of controversial speculation about comments made at the previous
day's press conferences. Vitas

M Direction (US), 6-2, 6-3, 10 Grabb and C viter Ranaburg
(US) by D Setz (US) and 1ar (SA), 2-6, 7-6, 6-4

Sands (US), 7-6, 4-6, 7-8; 8 Glictstein and S

M Direction (US), 6-1, 6-3; D Grabb and C viter Ranaburg
(US) by D Setz (US) and 1ar (SA), 2-6, 7-6, 6-4

Sands (US), 7-6, 4-6, 7-8; 8 Glictstein and S

M Direction (US), 6-1, 6-3; D Grabb and C viter Ranaburg
(US) by D Setz (US) and 1ar (SA), 2-6, 7-6, 6-4

Sands (US), 7-6, 4-6, 4-7, 8-7; S Glictstein and S

French Barbarians should enliven the Memorial game

By David Hands, Rugby Correspondent

nmer tour to New Zealand, are also making ready to visit Japan this month, therefore the first day of the new rugby season should see a rare crop of selectors. English and French, at Twickenham today for Wavell Wakefield Memorial Match between Harlequins and the

It had been hoped that the French, who will be managed by Jacques Fouroux, the national coach, would also participate in the Harlequin/Lord's Taverners sevens al the Stoop Memorial ground tomorrow, but they have been encouraged to return home and play normal club fixtures before the side to tour Japan is chosen. Bridgend take their place in the sevens and if they do as well as Cardiff did last year, when they lost in the final to the Harlequins, they will be pleased.

If there is an element of gala on both sides of the Chertsey Road over the weekend, it will be business as usual for many of the country's teading clubs. Two of the exiles head for home, London Sottish playing Heriot's in Edinburgh and London Weish on a short tour of North Wales, including in their ranks Price, the former Lydney and Gloucester stand-off half, and teorge, the scrum half who flirted briefly with his old club, Northampton, at the end of last season. Northampton open at Bristof with Worrall, the RAF scrum half, in their side for the first time since his jaw was broken during the John Player Special Cup match with Rosslyn Park last January. In Worralls, absent last season Worrall's absence last season Northampton turned, at one stage, to Page, the veteran England scrum f; this season, after a long and France, not content with a distinguished career at Franklin's Gardens, Page hopes to offer his services to Birmingham.

At the risk of becoming becalmed in one position, another former England scrum half, Smith - shortly england strum had similar shorty to join the ranks of rugby authors – returns for Sale against Morkey after recovering from the leg injury which affected him early in the year while Africa of Youngs, not expected back until the middle of September, allows Leicester to recall the experienced Kenney against Bed-

Leicester have lost Gillingham their retired RAF lock, and have seen little of Underwood the England left wing, who would do well to make an early impression if he is to recover his national position from Bailey. Touring sides seem to make a habit of leaving some of their members behind and Bath, the John Player Cup holders, returned on Thursday from their Canadian tour with four wins out of five but without Redman and Gaymond, their locks, so Hakin returns for the game at Plymouth Albion.

Brain, England's latest hooker misses Coventry's game at Newport with a knee injury while Jeavons plays for Moseley against Nottingham at No 8, a significant switch in national terms if he is to play there regularly, I doubt if there is a more regularly. I doubt it there is a more exotic-sounding back row thro than that fielded by Richmond against the champions of the north, West Hartlepool: Maren, Priechenfred and Ishizuka, the Japanese international, play against the somewhat more prosaic but nonetheless effective West trio of Robinson,

Back on the competitive scene: Smith turns out for Sale while Hakin can play a key role at lock for Bath

CYCLING

Doyle has a happy omen after win in great race

Tony Doyle proved himself one of the world's great pursuiters on Thursday night in a momentous quarter final round of the world Only a month ago, this 21-year-Thursday night in a momentous the world's best woman cyclist, quarter final round of the world only a month ago, this 21-year-pionship. The Middlesex rider act silver medal in the Olympic Games. of The Netherlands, in five minutes compatriol, wi 50.7 seconds. It was a superb from the sport. performance by Doyle, but shortly afterwards he was up-staged by an old rival. Hans-Hendrik Oersted, of Denmark, who set a world championship record of 5 min 45.44 to eliminate Scan Yates, the 1983 British pursuit champion.
The Danish rider had earlier recorded 5 min 47,21 in the qualifying round, a time that just failed to break the world record of Francesco Moser. Oersted's fast time in the quarter final would not have qualified as a world record as it was set in direct competition, not as

In yesterday's semi-tinals, Oer-Luc Vandenbroucke, of Belgium, while Doyle should have had the confidence to overcome Eric Vanderaerden, who is the Belgium road racing champion. After his ride last night, Doyle said: "I feel it is an omen being an Olympic year as I Just won this title in 1980."

Earlier, on a cool, calm evening, Rebecca Twigg confirmed the overall superiority of the American women's team when she won her second world 3,000 metres pursuit championship in three years. Not only did she decisively beat Jeannie Longo, the eternal second of French cycling, she also set a world best of Janua 45.02sec. It was an athletic his second personal best in six hours when she was only beaten in a photo when he defeated Bert Oosterbosch, finish by Connie Carpenter, her compatriot, who has since retired

Another phenomenon of cycle racing made an appearance in the professional sprint championship. Coichi Nakano, of Japan has won this title for the most seven years. If he wins his eighth today, it will be a record and put him ahead of Jef Scherens, of Belgium and Antonio Maspes, of Italy, who both won the

MICH PROFESSIONAL PURSUIT: Ouarter-finale: Race 1: A Doyle (GE) 5:50.70 bt B Costerbusch (Neth), 5:52.13; Race 2: E Vanderaarder (Belg), 5:51.55 bt B Schropter (WG), 5:57.10; Race 2: J-L Vanderbrucube, (Belg), 5:71.83 bt A Bonday (F), 6:00.57; Race 4: I-H Oersted (Def), 5:45.44 (WR) caught S Yates (GE) after 11 laps.

11 Lips.
PROFESSIONAL SPRINT: Quarter-finals:
Race 1: K Nakano (Jon) in R Dill-Burdt (Switz)
2-0: Race 2: Y Cahard (Fr) bt N Salamoto
(April, 2-0: Race 3: O Dazzati (ft) fix K Inoue
(April, 2-0: Race 4: P Glebken (NG) bt M
Capponcell (ft) 2-1. Places 5: to 8: 5 Dill-Burdt
6, Salumotor, 7. Capponcell 8, inous.
PROFESSIONAL MOTOR-PACED: 50 Intellections
PROFESSIONAL MOTOR-PACED: 50 Intellection PRO

PURSUIT: Finele: R Twigg (US) III J Longo (Fr) 3-45 Z; R Gableti (rij bi M Havik (Neth) 2:50.07 Plecinger 1, Twigg: 2, Longo: 3, Gableti: 4, Havik.

ATHLETICS

London marathon field to be increased

The London marathon, spon-sored by Mars, already the biggest marathon in the world, will be even bigger next year. Another 2,000 runners will be squeezed into the race on Sunday. April 21, bringing the total to 22,000.

Application forms will be available throughout September from the 555 main branches and $20 agency offices of the Nationwide Building

 The United Kingdom high hurdles record holder, Mark Holtom, who pulled a hamstring in his heat at the Los Angeles Olympic Games, makes his comeback this weekend. He runs a leg of the 4 x 400 metres relay for Wolverhamp-ion in the GRE men's Gold Cup Lisbon (AFP) - The Los Angeles cold medal-winning run of the Portuguese athlete Carlos Lopes is to be commemorated both here and in his home town of Viseu in the north of the country, where a street is already named after him. Now the townspeople of Viseu are to club

together to raise a statue to Lopes, while a sports hall in the heart of Lisbon will also carry his name.

Lopes: a statue to be raised in his bonour

Cram returns favour

After his recent unsuccessful attempt on the world 1,500 metres and mile records, the Olympic silver medal winner, Steve Cram, will be dropping down to 800 metres tomorrow. He lines up with Ikem Billy in the two-lap race at a meeting to launch the £430,000 track at the University of Warwick. It is the first major meeting at the track, which is the new home of the Coventry Godiva Harriers club, who have organized the event.

David Moorcroft, who will be competing in the mile or 3,000 metres, is responsible for Cram's appearance. Last year, Moorcroft, a member of the Coventry club, ran at Cram's invitation in the opening meeting of the Jarrow club's new track, with Cram agreeing to run at Coventry in return.

FOOTBALL: NEWCASTLE AND VILLA CONTEST MATCH OF THE DAY

By Stuart Jones, Football Correspondent

Everton

Kevin Richardson, the Everton midfield player with the happy knack of scoring goals before the knack of scoring goals before the television cameras, maintained the habit with the only goal of the first live televised game of the season at Stamford Bridge fast night. Richardson's 57th minute goal brought Everton their first league victory in front of a crowd reduced to under 17.800, no doubt, by the fact that he BBC cameras were present,

A glance at last season's statistics would have given an unmistakeable clue as to the balance of power. It remained largely locked in statemate since Chelsea's strength is their attack and Everton's is their defence. Stuck the tran units together defence. Stick the two units together and there might be a team fit to challenge for the domestic honours them they currently hold three trophies, but although, Chelsea, the second division champions, were tinged with the more enterprise, they fell, far too often, for their own could into the official true set by good, into the offside trap set by Everton, the winners of the FA Cup, and the Charity Shield.

With gentle breeze filling their sails before the interval, Chelsea thought that they had found a way through on some ten occasions. Each time a linesman's red flag abruptly interrupted their progress.
Even so, Dixon scorned two opportunities to give them the lead and also struck the angle of bar and

Everton's tactics, bound with iron bars of caution, stifled not only Chelsea's front four. The midfield where the experienced Reid and the youthful Jasper introduced welcome touches of imagination, took on an air of a crowded dance floor. There was no room for ideas to flourish. a problem that is all too prevalent nowadays. Everton's response, when they eventually began to cast of their inhibitions, was produced significantly by defenders.

First Mountfield and then Stevens pushed forward to add weight to the frailest of front lines that, in the absence of Gray and Sheedie had scored only twice before this season, both from the penalty spot. When Sharp, a misnomer if ever there was one, was presented with an opening by Richardson and twice failed to make contact from close range, their lack of penetration seemed sure to continue, but all that was to change soon after the change of ends.

The initial incision was caused by Bracewell, recently acquired for a notably small sum from Sunderland and who has brought colour to Everton's approach, after 57 minutes. He chipped towards Richardson, who had previously lingered almost unnoticed out on the left flank. He turned inside Lee.

Chelsea, whose run of 19 League games without defeat was now under obvious threat, withdrew Jasper and sent on Thomas, absent so far through suspension. Yet, in ision, and the results of today's their impatient search for an equalizer, they almost paid a heavier penalty as Steven, overlapping in from the right, and Heath, entrenched in the leading positions. ping in from the right, and stopped both brought Niedzwiecki to his knees.

CHELSEA: E Nectrosecks C Lee, D Rougvie, C Patas, J McLaughin, D Casper, P Nevin, N Specimen, K Dison, D Speede, P Carcrille, EVERTON: N Southalt, G Stavens, J Balley, D Mountfield, K Radaths, P Reid, T Staven, A Heath, G Sharp, P Bracewell, K Pachardson,

Casuals to ioin the Spartans

By Paul Newman

Corinthian-Casuals, who were forced to withdraw from the Isthmian League because they were unable to bring their ground up to required standards in time for the ew season, have joined the London

new season, have joined the London Spartan League.

The Isthmian League were prepared to grant Casuals a year's leave of absence, but only on condition they did not join another competition. Casuals, who have been refused planning permission for executal improvements to their for essential improvements to their new ground in Wimbledon Park, will now be able to return to the Isthmain League only if they earn promotion from the Spartan

HOCKEY

GBOlympic

team may reassemble

By Sydney Friskin

The Hockey Association, control-lers of the game in England, issued an invitation yesterday to the Great Britain Hockey Board to participate in the international tournament, sponsored by Norwich Union, at the Willesden sports centre, Donington Road, from October 19 to 21.

This invitation has been given to enable the Great Britain team to play international matches at top level in function to marches at top pay international magness at top level in front of the many supporters they gained after their splendid achievement in winning the brottze medal at the Los Angeles Olympic

For administrative reasons, the organizing committee of the Hockey

Association, require the acceptance of this invitation by noon on Monday. Should Great Britain be unable to accept, their place will be taken by England.

The teams taking part in the tournament are: The Netherlands,

European champions; the Soviet Union, silver medal winners at the European championship; Ireland,

TOLENAMENT FORTRES: October 19: Great Britain v Ireland (5.30 pm): The Netherlands v Soviet Union (7.30 pm). October 20: Great Britain v The Netherlands (2 pm); Soviet Union v Ireland (4.15 pm). October 21: Inviend v The Netherland (2 pm); Great Britain v Soviet Union (3.30 pm).

SKATING: Fifty skaters from 13 countries will compete in the St Ivei international at Richmond from find Dandee, even though their opponents are still without a league point, tougher opposition. Dundee have a fine record against Rangers, He jarred the right knee in a pre-season clash with a team-mate; YACHTING

Odd Job finishes third in rough conditions

From Barry Pickthall, Nieuport

British boats, led by Peter Morton's Odd Job, took third and fourth placings in yesterday's blustery opening race of the Quarter Ton Cup series being held off the Belgian roast

The force five conditions and rough seas proved too much for six of the 26 starters, including the West German Nissen-designed Attacke which lost its mast. Others who came close to suffering a similar fate Jones.

Lacidou Gypties from France led at the first mark of this Olympic course before her crew were forced to retire when the filler broken for the retire when the filler broken for our retire when the filler broken for the force five conditions and rough seas proved too much for six of the race followed by the Davidson-designed Quarter Flash, steppered by Australian Keith Jones.

came close to suffering a similar fate were the crew aboard Randala, another West German boat which broke its forestay, and the all-girl team from Holland sailing Lady Lion, which suffered backstay failure. There was also a bad collision between the Belgian yacht First and Duke from Italy, which left Furax, skippered by Branko de ewarded with a fifth place.

New organizer for challengers Noel Robbins, executive direc-tor of the Royal Perth Yacht Club's America's Cup Committee, has said the challengers' elimination series in the challengers' channation series in 1987 is likely to be organised by a totally independent body. In discussions with Nigel Hacking, secretary general of the International Yacht Racing Union, it was agreed that this role could not be adertaken by the IYRU. Robbins expects that arrange-ments for the elimination series, now reduced to 15 confirmed challengers from the original 25, will owners' association during the 12 metre class world championship in Sardinia between September 13 and October 16. An announcement on the probable arrangements would then be made.

Peter Morson's Odd Job, which won the round-the-island race earlier in the season, than took the third gun and was followed across the line by Howard Seller's Hanna, another Stephen Jones design.

RESULTS: 1, Conto de Planders U Secton, Frt; 2. Quarter Posti (K Jones, Aust; 3, Odd Job P Morron, Otto, 1, Hanna (K Selters, UK); 5, Forsa (B de Buss, Bel), Other British planting, 11, Pacifict (D Pearce).

Big profit for PGA

The PGA European tour made a profit of £19,454 after tax for the year ending December 31, 1983,

Brazil (left) returns to the scene of former triumphs, while Reilly is happy just to be back in

Watford's chance to bring giants down to size

While accepting that early form can be misleading - Notis County led the first division this time last year - the signs of an open championship are hopeful. Two teams, whose managers declared or intimated that they were not good enough before the season's start, an-swered their managers' criti-cisms by taking charge of the first division after the opening two games.

Aston Villa and Newcastle United, the only clubs to have collected maximum points, give the others an opportunity to catch up by coming together at St James's Park today. Whether this will be the first and last time that the match of the day does not include the likes of Liverpool or Manchester United remains to be seen. But we live in hope.

The most disappointing of the six clubs who appear fated to merely make up the numbers are the two from which so much was expected.

Both are in the depths of depression after having been defeated by lowly opposition in the League Cup, and their managers face the difficult task of rejuvenating their sides for formidable tasks this afternoon. St Maren will make this attendon. St warren will make changes for the visit of Dundee United to Love Street, but the visitors are playing with such style that even football's most exacting taskmaster, their manager, Jim McLean, has words of praise for the excellence of their play and is confident two more points will be

To add to Hibernian's distress the 10 and to hisberman's distress the Edinburgh club have worries about several key players, including their international goalkeeper, Rough. The inclusion of young blood, while ejecting fresh enthusiasm can hardly raise thier hopes of bearing the league leaders, Aberdeea, at Windows.

Rangers recovered their scoring touch when they beat Raith Rovers 4-0 in the League Cup, but they will gained this afternoon.

Pinndrie

Big four clubs seem

set to stay on top

By Hugh Taylor

There has been no sign so far this season that a real challenge will out of the Scottish Cup last season, emerge to the four elite clubs who but they may find if difficult at Dens

ision, and the results of today's as their former players Fraser and which lends itself to some sort of equality, if only temporary. The early portents indicate that Liverpool are less impregnable - at least away from home -Manchester United still divided, Nottingham Forest inexperienced, Southampton overexperienced, Arsenal too introvert. Tottenham Hotspur too extrovert. You have to look a lot further down last year's league table to find a healthier bet: Watford are sufficiently well-adjusted and cages to give a good run for your money. For the first time, there is real competition for places at Vicarage Road, nowhere more so than in attack where Blissett bought back from AC Milan for fym, sits it out on the substitute's bench for the match against Arsenal, the crowd for Certainly, there is an Achilles which should improve even on heel about each of the giants the excellent 23,000 against

Park to take even a point this time

Ferguson, now at Ibrox, will be keen to do well for their new club on their old familiar ground. Morton won convincingly but they may not have the shooting power or strength in defence to pose problems for Celtic at Parkhead. The Celts are playing with a resurgence of their spectacular style, as they showed in convincingly beating. Airdriconians who recently surprised everyone by knocking Aberdeen out of the League Cup.

Virus forces

Darlington

to postpone

Seven Darlington players have gone down with an intestinal virus, and today's fourth division match at Southend has been called off. The manager, Cyril Knowles, sent seven home. The match will now be played on Monday week.

• The West Ham United forward

David Swindlehurst has been advised to rest for at least six weeks to clear up a knee injury. Swindlehurst, the club's second highest scorer last season with 15 goals, had an exploratory operation on Thursday. It revealed a badly strained knee, but not a more serious cartilage problem.

Tuesday. Reilly, disgruntled at having to wear the No 12 shirt for the match, improved opening enough on his poor pre-season

Queen's Park Rangers on form against Rangers to merit a place in today's starting line-up. Barnes returns, having re-covered from a hamstring The · inhumane pressure brought to bear on managers these days has been illustrated by the press received by Arsenal's Don Howe after just by the two games. A clue to how their midweek game with Notting ham Forest really went - Forest won 2-0 - can be gleaned by the fact that Howe has offered his players a few quiet words of encouragement, while Brian Clough has ordered improve ment from Forest. Arsena supporters must be patient, at least until Rix returns and Woodcock regains his correct fighting weight after illness.

Still, you have to admire Liverpool, scorers of six goals without Rush, who was on his feet and walking yesterday after an operation to remove a small piece of cartilage. You would be wrong, apparently, in thinking that Rangers, who hold title ambitions of their own, will provide a much stiffer test for young Walsh. After the tiresome stubborn and cynical defence they displayed at Watford, Alan Mullery, the manager, says: There's no point in going to Anfield and stringing nine men across your own penalty area. We are going to enjoy it. We might get beaten but we'll go down having a go at Liverpool, not sitting back." Fighting talk, but it sounds as though we might have a quick knockost

Manchester United, search ing for their first win and greater cohesion, presist with the luckless Brazil in the hope that the feel of homely Portman Road might trigger off memories of happier days and bring a return of his, old self. Ron Atkinson, the United manager, can do nothing but back his investment and says: "I am confident that Alan will be a success at Old Trafford." With Muhren still out of favour, it is like asking Laurel to perform without Hardy.

But back to the match of the day, in which Newcastle will be trying to win three successive games at the start of a season for the first time in 61 years. If they do so, it will also place them on top of the season's first official league table, and give the rest a refreshing new target to chase.

MOTOR RACING

Ickx sets a hot pace in practice

By Jeremy Shaw The works Rothman's Porsche team are going to face perhaps their strongest challenge to date in the 1,000km world endurance championship race at Spa-Francor-champs, Belgium, on Sunday. Jacky Ickx, the reigning endur-ance champion, set the fastest unofficial time in practice yesterday this season. All the top contenders will be present, including Johnny Dumfries, the series leader.

"The circuit is really exciting", he said.

21-10.

OUARTER FRIALS: U Benosson (Sweden) bt A Musia (Rigeria), 21-15, 18-21, 21-17, 10-21, 21-16, Kim Wan (South Korea), bt Zie Selbe, (Grina), 15-21, 21-13, 9-21, 21-18, 22-20, 21-18, 22-20, 21-12, 22-20; I Jedinang (China), 21-16, 13-21, 21-12, 22-20; I Jedinang (China), bt J I Watcher (Swe), 11-21, 21-12, 21-16, 31-29. Marches for minor picacings: C W Kusn, 0400 bt T Danielsson (Aus), 21-16, 20-22, 21-16; C Presen (GB), bt D Seemdier (US), 21-11; 21-19; 2 Lind bt (Jonner (Hun) 21-19, 21-15; M Alvarrez (Daniel) bt C Chin Leong (Mail), 21-18, 15-21, 23-21. driving his regular 956 in partner-ship with Jochen Mass, while his team mates Derek Bell and Stefan Bellof were only slightly slower.

In addition, the Rothman's team are also running a third car, to be driven by Vera Schuppan, the Le Mans winner, and John Watson, the Mans white; and John watten, the former Grand Prix driver. Watton will be making his debut for the team as a late replacement for Henri Totvonen, the rally driver, who has MODERN PENTATHLON a back injury. Watson will not arrive at the challenging Spa circuit until official practice this morning.

HORSHOLE: Worser's World Championships Individual Riding Results: 1, E. Johansson (See) 1,100 pts., 1mtn 21,9ec; 2, L. Tomanson (P. 1.00/124.4; 3, V. Sowerby (GS) 1,100/123.8; 4, E. Bomprezzi (P. 1,100/129.5; 5, S. Gerrett (Carl.) 1,100/122.8; 6, E. Pairts (Austria)1,100/123.9. Team pictings after second day: 1, United States 3,288 pts., 2, Cented 8,288; 3, Britzer 3,158; 6, Poland 8,120. Also well in contention, however, will be the Skoal Bandit/John Fitzpatrick Racing 956 of Thierry Boutsen, a local driver, and David Modde of Battery are. Hobbs, of Britain, as well as the brand new Canon Porsche 956 of Jonathan Palmer and Jan Lemi Also at Spa are the Mariboro British Formula Three championship contenders, making their second of three Continental visits

Weekend football and other fixtures

First division

Coventry City v Laicester City pswich Town v Manchester United ... Liverpool v OPR de United v Aston Villa Nottingham Forest y Sunderland

pion y West Ham United . Stoke City v Sheff Wed. Totlenbern v Norwich City Wattord v Argenal ... West Bromwich v Luton Town

Second division Birmingham City v Wimbledon Blackburn Rovers v Carifsle United .

n v Notts County Leads Linited v Wolve Meachester City y Fullitan Middlesbrough v Grimsby Town heffield United v Cardiff City ... wsbury Town v Crystal Palace Third division

Bristol Rovers v Preston North End Cambridge United v Milwall . Derby County v Bolton Wanderen eveport County v Bristoi City (3.15) Plymouth Argyle v Reading on United v Lincoln City

wansea City v York City

GOLA LEAGUE: Attrincham v Nunealom.
Dagenham v Worcester: Darriord v Tellord.
Endied v Frickley: Kottering v Bath:
Kidderminter v Boston United: Maddenne
v Northwich: Scarborough v Barnet:
Wealdstone v Cateshead: Weymouth v
Runcorn: Yeovil v Barrow
FOOTBALL COMBINATION: Arsenal v
Insulciv: Letter v Tellerhom (2-0): West Harn v Charlton, IRISM LEAGUE: Gold Capt Ards v Newty: Ballymena v Crusaders; Caltonville v Linfleti: Coleraine v Bangor; Glentoran v Portadown; Larne v Carrick.

SOLTH-SPM LEAGUE: premier division: AP
Lannigion v Fareham; Alvadranon v Hastings:
Bedworth v Chelmstort; Chelmsham v
Folicastone; Crawley v Weiling; Fisher v
Gloucesen; Kinga's Lymr v R.S. Southamptort; Snepethed v Winney; Trowbridge v Gravesend;
Willienhall v Corby Middland Division: Aylesburyv Methyr Tydilt; Bridgenorth v Hendnestord;
Lelosester Und v Moor Green; Rushdan v
Oldoury; Stourbridge v VS Rugby; Sutton
Coalfield v Weilingborough; Southern Division:
Asturd v Weiserbooville; Gosport v Dorchestar;
Woodford v Thanel.

WOOGOTO's Interior.

FA CLIPP Prelite/mery renads: Shildon v Crooks
Brandon v Hernogelas: Yorkshine Artair v
Consest: Ferryhill v Gutseley: Esh Wareing v
Gutsborough; Pelaritea Newhoren v Eppleinon
CW: Chestar-le-Street v Laricsster; Thackley v
Durnent: Biddington v Essangton; Billingham v
Coundon: Nantwelth v Droyscient; Colwyn Bay v
Lyttam; Rosendale v Dersaby; Billingham v
Emley; Affreten v Essavood Hranley; Radollife
Born v Chitrance (3.15); Camerandon v Getrotth
Marke Shithal v Cheston, Long Eston v
Cuzzon Aufron: Artiold v Billingham; Presont;
Cables v Ashiton: Chestet Alb v Formby;
Billinghal V Med Calic St Helens v Codeshilt;
Dudley v Helentor; Appleby Frodingham v

Brigg v Tamworth; Wednesfield v Priter Lane
OB: Desthorough v Rading Cute Warwick:
Boldmerb St Michaels v Halesowert; Stamford
v Irfilinghorn Diemondig: Chatteris v Old Swirford; Wisboch v Eveshan; Milton Koynes
City v Rothwelt Michael v Raddisch; Coventry
S v Spekfung Wootlon B C v Historic Ampthill v
Barton; Ahfrigdion Town v Baldiock; Sudbusy v
Edgware; Boenham Wood v Heverfilt; Misconlaws

Apparature y Hockey Huisaly Tonbridge v Molecy; Haywards Heath v Meratham; Littlehampton v Careterbury; Banstlead v Luves; Whistable v Burgess Hit; Dover Athates v Horsten; Deal v Heatings Town; Southwick v Egham; Chichester v Kingstonten; Walton and Herathem v Eastbourne United. Camberley v Eastbourne Town; Basingstok v Dorking; Salistbury v Martow; Pleet v Peterstellt; Thame v Hungerford: Brockenhurst v Chipperfrent; Andower v Calms; Wellington v Devizes; Chard v Shepton Mallot; Wellon v Clevedon; Clendown v Haverford-west; Cinciparior v Provest Cener; Bidelood v Bristol Manor Farm; Paulton v Teurnon; Barnetsple v St Blazzey

WESTERN LEAGUE: Premier division: Bristol City Reserves v Dawist; Eurouth V Fronte; Malicature v Pyrnouth Argyle reserves; Salash v Mangotsdeid: Western-super-Mare v

NORTHERN COUNTIES EAST LEAGUE: Premier Division: Belper v Pontelinat: Boston v Maxborough: Eastwood Bertley Victorie.

istrialitàni LEAGUE: Premier divisione Carohalton y Hendore Dulwhich Hamile v Woldingham Episcon and Evell v histore: Haves v Worthing Hatcher v Bognor Regist Stough v Bishop's Stortford; Sution United v Leytonstons and stord; Tooding and Mitcham v Hearnow. Watthemsstew v Conyclon: Windsor and Eton v Barking; Wycoorbin v Blaeforey. First elikation; Aveley v Staines; Beaddon v Cardord City; Lastiverhead v Hertford; St Albers v Familiarough (at Familiarough (at Familiarough (at Familiarough) and Polytonic Heath v Berklumsted: Hartingey v Hernel Heinpstead; Haybridge Selfta v Hareflekt; Selftron Walden v Royston. Second division south: Newbury v Feltham; Witheleste v Brackend.

SOUTH EAST COUNTES LEAGUE (11,00):
First division: Chariton v Arsenat; Chalesa v West Hant, Norwich v Cambridge United:
Frotsmouth v Orient; OPR v Milleral; Southern v
Josephan: Vational v Galleghans; Wastord v
Patham. Second division: Branford v Brigger
Rovers; Brighton v Wimbledon; Reading v Southernd; Swindon v Oxford United.

Fourth division

Aldershot v Chester City Blackpool y Exeter City Bury v Hafffax Town (3.15) Hartlepool United v Swindon Town Hereford United v Peterborough Southend United v Darlington (P) Torquay United v Stockport County ... Translare Ryrs v Crewe Alex (3.15) ..

Scottish premier division

Aberdeen v Hilbernian Caltic v Morton Dundee y Rangers . St Milmon v Dundee United Scottish first division

oniana v St.Jeho Ctyclebank v Hamilton East File v Avr United Fortar Athletic v Moth Klimarnock v Brechin City Partick Thistle v Falkirk

Scottish second division

Dunfermine v Stirting Albion East Stirling v Alloa athletic Queen of South v Montrose Queen's Park v Albion Rovers Raith Rovers v Arbrosth ruir y Cow

Asion v Bath
whond v West Herdept.
Rossky Park v Vale of Luna
Rugby v Butenhead Park
Sale v Mortey Variation v Sheriff
STERN

RUGBY LEAGUE

A 200 1 . . .

400 6

ECABOTABLE: "

"Water to Biete.

Sugar

Burshey.

Manager State Control of the Control

Mile Manager

10,000

THE MANS SILE MAN

Altropy Mary Mary

CONE HOLDAY

No.

Sea file fills

Spirite Spirite

ian Rush: Liverpool's goalscorer is expected to be out of action for several weeks after a minor knee operation OTHER SPORT ATHLETICS-bertforshipe sentor decation champlometrips (at Woodsde Stadium, Garston); GLC London impature champlometrips (at Wast London Stadium, 2.0); Gatesheed armust relays and must awarts meeting sts Gatesheed international Stadium, 11.0);

CROQUET: Hunstanton tournament, Parkstone tournament JUDO: British hebons! championship for Iren (at Huyden Hill, Cradley Heath, Blimhighem). TENNIS: Dartmouth regatta tournament. RACE WALKING: London to Brighton (53 miles) (Westmirester, 8 am); Tonks trophy insetting (at Redditch, 1.0. ROAD RIMMING: South Lodon Herriera Opan 30-mile road race (at Old Coulsdon, Surrey). 2.30. 30-mile roso race per 2 30, 5400/TING: RAF small-bore rifle champlot state fat RAF Uktridge).

TOMORROW RUGBY LEAGUE

FIRST DIVISIONs Barrow v Helitox (2.30); Bradford Northern v Hull KR (3.30); Cerefletord v Wigan (3.30); Hull v Worldengton Tower, Leigh v Leeds (3.30); Oldham v Hanslet; St Halens v Festinerstone Rovers; Warrington v Widnes. SECOMD DIVISION: Brazilley v Barley; Carlade v Oncaster; Dewebury v Huddensfeld (3.30); Runcom Highfield v Manaffeld Marismen; Second Segment (3.30); Vork v Southerd briefal. Without (3.30); Vork v Southerd briefal.

RUGBY UNION CLUB MATCHE Nothingham v B OTHER SPORT

OTHER SPORT

ATHLETICS: Herdordeshire senior decathloric championships (at Woodelde Stadium, Garston); Breistree open throws meeting to Robewood Sports Arests, 10,30); Coverby Games (11.0); London Barough championships (at Crysta Palson NSC, 1.0); Eastern veteranstrack and field championships (at Northgate SC, Ioswich, 12,30). SC, Ioswich, 12.3(i). RACE WALKING: Open track meeting (at Reading, 12.45). ROAD RURSHING: British marathon (at Bolton). ROWING: Popter registra.

FOR THE RECORD

KUALA LIBIPUR, MALAYSIA: World Cure J-O Waldner, Sowel by D Seemiller (US), 14–21, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–19, X Selbe (Chira) by M Ahvares (Dom Rep), 21–18, 21–16, X Selbe (Lippari) by E Linch (Swee), 21–14, 21–16, X Selbe (Lippari) by E Linch (Swee), 21–14, 21–16, X Selbe (Lippari) by E C M Kuser (H), 22–20, 22–20, C Pressus (Chira), 12–21, 21–15, Wen (S Koree) by J Jaisson (Chira) by T Demissoon (Aust, 21–10, 21–13, D Senghsson (Swe) by 1 Joseph (Hun), 21–19, 21–18, 14–21, 21–15, X Selbe (Lippari) by E Linch (Swee), 21–16, 21–12, 21–22, 200, 21–21, 21–22, 21–22, 21–22, 21–23, 21–24, 23–21, X Selbe (Lippari) by E Linch (Swee), 21–16, 21–12, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–18, 21–10, 21–20, 21 TABLE TENNIS PACHTING

Weel: Class I: Art TS and C E Herring. Class Ir Oyster Catcher, R Mathreys. Class It Herring. Class Ir Oyster Catcher, R Mathreys. Class It Herringry. Michaes and T Affen. Consensa: Assistate. PF Lee. Class IV Cruisers: Becomes Servine. G Strams. Class V Cruisers: Becomes. A W Chapmen. Class V Ansprare of Meg. R D For. Class VIII Cruisers: Lamorras, J and K Mathris. Sonatas. Marinths. P Marchardt. Robbers: Flou, G L Skelton. Stalles: Shauts, Miss R Adams. Squbs: Peregrin. B J Stanford. Dragons: Rascal, D Blain and S L Waples. RCDs. Corindelle, A J Marah and others. RCDs. White Rose, D and W Wappater. RBODs: White Rose, D and W Wappater. Catcher. C S March. Two man Dingle-Lobsterissimus. S Ware, GP 14s; Museel Box. P R Denies. Lasers: Moonbird, V Breffsford. LOWESTOFT: OK National Championsides. YACHTING PR Denies Lasers Moonbird, V Breitsford.
LOWESTOFT: OK Netformi Champlonalities
Fifth race: 1. Whatever You Went (T Gore.
Parkstone Yacht Chab; 2. Contramundum U
Starers, Wateringfield Sc.C.; 3. Br Hings IP
Michighes, Helenburgh S.C.; 4. D1215 (N Trolland, S.S.K Concentugen); 5. Proper Side
IH Henry, MMe H Metcaffe, Restrongust S.C.; 6. Cut Of The Stue (G Woolen, Cootham Fleach S.C.).
Deerall result: 1. T Gore, J Shervell.

NEWPORT, Rode Island, Tiffday Cab Park, Open doebbes, seel-finate: C. J. Ronaldect (flampton CQ/B Tostes (Newport) bt J Burle (New York) and K Jacobis (PT) 6-1, 6-1, 6-1, W F Devise (NY)/L Deuchar (Hempton CQ bt A C Love(M F Deen, 83, 46, 85, 48, 82, Flash Romaldect/Tostes bt Davis/Deucher, 6-5, 6-2, 28, 6-2.

BASEBALL

AMERICAN LEAGUE: httwanton Browers 7, Clevisland Indians 6, Toronto Evis Jays 4, Chicago Within Sox 3, Boston Rosi-Sox 9, Atmospota Twins 3, Tocos Ringers 4, Palmass City Royals 2; Saestie Mariners 2, Detroit Tigars 1.

NATIONAL LEAGUE San Francisco Gleras 6, Philadelphia Philises 6; Philadelphia Philises 5, Son Francisco Gleras 5, San Francisco Gleras 5, Palmass Philadelphia Philises 5; Caccond games; Cinclosof Pages 4, Pittalurgh Philass 1; Mortreal Expos 5, Lon Angelsa Dodgers 2; Chicago Cube 8, Adequa Braves 3 (10 Inns).

CENTRAL LEAGUE: First division: Bradford Cky 2, Nontrocham Forest 3, FA YOUTH CLIP: Professory assent Sournemouth 3, Exemple 0. BELGIAN LEAGUE: Andersect 7, Lokeres 7. FRORISH LEAGUR: Halos Valkeekoeken 2, KPU 1: H.JK Helstrid 2, Kousyel 2; Koperit 0, Keps 1; MP 1, Ives 1; PPT 1, Kups 1; Rops 1, Tps 1-

FOOTBALL

REAL TENNIS

SPEEDWAY BRITISH LEAGUE Wimbledon 42, Eastbourns Scarthorpe 31; Microsomers, Second large Easter 30. MATIONAL JURGOR CUP, Second large Easter 48. Windshedon 30. (Easter win 55-65 on

المكذا من الاجل

مكذا من الاصل

RACING: IMPRESSIVE GALLOP EARNS CECIL FILLY VOTE OVER COLTS IN SOLARIO STAKES AT SANDOWN PARK Piggott can bounce back at the double

Lester Piggott resumes race riding at Sandown Park today after being out of action for more than three weeks as the result of an injury caused when falling at Yarmouth on August 8. I will not be surprised if he keeps his many admirers in a happy frame of mind by winning two races for Henry Cecil on Oh So Sharp and Double Celt, his only rides of

Oh So Sharp, my selection race at Newmarket, her strong for the Solano Stakes, which is the main race on Sandown's by only a short head. There are annual charny day programme grounds for thinking that she organized by the Variety Club can step up on that performance of Great Britain, is a half-sister in the Sportsman Club's Handito thos two good fillies, Roussalka and Our Home.

maiden race at Nottingham that much further at York.
she won earlier this month. Oh
So Sharp still managed to give blinkers in the Mecca Book-So Sharp still managed to give the impression that she too, is destined totake high rank Yesterday our Newmarket cor-respondent told me that she had been living up to her name in her recent homework on the heath as well.

Today her opposition includes Young Runaway and St Hilarion, two unbeaten colts from Guy Harwood's stable, besides the Goodwood winner, Numchuek, Brave Bambino, who finished third in the Seaton Deleval Stakes at Newcastle, Soldat Bleu and Dubricius, who ran so promisingly behind Khozaam at Ascot in July.

By Mandarin (Michael Phillips) Significantly, Greville Star-key has picked Young Runaway makers Sprint Handicap for the first time for four seasons and five furlongs at Goodwood in

May. I epect him to turn out to be the main danger to Oh So

Sharp. After a long rest Double Celt was only just beaten in her last cap Stakes and over today's distance she is napped to thwart Although it was only a Quickstep who ran so well over

Course specialists

SANDOWN PARK SAFELVEY IN France,
IAMERIE: El Cecil wins 18 from 59 minners, 13%, G Harwood 28 from 143, 19.5%; M
oute 25 from 131, 19.1%;
IAMERIE: IP Playoff 58 wins from 252 from 13%; W Carbon 57 from 252, 22.6%; W
windown 20 from 125, 76.0%; CHESTER

RAMERS: W Hern wins 12 from 33 rummers, 6.4%. R Johnson Houghton 9 from 47, 19.1%; 1 Mis 13 from 85, 15.3%. OCKEYE: J Netroer wins 13 from 46 rides, 6.3%; J Reid 11 from 55, 20.0%; 8 Cauthen 3 from 81, 13.9%. RIPON

TRAINERS: J Fizgeraid wine 8 from 39 rutners, 20,5%: M H Esstarty 32 from 183, 17 %, Mess Hall 6 from 78, 77%. JOCKEYS: M Miller wins 8, from 39 rides, 20,5%: P Robinson 15 from 83, 18,1%; M Blinch 35 from 26, 13,7%.

(ITV

in preference to St Hilarion.

The form of both colts has ingrecord this season in races of The form of both colts has ing record this season in races of worked out well but Young this nature I am banking on Runaway is probably the them now having the desired. sharper, having won over only effect. Willie Carson, who rides him today, can also win the Lex Wilkinson Maiden Stakes on Dawn Star.

At Chester the Berry Magi-coal Matchless Nursery Handicap is arguably the most open race of its type run this season. Having said that only a high draw, which could easily prove a big disadvantage around this sharp circuit prevented me from napping Ulla Lains, who won her last race at Windsor by seven lengths. Today her weight includes just a 5lb penalty for that easy triumph.
Solo Native, who was runner-up to Khozaam at Newbury last month; Video Rocket, Tenfel, Derring Miss. Westerham and Maiyoun are others who can all be given good chances, but I still prefer Ulla Laing in spite of ber draw.

er draw.

If Midnight Gun fails to give the Linenhall 6lb to-Matrah in the Liner Stakes, Joe Mercer, his jockey, Peter Walwyn, his trainer, should waste little time in picking up a nice consolation prize because Wagoner, who has won on the course already this season will be a tough nut to crack in the Berry Magicoal Surefire Handicap, even with 10st on his back.

Piggott: Oh So Sharp and Double Celt could give him a double on his first day back after a lay-off of three weeks

Cauthen at his leisure

Steve Cauthen carried on his Steve Cauthen carried on his high-scoring spree with a double at Sandown Park yesterday on Kelly's Royale and Saffice to take his score to '110, 29 ahead of his nearest rival, Pat Eddery, who won on Triagonal. The American rode 30 winners in July – the month when he took over the championship lead – and he has topped that in August with 32 successes.

successes.
After switching to Chester tomorrow, he plans a two-day holiday next week. "I don't fancy Hamilton or Windsox, so I'm having Hamitha or Windsor, so I in naving, a break on Monday and Tuesday", Cauthen said. He will forget racing for a white on the golf course in the week before the big Doncaster meeting when he is due to ride the strong St Leger fancy, Baynoun, for the Aga Khan.

Vesterlay Cauthen had two of his Vesterday Carthen had two of his easiest 1984 victories. Kelly's Royale sprinted clear in the final furlong of the Orleans Nursery Handicap to beat the favourite. furiong of the Orleans Nursery Handicap to beat the favourite, Sharp Ascent, by seven lengths. Then the American took the Early Astumn Maiden Stakes by six lengths on Frankie Durr's unraced three-year-old, Suffice.

Eddery's enterprise on Triagonal paid off in the B.B.A. Atlanta Stakes, He quickly went well clear and at the finish had just a neck to spare on the Peter Walwyn-trained filly. Walwyn. who may take spare on the Peter Walwyn-trained filly. Walwyn, who may take Triagonal to York next week, has earmarked the Royal Lodge Stakes for his unbeaten juvenile colt, Khozzam, "After that we might think about the Dewhurst Stakes", Walwyn sald.

Draw: 5f-6f, low numbers best.

GOING: firm

SEEKER

RIPON

1 1404 WHENCY EYES 3 Major 3-9-7 1040 SEA BED (B) G Wrang 3-9-13 3223 MALADHU J Fizgerid 5-9-1 0440 LICKY APPEAL C British 4-9-5 5000 LADY EVER-SC-SURE (CD) (B) J Ethe

0003 BELLE VIJE R Hollinsheed 11-8-0 ... 00(0-0 MOUNTARKEER J Leigh 5-8-0

[Televised: 1.45, 2.15, 2.45]

1.45 LADA RIVA HANDICAP (£1,725: 1 4f (7 runners)

Note: The second of the second

TASKFORCE VICTORY (8F) W A Staphenson B-U EHICE 18 DOMENTSNOOKERCENTRE E Woymes 8-10 ... Gust 5 11

ng High 8-6 E Hide (4-5 ter) J FitzGerald 7 ren.

2.45 BAYFORD FUELS HORN BLOWER STAKES

7 1131 ABSENT CHRES D Thom 9-7 P Robleson 5 8036 LADY DONAL (D) 65 R Boss 9-4 B Raymond 9 1243 LANGSFED (D) P Riggen 8-6 Miller 1982: Masjid 9-3 R Hills (4-1) H Thomson Jones 6 ran.

FORSE: ABSENT CHIMES (8-10) best indisma Pencil (8-10) 11/4 at Goodwood (5f. 214,804, good to firm, Jul 31, 9 ran), with (ADY DOMNA (6-7) SI avery 3rd. Lady Domna (8-8) 4/4 5th of 10 to Glory CU Haru (8-8) at Newbury (SI, 27,996, good, Aug 15). LANDSYEED (8-6) 4/4 4rd of 10 to Imported Jado (8-7) at Goodwood (SI, 27,752, good to firm, Aug 3). Selection: ABSENT CHIMES.

3.15 VARIETY CLUB OF GREAT BRITAIN SELLING

HEREFORD

2.30 DINMORE NOVICE HURDLE (2589: 2m 4f) (11

1 00-02 BORDOR L Berratt 8-10-12 R Crank
3 300- CONN THE COBBLER J Fenion 6-10-12 M Perrett
4 0000- MR JET C BORROY 6-10-12 M Perrett
5 00/00 SOVEREIGNS IMAGE (B) J Spearing 5-10-12 W Haven 7

3.0 EARDISLAND SELLING HURDLE (£514: 2m) (6)

15-8 He's A Tramp, 9-4 To-Palifori-Mou, 7-2 Lorna-By, 8 Water Exton Girl, 16 Easy Mover, 20 Pernolo.

3.30 HOLE IN THE WALL NOVICE CHASE (21,165:

4-8 Absent Chimes, 7-2 Lady Donns, 5 Landspeed.

STAKES (2-y-o: £1,629: 6f) (17)

(2-y-o: £4,830: 5f) (3)

GOING: hard.

runners)

2m 4f) (3)

2.15 PHILIP GREEN HANDICAP (£1,725: 1m) (19)

25 0004 CAPTAIN TONISE Miss S Hell 7-13
38 0-000 SOBROUET Miss J. Siddel 7-12
40 0004 HIGHEST TENDER (B) K Stone 7-9
41 0100 STAR PATRICK (D) D Cheproen 7-7

Northern Trick to return in triumph

From Desmond Stoneham, Paris There are no English runners for the Mine in the Diane, Northern Trick opening day of the antumn season had been a half-length runner-up to at Longchamp, but the racing is the same filly in the Prix St Alary, nevertheless extremely interesting.

Maurice Zilber has a jockey nevertheless extremely interesting. The feature race tomorrow will be the Prix de la Nonette, which is a

My selection for the 10-furlong comest is Northern Trick, who has not been seen since cantering away with the Prix de Diane Hermes (French Oaks) on June 10. This daughter of Northern Dancer carries a group one penalty, but she should still deleat Treizième, Ibadiyya and Lady Tamara.

Cash Assurance le C. trial for the Prix Vermeille on September 16.

Cash Asmussen left Deauville last Wednesday to work Northern Trick on the Chantilly gallops and the young American reported at Clairefontaine yesterday that the filly is in perfect condition. Prior to her five-length victory over Grise

Maurice Zilber has a jockey problem as Alain Lequeux has been claimed for River Mare, thus leaving Treizième without a partner 24 hours before declaration time.

It is a great pity that no English trainer has sent a horse for the fivefurlong Prix d'Arenberg as the race is suited to the sort of early two-year-old which you find across the Channel. In the absence of a raider,

Give Thanks looks ready

Few of last season's top three- as Declan Gillespie, who rode her in year-olds had a busier campaign than Give Thanks, the Irish Oaks winner, who rattled up a handsome score of six wins (Our Irish Racing score of six wins (Our Irish Racing Correspondent writes). It was decided to keep her on in training this season, but Jim Bolger, her trainer, encountered problems and only now has he been able to get her onto the course. She has her first outing of the year in the group three Brownstown Meld Fillies Stakes over one and a half miles at the Curraph this afternoon. Curragh this afternoon.

Ironically, no sooner had Bolger managed to solve his equine problem than he was faced with the task of finding a substitute jockey,

M Miller 12 S Horsfall 5 15 - 17

as Declan Gillespie, who rode her in all her races last year, sustained a fractured leg. Bolger has offered the ride to Christy Roche, this year's Epsom Derby-winning jockey.

Onale is the English challenger with Pat Eddery aboard, but a more serious threu could be provided by Marble Run, who ran third to Princess Pati in this year's Irish Oaks.

Tolomeo and Adonijah are probable English challengers for next Saturday's Phoenix Champion Stakes. They could be joined by Lear Fan if Guy Harwood decides to run Rousillon in the Prix du Moulin du Longchamp in his place.

SANDOWN PARK

Televised: 1.30, 2.0, 2.30, 3.0] GOING: good to firm Draw: 5f low numbers best, 7f-1m high

TOTE: double 2.30, 3.35; treble 2.0, 3.0, 4.10 1.30 BERNARD SUNLEY SELLING STAKES (2-y-o: 23,588: 7f) (18

BOB AND PETER (W Douglas-Home) J Douglas-Home 8-11
EASTER RAMERLER (P Houlitan) H Beaselry 8-11
HYDRUN (Mrs C Headh) J Berhell 8-11
HYPERSARIC (J Kenny) R Hearmon 8-1
JAY-ZEE BOY (8) J Zaweni N Callaghen 8-11
JOHN GELPIN (Mrs A Stabbs) H Stabbs 8-11
KAMARADCK (Mrs C Carson) C Spares 8-11
PIRRIEGHT (8) (Mrs E Jackmen) A Davision 8-11
SHAMER'S PRIDE (Sant & Co) D Jernov 8-11
THAT WOLLD BE NECE (Mass 6 Coo) R Hoad 8-11
BLAIR'S WINNIE (Mrs D Bohon) Pat National 8-8
FLYING SCARLET (D Hodges) P Makin 8-8
JETLING (G Carfing) M Haynes 8-8
JETLING (G Carfing) M Haynes 8-8
MILVA (Mrs D Hammerson) R Haznos 8-8
MILVA (Mrs D Hammerson) R Haznos 8-8
MILVA (Mrs D Hammerson) R Haznos 8-8
SUN UP (A Levy) G Prichard-Gordon 8-8
1993; Sully Choice 8-11 8 Trylor (11-4 ter) J Hindley 15 ran, Tracks, 5 Sun Up, Jay-Zee Boy, 8 Jeiline, Flying Scarlet, Ees Jerstinson 4 Making Tracks, 5 Sun Up, Jay-Zee Boy, 6 Jethre, Flying Scarlet, Easter Rembier, 10 mm 6 Proto: 12 Others.

Sherma's Profect 2 Others.

POSSE: JAN-ZEE-BOY (7-5) besten just over 8i when 4th of 8 behind Denos By Might (8-4) at Brighton (71.54.728) good to farm, Aug 7). SHAMMA'S PREDE (8-11) beaten 11 by Salis Time (8-6) at Bath (5.51.742), hard, stop 30.5 a ran). TRAT WOULD BE MEDE (7-6) beaten over 5i when unplaced behand And Also, 6-9) at Lingdied (71.52.211, good to farm, Aug 11. 10 ran). ACT the 6-85 beaten 61 when 44th of 12 beaten 62 and 6-85 beaten 62 when 44th of 12 beaten 63 and 6-80 with LINARIA (8-6) at kurtur 3f away in 3th (Lindald (8-6) at kurtur 3f away in 3th (18-6) beaten 4th of 10 beaten 5th (18-6) beaten 5th (18-6) at Kurtur 3f away in 3th (18-6) at Wolverhampton (85, 2580, good to firm, Aug 14).

Selection: Stat UP:

Sandown selections

By Mandarin 1:30 Sun Up. 2.0 Cree Bay. 2:30 Oh So Sharp. 3.0 DOUBLE CELT (nap). 3:35 Michright Mouse. 4:10 Dawn Star.

By Our Newmarket Correspondent.

1.30 Jay-Zer-Boy. 2.0 Walter-Kohring. 2.30 Oh So Sharp. 3.0 Double Celt.

2.0 MECCA BOOKMAKERS SPRINT HANDICAP (23,329: 5f) (13)

Others.
FORM: MILK HEART (9-10) the of 8 beaten just over 8 betted Grand Herbour (8-12) at Sandown (77 24-58, good to tree, 44-7). CREE BAY (8-0) and of 15 beaten just under 2 by American (8-2) at York (8, 25.59, good to firm, Aug 21). Price MANGE (8-3) beaten just under 4 when 4th of 8 betten Manchesterskylsten (7-7) at Goodwood (8, 27.687, good to firm, Aug 25, DURANDAL 6-4) 4th of 11 beaten just over 510 by Sound O' The San (8-1) with Gentric Entre? (8-1) was beaten in Sin (Newtony, 51, 12.983, good, Aug 16, 17°S A PLEASURE (9-7) 17-13 of of 10 beaten Lattle Mandem (7-7) was YANGSTE-KLANG (8-10) a further pack away in 4th at Chapainer (81, 21.977, large YANGSTE-KLANG (8-10) a further pack away in 4th at Chapainer (81, 21.977, large Aug 26).

eg pjenerije po

ted to be state. gi urcki mat

1 1 NO

10.00

**

and the second

The state of the s

1 4 4 1 2 E

CHROW And Same

. e.ga (atum

gpg6f

2.30 SOLARIO STAKES (2-y-o; £11,283: 7f) (9) BURLAHIU STAKES (2-y-0: £11,285; /1) (9)

21 MUNCHIEK (D) (R Hood, J Dunlop 9-0

121932 BRAVE RAMBIND (Her P Yong) J Emerington 8-11

3 DIAMPICUS (A Furn) J White 8-11

442 SOLDAT BLSS (D) (M Al Markound M Stocke 8-11

1 ST HILARION (D) (A Christodoulou) G Harwood 8-11

1 YOUNG HILARION (D) (A Christodoulou) G Harwood 8-11

1 OH SO SHARP (Shalich Mohermed) H Cool 8-8

1 OH SO SHARP (Shalich Mohermed) H Cool 8-8

1 ST HILARION (D) (Shalich Mohermed) H Cool 8-8

1 ST HILARION (Shalich Mohermed) H Cool 8-8

1 ST H W Carson
M L Thomas
B Rouse
B Thomas
B Dulland
W R Swinters
P Wateroo
G Startony
1 Piggot

1985; Felshalf 9-0 W Carson (5-4 lav) W Hern 4 last.

2 St Hillarion, 9-4 Oh So Sharp, 7-2 Nuncheuk, 5 Young Rumaway, 14 Brave Bambino, Soldat Stu., 20 obbers.

FORM; MIJMCHUEK (9-0) heat Crimition (9-0) by meck at Goodwood (71, £4,953, good to firm, Aug. 5, 18 ran) BRAVE Blassmald (9-7) heaten's make by Storm Burst (7-7) at York (7, £4,175, good to firm, Aug. 201, 13 ran) Durasticiolas (9-0) 3/9 3rd of 11 behind Knossam (9-0) at Ascot (8f, £6,986, good to firm, Jul 201, Gall, LAKE (5-8) floating fast when 319-4th of 10 behind Glory Of Harz (5-8), good to firm, Jul 201, Gall, LAKE (5-8) floating fast when 319-4th of 10 behind Glory Of Harz (5-8), at Newton (5-9, 596, good, Aug. 25, 5 may, 457 HEARRON (5-0) beat Obsequent source blavenesses (4-9), by 1/3 at Newtonsiest (17, £2,771, good to firm, Jun 30, 12 may, *Collegenesses (9-0) by 1/3 at Newtonsiest (17, £2,771, good to firm, Jun 30, 12 may, *Collegenesses (9-0) beat Curriers (8-0) by 21 at Goodwood (6f, £1,464, good to soft, May 22, 12 rand, OH 80, 284, 13 guickened well to best Lizarra (8-11) by 1/9 at Notinginsm (6f, £1,562, good to firm, Aug. 13, £1,271).

3.0 SPORTSMANS CLUB HANDICAP (3-y-o: £3,392: 1m 2f) (9)

3.35 LADBROKE HOLIDAYS HANDICAP (22,225: 1m 6f) (19)

9 48504 OUR ISLAND STORY (B) (Narve Houghton'R Johnson Houghton's 3-46
1 1906-00 WORDSWORTH (Nomete Lad) D Wilson 4-84 Jerice 5-1
2 480243 MAN IN GREY (B) (F Feerey) G Prichard-Gordon 4-94 G Duritud 7-1
3 431 ROSTOVA (N Gredley) F Durt 3-8-4 G Duritud 7-1
3 08223 RANSWORA (BP) (A Hall M Smyly 3-8-13) R Current 7-1
45238 TUDOR SINUSER (Brissland D Edworth 4-9 ROSE 1-1
45239 TUDOR SINUSER (Brissland D Edworth 4-9 ROSE 1-1
45239 RAUSKORA (BR) (A Hall M Smyly 3-8-13) R Current 1990-9 RAUSKORA (BR) (A Hall M Smyly 3-8-13) R Current 1990-9 RAUSKORA (BR) (Brissland 3-6-5 R Current 1990-9 R ROSE 1-1 48-500. WORTH WHILE (S Dursmy) C Egwas 3-9-9 WORTH WHILE (S Dursmy) C Egwas 3-9-9 WORTH WHILE (S Dursmy) C Egwas 3-9-9 C RESIDENT (D BRISS CANADRAL (M Brissland M Smyly 3-7-13 A Michigan 1990-9 R R Current M S RESIDENT R ROSE 1-1 A Michigan 1990-9 R R ROSE 1-1 R ROSE 1990-9 R ROSE 1990-9 R R RO

4.10 LEXWILKINSON MAIDEN STAKES (3-y-o: 21,914: 1m 2f) (10)

4-10 LEX WILKINSON MADDEN STAKES (3-y-0.2.1,3-14005 304-SH FLEXIBLE LAD (8F) (Torester Lin) J Warrer 9-0
609 90 FREE BUCK IR Cluses it Swift 9-0
611 4- NOREY DEW WOODER O Mose) D Season 9-0
612 49-00 KARAMONN Jogs Own) M Stocks 9-0
613 94 MADER (Season Passed A) (Theiria) C Horytin 9-0
615 30-00 9502 LESTYLEY WOODER (5-0) Spring 9-0
620 3-223 DAWN STAR (Wicklibrok Chartenes) J Duplop 9-11
622 4504-9 HY ARELING (5 Hervey) M Pipe 8-17
623 00000 WHAT A POPE (V M Lawyer) M Haynes 8-11
624 100000 WHAT A POPE (V M Lawyer) M Haynes 8-11

Blinkered first time
Classes 20 Occommon 20 West Gray.

Lord Steller: $30 Thur's Double.

Belled blind. Bendeburg. Stirs: 4.0

Tion Ribs, Shifty Ann; 4.45 Greensyen.

CHESTER [Televised: 2.0, 2.30, 3.0, 3.30].

GOING: good to firm Draw: up to 7 1/21, low numbers best. Tota: double 3.0, 4.0; treble 2.30, 3.30, 4.30. 2.0 LINENHALL STAKES (2-y-o: 22,910: 6f) .(10 runners) . JERNICHT GUN P Weiwyn 8-11 J. Mercer

ARMORAD R. Johnson-Houghton 8-8 K. Durley
BRIJMAN R. Woodhouse 8-8 W. Rysen 3
822 DASTOUR (SP) W.O'Gormen 8-6 T. Thee
PLOMEGAS DAY C. Crossley 8-8 T. Rogers
00 LEHRALL M. Blanchert 8-8 A. Bond
00 CCONOMOROC (S) W. Quest 8-8 A. Bond
03-42 RECORD FLYER (S) H. Winston 8-8 J. Lower
122 MATRAK H. Thomson Jones 8-6 R. R. Cocknave
1983; Spenik Nobly 9-3 B. Sheether 8-5 R. Cocknave
1983; Spenik Nobly 9-3 B. Pactour 7-2 Maizeri, 5. Tircon-By, 1.

PORISE INCOMENTS GISM (8.0) Topes Microbillary %1 (8-11) at Casteriok (77, 2385, firm Aug 18, 17 ram). DASTOUR (8-11) 41 2nd to Henry The Lion (8-0) at Yearnessin (77, 21,034, good to first, Aug 28, 13 ram). RECORD, PLYER (9-0) Short head 2nd to Shretise (9-5) at Heydook (87, 22,572, good to firm, Aug 11, 7 ram). MATRAH (8-11) 1 7x1 2nd to Princess Cartolis (8-11) at Record (8, 17, 1755, firm, Aug 10, 7 ram). THEODY-BLY (8-11) 4 3rd to Ever So (8-11) at Folkestone (87, 2257, good to firm, Aug 21 13 ram).

2.30 BERRY MAGICOAL SUREFIRE HANDI-CAP (£3,230: 1m 4f 65yd) (11) AP (E3,230: 1m 4f 65yd) (11)

2118 WAGONER (CD)(BP) PWIsheyn 4-10-0 __IMercer 9
2120 SCOUTSMETACE B Nichebourd 4-5-10 __R Cochrane 1
3031 PLYING SCOTTEMAN (C), R Holfmehand 4-5-10 ____ These 0400 RECORD WING (SF) D Hayon Jones 9-7-7 ... R Lines 5 8 1935 Wherein 5-9-1 M Blrch (5-1) G Pricherd-Gordon 9 cms

11-4 Wagoner, 7-2 Flying Scottman, 5 Archite, 5 Sco Charlotte's Dunce, 10 Shangoseer, 14 others. FORM: WARDINER (9-0) 18 thin of 10 behind Neorion (8-6) at Agr (Int 71, 29-122, pool us) 16). SCOUTSMENTAKE (7-6) over 27 7m, of 17 behind Ring of Clubs (8-12) at York (8t, £17,116, good to firm, Aug 23). FLYING SCOTSMAN (8-7)-2-9 where those Lacentine (9-5) at Heydock (1m 27 Stryet, 27,27), good to firm, Aug 11, 7 mm). ARRIBERLUE, 6-0, 6-14 this of 15 behind Homebown (9-2) at Hippor (In-11, £2,409, good, Aug 6). PRAGON FREE (8-2) mad STAR BURST (7-8) back in 8th when 171 5th of 9 behind Petermoster Row (8-9) at Heydock (1m 97, £3,047, good to firm, Aug 8). CHARLOTTE'S DUNCE (7-10) 359 3rd of 10 to Joy Ride (8-12) at Rigon (1m 4), £2,553, good to firm, Aug 18, 10 cm).

3.0 BERRY MAGICOAL MATCHLESS NURSERY HANDICAP (2-y-o: 25,439: 7f) (14) Ott TEUFEL L Comeri 6-5 D McHargus II Peld 2712 SHURDOO (SF) H Thomson Jones 5-2 R Hills 19 Ott MAN STAR (b) T Feithurst 7-12 L Love 19 MAN STAR (b) T Feithurst 7-12 R L Love 19 MAN STAR (b) T Feithurst 7-12 R L Love 19 MAPOUN R Johnson Hooghton's 10 K Darley 19 MAPOUN R Johnson Hooghton's 10 K Darley 19 MAPOUN R Johnson Hooghton's 10 K Darley 19 MAPOUN R JOHNSON HORSON R JOHNSON R J

PORISE SOLO MATRIE (8-0) 1/1 2nd to kincraent (8-5) at Newbury (72, 25,309, good, Aug 17, 6 ren), ULLA LARIG (8-5) 7/1 winner from Ben's Surprise (8-10) at Windsor (62, 12,305, good, Aug 25, 10 ren), TEMPEL, (9-5) complexable 4-1 winner over Roberto's Finder (8-3) at Newcastle (67, 21,447, good to from Aug 14, SHUROOO (8-1) 7-1 2nd to Institute (8-6) at Ripon (8-2, 25-16, good to from Aug 14, 10 ren), Lineack (8-6) at Ripon (8-2, 25-16, good to from Aug 14, 10 ren), Lineack (8-6) at Ripon (8-2, 25-16, good to from Aug 14, 10 ren), Lineack (8-6) at Ripon (8-2, 25-16, good to from Aug 14, 10 ren), Lineack (8-6) at Windsor (91, 10 ren), Lineack (8-6) at Ripon (8-2, 25-16, good to from Aug 18, 10 ren), Lineack (8-6) at Windsor (91, 10 ren), Lineack (8-6

2.15 GLENISLA JUNVENILE NOVICE HURDLE (3-y-o: 2474: 2m) (8 runners)

HARTBURN RESEL I Victors 10-7 S Keigh

44 MAG MAK MOTOR R Thompson 10-7 R S Co.
28 VICENC RADIES Durys Smith 10-7 C G
DARRENBOTON DEAL C Pader 10-2 J O's
RESEMBLE M Lamber 10-2 P A Chart

53 Moonlight Bay 10-2 P Chartion (9-3 tay) M Lamber 8 res.

2.45 TURNEL BRIDGE HANDICAP HURDLE (2779:

3.15 BLAIRADAM HANDICAP CHASE (£1,135: 3m)

GOUNG: firm.

1969 M

2m 4f) (6)

23.010. good to fitte, Jul 30, 18 ranh, WESTERHAM (8-4) 15! 4th of 7 toetrind Prismatio (8-4) at Lingdaid (6f. 21.525, good to firm, Aug 22, 7 ranh, MANYOUN 66-11) 7d witner from Gable (8-11) at Haydook (71.40yd, 23.385, good to firm, Aug 11, 18 ranh. Salection: ULLA LANG.

BO BERRY MAGICOAL SU HANDICAP (£3,542:71122yd) (16) 0000 BOOKTOWN CHARLE (B) WO'G DIAMOND CUTTER R Willerins S-8-5 S Cauffine MOORES METAL R Hollenbend 4-8-12 W Ryun 3 1 HOOLIGAN (CD) P Robent 4-8-8 JReid TRIMURS DOUBLE (B) R Johnson Houghton 3-7-13 12 1112 BLOWING BUSSLES P Minchell 47-13 (7 ex) 1112 BLOWING BURSLES P NAME TO THE STATE OF 4021 SEF'S DANCE F Dur 3-7-7 G Dicke 7
0000 SUNDABURG (8) S Matthews 4-7-7 G Dicke 7
0000 PARABELIS Denys Spith 5-7-7 M Fry 1
281 MASTER DRIVER Denys Spith 5-7-7 N Carleile
3001 ROYABER D Haydo Jones 8-7-7 (7 ed) J Lives
400 LAST DEVICE (CD) R Francis 7-7-7 L Physics 1
1983: Hollywood Party 4-9-4 R Hills (5-1) B Hills 13 ran.

3 Blowing Bubbles, 7-2 Diamond Cutier, 9-2 Bee's Dance, 6 Young Knight, 8 Master Driver, 10 Robiber, 12 Hoolgen, Moores Metel, 10 others. others.

PORRE: BOOM TOWN CHARLE: [-10] over 14 % 17th of 9 to Recycl (8-5) at Newmarkst (84, 53,501, good, Aug 25), DIAMOND CUTTER (8-9) St 2nd to Respot Tap Tap (9-6) at Brighton (84, 52,858, good to Brim, Aug 7, 4 ms), MoORES METAL, (8-8) over 2 ½ 18th of 17 behind King Of Club (8-12) at York (84, 517, 116, good to Brim, Aug 25), BLOWRIG REPRILES (60-8) 21 to Atta Kadra (9-8) at Windoor (1m, £1,537, good, Aug 25, 18 ran), SALLAO (82,800 (8-2) over 27 7th of 8 behind Resent (7-7) at Redoor (77, £2,533, good to Brim, Aug 10, 8 ran), YOUNG KRECHT (7-7) at Redoor (77, £2,533, good to Brim, Aug 10, 8 ran), YOUNG KRECHT (7-7) at Cash to bett Nassenk (8-3) 27 to over today's course and displayed (23,555, good, July 14, 7 ran). BUNDABURG (8-10) 6 % 15th to Longarous (23,555, good, July 14, 7 ran). BUNDABURG (8-10) 6 % 15th to Longarous (8-1) at Goodwood (71, £2,528, good to Brim, Aug 26). Selection: BLOWING BURSILES.

Chester selections By Mandarin
2.0 Matrah. 2.30 Wagoner. 3.0 Ulla Laing. 3.30 Bee's
Dance. 4.0 Primavera Dancer. 4.30 Runaway Lover.

By Our Newmarket Correspondent
2.0 Matrah. 2.30 Our Lady. 3.0 Teufel. 3.30 Diamond Cutter. 4.0 Primavera Dancer. 4.30 Al Mustajaz.

4.0 ROUGE ROSE MAIDEN FILLIES STAKES (3-y-ox 200 COUNTY LINE R Willerms 9-11 Thee
DTS WAG Miss B Syloss 8-11 R Cochrane
05-06 ELEZANT NELL Mrs F. Placock 6-11 L Gramock
0040 GLRIGHERMS (B) I Baking 8-11 P Cook
4003 HOME ADDRESS G Wrapp 6-11 I Reid
4022 MINOCENT NAID (BF) P Robert 8-11
9- BESI-REI (B) R Willerms 8-11
22 PREMAYERA DANCER (BF) L Cumant 8-11
D MCHarque

4.30 PARADISE MAIDEN STAKES (3-y-o: £1,950: 7 122yd) (12) 0- AL WIRTAJAZ H Thomson Jones 9-0 R Hills

G200 ARBITRAGE J Spearing 9-0 P Cook

8-00 RIMAWAY LOVER R Hismon 9-0 R HILLS

8-0 WASTI EDOWNWIND M (Uster 9-0 R HILLS

8-0 WASTI EDOWNWIND M (Uster 9-0 R HILLS

8-0 RESTLET R HISMON (B) D Laing 8-11 R HILLS

9-00 COR ANGLAIS (B) I Beiding 8-11 R Contents

9-00 COR ANGLAIS (B) I Beiding 8-11 R Street

9-00 COR ANGLAIS (B) I Beiding 8-11 R Street

9-00 REDMATHE G Pritchard-Gordon 8-11 R Street

9-00 SIZEL M H Essenty 8-11 K Hodgson

9-0-4 THEDAS 8 Notice 8-11 Love

9-0-9 WHY THE BUSTLE B Hobbs 8-11 A Beroley

1962: Hooligan 9-0 J Reid (9-2) P Rohan 20 ran.

9-8 Regouzhe, 7-2 Runnweg Lover, 5 Why The Sustin, Thoda, 8 II

3.45 CRAIGVINEAN NOVICE HURDLE (£449: 2m) (4) .5-4 Point North, 15-8 Pootwork, 5 Ochil Hills Star, 8 Duka's Gold.

Perth selections By Mandarin
2.15 Viking Raider. 2.45 Secret Finale. 3.15 Pounentes.
3.45 Ochil Hills Star. 4.15 Tumble Jim. 4.45 Waite. 4.15 LADYWELL NOVICE CHASE (£684: 2m) (5) 1 3411 TURRILE JM M Haughton 5-12-5 R Strongs
2 30g2- GOLD CAMP Lord Kitmany 8-11-7 J D'Neill
4 2322- TRAFAL GAR BR.L C Perker 7-11-7 B Storey
5 623-f ROMYSOL K Store 5-11-5 A Brown
6 4/ LECHORA F Welton 7-11-2 JM J Welton
1882: Super Solo 7-11-5 M Doughty (4-7 fav) G Richertia 4 rat. 8-11 Tumble Jan, 3 Ronysol, 6 Tradalger ISS, 8 Gold Camp, 16

45 ERROCHTY HANDICAP HURDOLE (Amateur: £610: 3m) (3) 3 by COVE HELP Morenth 5-11-7 P.J Dun 4
4 99-96 RAMOA'S SON N Waggort 8-11-6 Miss T Waggort 7
5 toda: WALTE G Harman 14-10-3
11842 Burelor 10-10-8 Mr D Couldry (11-2) G Richards 5 ran.
Evens Ramon's Son, 15-8 Walts, 7-8 Cove Hill.

1 9081- POUNESTIES (C) W McGrie 7-12-7 O'Nell 8 133-3 HAZY GLEN Y Barros 6-10-0 M Bernes 7- 6039- SOLAR BEE (S) W Meed 9-10-0 Mr. T Reed 7 1965: Father Delaney 11-11-7 J O'Nell (10-11 tay) Denys Smith 8 ren. OFFICIAL SCRATCHINGS: Rokeby Ferms MII Rest Strices, Newbury: Expeed. Hoover Files' Mile, Ascot: Kewsell Metd, Karbe Lake. Lectroises Ayr Gold Cup: Hobbed Ail engagements (deed): Virgo, Tzarbains, Cleveland Cirl, Boy George.

5 Indian Flower 4-ran. NPt. Next Winness. 71.
st. 3. C Netson at Lambourn. Totte 21.50.
22.50. DP. 21.40. CSP. 23.56. Inni 91. Steven.
3.36 (Inn) 1. TRIAGONAL (Pat Biddery, 11-2); 2.
Respon Tap Tap (W R Switchorn, 7-4 Favt, 3.
Genetic d'Or (5 Santon, 25-1). ALSO RANC 114 Pupils Sound, Sint, 6 Capricorn Belle (45t), 12 Ventholos (8th), 16 Rorth Casen. (8th), 12 Ventholos (8th), 16 Rorth Casen. (8th), 12 Ventholos (8th), 16 Rorth Casen. (8th), 18 Rorth Ca

Sandown results

Lambourn TOTE 25.70: 21.70, £1.10, £2.70.

Lambourn TOTE 25.70: 21.70, £1.10, £2.70.

De 28.60: CSP. E4.74. 'Imin 42.53eac'
4.10 (im. 3-1 100)46: 1. ACERCATE (5 Minimal Caseac)

John Sond Ristratory, 3-1) 3. Kalmahi (6 Rossa.
2-1) 2.10: CSP. E4.74. 'Imin 42.53eac'

Amount (6 Startory, 3-1) 3. Kalmahi (6 Rossa.
2-1) 2.10: CSP. E4.74. 'Imin 42.53eac'

Minimal III Assend, 18 'Kaleapaul, 2-1) Mac's

Reef year, Ristra (24), 2-2 High Phins.

Reef year, Ristra (24), 2-3 High Phins.

Self year, Ristra (24), 2-3 Hig

4.45 (7) 1, STAR FORMATION (Paul Eddery, 4-7 iny; 2, Mester Francia (T loss, 25-1); 3, Spanish Real (J Mercy, 5-1), 4.30 RAM: 10 Avobury, 12 Laidn (Strit, Senor Ramos, 20 Pethod (City (Shi), Touch Lucky, SS Bay Denoc, 4rth), Snockey Cam, 66 Scrart in Black; 11 man. NRF Spacial Boy, Hd. 2, 249, nk, 2, Hd. Cack, at Newmerter, 170TE 22.00; 51:20, 52:30, 51:10.

DF. 212.70, CSF: 217 18. Imin 30.12sec.

$.16 (7) 1, MEDULESEX (M Hils, 11-4; 2 Debigs (A Kimberley, 5-4 iny; 3, Boths Kraght (M Broth, 9-1), ALSO RAM: 8 Captain's Castle, 12 Ascension Island, 14 Almuhammad, 18 Wolvernass, 33 Abu Farez, Carverne, 50 Prince, Jim, 100 Brampton Imported, Cacket (11-10 tan), 82.20, 3 man. I Vickars. Totar 10 Trader, 12 ran. 194, St. B Hils at Lembourn. 10 ran. 194, St. B Hils at Lembourn. 194, St. B Hils at CSP: 26.78.

5.45 (71) 1, DREAMS TO REALITY [R Cockrans, (5-1); 2, Mins Merroe (A MoGions, 25-1); 3, Raisbow Vein (I. Charnock, 20-1), ALSO RAN: 3 for Rockoy's Pride, 7-2 Henry Vernium, 11-2 Batters Dozen, 8 Yarmouth Pier, 12 Lover Cover. 14, Le Sok, Resona, 25 Gagner, 11 rest. S hd. 9 Harwood at Pulsorough. TOTE 127-40; 22.00, 214.20, 24.30. Dr. 2411.30, SF. 2118.90, Tota double: 578.95, Trable: 212.60. Placapot: 558.05.

Going: Firm.

2.15 (2m hole) 1. Vysz Supreme (P A Farrell,
8-0; 2. Dates Gold (100-90); 3. Lucylet (2-1),
51. St. 5 ran. NFL Saver Dreamer. W H Wilsons.

who produced a filly by Shergar

300 ANTICA T Berron 8-8 S Webster
4406 BRISGA DIAMICAD 7 Fairhungt 8-9 ... C Contes 7
5022 CIMENTS GOLD (B) JETHerhogon 8-8 M Wood
60 DON'T TELL ME M W Easterby 8-8 M Hindsey 5
5000 SHIRLY ANN (B) N Tinkler 8-8 B Resmood
6000 TRIVILE BELL M W Easterby 8-8 E Hidde 1983: Panic Stations 9-4 B Crossity (7-2) P Makin 13 ran. S First Engagement, 4 Don't Tell Me, 5 Kepegi, 6 Swing Tree, 8 Brega's Diamond, Cindy's Gold, 12 others. 3.45 CHILDREN'S CHARITIES MAIDEN STAKES (3-y-o: £2,938: 1m 2f) (9)

1983: Zabeel 9-0 E Hide (5-2) R Johnson Houghton 12 mm. 9-4 Cherie's Angel, 3 Grand Teton, 9-2 Alcmene, 6 Com-Prince, 8 Ambergate, 12 others.

Ripon selections

House Vie., 10 Ledy Ever-So-Sure, 16 Mountaineer.

PORM: Whatskey EYES (11-3) & 4th of 14 to Hold Tight (1-5) at Haydock (1m 8f, 72.884, good to firm, Aug 11). SEA BED (8-0) just over 10 Bth of 10 to Holphus Haze (8-11) at Newtoninket (1m 2f, 23.064, good, Aug 11). and Library (1m 37, 23.64, good to firm, Aug 39 with LUCKY APPEAL (8-9) reck away 4th, LADY EVER-SO-SURE (8-11) 12 7th of 18 to Mr Misco Man (8-0) in Postational Select (1m 2f, 2727, good, Aug 6) with BELLE VIE (8-0) out of firt nine. MOUNTAINEER (7-7) out of first cline of 13 to Mandam Flutterbye (8-11) at Licester (1m 4f, 72.842, good to firm, Aug 20).

Selection: MALADRII By Mandarin 1.45 Whiskey Eyes, 2.15 Game for a Laugh, 2.45 Absent Chimes, 3.15 Cindy's Gold, 3.45 Alemene, 4.15 Italian

By Our Newmarket Correspondent 1.45 Lucky Appeal. 2.15 Taygetus, 2.45 Absent Chimes. 3.45 Alcmene. 4.15 Transilash. 4.45 Giada.

4.15 FRIENDS OF THE VARIETY CLUB HANDI-CAP (22,228: 6f) (16) 2 8-000 TOP O'THE NORTH (D) M W Easterby 4-6 1892 KAREN'S STAR (CD) D Chapman 7-9-6 S P Griffishs 5 13 15 0400 MEL'S CHORCE D Plant 6-9-2 B COOGNI 16 3442 ITALIAN SECRET (BF) B McMahon 3-9-1 S Parks 16 3310 TRANSPLASH (D) E Eldio 5-8-12 B Raymond 20 9-212 CAPTABL TEMPEST (D) T Barron 4-8-11 21 DOOD BHOON'S SECRET (CD) (B) A Jarvin 10-5-10 S White

Samon Radio, B Moon Melody, 12 others.

FORBI: MONARELIA (9-2) bear Beet Laby (9-7) a nuck at Pentahract (81, 25,855, pool, Aurg. 9, 10 mm). CAMEDEN CAD (9-10) 132 7th of 9 to Pupat Sound (8-13) at Warwick (81, 22,848, firm, Jul 25). TASKFORCE VICTORY (9-7) 8 2nd of 10 to Surner Royal (7-12) at Catisnick (61, 21,855, firm, Aurg 19, DONBYSMOOKERCENTRE (8-8) 11th of 13 to Homstown (9-2) at Rigon (8, 23,408, good, Aug 5, 1600N MELOOY (9-10) beat Sports Headinase (9-11) in Recar salare (81, 257, good, Aug 7, 12 rm), SAUCON RADIO (9-7) beat Warning Style (8-4) 11yl in Rigon select (91, 21,380, firm, Apr 28, 13 rm). CAPTAIN TOWNER (8-5) about 81 4th of 7 to Kneed Palace (8-3) at Newcastie (81, 22,378, good to firm, Aug 149.

Selection: DONNYSMOOKERCENTRE. 1983: Willie Gart 5-9-0 D Leedbitter (7-1) Denya Smith 10 ran. 3 Karen's Star, 4 Italian Secret, 9-2 Captain Tempest, 6 Transitiath, 8 Me's Cholos, Captain's Sidd, 12 others. 4.45 KEIGHLEY APPRENTICE STAKES (21,050: 1m

10 (11) 15-8 Glada, 100-30 Noncense, 4 Chanayem, 6 Flaming Peel, 9 Shensani, 12 Bob-Doubla, 20 others.

 Dennis McKay will be out of action until at least Monday after pulling chest muscles at Brighton on Monday after pulling chest muscles at Brighton on Thursday.

Today is the deadline for the Long John Scotch Whisky European Apprentice Championship. At present Tyrone Williams, with 39 winners, leads Willie Ryan and Simon Whitworth by three. The top winner will represent Britain in a contest against the leading apprentice from seven other European countries in October.

4.0 RUSS WATKINS HANDICAP CHASE (£1,749: 2m 4 3p-41 SOME JONES (D) W Clay 8-12-0 SJ O'Neil
5 00-01 MANSHAL MIGHT R Woodhouse 9-11-12 — P Scustamore
7 44-34 INDIGHT OF LOVE Mrs S Devenport 9-11-2 — H Davies
12 0p-22 STATE MRN (D) M Low 9-10-10 — M Low 4
14 22-02 SPARANIE'S PET D Gandoift 9-10-8 — R Earnshaw
17 4-423 THE WILEZEL (D) R Holder 9-10-0 — C Gray
1983: Flesh Herry 10-10-0 C Smith (2-1) F Yardley 4 ran. 5-2 Marshal Night, 7-2 State Run, 9-2 Grannie's Pet, 5 Some Jinks, 11-2 Knight Of Love, 13-2 The Wurzel.

Hereford selections By Mandarin

2.30 Bondor. 3.0 To-Pallikari-Mou. 3.30 Phosphate. 4.0

Grannie's Pet. 4.43 Chief Bransfoot. 5.0 Tudor Bob.

7 9 VIA OPPIDEM H Harper 5-20-22 W Hayes 7
8 04 BERLEY HILL LAD R Woodhouse 4-10-10 P Scudemore 8 Up0-3 DUSTY RUSHES M Castell 6-10-7 Mc All Derby 10 pdpp GMGEROCE D Tucker 8-10-7 N Coleman 7 MANOR VERW R Bridgewise 9-10-7 N Coleman 7 MANOR VERW R Bridgewise 9-10-7 W Worthington 7 PEDLARS REST B Morgan 10-10-7 G Williams 7 PEDLARS REST B Morgan 10-10-7 G Williams 7 1952 (2m) FOOISH Hooley 6-10-5 C Smith (39-1) E Seven 10 ran. 6-4 Bondor, 2 Burley Hill Lad, 9-2 Mr Jet, 7 Conn The Cobbler, 14 usty Rushes, 20 others. 4.30 TARRINGTON HANDICAP HURDLE (£857: 2m)

9-4 Chief Blackdoot, 11-4 Flori Wonder, 9-2 Wonkey's Luck, 13-2 Light Sentence, Penscynor, 10 Roysle, 12 others. 5.0 YARSOP CONDITIONAL JOCKEYS HANDICAP CHASE (£1,204: 2m) (2)

4-6 Tudor Bob, 11-10 Ballybutler.

Sulaafah leads

Shareef Dancer, winner of the 1983 Irish Sweeps Derby, has achieved the unusual feat of getting all 36 of his mares in foal in 1984. Shareef Dancer stands at the Dalham Hall Stud, near New-market, and among the mares to visit him there were Ma Biche, winner of the 1983 1,000 Guineas,

English 1-2

Sulaafah (Tony Murray) con-tinued the excellent form of Tom Jones, by running out a decisive winner of the £16,456 Most and Chandon Zukunfisrennen over six furlongs at Baden-Baden yesterday. He disputed the lead with Faraway Grey (Richard Hills) from two furlongs out but Sulazah always held the upper hand held the upper hand Khwlah (Richard Hills) was beaten three lengths into second by the favourite, Solarstern, in the £5,063 Preis der Stadt Baden-Baden over 10 fürlongs.

Yawa (Taffy Thomas) is the lone British hope in Europe's most valuable race this weekend, the £41,772 Grosser Preis von Baden over 12 furlongs, at Baden-Baden tomorrow, His main rivals are likely to be Strawberry Road (Brent Thomson), Esprit Du Nord (Gary Moore) and Abary (Georg Bocskai).

3.U SPORT SMARKS CLUB HANKINGAP (3-y-C: KX,392-1m) 402 221110 AYAABI (3) (Shakin Monamusch M Stoute 9-7
403 631904 MOURE HUNTER (3) (1) Humphreyal C Horgan 9-5
406 811900 STREAMERFAIL (8) T Pictorian) H Cock 9-4
413 020-012 OURSECELLA (80) (Laxy Feithswed) M Prescot 9-5
414 000003 MAPAUS (8) (1) Goldstein) R Umrion 8-5
414 000003 MAPOUS MARKE Maison Reckey Larry D Laking 8-4
415 000002 FAMBANGO KIRT (5) (H Pictoria) D Environ 8-9
417 000102 OURCESTER (5) (M Stammonds) C Strikelin 7-11
1935 Chitis Game 8-8 8 Trajfor (4-1) J Hwidey 7 man 1744 Double On. 24 Market 1 20 Character & March Market R Show

on 3-6-6
D Price 5-1
J March 7
G Duffeeld 1
G Starkey
R Cureck
M198
R Rose 1
— R Fox 1
— W Cerson 1 9-2 Pink Smit, 5-Bostova, 6 Men in Grey, 8 Madam Flutterbye, Our leiund Story, 16 Sections, Midnight Mouse, 14 offers. A Rouse

5-2 Nacior, 3 Open Star, 7-2 Karamoon, 8 Fluxbie Lad, Official Res Khown, 16-Obsers.

4-11 Pounertes, 4 Hazy Glan, 5 Soler Bee.

RUGBY LEAGUE

Reputation at stake for record entry

By Keith Macklin

The image and reputation of Rugby League in Britain, tarnished by six successive antipodean defeats and the defections at Craven Cottage and Ninian Park, are on the line as the season opens this time as the season opens this weekend. However, League officials take comfort from the fact that the number of senior clubs, 36, is a record, and the game will open in six new centres, Bridgend, Crystal, Palace, Mansfield, Runcorn, Sheffield and Southend.

Fulham, rescued by the Maidenhead businessman. Roy Close, oper at Cristal Palace with a home game against Bridgend, salvaged from the ashes of Cardiff, Both teams will have basically the same squad as stadium on the outskirts of the city Sheffield Eagles begin their life with a home game against Rochdale Hornets. Eagles are led by the former Leeds and York hooker Gary Hetherington, who has gathered a mixture of experience and youth, including two hardened neterans in Harris and Farrar alongside him in the scrum.

At Runcorn the new Highfield team, born out of the defunct Huyton, are at home to one of the genuinely new clubs, Mansfield Marksmen, who have broken new geographical ground in Nottinghamshire.

The surprise departure of Kent Invitta from Maidstone has opened the way for Rugby League at Roots Hall, the ground of Southend United, In a move sanctioned by the High Court on Thursday Southend Invitta will fill Kent Invicta's place m the second division, using substantially the same team. They make their first appearance away to strong promotion challengers in York, and must wait until next weekend for their first home game against Bramley.

Wigan, who start the season at Castleford, have been lifted by a £25,000 sponsorship thanks to a former lootball player. Dave Whelan, who broke his leg in the 1960 FA Cup Final playing for Blackburn Rovers at Wembley, is now the millionaire chairman and managing director of a company named JJB Sports, which has offered JJB spots, which has offered Wigan's players £15.000 if they win the Challenge Cup, and £5.000 for each tournament if they take the championship or the John

Whelan: From FA Cup finalist to Rugby League Sponsor

SPEEDWAY

World title race is wide open

Ciothenburg (Reuter) - The world champion. Egon Muller, of West Germany, attempts to retain his title here today in a contest hereit of big names. In one of the most open finals for many years, Muller's stiffest competition is likely to come from the Australian. Billy Sanders. Shawn Moran, of the United States. and Denmark's Erik Gundersen. Sanders, who finished second to Muller in West Germany last year and third in one of his other three finals, hopes to become the first Australian to win the title since 1952, when Jack Young rode to victors in London. With the retirement of top rider-such as Ole Olsen, Ivan Mauger and

Bruce Penhall, the suspension of Michael Lee and the injury to Kenny Carter, Sanders will probably never have a brighter chance. Moran, whose brother Kelly among the fo riders contesting the title, became the sand-track world champion last year but is making his debut in the speedway finals.

Gundersen, trained by fellow Dane and former world champion. Olsen, has raced well in warm-up He is a noted quick starter, and on a track where overtaking is difficult. that could give him an advantage.

IN BRIEF

Swedes launch crackdown on drug abuse

Stockholm (AFP) - The Swedish Speats Confederation is to spend around £230,000 on a campaign against drug abuse in sport in the ecuatry.

This follows the disqualification

after positive drug tests of two Swedes - Thomas Johansson, the original Greco-Roman wrestling heavyweight silver medal winner, and Goran Peltersson, who was sinth in the heavyweight weighthfunt at the Olympic Games.

The money will enable drug tests to be held more frequently in all sports, and will also be used to improve specialist hospital facilities. Education about drugs for young athletes will be improved.

GOLF: Fred Couples recorded 2 five-under-par of to share the lead with his fellow American Mike Donald in the first round of the BC Open at Endicott in New York

SPORTS POLITICS: A Kenyan member of the International Olympic Committee has advocated the resumption of sporting ties with South Africa, the Natrobi Standard newspaper reported today. In a stion that was in direct conflict suggestion that was in direct conflict with Kenyan foreign policy, former Nairobi Mayor R. S. Alexander was quoted as saying that Kenya should ENTHS, MARRIAGES, DEATHS and IN MEMORIAM...24.90 = fine (minimum & times) THE TIMES 200 Gray's lon Road London WC1X SEZ or triephoned (by Iriephone subscribers only) to: 01-837 3311 or 01-837 3333. Funtami Directors' Describers: 01-278 9166 or 01-278 9167. STEE OF 01-278 STE7.

Amountements can be received by telephone between 9.00am and 5.30pm. Monday to Friday on Schurdsy between 12.00noon. (837 3511 analy). For tubliceden the following day. PORTHOUSENES, etc. on Court and Social Peop. 25 a Bee. 01-837 1224 ant 7714 Court and Social Page ennouncements can not be accepted by telephone. eccepted by telephone.

Man other classified advertisements can be excepted by telephone. The deadline is 8.00m 2 days prior to publication 0.e. 5.00 pm Monday for Wednesday; Should you wink to send an advertisement in writing please include your daytime phone mugher.

JESUS . . . said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on Mm that sent me. St. John 12: 44.

BIRTHS CHEYNE. - On 22nd August to Gay (nee Passes) and David a Mazilda Hospital Hong Kong - a 50n (Rory Alistair Walson). a brother for Alexander Alectander

CRACKNELL - On August 28th, at

Mount Alverrale. Catheford, lo

Deborah (nee Sexton) and Victor, lo

200 (Simon Victor), a brother for Alexanderi

HEALY- on 24th August to Caroline
ince Porteri and Anthony - a son Richard Chories, a brother for Vanessa. Vanetsa. HOLNEL - On Aug 29 to Frances and Charles, a daughter. Ametia Rose Charles, a daughter. Amedia Rose
JONIES On August 28th to Rosemary
JONIES On August 28th to Rosemary
JONIES On August 28th to Rosemary
JOYD - PACK. - On Aug 29th to Christopher and Philippa - a daughter (Ketherine).

MacADE - ON 23rd August to Diana free France-Hayhurst) and Andrew, a daughter (Alice Rosemal, a sider for James Thomas and William,
MACSERVELE. On August 20th to RIONTGOMERY, - On August 30th at Barnstable to Caroline and Henry, a daughter, Alexa. daughter. Alexa.

ROBERTS. On 28th August to Mary tree Bowent and lan - a daughter terminal juthete Length and the recommendation of the control of the cont SOSKICE. - On 18th August in Oxford to Janet mée Martin) and Offver - a daughter (Catherine Francesco). SUBBURY - On August 23rd at Chare Farm. Enfield to Shirtey free Greenwood and Robbin a prectous 2nd daughter Frances Etzabeth. A welcome stater for Eloahor. TRUGGIAN. On August 50th to Seara the Stern and Thomas - a brother for Sebasilan VINCEINT on 24th August 1984 in Louise une Findlay and Mark a daughter Antonia Keshet. wilson. On August 31st at Royal Free Hospital, Hampstead, to Carolyn into Knaggol and Kurl, a son, Alistair Robert Hobert.

"BLANLOCK On August 27th to Lesies (nee Shrigley Jones) and Martin, a son Melthyw Thomas Strickeu" MARRIAGES

AMERS: HARDING - The marriage hook place quictly on August 20th at 8 Mary's Saxon Church. Braemore, Fordingbridge, between Malor Can-eral J. H. Amers and Mrs. N. J. Harding Canon P M Duplock officialed officiated.

ANNOUNCING the marriage of John
Thomas Rapo and Anna Marie D'Amico on August 51st, 1984 at the Marriebone Register Office in the Marriebone Register Office in the Merriebone Register Office in Philipburgh, Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Philipburgh, Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Nutr Westerde
LISNEY - MALTBY, - On September
1st, 1944, at All Sabhis, Stechhord.
Birmingham, John to Margard,
Winchford Vicarage, Ely, Camba, CB6
2HQ, WORSFOLD - LLOYD YARNER - On September 2, 1944 at S. Nicholas Church, Pyrford, Christopher to Lette, Now at Goose Green.
Dunsfold, Surrey

IRWIN:DARLEY - On August Sist. 1934. at Tullow Church. Carrickmines, Dublin, Arthur Hugh Montgomery Irwin to Phytila Carlee Darley. Hartsteid Court. Sectimonts.
Surret;
MAYNARD: KNIGHT. On 18
September 1934 at William, Hertfordshire. Ernest to Elizabeth, now at Bishop's Lydeard. Somerset. Well done, you two.

DEATHS

Befrut.

BIRT. - On 29th August 1984 Lt Col
Antony Lascelles Birt. aged 75, of Liangrove House. Ross-on-Wyr.
Herriforushire. Husband of Noscenary Birt and father of Olivia Pittel and Josephine Chaler. Josephano Chater.

CARRICHAEL. On 4th August.
1984, at her home, 9 Beach Avenue,
Deep River. Onlarto. Margaret Etizabeth May Maclennan, wite of Hugh Carmichael. Hugh Carmicitaci.
COGSWELL - On 28th August 1984.
Dominic, aged 15 years, after a longillness, bravely lought, Most precious step Philip
COLPER - On August 28th 1984 peacejuly at Bideford and District hospital, Marquir t Lady Couper, Widow of Major Sir George Couper B.T. of Annery Earton Michelum D. Desorcremation private. No nowers or letters please

eremation private. No flowers are return please.

CROFT. - On August 29th, Peter Croft father of Caroline & Jane. and Librian of Kins's College Cambridge.

Str. September, at Our Lady and The Cambridge.

Str. September, at Our Lady and The Cambridge. Family flowers only, but donations if desired to C.A.H. Servo-ventilater 900c Neuro Surpery, c. e. Ward A.J. Addenbrooke's Hospital. Cambridge.

Cambridge.

CMSTARCE - On 30th August beachust in his 90th year, Edward Cerli bleville, Brigadier, 1950. Dit. husboard of the late Alico, father of David and veronica Cremation, Jamily only, but a service of themioglyling will be the company of t pas of seurosy, on octoors.

DAVIS. - Grandel Rover, formerly press officer of National Farmers Union and journalist at the News Chronicle, peacefully on 30 8.84, at his home M.O. 62, Jaces. Alicante.
Spain.

no mone M.U. 62, Jakes. Alkante. Spain.

HIBERT — On 29th August. 1984. peacetully in a private nurshing home in her 94rd year Catherine Maud Hibbert widow of Catherine Maud Hibbert widow of Catherine Maud Hibbert and mother of Edward. Raymond and Doreen Fune-inservice at Endrby Parrish Caturit. Leicestrabire on Tuesday Marchael Spain and Little Catterials of Tuesday and Justine Catterials All Soviether of the christophilipse to Gains & Catheridge Life. Funeral Directors of Leicester Tel 0633 56117

12 magazy rotative ap private remailion. Challes of the proceduity in a challes with proceduity in a challes with the proceduity in the challes with the control of the proceduity of the challes with the challes

Michael's Ayrba, 2,30 pm. Thur-day September diff. Family Bower's only L'ESTRANGE - On Aug SOft, peachurly moved that agod 84. Junior Ravanagh, or include dearly loved husband of France Mary, dear father of Raymond Adrian, Ann Maryaret. Etzabeth and Christopher and loving grandfather.

MICHELSOR - On August 12th, suddents at home, Friedl. wife of the late Can't Michelson, beloved mother of the late Can't Michelson, beloved mother of the late August 12th, and dents at home. Friedl. wife of the late Can't Michelson, beloved mother of the late Can't Michelson, beloved inchard.

PAIL - On 30th August in Scotland, after a short lines, william Stuart Hantillon, much loved husband of Nas. son of the late Shart and Gladus Paul of Freston Ledge, no bewich, Private family funeral Mentarial service to be announced later. RYCROFT - On August 29th, Barbara Frances, daughter of the late Rev Hugh Rycroft.

Hugh Rycroft.

VON HARDTMUTH — On August 24th pamed away pescrisilly, for-tified by the rights of the Hoby Mother Church, at home in Steinfort am-Ossiachersee. Austria. Dr. Franz Xaver, beloved brother of Anna Von Hardtmuth and Princes Marie De Rohan, undels of Crarles. Louis and Rohan, undels of Crarles. Louis and Rohan, undels of Crarles. Louis and Rohan Lore Special Mary (Maureen) on Sist August in hoopital aller a few day. Illness specials, but no love the Blind Fund in her memory. WASMET — On August 20th. 1984, at the Marcia. But no love the Marcia. Politics of Marcial Research Service arranged later.

DEATHS UNITE - On August 30th Basil Sydney
John Unite, OBE, benesitälly at Derebunh, Norfolk, seed 31 years, He will be greetity missed by his SantaCremalice at 32 American Commission
Derivation of the American Commission
Derivation of the American Commission
Derebunh Norwich, on Tuesday, Beptern Norwich, at 1 pm, Firewan is John Gedge a Sony, Garden Rd., Riofield, Norwich, if 20 whired demailages to the Leegue of Friends of Derebunh Mosvilla, Dant Derebunh

MEMORIAL SERVICES On EMAN — A memorial service for Carl Foreman will be held at 690 on Thursday 13th September, at The West London Synthogone, 34 Upper Berkeley Street London, W1. IN MEMORIAM (WAR) TURNER. — In loving memory of lan, Capt, Sth Royal Innistilling Dragoon Cuards, died of wounds, Sapt. 1. 442 at El brayled-Mungule, love.

IN MEMORIAM

MORE OTERRALL - For Frankle on this the anniversary of his death. In our bearts siveays. Angels., Suste. Tessas and Erama. Tesm and Eruma.

VILBOT, BRIAN PHILLIP, whose track unlimely death at sea on 2nd September, 1983, had left us bereft. Remembered with love and in our moughts boday and always. Victay, Stan and Ouy.

STRATTON - The funeral service of Frederick Thomas Straton will bake place at Field Dalling Church at 12 noon on Thurnday, September 6th. Flowers to Riyth's Puneral Services, Cromer Street, Sheringham by 10.30

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SECRETS OUT. - Finns Richmond. Jon Pertvee, Diane Kern Frankle Vaughan, Televier of Personally film your own message on video - The most unusual gift or greeting idea ever For Iree brochure call Celebrity Greetings, 01-730 8966. Creetings, 01-730 9866.
VERIM, WAGNER, and PUCCIN all left us wonderful bracies, Help us perpetuate them by leaving us something in your Will, Royal Opera House Trust, Coveni Carden, London WC2E 9300. Spain.

GREETINGS to the Saunders, Doyles, Thompsons, Cales, Brockbanks, Cooks and Illingworths - on your docking at $1 kinksatives today.

JERROLD, - Persons with this pame or having countritions please contact Box 1867 L. The Times.

MRS. C. HARMI, TON, Beal wishes for a very happy brithday from Arthur, David, The Captain and all the Grav.

Ty COMPANY seeks archive time photographic material for new peries on Airica. Tel 576 7451.

PLAYCAITTE. Thank you for your PLAYCRITIC. Thank you for your very helpful letter.

YALERTINO_TOWNHOUSE sale.
See For Sale section.

DOMESTIC HELP? See Domestic Situations Reputered. Signature

WANTED Old and modern quality furniture and house clearences. Immediale cash payments. Tel: 01-879 0901. A HEALDWIN & SONS LTD, est 1872. A H SALDWIN & SONS LTD, ex 1672.

Numbranits. cobs and medial. Collections or single specimens bought for cash. Adelbin Terrace. London. WC2N68J. 01-9306879.

WARTED Large Victorian and Edwardian wardrobes tables and chairs deals booksact and all of a 1920 quality furniture 01-226 4476. SWELL MASTERMENO £10,000 answer "in England" wanted to share prize, 0223 52219.
WANTED URGENTLY rolling & penrotal design & booksteel. Any con01-228 4475. PRIVATE COLLECTOR wants Canadian oil and water colour paint-ings 01 546 7146.

FOR SALE

5 YEAR GUARANTEE on most CEC colour TV's during Septi Plus sen-sational prices of 22th at only £275. Tops TV. 91 Lower Steams St. SW1. 730 0933.

OLD YORK payingstone, rectangular, 10 fontes, £75 per longe + VAT, including delivery. Tel: (0625) 535721 VALENTINO-TOWNHOUSE IN-TERORS. Warehouse and of losse sale of modern lizitian furniture, ac-cresortes and labrico. Sai/Sus-Sepi 2/Srd from lOun-Spm at 196s Pulham Road. SWJ. Tel. enquiries. 01-235 3189 or 01-362 2867. Incred-lible barquire-sus to 475% discount-everything main 40. PINEST Quality wond carpets. All trade prices and under, sho available 100's extra. Large room size returnants.

extra. Large room size returnants, under hat normal price. Chantery Carpets 01-005 0453
THE THRES REWISPAPER (1836-1976). Cive nomeone an original issue, dated the very day they were horn. £14.56 (0495 $1196). born, £14.50 (0492 31195).
OLD YORK FLAGSTONES, stone floor tiles, cobble selfs, etc.
Nationwide deliveries, H& H. Tel.
Brumham (0380) 850039, Willia,
BILLIARD TASLE full size, mahogany.
19th Century, Excellent condition
Ring 0493 31964 (day) 049532 327 NEW MINK JACKETS 23" lang 2300. Rema Furs. 2nd Fbr. 47 S. Mogon St., W1. 01-629 9663 TICKETS FOR ANY EVENT. Cals. Startish Express, Spatta. All theatre and sports. 821 6616 Visa & A Ex

COPIES ANTIQUE FURNITURE

Desks, writing tables, bookcases, credenzas etc. Buy direct from maker. Details: SELECTA INTERNATIONAL rodingdeau, Brighton BNZ 606 Tet (8273) 683332 (24hra)

RESISTA CARPETS UNBEATABLE PRICE SUPER MERAKLON VELVET PILE CARPETING, 14 COLOURS FROM STOCK, USE ANYWHERE IN THE HOME OR OFFICE 7-YR WEAR GUARANTEE £3.95 sq. yd. + VAT 584 Felbam Rd., Parsons

Green, SW6 735 7551 Opper Richmond Rd West, SW14876 2089 7948139

INNOLNCEMENTS Together, we can beat cancer. Help Britain's largest supporter of care or research with a legal or send wair drawn in to Cannor Research Campaign

Dept. TM 25/8, 2 Cariton House
Terrace, London SWIY SAR.

MORE OR LESS LEUKAENIA? More research More patient care More help needed NOW! LEUKAEMIA RESEARCH FUND
43 Great Ormand Street
Unidan WC1 01-405 0101

Help us to fight Britain's biggest killer.

wild your donation today to British Heart Foundation 1 bant

PERSONAL COLUMNS

FOR SALE

VICTORIAN MARKE fireblaces to the latest some control of the contr FRANK SHATRA & Last Night of Protts. 5 seat box available. Ring 01-602 3035. BLACK MUSQUASH JACKET V.C.C. Size 12 £250 one 0273 516493.

ANCESTRY TRACERS Of experience will restarch your Earnily history constrainty and efficiently. Said etchics, he had been a series of the contentury CTI IBA or bit (0227) 62618. 18A, Grig (1827) Geolo. RIPHIDSHIP, LOVE OR MARRIAGE. Dateline – all sons, arcis. Dateline. Dept (787). 25 Abingdon Road, Landon, Wil. 01-938 1011.

BEAUTIFUL Retriever/Labrador puppies. Parents KC reg'd. Ready now. Good homes casential, Tet. Harrogate 7:1281.

ANIMALS AND BIRDS

SITUATIONS WANTED 2 OXFORD GRAPHATES, require immediate short time employment. Anything considered. Telephone 01-221 3792.

SHORT LETS

PUTNEY: tur Fiel in Manor Fleids. 1 bedroom. Los. Eving/dining. Fully equipped kicken. washing machine
ekc £160 pw incl. 799 4506.
FLETT STREET Modern studio fiel in eulet comt mil 1. £38pw. 01-749 7650. No Agents.
LUXURY SERVICED FLATS, contral
London, from £255 p.w. Ring Town House Apartments, 01-575 $455.

FLAT SHARING

CORREWALL GARDENS, SW7
Young person, m/f, to share single bedrift in sire 3 bedrift fist. All mechales, gas chriw. o'looking
o O1-937 SSE?
FULHAM short let 3 muths renewable.
PULHAM short let 3 muths renewable.
2nd prof person for 2 bed gets fast.
260 pw incl + 3 months rin desposit.
Martin Baker 439 3331 daysline.
WANTED, prof M 50s requires rooms/fastet N/NW/W. Glose Euston. More b Ful. Tel (2009) 207137 day. 214719 even/wasada.
MaiDA VALE Luctury maraton at an experience Cd / cfree. 2465pw incl. 286

BATTERSEA. - Prof girl, lux mansion flat, overfooking park own room, £150 pc.m. Tel: 01.350 1090. TUFNEL PARK M/F O/R in shared house. COM £120 pcm excl, 01-607 1659 knter 1 0't) WANTED: actions central/East London Mature quiet ungrad SRN. (Violin), Tel: 789 2067. MILL HILL: Female share tux fial O/R, 12 mins City. £145 pcm. 959 4439. W.3. Shared house close East Action tube, o/r, £36 gw excl. 749 0943

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS RELUCTANT SALE. Srt German haby grand. Reserved case. Invitated as condition. Dust plants stool, Sall & Claw feet. Ed. 850 one. Tai: 0482 867052 after from.
PLANOS after from.
PLANOS after from.
Tailor of the condition of the c

O1.-698 3513.
THE PIANO WAREHOUSE. SALE of restored planos converted stocks list. Proc catalogue. 25 Catalogue. 25 Catalogue. 27 CT4.
THE PIANO WORKESHOP'S Autumn collection of new stamps in now staying as 2 Free Road, NWS. hat Suns. Proc catalogue. O1. 607 7674. POSENDORFER, 51 9125 Grand Plane No. 23589, £2,950 or offer. Bellon (0204) 41064 or 43916.

WINTER SPORTS

BLADON LINES 32 OF THE WORLD'S ABTA

CLUB ANNOUNCEMENTS

MG CAR CLUB (ACB Register)
National Meeting at Stanford Hall.
Lefcestershire. 2nd Suptember 1984.
Starts 11.00am, For all those who like MCrs and MGB's in particular DOMESTIC AND CATERING SITUATIONS

RING BEES KNIESS Temporary A permanent qualified or experienced namines, materially nurses, governous, mothers hards, available for too posts in Landon, country and Europe. Also house losspers/married couples. Bees Knees Agency. Ot. 876 7059.

MARRIED COUPLE for Longon based household, butter, visies with some driving, and maid. Accommodation provided, some oversels travel, difficults. Ring Halen Plainer Of. 408. 2414. 2014
WORLD'S LARREST Au Pair Bureau
offers m'helps, dorns: all Eve-us sunf.
Lik & Overseas Au Pair Agency Ltd., 87 Regent Street, W1, 01-439 6534.

DOMESTIC AND CATERING SITUATIONS REQUIRED

SPORT AND RECREATION TROUT/SALMON by fishing courses and weekends Devon. Sept/Oct. Tackle loaned. Chillaton 281.

PROMOTION PUBLICITY AND MARKETING

CARRIER BAGS, Printed for relations & exhibitions, Also Baltan rigid/rose handle carriers Tel: Stokes Packag-ing Ltd., 0638 840997

RENTALS

KERSINGTON FULHAM STREATHAM, Furnished single & double bedsting rooms to led with coulding facilities, Single Gron £35-£40gwi, double from £50-£65gw,
Also accom is avail with breakfast
244-7826, 736-2944, 736-4916, 6032574, 769-1236

SUPERIOR FLATS & HOUSES Available and required for diplomate, executives. Long and short lets in all areas. Lightneric and Co., 48 Albertuarie St. Landon W1. Tel: 499 5334

FULHAM honeysuchle clad cottage with garden, Small, well dec. 2 bed, och, 3 min Tube, co let 6 mins/197 £1309u. Tel 01-736 1076.

LUXURY FLATS, Short/long lets. Enhanced Properties, 01-629 0501. TREGUNTER ROAD, Landon SW10. WANTED Prof. Lady, Mid 30's, seeks S/C accorn, within reasonable travel-ting dist. Hendon, 240-248 p.w, Rofe 6 Dep avail Please write Sox 0705W The Times. CORNWALL GARDENS, London SW7 Superb by Tild overhooking success. 2 receptors to beth fully square. 2 receptors to beth fully square. 2 receptors to beth fully farrar Stead & Gym. 01-370-4529.

COURT FIELD ROAD, London SW7. A variety of by a said 2 by Table successed and newly decorated. 5125-5200pw. Farrar Stead & Gym. 01-370-4329.

AMDREWS letting and management.

Farrar Stead & Glyn. 01-370-4329.

ARDREWS letting and management have an excellent selection of groper-lies available for rental in Central London areas. No letting less to tentants. 01-342-4451.

PETERSHAM PLACE, London. SW7. Charming mew house. 3 b/f., 1 recept. 1 garage converted into self-contained flail. E350per Farrar Stead & Glyn. 01-370-3229.

CAVAYE PLACE SW10. 3 E/R missonette in modern building. 2 bath spacious L/R. batkony, garage. L230per Farrar Stead & Glyn. 01-370-4329.

ELM PARK GDNS SW10. Delightful 2 570 4329

ELM PARK GDNS SW16. Delightful 2

B/R fist overlooking communal partens. All furniture and firshing new, £175 p.w. Farrar Stead & Glyn

O1-370 4329.

HAMPSTEAD, invite cartient 2 Disk bedyns. 2 Saftyms. Living/thing
roc. kill with president corner. Co.

Total macrines CH £185pw. 435 KINGSTON HILL Attractive mad, p/s
2 bearn furn flat & gas. fac Of & 11 bearn furn flat & gas. fac Of & 12 bearn furn flat & gas. fac Of & 13 bearn furn flat & gas. fac Of & 14 bear flat &
14 bear flat flat
15 bear flat flat
16 bear flat flat
16 bear flat
17 bear flat
18 bear fl

after 2pm
SOUTH KENSINGTON Sh floor
apartment. I recess. I kitchen/diner, 3 doubte bedrooms, shower, betti,
porter, C. J. C. 200 lockode. L. 2500
No. 10 to HOME AND GARDEN

PROPERTY WANTED

TO RENT small hee/flat with eds. Harrogate area, Tel: (0423) 65156. AUCTIONS & ANTIQUES

Sellyour Pictures well at Phillips
To enter items in forthcoming sales telephone Brian Koetser 01-629 6602 Ext 325 nheim St. New Bond St. London WIY OAS

Les Amis du Vin's Wine School opens in October Know what you like-but want to know more? This is your opportunity to learn from kinding experts in the wine work. Write or telephone for desails: Marion See, Tel. 01-740 0053

WINE AND DINE

UXURY APARTMENTS fully serviced, choice of Mayfair or adiacent to Konstington Pelace, from $250 to £500 per week, 5 months to 2 years, Tel: 01-491 2626.

EARNES SW13 3 bed fully furn family house o/looking SF Pauls playing fields and fivor. Local to public transport, suite location. £180 pw 01.876-9616

CALLOW STREET, LONDON, SW10, Spacious basement flat, 2 8/R, small patio. £130 p. w. Farrer Stead & Giya 01-370 4329 O1-370 4329

DUALITY Intributed Flats and houses to let luc be best London arrows contact the experts. – Amsorabe & Ringsand, O1-722 7101.

HAMPSTEAD VILLAGE, Sunny newly decerated Bal. C.H., C.H. W. telephone, 2 rooms, E./b., P.255 p.c.m., Co., or Academic to O1-794 4468.

KENSINGTON WE Flat with a Language. CA, or Academic for 0.1744 and 0. CENSINGTON WE Fink with a lot of character. Large recep, bed, k & b, CH, TV, cont/gas (Ires. garden. £126 pw. 0722 72059. pw. 0722 T2639.
PJMLICO Delighinia istraced bouse. 4
bedrms. 2 bulharms, shower & bollet.
bounge. disting. Richert & garage.
LSSO g.w. 0822 3001.
AMERICAN EXECUTIVE
library flat or house up to LSOO ye.
usual free required. Prillips Kay & HAMPSTEAD and all N/NW London furnished flats and houses, £75-£600 pw. Hart Residential Letting, 01-482 2222. SPACIOUS LUXURY fint, 1 bedroom, swirming pool, £100 pw. 01 202 NW11. S/c furn grd fir fist. 1 bed. 2 resp. kil. bath, s/healers, phote. Sut prof comple. £75pw. 455 6146. OLD BROMPTON RD, SWE. Luctury furnished fac. 1 dble bed. £110 p.w. Tel: 937 5147. This 937 5147.

FLAT WASTED, I bed s/c in W. Lon, for prof student couple Hugh. 346 3928 eve.

MUSWELL HELL, superb apt. did bed, med K & B. large recep, eds. Avail to Dec. Plendide. L75pw. 444 8998.

PIMILIO. Beautiful I bed patio flar Cl20pw Incl C.H. Day 247 9461/410 eve 821 9104 PASI / A10 eve 221 9104

SLQAME SQ. - Excel Date 2 rms. k & b and 3 rms. k & b + critity. £120 and £160 pw Refs essen. 594 6097

LYMARES Letting & mampetineral service in W & SW London care totally for your bome. 736 6503.

ADJ. HAMPSTEAD HEATH. Presign form. det. house 6 beds. 4 recept. 99.

485 3748. 405 3745.
CHELSEA furn flat, lounge, 1 thie, 1 single bedrin, k & b, ch, £1300w long let, no shares, 730 9732.
GROUND FLOOR FLAT £340 s.c.m. payable in 2 three monthly installements 467 0901 THEATRES

GARRICK CC S 01-836 4601. Eves 5.00, Wed Mat 3.00, Sh 5.00 & 8.00. 14th HYSTERICAL YEAR, LONGEST REPRESENTED Y IN THE WORLD NO SEX, PLEASE — WE'RE BRITISH
2 HOURS OF NON-STOP LAUGHTER
DIRECTED WAS Allen Davis
CC 379 6433. Group with 90: 930 6123
OVER 6,600 FANTASTIC PERFS. MANIPSTEAD THEATRE 722 8301
NOW Previewing Evgs 8 00, Justice
Confequent Control Relations Standard In FALL by James Standard In FALL by James Standard Theatre Royal 330
832 Croup Sales 330 6125.
WE ARE IN THE PRESENCE OF
TWO OF THE WORLD'S FINEST
LIGHT COMEDY ACTORS 5. CLAUDETTE COLBERT REX HARRISON

ARRISON (ULBER WITH MICOLA PAGETT MICHAEL MADGE GOUGH RYAN and FRANCIS MATTHEWS 'AREN'T WE ALL ? ASSESSED IN MARKET TO SEE THE SECONDARY OF PROPERTY AND ASSESSED OF SECONDARY OF SECONDARY OF THE SECONDARY HER MAJESTY'S Harmaniel, SWI.
10.930 600, Credit Cards 01-930
4026 Group Sales 930 6125.

WEST SIDE STORY
THE REST MUSICAL, SVEN
WHITTER CITY LINIS, POWER
PACKED REMYAL. BED MOT. 1.
TH, Mod-Frievp 730 BM MUSICAL. S.
TH, Mod-Frievp 730 BM MUSICAL. S.
Mats Wood-250, NOWEGOIGNG 1985. "Autumn High-lights"

The Times and Sunday Times

"AUTUMN BREAKS" Don't delay - ring today

to advertise your U.K. holiday.

A to K - 01-837 0648

KING'S HEAD, 226 1916, RERTICE IS BACK! DOT'T, Show 8.15. DO RACASI INF. 7, SERIO S. 10.

LA VIE EN ROSE C. O: Windowsia
Street W1. 457 6512/5580.
CARAMITERIORISMO.
2 SERIORISMO. 9.00 6:11.00
GLAMOROUS INTERNATIONAL
FLOORSHOW PARIS AFTER DARK Fewhering Europe's most beautiful ciris.

Fabrileus Specialities, Semational altirutions this quest artists from the work of show-furnions.

COCKTAILS, CARARET, DANCING, Dinner Zullinite throughout the evening Open 7.50-5am. LONDON PALLABRUM 01-457 7373 Evec 7.30. Mais Wed & Sat 2.45 TOMMY STEELE in

TOMMY STEELE IN SINGIN' IN THE RAIN
WITH ROY CASTLE
ALL PERFERS POR SUD GREAT YEAR
NOW ON SALE
SINCING IN THE RAIN HAS BROUGHT THE BOLLAVEN THE
WITH SOY CASTLE SINCENG IN THE RAIN HAS BROUGHT THE BOLLAVEN THE
WITH SALE
SITE SUPERBHOLLY WOOD
COSTUMES GITTERON BEBRY BERGELEY CANCE ROUTNES."
DAIN CONTROL
THE SALE
THE SA

ler
LYBIC THEATRE Shafteebury Ave 0,1LYBIC THEATRE Shafteebury Ave 0,1LYB Sales SO 6123. Ever 7,30. Wed
Albus S.O. Satu S.O. 8 6.18
MARY MITTER
MIREAM KARLIN JOSS ACKLAND

PACK OF LIES

BY Happy Winternore

Director by Carlord Winternor

OVER 300 PSEVFORMANCES

LAST 3 WEEKS

RUN ENDS 15 SEPT RUN ENDS 15 SEPT

LYRIC, Shathebury Ave, 457 3695 or 434 1050/434 1050/741 9999 or 536 St. 1050/434 1050/741 9999 or 536 St. 1050 St. 1050

Goven my face" F.T.

LYTTELTON 928 2202 cr 928 5933

S' Olefonal Theatre's precuming maget. Today 3.00 & 7.45. Men 7.45. then Sept 4 $ 5 & Sept 1.0 to 12 WILD HORREY by Chekhov. various by Michael Frayn. Glept 6 to 8 last part 500 LDEN 807).

MAYFAIRS CC 629 3036, Mon. Thur 8. Fri & Set 5.40 & 8.10. Group 930 6123 Fri à Set 8-40 à 8.10. Group 930 61 23

RICHARD TODD

ERC LANDER, VERGINA STRIDE IN

THE BUSINESS OF MURDER

"The best Briller for yeary 8.46."

An inababase where 8.5... 8.4.

beller best better nost inscribent

RESSENTI

NATIONAL THEATRE South Bank NATIONAL THEATRE COMPANY
SEE REPARATE INTRIES UNDER OLIVIES LYTELTON
COTTESLON
Excellent chase seels day of peri
all 5 theorem from 10cm.
RESTAURANT (928 2033). CHEAP, EASY CAR PARK, AIR CONDITIONING. TOURS OF THE BUILDING (see MEW LONDON DRUFT LENE WC2 01-405 0072 CC 01-404 4079 Evps 7.45
The AST ST 50 5 7 45
THE ANDREW LLOYD WEBBER!
T. S. ELIOT INTERNATIONAL AWARD WEINING MUSICAL

AWARD WINNING MUSICAL CATS
CAUS ROOMERS OF OF OF OF ONE OF O OLD VIC Air Cond, 928 7616 CC 261 1821, Eves 7.30, Sat 4.00 & 7.45 1821. Eves 7.50, Sat 4.00 & 7.45
MARCEL MARCEAU SS BACK!
"A giast of the theatre" D. Tel.
"Incomparable artist" F. Times
"A Genkes" Tirres
"At his best" D Tel
Limited season BOOK NOW!

OLD VIC 928 7916 CC 281 1821
PRUHELA SCALES TRIOTHY WEST
ROUNEY BEWES

Bamber Gracotyne's outrageous force
BIG IN BRAZIL
directed by MEL SMITH
Previews 17/18 Scot Opens 19 Sept
for 6 week segson. For 6 work season.

OLIVIER 928 2252 cr 928 5933 'S'
(National Theatre's speal stace).

Today 2.00 & 7.16, then Sept 12 to 18 last parts GUYS ARM DOLLS.

Mon 7.15, then Sept 4 to 6 & Oct 1 to 4 MAMDRAGOLA (Perhaps not self-

PALACE THEATRE 437 6834 Ct 437 8327/379 6131 Group Bales Box Office 930 6123 NATALIA MAKAROVA RODGERS ARID HART'S
ON YOUR TOES
"'ON YOUR TOES contains more jay than anything else on the London stage" Cdn
"One of the bigged theatrical firecrackers in London." Sunday Times
Sever A.65 Mats Thur & Sal 2.30
At matinese the leading role will be danced by Dorren Wells.
Food is available from 7 pm.

HOENIX 836 2294/8611 CC 741 9999/579 8400 6123. Moe-Thu 7.30, Fri & Sat 5 & 8.50 "A TRIUMPH OF WIT," Obs. THE RATEPAYERS' IOLANTHE
Gibert & Scillway Operation
Adapted by NED SHERRIN & ALISTAR BEATON
Sheet Indiance Obe.
'NOT TO BE MISSED' City Limits.
For a startly limited season.

PRINCE EDWARD. Tel 01-437 6877 S Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber's THE WORLD'S MOST AWARDED MUSICAL Dr. by Hal Prioce Eves 8.0 Mais Thurs & Set at 3.0. CC. Holline 439 8499, 631 1101. 579 6433. 741 9999-Group Sales 930 6123.

PRINCE OF WALES THEATRE 01-930 8681/2 or Motine 01-930 0844/5/6 Croup sales 930 6123 RUSS ABBOT SHEILA WHITE "AMONG THE GREAT BLOCK-BUSTING MUSICALS OF OUR TIME ... GLORIOUS TABLES AND STATE OF THE ... GLORIOUS TABLES AND STATE OF THE ... GLORIOUS TABLES AND STATE OF THE ... GLORIOUS TABLES AND STATE ... FOSTINGLY SPARKLES SUN EXP. "POSTINGLY SPARKLES SUN EXP. "SPLENDED" D. MARTE SCOTTALL SECTION OF THE ... "SPLENDED" D. MALTON MERTE SCOTTALL SECTION OF THE ... "SPLENDED" D. MALTON OF THE ... "SPLENDED D. "SPLENDED

Mirror Evon 7.30. Mais Thurs & Sats at 3.00 Special rate for OAP s/stadents/ oblides (excluding Sat evo). Re-duced price Thurs Mate.

On 15th & 16th September are making a special emphasis on

Trade Advertisers:

L to Z - 01-837 3741

ENTERTAINMENTS

also on page 18

PICCADILLY 1.457 4505 of 579
6665/741 9999 Croup Sales 930
6123/835-5969 Croup Sales 930
6123/835-6123/8369
6123/8369 Croup Sales 930
6123/8369 Croup PUMP POYS AND DINETTES AND DINETES
Directed by David Toylor
"A blant of frees and The muscle in terrific. This come a give drighted"
NY. PER ENTERDINE R
22 GFF ALL PIES VETTY SEATES!
Does 30 September
RAYMONLD REVUERAR CC 734
1953. Mon. Sat 7 pm. 9 pm. 11 pm.
PROVIDED REVUERAR CC 734
1953. Mon. Sat 7 pm. 9 pm. 11 pm.
PROVIDED REVUERAR CC 734
More new acts of ENGINEA. Now!
More new extractions. The world's control of crotic entertainment. 27th press year. PLAYEDY OF THE STREET PROCESSES TO THE STREET PROCESSE ROYAL COUNT'S. cc 730 1745.
RAT IN THE SKULL by Ron.
Hutchinson, Evys at Spm. A brutain tunny and incisive pizy, set in a London police refi. SAVOY. BOX Office 01.836 8888. Crede Cards 01.579 6219/836 0479 Evp. 7.45. Wed S.00. Sat 5.00 & 8.30. THE AWARD WINNING WEST END & BROADWAY WEST END & BROADWAY
COMEDY HIT
JOHN GDAYLE
AMANDA NEBERT
BARRETOPHER GODWIN
LYNDA BEELLARD
BELLINGHAM HOLLEY
NOISES OFF
Directed by Michael Bialegroup
After Type years Michael Bialegroup
Actor Type years Michael Bialegroup
Comedy is any water Michael Bialegroup
After Type years Michael Bialegroup
After Type years Michael Bialegroup
OVER 1,000 FERCHWARNES

OVER 1,000 PERFORMANCES

BHAFTESBURY 373 S399 CC 741
3999, Group sales 390 6123. Lar Perfis
Today 6.30 & 8.30.
THEATRE OF COMEDY COMPANY
DERDY DEPTH OF PARTICLES
"A TRIO OF SECO PARTICLES
"A TRIO OF ADMOTT FARCEURS"
"BLOCK OF ADMOTT FARCEURS"
"BLOCK OF ANY WITH CONTINUOUS COMMENTATION" TITEL SHAFTESBURY 379 S399 CC 741
SHAFTESBURY 379 CC 741
SHAFTESBURY 379 CC 741
SHAFTES

SEE HOW THEY RUN SHAW THEATRE OI 388 1394
MATIONAL YOUTH THEATRE'S
ZERI ANNUAL SEASON
ADDRESSED BY TEXACO A CREDIT TO THE FORCE
by CHRISTOPHER SHORT
Tesaco's Price-Winning PlayLAST 2 PERFS TODAY 2.30 & 7.30. LAST 2 PERFS TODAY 2.50 & 7.30.

SORI ET LUBRIERE AI Harmoton Court
Palace. Share the Dersonal briumpia.
Tragedics and isoughter of the earlier residants of this Royal Palace through the medium of light and sound. Tuesdays to Sundays inclusive until end September. Covured, reserved £5.50, 24.50 from PO Box 80, Twickenham. (s.2.4) or until spents. Engs 01-24.50 from PO Box 1999. Limited
turnerved £5.50 et door. Children hell spents at door Performances start 8.50ptn.

8.30pm.

BT MARTTHS. 836 1443. Special oc no 01-379 6453. Eves 8.0. Thes 2.45.

AGATHA CHRISTIES

THE MOUSETRAP

Zond YEAR

SORRY No reduced prices from any source but seats booksbie from 25.90. STRAND WCS 0.12% 2860/4143/ STRAND WCS 0.12% 2860/4143/ SHO EVENT TO MEDICINE WCS 220. BEST PLAY OF THE YEAR NEW YORK TONY AWARD, NEW YORK TONY AWARD 1982 LONDON STANDARD AWARD 1982 LONDON PLAYS A PLAYERS AWARD 1982 PAUL SHELLEY SENEY QUAYLE IN TOM STOPPARD'S THE REAL THING

THE REAL THING STRATFORD-UPON-AVON Royal Shakespeare Thealre (0789) 295623. ROYAL SHAKESPEARE COMPANY HENRY V - a truly respectively production F. Times. Today 1.30. HARLELET Tonight, Mos. Tue. 7.30. For special meal/theatre deats rios 0789 67262. TRICYCLE 328 8626 Now Booking. Opens 3 Sept. Market Theatre of Johannesburg, BLACK DOG

MICHAEL FRAYN'S New Play BENEFACTORS
Directed by MICHAEL BLAKEMORE
"THE BEST (AND BEST ACTED)
NEW PLAY IN TOWN "PURCH."
"A PROFOUNDLY ORIGINAL PLAY A TOTAL PLEASIBE" Gundlar.
"SUCH BRILLIANT OSSERVATION AND INFONIC WIT WE ARE
EXALTED BY IT" Standard. WYTRIDHAM'S Fully air conditioned S 836 S028 CC 579 6665/741 9999/379 6455. Gross 256 S962. Even 8. Wed roats 3, Sat 6 & 8.30.

A Theatre of Consedy Prescription Conference of Consedy Prescription S. Times Burdy Parkett I LESUE PHILLIPS ZENA WALKER IN PETER NICHOLS "MASVELLOUS" Times DASSION PLAY

PASSION PLAY
Directed by Mine Ockrient
BEST PLAY Standard Award 1981
"DELCIOUS PERFORMANCES" FT "MAGNIFICENT"
CURRENTLY HAS NO EQUAL" Obs.
Preshow dinner Tourment d'Amour/
Stats or Circle seats £ 15 40. YOUNG VIC 928 6363. First time to London for 28 years Arthur Hillian's closed. VIEW PROM THE BRIDGE Ever 750. (The Sept 4, 7 00). Wed Mats 2.00

CINEMAS ACADEMY 1, 437 2981. Paul Cox's LONELY HEARTS (15), Progs. 2.80 (set Sun) 4.50, 6.50, 8.50. ACADEMY 2. 457 5129. Victor Erice's THE SOUTH (U), AI 2.30 (not Sun). 4.50, 6.40, 8.60. LAST WEEKS. ACADEMY 3. 457 8819. Parviz Scorrad's prize-winning THE MISSION (PG). Progr 4-10, 6-20, 8-30

BARBICAN Futly air conditioned. 628.
8795.
Today Cheene.
8795.
REGISES (P.C. Cheene. 1918 CASES)
REGISES (P.C. Cheene. 1918 CASES)
Children's Cheene. 1919 Members
Only The Plantam Tolkhouth.
CAMDER PLAZA 485 2445.
Lube Carndon Towns Jersmy from in SWAMM St LUCKE (18) Film at 1.48,
4 0, 4 20, 8 45 4 C. 6 2O. 8 45
CHELSEA CHEMA 361 5742 kings Road, SWS. (Wearest Tube Scose Sq.) TAVERHER'S SURRIAY IN
THE COUNTRY (PC). Cannes Festival Prizewinner: Bost Director.
Cives extraordinary pleasury's.
Times, Film at 2 45, 4.45, 6.50, 9.00
Daily Daily

CURZON, Curson St. W1. 499 5757.

General Department, Rechards Baye is
THE RETURN OF

MARTIN GUERRIE (15).

EY FAR THE MOST ENDOYABLE
FILM SEEN BY LONDON THIS FILM SEEN BY LONDON THIS FILM SEEN BY LONDON THIS SUPERIOR STORMS

SUPERIOR SEEN BY LONDON THIS
SUPERIOR SEEN BY LONDON THIS
SUPERIOR SEEN BY LONDON THIS THE BOSTOMIAMS (PC).

THE BOSTORIAMS OCC.

GATE BLOOMSBURY, 1 & 2 857

8402/1177. Russell Sq Tube.

DARRY ROSS OF THE BOOM O LEICESTER SQUARE THEATTRE 930
8262; THE KARATE KID CO. 80
9709. DV 2.10. 8.16. 820. List
NSSI SHOWS FIT/SE 11.485M.
ADVANCE SOURCE EVENION.
WELCONES. & LATE NIGHT
STUMS. TELEPHONE SOURNOS
WELCONES. AND VISA
WELCONES. WELCOME.

LUMMERE CRUENA $36 0691. St.

Martin's Lane. WC2 (nearest Tube Latester Sq.) WIM WENDER'S

pripewinning him PARIS TEXAS.

(15). Pilm at 12.26, 5.5, 5.50, 8,35.

Advance booking for 5.50 & 8.35.

only. Access/Visa.

MERICHA 45 NORCHTSBREDGE Tel: 233 4225/6. Zettirest's Tel: TRAVIATA (I) with Placide Depainon & Terress Strains, Duits: 3.0. 5.0. 7.0. 9.0. "Most impressive" (Titnes). "A stylish Affair" (Ob-server) (Times). "A stylish Affair" (Observed). The Volcano (15. Separate Div. 2, 7. 5. 45. 8.20. Land (15. Separate Div. 2, 7. 5. 45. 8.20. Land (15. Separate Div. 2, 7. 5. 45. 8.20. Land (15. Separate Div. 2, 7. 6. Land

NATIVALIE

Sa

Production of the second

HER STORYER I I'M

316 ta

5.10

THE TOTAL STATE OF THE TOTAL STA

 $\mathcal{B}_{ab} \circ_{A^{-1}}$

Philippe 25 cm

erer in .

Property Sec

7534 V 701 A

ALPEN CONT.

THE COURSE

Beetle Livery

- 0

1004

21.2

Tricer and

Triban Existing

11417

200

GRAMI

では対しな

FROM 6.45 pm PREMITERE CEMBRIA 93 Sturilesbury
Ave 734 5414 Robert Ven
Acteren's WORLAN IN FLAMES
(18) Sopperts 200 (not Sami 6:30, 8,00, 10 15, Soats £3 (All perts Mon and Majb. Tube Fr incl £2). Special concession for students £2.

CONCESSION FOR STANDARDS 22.

SCREEN ON SAKER ST. Tet.
9352772.
(1) This year's Dava THE LAST BATTLE (18) 3.26, 3.26, 7.30, 9.25
(2) Award winning MAIN OF FLOWERS (18) 3.10, 5.10, 5.10, 7.10, 9.10, Tricket bookside, Lir ber. Cab.
Show test, memb
SCREEN ON SLINGTON GREEN,
226 3520, WOODY Alled,
226 3525, This 9.18, Friday
3.25, 5.16, 7.18, 9.18, Friday
SCREEN ON THE DAIL AVE. SCREEN ON THE HILL ASS 3366.
Wim Wonder's Comment Priorwinner
PARIS, TEXAS (15) with Nesteads
Kinski 2.30, 110 bury/pri/s Thurty/pri/s
air conditioned sents bookable. THE ELECTRIC SCREEN. 229 3694.
Cannes Festival entry El. NORTE.
(The North) (13) 6.00, 8.40, Club show just, mem.

EXHIBITIONS MANY MAPPY RETURNS. Visit the preciscular audio visual show. Cale-terding 95 years of Lobdon's ewil opverancest. Every day on the South. Bank, outside the Procal Festival Hall. Wednesday August 8 to Wednesday August 8 to Wednesday 31, Admission five 10mm to ppm GLC WORKINE FOR LONDON LONDON
THE IVEAGH REQUEST, Kerrevool.
Hampstand Cane, NW 3, 248, 1259.
JOHN WOOTTON 1682-1259.
Landscapes and sporture series and sporture and control series and control series.
Cocytain England 7. Adm. 609.
Crytania Ticket E. Servicy Citizens, challenge 256.
Landscapes and the uncompanyed 256.
GLC - WORKING FOR LONDON

ART GALLERIES BETHRAL GREEN Museum of Child-hood, Cambridge Health Road, EZ. Tet: 01-980 2415 Joby Hocker Sticks. Until 50 Sept. Adm. free, Widges 10-6. Sups. 2-30-6. Closed LEFEVRE GALLERY, 30 Bruton Street, W1. 01.493 1572; XXV & XX century works of art, Mon-Fri 10-5; Set 10-12-30 Sel 10-12-50

BRITISH LIBRARY OF RUSSED ST. WCI, REMAISSANCE PAINTING IN MANUSCRIPTS. Refleigh and Rosenoker the first English cotony in America 1584-90 Wideys 10-55m 2 50-6 Admirte. REDFERN GALLERY, 20 Cork Street, WI. LAWRENCE PRESCE, New Paintings and Works on Paper, 50 August – 26 Soptember, Dally 19-5 30; Sats 10-12-30. SERPENTINE GALLERY (Arts. Council), Kensenston Gardens, W.P. PROBLEMS OF PICTURING Unit 30 Sept. Daily 10-6, Free. Info Ot. 723 9072. U1-725 9072.

TATE GALLERY, Mumank, SW1, The Hard Work Image, recent British art. Line 3-85. Agent free, Wisdays 20-580, Succe 2-8 50. Recorded into 01-821 7128.

821 7128. VICTORIA & ALBERT MUSEUM, S. Kensington. ROCOCCO: Art & Design in Hogarth's England. Adm. 52. FROM EAST TO WEST: Textilet of G P & J Baker. Adm free Wikdys. 10–550. Sizes 2.50–5.50. Closed Fridays. Recorded into 01-581 4894. WEEKEND RADIO

SATURDAY'S WORLD SERVICE

6.00ars Newsdesk, 6.30 Abum Time. 7,00
World News 7.99 Twenty Pour Hours. 7,30
From The Weekles. 7,45 Network UK, 8,80
World News. 8,08 Reflections. 8,15 Peobles
Choice, 8,30 Brain of British 1984, 9,90 World
News. 9,90 Review of the Bright Press. 9,15
The World Today 9,30 Financial News. 9,40
Look Ahead, 8,45 People and Politics. 18,15
Letter From America. 11,80 World News. 1,1,81
News About British. 11,15 About British. 11,20
Meridan. 12,00 Tadio Newsreel. 12,15
Anything Goes 12,45 Sports Roundup. 1,90
World News. 1,99 Twenty-Four Hours. 1,30
Network UK, 1,45 Saturday Special. 3,00 Redio
Newsreel. 3,15 Saturday Special. 3,00 Redio
Newsreel. 3,15 Saturday Special. 3,00 Redio
News 2,30 Teophe and Politics. 10,00 World
News. 3,30 The Part Hurbers. 9,15 Vinna's
New 8,30 People and Politics. 10,00 World
News. 1,09 From Our Own Correspondent.
10,30 New Ideas. 10,40 Reflections. 10,40
Commentary 11,15 Letterbox. 11,30 Meridian.
12,15 Reach Newsreel. 12,30 Pay of the Weel.
1,30 Bakers Hall Dozen. 2,00 World News.
2,00 Review of the British Press. 2,15 Gallar
Workshop. 2,30 Sports Review. 3,00 World News. 3,09 News About Britain. 3,15 From Our Own Correspondent. 3,38 My Music. 4,45
Friancial Review. 4,55 Reflections. 5,00 World
News. 3,09 Twenty-Four Hours. 5,48 Letter From America.

(All times in GMFF) SATURDAY'S WORLD SERVICE (All times in GMF)

SUNDAY'S WORLD SERVIC
6.00 Nawadesk, 8.30 Jazz For The Raising7.00 World News, 7.08 Treatly Four Hours, 7.30 The Hoursey Consul, 7.59 Recording of the Wask, 8.00 World News, 8.08 Recording of the Wask, 8.00 World News, 8.08 Residency,
8.15 The Pleasure's Yours, 9.00 World Revis, 9.09 Review of the British Press, 8.15 Science in Action, 9.45 Sports Raisew, 10.15 Cassics Record Raisew, 11.10,0 World News, 11.95
Revis About Britain, 11.15 From Our Can Corresponderd, 11.30 Bulsers Half Dozes,
12.00 Play of the Week, 1.00 World News, 1.69
Twenty-Four Hours: 1.30 The Young Visitors,
1.45 The Tony Myst Request Show, 2.30
Tefford Feature, 3.00 Rasko Newsred, 1.15
From The Tromenade Concerts, 4.00 World
News, 4.09 Commendary, 4.15 From Our Own
Corresponderd, 4.35 Francial Review, 4.45
Latter From, 8.90 World News, 8.95 TwentyFour Hours, 8.30 Sanday Half Hour, 8.96
Screen Permershop, 8.75 The Pleasure, Yours, 10.06 World News, 10.09 Science in Action, 10.40 Relatections, 10.45 Sports
Roundly, 11,00 World News, 12.09 Meet
About Britoin, 12.15 Raido Newsrend, 12.95
Redgious Service, 1.00 Prom The Promenada
Concerts, 1.45 World Service Strort Story, 2.00
World News, 2.09 Review of the Sritish Press,
2.15 Good Books, 2.29 Meet News, 12.09 Meet
News, 3.08 News About Britain, 3.15 Science
Through The Looking Class, 3.38 Anything
Goos, 4.45 Letter From London, 4.83
Reflections, 5.00 World News, 5.03 TwentyFour Hours, 5.45 Screen Partnerships,
All Streen to GMT SUNDAY'S WORLD SERVICE

حكذا من الاعل

BBC 1

6.20 Open University. Until 8.25. 8.40 The Saturday Picture Show presented by Mark Curry. Maggie Philbin is in the Yorkshire Dales watching the progress of 30 young people as they take part in a number of selection tests for Operation Raleigh's four-year round the world expedition. Back in the studio the special guest is javelin gold medalist, Tessa Sanderson and the pop music is provided by The Adventures, 10,12 Weather 10.15 Grandstand introduced by Desmond Lynam. The line-up is: 10.15, 1.30, 2.10, 2.35, 3.05 3.35 and 3.55 Cricket from Lord's. The final of the NatiWest Bank Trophy between Middlesex and Kent. 12.45 News; 12.50 Bob Wilson's Footbell Focus; 1.15. Surfing: the Fosters Surf Masters from Newquay, 1.55, 2.25, 2.55 and 3.25 Racing 2.25, 2.55 and 3.25 Racing from Chester; Coverage of the Linehall Stakes (2.00); the Berry Magicoel Surafire Handicap (2.30); The Berry Magicoel Matchiess Nursery: Handicap (3.00); and the Berry Magicoel Sun Seeker Handicap (3.30). The commentative see, Inflan commentators are Julian Wilson and Jimmy Lindley; 3.50 Football half-time scores; 4.35 Final Score.

Introduces Depeche Mode and Heaven 17 from the Academy Club. Plymouth while the Roadshow visits Plymouth 5.35 News with Jan Leeming 5.45 Sport and regional news. The Noel Edmonds Late Late Breakfast Show, The first of a new series comes live from a

Ma

Sec. 31 (8)3

医甲基子 接骨。

II JON

4 13 198

THRE

FKIND

 Δ DIO

12.27

5.05 1 On the Road. Peter Powell

cross Channel terry in the Straits of Dover. 6,40 Bob's Full House. Bob Monkhouse with the first in a new series of comedy games shows (Ceefax titles page 170) 7.10 Juliet Bravo. The first of a 14part drama series starring Anna Carteret as Inspecto Kate Longton who, this week important witness who has been upset by one of Inspector Longton's

8.90 The Paul Daniels Magic Show.
A new series presented by the comical and clever magician.
His guests are Norm Nielsen, a magician from the United States; Samson, a strongman from Great Britain; and comedian Bernie Winters. 6.40 News and sport, With Jan

Learning.
Film: Patton-Lust for Glory (1969) starring George C. Scott and Karl Malden. First class performances from Scott and supporting cast in a dramatic story that traces the rise and fall of the eneral. With the late Michael ates as Field Marshal ry. Directed with panache by Franklin J.

Highlights of the final concert of a 50 venue tour across. three continents by the group more than two decades ano. 12.30 Weather.

Radio 4

Programmes as long wave. 1
Indicates stereo on VHF.
5.25 Shipping Forecast. 6.30 News;
Farming Today, 6.50 in Perspective. 6.55 Weather;
Travel.
7.00 News. 7.10 Today's Papera, 7.15
On Your Parm. 7.46 in Perspective. 7.50 Down to Earth.
Alan Titchmarsh looks at Weatherd regression on 7.55

Alan Titchmarsh looks at weekend gardening jobs. 7.55.
Weather; Travel.
8.00 News. 8.10 Today's Papers.
8.15 Sport On 4.
8.48 Breakaway. The holiday, travel and leleure scene, including 8.57
Weather; Travel. 8.00 News.
9.50 News Stand. Alan Rusbridger reviews the weekly manazines.

9.50 News Stand. Alan Rusbridger reviews the weeldy magazines.
10.05 Teliding Politics. Dr Robert Walter mests Young Liberals and the Young Social Democrats.
10.30 Pick of the Week.†
11.30 From Our Own Correspondent.
12.00 News; A Small Country Living. Jeanine McMullen meets people who earn a living from traditional nursl work.
12.27 Quots ... Uncauda. With Band

Chots . . . Unquote. With Beryl Bainbridge, Richard Ingrams, H. R. F. Kesting, Sylvis Sims and Nigel Rees. T

News. With Great Pleasure. Danale Abse presents his choice of poetry and prose. 1.55 Shipping Forecast.

Forecast.
2.00 News; Alternoon Theatre: Mr Norris Changes Trains, by Christopher Isherwood. Part 2.
With David March, Michael Maloney and Shelle Grant.†
3.00 News; Frank Mus Gods Into.
Public School. Frank Mus and Altred Marks Investigate the flumour of education.
3.20 A yea is Resist A Maybe, by

3.30 A Yes is Really A Maybe, by Patrice Chaptin. The Britons who go to Hollywood for a few months to try their luck.

The Other Mother, Margaret Horsefield investigates the triangular relationship between sketches and monologues chosen from the 1994 Edinburgh Fester | 1994 Edinburgh Fester | 5 22 Shipping Forecast: 5.55 Weather: Travel. News; Sports Round-up. Detart Island Discs. The continues is George AbDott. the castaway is George Abbott, the usequeur remucriship detween mother, namy and child. 4.45 A Sideways Look At . . . by Anthony Smith. 5.00 Wildlies. 5.25 Aspects of the Pringe. Songs, sketches and monologues.

TV-am 6.25 Good Morning Britain presented by Henry Kelly. Saturday Call at 5.30 deals with home security; news at 7.00 and 8.00; the Greene's dream home at 7.45. The quests are George Best and family, Michael Parkinson, Van Morrison and Kenny Lynch. 8.40 SPLAT includes the final of the general knowledge quiz for 12year olds.

ITV/LONDON

9.25 Cartoon Time. 9.30 Fraggle Rock starring Fulton Mackay. 10.00 The Saturday Starship. A new series of programme featuring pop videos, cartoons, film clips and snectacular stunts. 11.20 Mister T. The first of a new series of animated adventures featuring the hulk of the A-Team. 11.45 Catweazie (r). 12.15 World of Sport introduced by Jim Rosenthal. The line-up is: 12.20 Athletics: The Golden Gala from Rome; 12.30 Cycling: The World Championships from Barcelona; 12.45 News; 12.50 On the Ball with Ian St John and Jimmy Greeves; 1,20 The ITV Seven: the 1,30, 2,00, 2,30 and 3.00 races from Sandown and the 1.45, 2.15 and 2.45 from Ripon; at 1.35 The Budweiser Million. 3.10 and 4.00 Boxing from the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas. The Heavyweight Championship of the USA and the WBC Heavyweight Championship; 3.30 and 4.25 Water Ski-ing: The KP World Cup; 3.45

Football half-times; 4.45 . Results. 5.00 News, 5.05 The Krankies Klub. A new comedy series 5,35 Blockbusters. General ledge quiz. 6.05 The A-Teem. A new series begins with 'Hannibal' Smith leading his gang of irregulars in an attack on an army base in order to uncover a crooked officer who may also be a traitor.

7.00 Punchlines: Lannie Bennett Introduces a new series of Quiz games.

7.30 Bottle Boys. A new situation comedy starring Robin Askwith as a milk roundsman (Oracle titles page 170). 8.00 3-2-1. A new series of the quiz and game show presented by Ted Rogers. (Oracle titles page 170). The Gentie Touch. Jill Gascoine stars as Det insp Maggie Forbes in the first of a new series. Tonight she has to cope with a gang of small-time crooks who find a large loot with fatal results (Oracle fities page 170): 10.15 Film: The Enforcer (1976) starring Clint Eastwood as the embittered San Francisco police Inspector, Harry Callahan, on the trail of a group of young killers responsible for the death of ... his pariner. Directed by James 12.05 London news healtlines tollowed by Bellamy. The policemen's honeymoon is 7.05 in The Psychiatrist's Chair. Maya. Angelou, the black woman writer, talks to Dr Anthony Clare.

Baker's Dozen, Richard Baker

Balear's Dozen, Richard Baker with records ?
Saturday-Night Theetre, The Legion of the Lost — an historical comedy by Paul Bryers, about a French invasion of Wales. Cast Includes Tennial Evans, Devid Hosly and Zelah Clarke. 9.58 Weather.

i was There! Max Boyce recells his early disesters, and later triumphis, with songs and stories from his shows.

Evening Service.?

Brian-Thompson's A-Z.

Playwright Brian Thompson remembers.

10.00 News. 10.15 | Was There! Max Boyce recells

Playwright Brian Thompson remembers.

11.30 Thirty-Minute Theatre: Adam Courage, by Save Thom and Paul Wolfson: With Penelope Keith and Christopher Cazanove.

12.00 News. 12.10 Weather, 12.15-Close Shipping Forecast.

VHF (available in England and S. Wales only Raidio 4 viril is as above, except 6.25em 6.30 Weather; Travel. 1.55pm-2.00 Programme News. 5.50-6.56 Programme News.

Radio 3

7.55 Weather.
8.00 News.
8.05 Aukade: Scarlatti's (arr' Tommasini) The Good-humoured ladies; Hummer's Partitis in E flat for wind; Mendelssohn's Fantasies (captices) Op 16 (lise.
Von Alpenheim, ptano);
Copland's Old American Songs,
Set 1 (William Warfield, bartions).
8.00 News.

Set 1 (William Warlieto, barrione).

9.00 News.

9.05 Record Review: includes Stephen Dodgson comparing recordings of Strauss's Till Eutenspiegel, and a discussion between Alan Blyth, Edward Greanfield and Andrew Keener.;

10.15 Surso Release: Schubert's Momenta Musicaux (Gitels, plano); Beethoven's Cello Sonata
in D Op 102, No 2 (Yo Yo Ma/Ax); Brahma's Symphony No 1.;

BI U OD 142, NO Z (YO YO MA/Ax); Brahms's Symphony No 1.1 5 BSC Philharmonic Orchestrat with Wollgerig Manz (plano). Lennox Bertesley's Symphony No 2 Mozzar's Plano Concerto No 21; Tchalkovsky's Fantasy-oversize Romeo and Juliet 1 News.

1.05 Jorge Bolet: Plano recital. Haydo's Variations in F minor; Liszt's Spoealizio; il Penseroso; Canzonetta del Salvator Rosa;

emupted by a series of sex 1.45 Night Thoughts

Dirk Bogarde, as Franz Liszt, and Capucine in Charles Vidor's film Song Without End (Channel 4, 2,25pm)

BBC 2

6.25 Open University: Ecology: 5.30 Recycling Domestic: Refusa. 7.15 Topology: Plows 7.40 Structural Power: 2. 8.05 Unemployment in Chyyd. 8.30 Interpretation in the Arts. 8.55 Display and Recording. 9.20 Punjab to Britain: 1, 9.45 The People's Game. 10.10 Maths: Complex Analysis. 10.35 Learning Problems. 11.00 Comparing Trade Unions: 1, 11.25 Cost Benefit Analysis, 11.50 Continental Can at the EEC, 12.15 Reading: Resource Development, 12,40 Shorefields School 1.05 Pure Maths: Knots. 1.30 The Philosophy of Science: 2, 1.55 Redlining the City, 2.20 Volunteers and Selfsufficiency, 2.45 Modern Art:

3.10 Film: Second Chance (1953) starring Robert Mitchum, Linda Darnell and Jack Palance. Thriller, first release in 3-D, about two characters, both trying to escape their past, who meet in Mexico – one a distillusioned boxer, the other a woman on the run from her gangster boyfriend. Directed by Rudolph Mate.

4.30 Cricket: The NatWest Bank Trophy Final from Lord's. if the game is not over by 7.25 coverage will continue with the possibility of the following programmes being disrupted

7.25 News and Sport. 7.40 The Sky at Night. Patrick Moore talks about Titan. Postscript: J B Priestley ered. Robert

Robinson presents a portrait of and tribute to the literary lion who died tast month. With contributions from, among others, Angus Wilson, Michael Foot, and Priestley's widow, Jacquetta Hawkes. 5.55 Derek Bourgeois - Composer A film portrait of the new musical director of the National Youth Orchestra. 9.25 Film: Cutting it Short (1980) The first showing on British television for this k-made comedy centred around a small town brewery in the 1920s and the affect the arrival of a boorish: brother has on a mundane but happy marriage. The director is Jirl Menxel of Closely Observed Trains fame.

11.00 News with Jan Learning. 11.05 Cricket. Highlights of today's NatWest Bank Trophy final at Lord's. Ends at 11.55.

TONIGHT'S PROM

7.30 Schubert's Symphony No 3 In D.

Après une lecture de Dentet † 2.00 Verd's Operas (new series): The two-act opera Operto; Conte di Sen Bonifacio. Sung in Italian.
John Matheson conducts BSC
Scottleh Symphony Orchestra, Scottleh Opera Chorus. With Melcolm King, Linda Fintile, Bowland Sidwell, Kathleen Kuhlmann. Lin dell' Acque.

Howland Sidwell, Kathleen Kuhlmann, Iris dell'Acque.
4.20 Mozart and Selfert: Sallert's overture La Flera di Venezia; and the Concerto in C (Adeney/Brown, flute and plano); and Mozart's Divertimento in D, K 138.²

136.1
5.00 Jazz Record Requests: presented by Peter Clayton.1 5.45 Critics' Forum: Taking part are Paul Barker, Peter Porter, Gilfian
Reynolds and Marina: Warner,
6.35 Violin and Harp at Bickling Halt with Maurice Hasson (violin) and Marina Robies: Rossiti's
Andente con variazions, Josef Schuster's Objectiments.

Schuster's Divertimento; Alphonse Hasselmans's La

Alphonse Hasselmans's Lit source, for harp; Carlos Satzado's Chanson dans le nuit, for harp; Paganin's Capriccios No 13 in B flat, No 24 in A minor, for violit; Saint-Saëns's Fantaisie; Op 124.1
7.30 Proms 84 (see panel).1
7.55 The English Ayrs: The Consort of Musicke play places from Robert Dowland's Musical Banquet, 1610.1

Frontis 64 (see parely).

Economics and the Republican Purpose: Peter Oppenheimer in conversation with Martin Petidstein, outpoing Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisant to the President of the United

18.00 French Baroque Harpsichord Music: Kenneth Gilbert plays works by Dumont, Marais, D'Accelert Leberts and

D'Anglebert, Lebeque and Rameau (arranged Balbestre).† 10.35 Schutz Choral Music: BBC Singers, with soloists Paula Bott, Judith Rees, Pamela Priestley-Smith, Julian Clarkson, Nell Mackenzie and Roger Feath. With ornaris

With organist Margaret Philips, cellst Alexander Ballie and double-bass player Robin Magee.

8.15 Proms 84 (see panel).†

8.15

In D.

Besthoven's Symphony No 3
in E flat (Eroica). BBC Symphony Orchestra, con-ducted by Günter Wand.
Radio 3.1

CHANNEL 4

2.00 Living in the Same World. An examination into the question of equal opportunities in further education for people with disabilities. With subtities and sign language (r).

2.25 Film: Bong Without End (1980) starring Dirk Bogarde and Capucine. Love story about the composer Franz Liszt. Directed by Charles Vidor. 4.50 A Chairy Tale* An animated film about the battle between a kitchen chair and a young mar the wants to sit on it. 5.05 Brookside. A compilation of the week's two episodes. 6.00 Ear Say. The last in the present series and part of the programme will be devoted to highlights of previous interviews. Elsewhere there is a profile of the group Psychic TV and a feature on a new set of Mods who live in Los Angeles, News summary followed by Revelations in which Sir Laurens van der Post talks about his life's spiritual

7.30 World Alive: Spain. The penultimate programme in the series devoted to the wildlife of Spain examines the Coto Donana, the national park for migratory birds that lies in the delta of the River Guadalquivir. The Good, the Bad and the indefensible. The second of three programmes about the biological effects of electricity and Dr Stephen Perry, a Wolverhampton general practitioner, talks about his earch into the possible connection between suicide and proximity to power lines. Callan is told that The Section is required to carry out a reprisal operation involving the harrassment of a minor Russian diplomat.

10.00 A Frame with Davis. The second programme in the repeat series and the snocker champion talks to Barry Cryer and John Junkin.

10.30 Fam: Fog Over Frisco* (1934) starring Betts Davis. Thriller with Miss Davis playing a young socialite who unwittingly becomes involved with the underworld. Directed by William Dieterie.

Devil's Island" (1940) starring Boris Karloff as an unjustiv imprisoned doctor serving his sentence on a brutal French Caribbean penal colony. Directed by William Clemens. 100 Closedown

11.15 News, Until 11.18.

MF (medium wave) as VHF except: 10.25em-7.30 Cricket.
Commentary from Lord's on the Nativest Trophy Final.
VHF only . Open University:
6.55cm The Geology of the Planets. 7.15-7.35 Maths Foundation Tutorial. 11.20pg the Reformer, 11.40-12.00 A Femiliat Viewpoint.

Radio 2

Naws on the hour until 1.00pm, then from 6.00 (except 8.00pm and 9.00). Headlines 8.30ass, 7.30 (medium wave)! also VHF stereo. 4.00ams David Scott.† 8.00 Sheila Traceyt Including 7.50 Racing. 8.05 David Jacobs† 10.00 Sounds of the 60s. A trip down memory lane with Keith Fordyce. 11.00 Album Time with Peter Cayron, including 11.02 Sports Desk. 1.00 Mooney's Monday Magazine. 1.30 Sport on 2: Includes Cricket at Lord's (NatiWest Trophy Final between Kent and Middleset) and racing from Sandown Park. 5.00 Sports Report. 5.00 Folk on 2. Recordings from EBU Sweden. Fions Simpson and Grahem Cooper from Great Britain and La Banda from Spein. 7.00 Three in a Row from The Town House, Invernets. 7.30 Cricket Scores. Salurday Night is Gala Night Georgie Fame Does His Sala Night Georgie Fame Does His Concert. Last night of his 1963 tour, recorded at London's Royal Albert Hall. 9.30 Big Band. 10.02 Sports Desk. 10.05 Saturday Rendezvous hosted tonight by treand. 11.00 Ken Bruce Including 11.02, 12.05am Sports Desk. 1.00am Jean Challes presents Nightride. 13.09—4.00 Wally Wityton introduces Country Corroert starring Billy Walker and Jim Glaser.

Radio 1

News on the helf hour until 12.30pm, 2.30, 3.30, 5.30, 7.30, 9.30 and 12 2.30, 3.30, 5.30, 7.30, 9.30 and 12 midnight (madium wave) t also on VHF stereo. 6.00am Mark Page. 8.00 Tony Blackburn's Saturday Show. 10.00 Dave Lee Travis. 1.00pm My Top Ten. Thomas Dolby talks to Andy Pethiles.† 2.00 Paul Gambacchi with America's hits.† 4.00 Saturday Live direct from the Edinburgh Festival. 6.30 in Concert featuring Annabel Lamb and MikeSilver.† 7.30 Janice Long including sessions from Red Box and Thomas sessions from Red Box and Thomas Dolby, 10.00-12.00em Dide Peach, Vi-Redice 1 & 2 4.00em With Radio 2 1.00pm With Radio 1.7-30pm-4.00em ch. VHF Vith Radio 2. World Service, facing page have recently played at the Metropolitan Opera, New York. BBC1 Wales. 12.10-12.15em News of Wales headlines and weather. Scotland. 1.00-1.22pm Landward. Scotland's farming programme. 12.10-12.15em Scotlish news and summary and weather. Northern trained. 12.10-12.15em Newthern trained. 12.10-12.15em REQUENCIES: Radio 1: 1063kHz/265m; 1089kHz/275m; Radio 2: 693kHz/433m; 909kHz/330m; Radio 3: 1215kHz/247m; VHF -90-92.5; Radio 4: 00kHz 1500m; VHF -92-95; LBC 1152kHz/261m; VHF 94.9; World news and surprise y Northern Ireland, 12.10-12.15am Northern Ireland news headlines and

S4C Starts 2.45pm Secret Place. 3. Hurling. 5.05 Trak Trb. 8.00 American Footbal. 7.15 Newyddion Ameeth. 7.20 Newyddion. 7.30 Dytroe Byw. 8.00 Galwi God. 8.30 Dechrau Canu, Dechrau Canmol. 9.00 Playing Shakespeare, 9.55 Preview. 19.25 Film. Fog Over Frisco (Bette Davis) Heiress is found murdered. 11.35 Film: Devil's

CENTRAL As London except: 9.25em Professor Kitzel, 9.30-10.00 About Britain, 5.20-6.30 Falcon Crast, 11.15 Osibisa in Concert, 12.15am Closedown.

YORKSHIRE As London except: 9.25am-10.00 Link.

⊤v-am

7.25 Good Morning Britain, presented by David Frost. 7.30 Rub-a-Dub-Tub (r). 8.30 Good Morning Britain continues with news headin from Jayne living and the first television interview with Robert Maxwell since he became the proprietor of Mirror Group Newspapers.

ITV/LONDON

10.30 Ceefax 1.00 Farming, 1.25 Artists in Print. printing and Gerd Winner works with the cel nester-printer, Chris Prater (r). 1.50 News headlines. 1.55 Mickey and Donald. Cartoon.

BBC/1

6.20 Open University: Until 8.50.

9.00 Bod. A See-Saw programmy for the very young (r). 9.15 Knock Knock, Children's (r). 9.30 This is the Day.

Sydenham. 10.00 Asian stories from around the world

Sunday worship with residents of St Christopher's Hospice, Magazine. Highlights of Asian athletes in action at the Los Angeles Olympics; plus music and an Item on the School of Oriental and African Studies.

Film: Rio Grande" (1950) starring John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara. Lt-Col Yorke of the US Cavalry is having a hard enough time fighting marauding indians on the Maxican border without the arrival of his estranged w and trooper son. Directed by Sonanza, Western adventure Bonanza. Western adventures with the gang from the Ponderosa where, this week, the ranch's cook, Hop Sing, is swept off his feet by a wild woman of the woods.

4.50 The Butterfly Ball. A documentary that follows the rehearsals of the Upham Road Dancers, a group of mentally handicapped young people, a they prepare their version of the children's story The Butterfly Ball and Grasshoppers' Feast (r).

5.20 From Where I Stand. Michael Fortounatto, a priest of the Russian Orthodox Church in London explains how his faith helps him cope with life in Britain (r).

5.50 News with Jan Leeming. 6.00 Dombey and Son. Episoda seven of the 10-part dramatization of Charles Dickens's novel and Dombey goes to Learnington Spa to recover from the death of young Paul (r) (Ceefex titles

6.30 Excuse My French. Joe Brown gets to grips with the French language. 5.40 Songs of Praise from the Spa Pavillon Gardens, Feliostowe

(Ceetax titles page 270). 7.15 Master of the Game. Part one of three-episode adaptation of Sidney Sheldon's best seller starring Dyan Cannon as the dominating matriarch of a giant corporate empire base in South Africa at the turn of swindled by a Boer merchant and had vowed revenge something that his daughter would pursue all her life. With lan Charleson and Cherie Lunghi (Ceelax titles page 9.30 News with Jan Leeming. 9.45 Sunday Night at the Proms introduced by Richard Baker. eader Christopher Warren-Green, conducted by Bernard Haitink and the women's voices of the Philiparmonia Chorus perform Gustav Hoist's The Planets.

10.45 An inspector Calls, by J. B. Priestley. A family dinner party is disrupted by the arrival of a police inspector - or is he? Starring Bernard Hepton, Nigel Davenport and Margaret Tyzack (r).

Radio 4

On long wave, friendes stared on VHF. 6.25 Shipping. 6.30 News; Morning Has Broken. 6.55 Weather;

Has Broken. 8-55 Process. 7.15
Travel.
7.00 News. 7.10 Sunday Papers. 7.15
Aona H Ghar Samainiye. 7.45
Bels. 7.50 Turning Over New Leaves. 7.55 Weather; Travel.
8.00 News. 8.10 Sunday Papers. 8.15
Sunday, 8.50 Week's Good Cause. 8.55 Weather; Travel.
8.00 News. 9.10 Sunday Papers.
9.15 Letter From America by Alastair
Cooke.

2.00 Moming Service from North Church, Perth.

16.15 The Archiers Crimibus edition.

11.15 The Colour Supplement. Sarah Kennedy and reporter Nigel Farreli present a magazine. Includes an interview with Alan Long of the Vegetarian Society.

12.55 Weather.

1.00 The World This Weekend: News.

1.55 Shipping.

2.00 News; Gardeners' Cuestion Time from Headington, Oxford.

2.30 Afternoon Theatre 'Arms and Man' by Bernard Shaw. Cast includes Andrew Sachs, Gary Bohd and Jackle Smith-Wood (r).†

4.00 News; Home-ing In. D-I-Y magazine.

magazine.
4.30 The Living World.
5.00 News; Travel.
5.05 Down the Severn. Tom Salmon continues his journey from the source to the mouth of the Rivel Severn (2), 5.50 Shipping, 5.55 Weather.

6.15 Round Britain Quiz. London v

9.45 Very Likely. Story written, and need, by Leonard Barras. Third Time and Still Unlucky.

7.30 A Good Read. A selection of paperbacks. With Eleanor Bron and Shaun Sutton.

7.00 No

News: Death May Surprise Us (s) dramatised in six parts from the novel by Ted Willis (2). With Leslie

A Musical Evening, John Rawnsley, Helen Fleid and Arthur Davies talk about the roles they

12.10 Weather.

9.25 Cartoon Time. 9.35 The 10.00 Morning Worship. Family Communion from St

James's Church, Tile Hill Road, Coventry (Oracle fities page 170). 11.00 Link. Kevin Muthern talks to Graham Miles who runs a support group for carers. 11.30 Thora filed hitroduces How We Used to introduces How We Used to Live. Miss Hird goes behind the scenes of the awardwinning Schools programme, How We Used to Live (r).

12.00 From the Shadow of the Gun The Search for Peace in Northern Ireland. The second programme in the series and Mary Holland examines the strong national identities felt by the Catholics and the by the Catholics and the Protestants. 1.00 The Adida: British Marathon 1984. The first of three live visits to Bolton where international long distance runners are joined by the enthusiastic

1.15 The Big Match. Brian Moore introduces highlights from two of yesterday's matches from the First Division. 2.00 Platform 2. The last programms of the series and Paul Johnson and Janet Radcliffe Richards are joined Prabhu Guptara 'a Hindu follower of Christ' and gospel singer Shella Walsh.

2.30 London news headines followed by The Smurfs. 3.00 The Adides British Maratho 1984, 4.00 TV Times Sta Family Challenge, The final programme in the series in which celebrities and their families compete in contests with prize money going to charities 4.30 The Adidas British Marathon 1984. 5.00 Bullseye. A new series of the darts and general knowledge

5.30 Magnum. A socktail waitress hires the private detective's

6.30 News. 6.40 Highway. Harry Secombe begins a new season with a flight northwards from Gatwick 7.15 Child's Play. Michael Aspel introduces a new series of the game in which a panel has to discover what a young person is trying to describe.

7.45 Film: Moonraker. (1979) starring Roger Moore as James Bond, in this advent pitting his wits against the sinister Hugo Drax. Directed by Lewis Gilbert.

10.00 News. 10.15 Time and the Priestleys. J.B.'s son Tom in conv with his father. Extracts from J. B. Priestley's letters and books are read by Derek Jacobi.

11.15 London news headlines. followed by Alaska: Technology and Time. A documentary about the controversy over the granting of oil exploration rights in 12.20 Night Thoughts.

9.00 News; Sword of Honour by Evelyn Waugh (10) t(r). 3.58 Weather.

10.00 News.
10.15 Hardy's Wessex (s/binaural).
Desmond Hawkins sets out on a journey through the country Hardy portrayed in his poems rarry portrayed in his poems and novels.

11.00 Before the Ending of the Day: with BBC Singers. 1

11.15 Turn to Hope. William Morris.
1834-96 by Mervyn Jones. Philip Voss plays Morris.

12.00 News. 12.10 Weather. 12.15-Close Shipping Porcesst.

VIME (mailtable in England and S.

VHS (available in England and S. Wales only) Radio 4 VHF is as above, except: 7.05-7.45 am Open University; 7.00 Music Interlude, 7.05 Why Study the State? 7.25 Education Bulletin. State / 1.25 Education Bulletin. 1.55-2.00 pm Programme News. 4.00-6.00 Study on 4: 4.00 So You Want to Be an Actor. 4.30 Landscapes of the Night. 5.00 People's Theatre. 5.30 The One Left Behind.

Radio 3

7.55 Weather 8.00 News. 8.05 Emenuel Feuermann: Cello works. Schubert's Sonata in A minor (the Arpeggione); Beethoven's Archduke Trio.19.00

News. 9.05 Your Concert Choice: Abbess Hildegard of Bingen's O presul vere civitas; O Jenasalem; and Messisen's Turungalia

Symptomy.:

16.45 Prom Talk: Includes Peter Maxwell Davies on his into the Labyrinth: and Thea Musgrove on her Clarinat Concerto.:

11.15 Scottleh Chamber Orchestra: Scottish Chamber Orchestra: with Karen Vaughan (harp), Peter Evans (plano) and Philip Ledger (harpsichord). Haydn's Symphony No 75; Frank Martins. Petitis Symphonis Concertante; and Beethoven's Symphony No 2†

12.45 Felicity Lott: Recital by the soprano, with Graham Johnson (plann) Works by Presel (piano). Works by Purcell Brahms, Wolf (Four Mignon songs); Ravel; Roussel; and

VHF: Open University, 8.55am Writing about Art; 7.15 Dinadale Park School; 7.35 Social Sciences: REGIONAL TELEVISION VARIATIONS

lan Charleson and Cherie Lunghi in part one of Sidney Sheldon's Master of the Game (BBC 1, 7 15pm)

CHANNEL 4

racecourse Europe's second richest horse race will be run

the Phoentx Championship Stakes, Irish Angle charts the remarkable success story of

2.30 The Actor and the Role, Jill Gascoine and what the effect of playing the Biblical character Ruth had on her.

Look Forward to a new season of American Football

3.15 Hurting - the Ali Ireland Final.
Cork meet Offaly in the Sample Stadium, Thuries, Co
Tipperary The commentator is Michael O'Hehir

Bennett is the narrator of this documentary exploring the current theological debate in the Church of England in which modern theological scholarship is being rejected by a majority of the clergy who choose to ignore the deliberations of the Doctrine theologians is trying to weigh specific subjects - the image of God and the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. The Commission's chairman, John Taylor, Bishop of Winchester is among those appeals to the Anglican Church to formulate a theology

Interviewed as is Bishop Trevor Huddleston who

American Football preser

by Nicky Home and John

7.10 News summary and weather

7.15 Playing Shakespeare. John

Smith. They report from Los Angeles's Memorial Collseum on the coming season.

modern scholarship against traditional authority on two Commission. This body of peginning at 6.00.

5.00 The Elastic Church, Alan

cing in Ireland over the past

2.00 Irish Angle. Next week at Dublin's Phoentx Park

BBC 2

6.25 Open University: Chemical Proceses: Polymerisation. 6.50 A Community by Design? 7.15 The Universe Yesterday. 7.40 Brian or Rosemary? 8.05 Members of the Jury. 8.30 From Peridotite to Granite. 8.55 Meanings of Madness 9.20 Maths: Mathematical Inductions. 9.45 Quantum Theory: Identical Particles 10.10 The Art of Physick 10.35 10.10 The Art of Physick 10.35
Herod and Judea 11.00
Computing: Skrulation Models
11.25 Conversion with Computers 11.50 The Plant
Cell Wall 12.15 Energy Resources: Alternatives 12.40
Heart of Darkness, by Joseph Corrad 1.05 Subject Talk at School, 1.30 Maths Methods:
Hallaws Cornat.

1.55 Sunday Grandstand, Three sports covered this afternoon Cricket a John Player Special League game; Athletics from Alexander Athletes from Alexander Stadium, Birmingham: the GRE Men's Gold and Women's Jubiles Cup Finals;
and Termis: the US Open Championships.

6.50 News Review. A digest of the week's news with Jan Leeming, Subtitled. 7.15 Elgar (1857-1934) A orative Concert. The Dream of Gerontius recorded in Worcester Cathedral on the opening night of the 257th Three Choirs Festival. With Janet Baker, Stuart Burrows, Benjamin Luxon with the Festival Chorus and the BBC Weish Symphony Orchestra, leader Desmond Bradley, conductor Andrew Davis (Part two at 8.10). 8.05 News with Jan Leeming.

8.10 Elgar's The Dream of rontius, part two. 9.15 A Moment to Talk. The penultimate programme in the series that eavesdrops on ordinary working men and women as they take a break from their labours.

9.30 Marie Curie. The fifth and final instalment of the dramatized biography of the celebrated scientist. Starring Jane Lapotaire in the title role (Ceefax titles page 270). 10.25 First The Assassination of Trotaky (1972) starring Richard Burton. The first for this dramatic account of the events that led to the murder of Leon Trotsky in Mexico, With Alain Delon, Romy Schheider and Valentina Cortese. Directed by Joseph 12.05 The 1984 US Open Tennis Championships. The first of a series of nightly reports from New York on the day's action Flushing Meadow. Ends at Watton (A song for the Lord Mayor's table). Interval reading at 1.25.

2.15 BBC Philinarmonic Orchestra: with John McCabe (plano). Respight's suite The Birds; Mozart's Piano Concerto No 25;

1.35 French Music for Plano and Wind: Recital of works by Saint-Saens; Poulenc; Lennox Berketey; and Magnard. Richard Adeney (fluta), Neil Black (obce), Thea King (clarinet), William Waterhouse (bassoon), David Johns (plano).1

4.45 Rosa Ponselle: A profile of the celebrated singer, by John Steame. Contributors include Effsabeth Schwarzkopf, Placido Domingo, and Ponselle herself

5.45 Haydn and Beethovan Sonatas: Beethoven's Op 10 No 3, and Haydn's C minor (H XV1 20). Played by Jeffrey Slegal (plano).†

6.30 Ar Lan Y Mor. Nigel Baldwin's play, set in a quest house in Wales, stars Meg Wynn Owen, Paulins Skidle and Russell Dix

7.05 Scartatti Sonatas: performances by Trevor Pinnock (harpsichord).

7.25 Eger: The Dream of Gerontius.

BBC 2, of Eigar's great ors

ultaneous broadcast with

BBC 2, of Eigar's great oratorio, trom Worcester Cathedrai.
Andrew Davis conducts the BBC Weish SO and choral forces of the Three Choirs Festival. Soloists: Janet Balter, Stuart Burrows, and Benjanish Lucon. Part two at 8-10, after interval reading.!

Spohr and Raff: Academy of St Martin-In-the-Fields, Spohr's Double Quartet Op 138; and Raff's Octet Op 176.†

10.15 BBC Philinermonic Orchestra: Debuesy's Pretude à l'après-midi d'un faune; Brian Ellas's L'Eylah; and Verdi's ballet music

Jeruseiem.

11.15 News. Until 11.18

and McCabe's The Shadow of programme in the series on how actors bring the words of Shakespeare to life. Tonight. Mr Banton and his group of Royal Shakespeare Company actors examine how the intellectual and emotional demands of the Bard's texts should be balanced. 8.15 Upstairs, Downstairs. Australia sheep farmer Gregory Wilmot appears on the scene once again and 9.15 The Royal College of Music. A profile of the college, introduced by the president of tts centenary appeal, HRH Prince Charles. 10.15 Film: The Best Man* (1964) starring Henry Fonda and Cliff about two rivals for the Presidential nomination. Directed by Franklin Schaffner 12.05 Closedov

Radio 2

News on the hour (except 8.00pm) Headines 7.30am (medium wave). Good Morning Sunday with special guest Betty O'Shea.† 9.00 Desmond ngton with your Radio 2 All-Time s.f 12.30 The Grumbleweeds. 12.59 Sports Desk 1.00 Ray Moore Introduces Two's Best.† 2.00 Summi Sounds Includes (Derbyshire v Esse Sourius Incures (Derpyster e Essay) and (European Masters at Crens-SurSierre) and US Open at Flushing Meadow, New York). Also Rugby Union Harlequins versus Lord Tavener's; and Motor Cycling (the San Manno Grand Proy. 6.00 Charille Chesser 7.00 David Prix). 6.00 Charile Chester 7.00 David Francis and Gordon Langford 7.30 Cricket Scores: Glemorous Nights introduced by Robin Boyle. 8.30 Sunday Heil-Hour from St Ahne's Church, Aldemey 9.00 Your Hundred Best Tunes 10.02 Sports Desk 10.00 Songs from the Shows with John Marsh. The performers. Andrew Vinter (pisno), Jan Hartley and Brian Kay 11.00 Sounds of Jazz with Peter Clayton Rollercoaster and the David Horler Cuartet, including 11.02, 12.05 Sports Desk 1.00em Nightride.† 3.00-4.00 Two's Best.†

Radio 1

News on the half hour until 11.30am, then 2.30pm, 3.30, 5.00, 7.30, 9.30 and then 12 midnight (medium wave). Telenotes VHF stere 6.00am Mark Page, 8.00 Tony Blackburn s Sunday Show. 10.00 Adman Juste 12.00 Jimmy Saville's Old Record Club leaturing The Double Top Ten. This week, 1959 and 1974, 3.00 Serue Microse, 4.00 February 1974, 1975, 2.00 Serue Microse, 4.00 February 1974, 2.00 Serue Microse, 4.00 S Double Top Ten. This week. 1959 and 1974. 2.00 Steve Wright. 4.00 Pag. Gambacon with an appreciation of James Brown 5.90 Top 40 with Sknon Beties. 7.00 Anne Nightingale. 19.00 Robbe Vincent All Winners: Show (Part 2).* 11.00-12.00em Gary Byrd's Sweet Inspirations. TVHF Redos 1 & 2.4.00 With Radio 2.2.00 Benny Green. 13.00 Alan Dell with Sounds Easy 1 4.00 String Sound with Jean Challes. 1 4.30 Sing Something Simple with The Cliff Adams Singers. 15.00 With Radio 1.12.00-4.00ex With Radio 2.

World Service, Jacing page

SCOTTISH As London except: 9.25em Wattoo Wattoo

9.30 How We Used To Live. 10.00 Girl of Samos. 10.30-11.00 Edinburgh Marathon. 11.30-12.00 Joe 90. 1.00pm Mork and Mindy 1.30-2.00 Farming Outlook. 2.30 Chips. 3.30-4.00 Protectors. 4.30 Scotsport. 6.00-6.30 Bullseye. 11.15 Return of the Saint. 12-15am Late Call, Closedo

GRAMPIAN As London except 9.25cm Professor (Kizal, 9.30 Sesame Street, 10.30-11.00
Working Faith, 1.00pm Survival, 1.302.00 Farming Outlook, 2.30 Phyllis Diller
Show, 3.00-4.00 Fall Guy, 4.30
Scotsport, 6.00-6.30 Bullseye, 11.15
Monte Carlo Show, 12.15cm
Reflections, Closedown.

BORDER As London except 9.25am Border Digry. 9.30-10.00 How We Used To Live. 11.30-12.00 Familing Outlook. 2.30pm 3.00 Survival. 5.30-5.30 The Fall Guy. 11.15 Cilve James. 12.15am Closedov

3BC1 Wales: 5.45-5.50pm Sports News Wales, 12.30-12.35em Vexther for Wales, Spottend: 5.45-REGIONAL TELEVISION VARIATIONS

11:35

Vexther for Wales, Scottland: S.45-1.50pm Scoreboard, S.55-8.25 10ortsoage, S.25-12.16em Firm: "Patton-Last for Giory" (George C. Scottland: Last for Giory" (George C. Scottland: Lottland, Glose, Northern Iveland: 4.55-1.5pm Northern Ireland Results (opt-out for Grandstand): S.45-5.50 Northern vising news, 12.30-12.35em Northern vising news, 12.30-12.35em Northern vising news, 12.30-12.35em Northern reiend news and weather. England, A5-5.50m London - Sport. South rest (Phymouth) - Spottight sport antitwo. Al Other English regions port/Regional news.

74C Starts 2.50pm Opinions. 3.15. Cervaries, 4.10 Childhood. 5.06. for Foresking All Others (Clark Gable). 25 Earth Year 2050. 7.30 Newyddion. 45 Newydd Bob Nos. 8.15 Callan. 10.15. Int. Al Capone (Flod Steiger). 12.15em, oeddwn. ORDER As London except: 9.25am Cartoon, 9.35-100 MrT. 11,20-12.15pm Battlester Hactor, 12.05em Closedown.

HTV WEST As London except 9.25am Professor Kitzel, 9.35-10.00 Mister T. 11.20-12.18pm Standby ... Lights, Camera. Action! 12.06em Bette Midler. 12.36

own. HTV WALES: No variation. SCOTTISH & London sweet: 9.25cm A lornad? Difficit, 9.50-10.00 Sally and Jake. 11.15-12.15cm Fragtic Rock, 12.05cm Late Call, Closedoct.

ANGLIA As London except: Starts 9.30em-70.00 Fraggle Rock: 12.05em Betts Midler, No Frills.

GRAMPIAN As London except: Starts 9.30em-10.00 / Iomadh Dutsich. 11.20-12.15pm Gelactica 50. 12.05em Reflections, CHANNEL As London except.

9.25em Cartoon. 9.3510.00 Mr T. 11.15 Putilin's Space. 11.2012.15pm Space 1999. 8.05 Putilin's Ptatica. 8.10 Smurts. 5.35-6.05
Krankles Klub. 12.05em Closedown. Glory 11.50-12.15pm Batman. 5.05 News. 5.10-5.36 Karikies. 12.05am City James Paria Fashion Show. 1.05 Poet's Corner, Closedown. TYNE TEES As London except TVS As London except 9.25am 9.3 Augle Doggle. 11.45-12.15pm Jabberjaws. 12.05am Bette Midler.

ULSTER As London except: 9.25mm-16.00 Fragols Rock. 11.50-12.15pm Wild World of Animals. 4.55-6.00 (Bibler Sports Results. 12.00 News, Closedown.

TSW As London except: 9.25am Cartoon. 9.35-10.00 Mr T. 11.22-12.15pm Freeze Frame. 5.05 Newsport. 5.10 Smarts. 5.35-5.05 Krenkles. 12.05am Movie Makers. 12.30

GRANADA As London except 9.25cm Cartoon, 9.35-10.00 Mister 7. 11.20-12.15pm Chips. 12.05cm Hawell Five O. 12.55 Rock of the Seventies. 1.25 Closedown. YORKSHIRE As London except 9.25em Cartoon. 9.35-10.00 Mister T. 11.20-12.15pm Battlester Gatactics. 12.05em Teachers Only. 12.35 Closedown.

CENTRAL As London except. 9.25em Candyland 9.35-10.00 Mister T. 11.20-12.15;

WHAT THE SYMBOLS MEAN

island (Boris Karloff) innocent surgeon is jalled. 12.45em Closedown.

11.00 How We Used To Live. 11.30 12.00 Yvonne Hudson, Sculptor. 2.30pm-3.00 Calendar Calling. 5.30-6.30 Resum of The Sairt. 11.15 Clive James. 12.15em Five Minutes, Closedown.

CHANNEL As London except: Starts 12.58pm-1.00 GRANADA As London except: 9.25ata Chess Mesterpleces, 9.30-10.00 Hoodoo

Start Point. 2.20-3:00 Getting On. 5.30-6.30 Return of the Saint. 11, 16 Devin. Connection. 12.10am Closedown. TYNE TEES As London except: 9.25em Morning Giory. 9.30-10.00 Link. 11.00 How We Used To Live. 11.25 Lookeround. 11.30-12.00 Baiman. 1.00pm Platform 2. 1.30 Farming Outdook. 2.00 Marython. 2.15-3.00 Big Match. 5.30-8.30 Felcon Crest. 11.15 Journey To The Unknown. 12.15em Toff Hill Handbell Ringers, Closedown: Closedown:

TVS As London except: 9.25am Farming Brief: 9.30-10.00 How
We Used To Live. 1,30-12.00 Emergrise
South: 1.00pm-1.15 Agends. 2.30 Air
Show 94. 4.00 Bring 'Em Back Alive.
5.00 TV Times Star Family Challenge
5.30 News. 5.35-6.30 Chips. 11.15 Cive
James. 12.15am Company, Closedow

ULSTER As London except 11.00am-11.30 Link. 2.30
3.30 Benson, 5.30-6.30 Return of The Saint. 11.15 Sports Results, 11.20
Possidon Files. 12.15am News, Closedown.

Country, 11,99 How We Used To Live. 11.25 Aap Kaa Hak. 11.30-12.00 This is Your Right. 2.30-3.30 Adventurer, 5.30-5.30 Return of The Saint, 11.20 Last Outlaw, 12.15am That's Hollywood. 12.45 Closedown.

HTV WEST As London except 9.25cm Professor Kitzel. 9.30-10.06 Corphans of the Wild. 1.00pm Platform 2. 1.30 Farming Wales. 2.00 Marathon. 2.15-8.00 Big Match. 11.15 Deviln Connection. 12.15cm Conservan HTV WALES As London except: 3.60pm Showjumping. 4.30-5.00 Tv Tiknes Star Family Challenge. 5.30-6.30 Maráthon

TSW As London except: Starts
9.30am-10.00 Link. 11.00 How We Used To Live. 11.25 Look And See
11.30 South West Week: 11.55-12.00
Postscript. 2.30pm Holiday Happenings
2.50-3.00 Cartoon. 5.30-6.30 Return of The Saint. 11.15 Devin Connection.
12.10am Postscript, Closedown.

ANGLIA As London except: Starts 9.30mm-10.00 Once upon a Time . Mart. 2.30pm-3.00 Laurel and Hardy 11.15 Cithe James. 12.15em it Takes All Sorts, Closedown.

Driest summer for many areas

By Christine Toomey

Some parts of Britain have had their driest summer since records began, meteorological statisticians said last night. By 9am today rainfall and temperature figures for the uhole of the United Kingdom will be collated at the Weather Centre in Bracknell, Berkshire. But last night statisticians were confirming that certain parts of the country have had their driest six months since the turn of the century and in August alone the national rainfall average has fallen this

Patchy rainfall over parts of Britain in the past week has done little to alleviate the water authority officials say.

The forecast of rain spreading from the north to the south and west early next week, with temperatures dropping from the upper 70s this weekend to the middle to low 60s on Tuesday. will do little to help either.

in the North-west, where the call to cut water consumption has brought the least response from the public, up to 45 million gallons of water are being pumped out of Lake Windermere every day.

The North West Water Authority has had to earmark

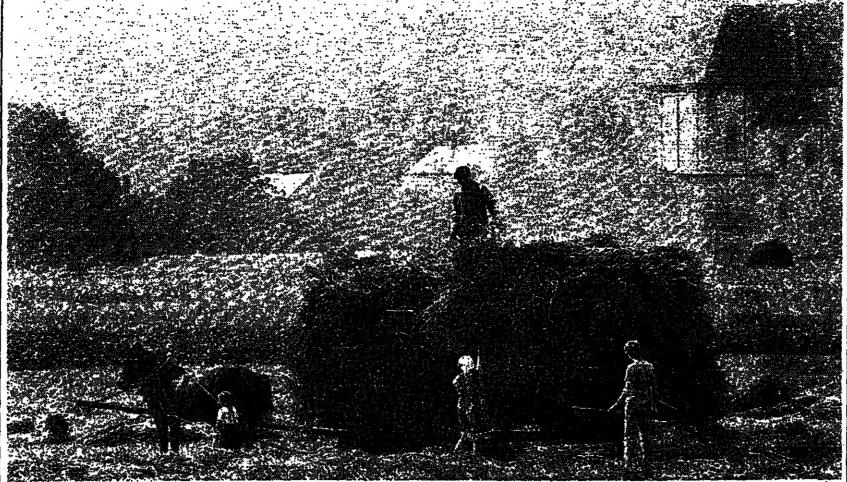

£300,000 for a huge operation at the lake to extend jetties left high and dry. Yorkshire Water Authority announced yesterday that further restrictions on water use will have to be imposed in the Bradford and Craven areas.

In Scotland soaring temperatures have been causing havoc at a Lanarkshire sweets factory. where workers have had to start clocking in at 6am to meet production targets before the heat in the factory rises above 90F, the temperature at which

But in the South-west, one of the areas worst affected by the drought, the public response to the "save it" campaign has cut water consumption by 30 per

In South-cast Wales, where water consumption has also been cut substantially, the decision to impose rationing has been postponed until September 17.

Harvest of hope for Poland's peasants

From Roger Boyes, Warsaw

The harvest is drawing to a close in Poland. The sun beats down on the backs of peasants in Upper Silesia as they scythe and bundle the last of the crops; the landscape is undisturbed by tractors, combine harvesters or other twentieth century intruders. The Roman Catholic church, traditionally close to the private farmers, has launched a multi-million dollar scheme to drag Polish agriculture into the modern age. The idea is to gather money in the West through churches, governments and industry and spend it on technology for selected projects in Poland.

The farmers would pay for the new tractors and machines in zloties and the Polish money would be of Caravan Club, opens a Caravan Club rally at Ballater, Grampian, 10.

Action Portraits, Scottish press

New exhibitions

rechannelled into farming. The church has now collected almost the entire $30m (about £23m) needed for the pilot schemes.

They will aim to boost milk production and improve its quality, inprove water supplies, build up repair shops, supply spare parts for tractors and improve the output of fertilizer. The true state of Polish agriculture was best revealed in a recent newspaper advertisement signed "Freezing farmer". It lamented the fact that long johns are being supplied only on medical prescription. "For years I have been unable to buy warm underwear", the farmer wrote, "If I can find a pair, I will pay for them in honey, butter or Gathering in, Polish-style (Photographs: Martin Mayer).

Letter from Cortonwood

Battling on at the Alamo

Miners have given the name The Alamo to the makeshift picket hut at the entrance to the Cortonwood colliery near Barnsley - the pit whose supposed closure sparked off the miners' strike nearly six months ago. One picket at least was not too happy about the name.

The Alamo, he pointed out grimly, was eventually over-run, just as Cortonwood will have to close through exhaustion within five years come what may.

The miners accept that readily and agree that all the attendant problems of closure the hurt they believe will be done to the local community are only a short time away whether they win or lose, yet they fight as if they are trying to ensure a long-term future.

The coal board decision on Cortonwood, a 110-year old pit in Brampton Brieriow. an undistinguished Dearne Valley village, was taken in March and ensured the colliery a prominent place when the history of the current dispute is written. The coal board says is written. The coal board says that although it produced 280,000 tonnes of high quality coking coal, its extraction cost was £60 a tonne and its selling price only £40. The collapse of the steel industry destroyed the market and it has been sold more cheanly when sold more cheaply when possible, to power stations.

The board says losses were

The board says losses were mounting and reached £3m last year. NCB area director Mr George Hayes, facing the need to cut capacity by 500.000 tonnes in South Yorkshire as part of the national reduction of 4 million tonnes. tonnes a year took the decision that Cortonwood skould go a few years before exhaustion forced closure. The 820 miners were to be transferred to other South Yorkshire pits or take voluntary redundancy or early retirement. However, the plan advanced no further. Enraged Cortonwood miners sought the backing of the Yorkshire NUM and the strike started.

Twenty-five weeks later the pickets in the stilling hot Alamo hut (a stove burns constantly to boil water) and the wives of striking nuners dishing out meals at 10p a head at the miners' welfare club, give little impression of being involved in a fight for only a limited future for the

It is about the future of the industry, they declare earnessly, not just Cortonwood but other pits which could face closure with 20 or 30 years of coal left, destroying the chances of thousands of miners' sons who have little prospect

Mr David Kenny, aged 27. a general labourer at the pit for 11 years said: "We know Cortonwood will have to close in five years, but in the meantime there is good quality coal to be mined and we want some control over

our own destuny
"When we lose the pit it will break down the community and we want to save it as long as we can. We have a good community spirit here and it is worth holding on to. Look what has happened in the inner cities. We don't want to follow". The non-mining community at Brampton has apparently railied strongly around the striking Cortonwood men and their wives who are equally committed to the strike. Gifts of food and money are commonplace in a community which is well aware of the significant part Cortonwood has played in the beginnings of the dispute. Journalists from all over the world have visited The Alamo and cuttings from international newspapers are pin-ned on the wall.

The vicar of Brampton, the Rev Nick Jowett and his wife Hilary, the Deaconness of the parish, have also become involved, helping to alleviate the hardship and collecting for a fund which has raised £2,500 for miners' families. They have complete sympathy for the plight of the Cortonwood men, but they are also very concerned about the reluctance of the community to fully grasp that a future dependancy on the pit is already desperately limited.

They said: "There is no tradition here of people being mobile." The last thing kids think of is moving away. They work alongside each other and socialize together and they fear that being torn apart.

Craig Seton

THE TIMES INFORMATION SERVICE

Today's events

Royal engagements

The Duke of Edinburgh, Patron

Solution of Puzzle No 16,518

photographs, Perth Museum and Solution of Puzzle No 16,523

2 Animal with firm back bearing a great deal (6).

3 Harsh trend - it's quite wrong

President flushing over being backed (10).

a stop (10).

service (10). Many won't work on a ship

The Times Crossword Puzzle No 16,524

I prize at The Tranes Atlas of the World (comprehensive edition) will be given for the first three correct solutions opened next. Thursday, Entries should be addressed to: The Times, Standay Crossword Competition, 12 Coley Street, London WC99 9YT. The numers and solution will be published next Saturday.

The winners of last Saturday's competition are: Mr. 1. Chisholm, 50 Copsessood Wav. Northwood, Middlesex; Mr. C. Hollingworth, 35 High Street, Flat 2: Bangor, Gwynedd, Mrs. J. Dong, 28 Westcombe Avenue, W.

ACROSS

1 Reads and records for the police

9 A steep requirement for converting foreign currency (6).

10 Satisfied about blunder made with teeth (8). 11 Get depressed when left suffering (S). 12 Some nasty, even unsightly, without cover (7).

6 In Spain there isn't one bridge swelling (4). 13 Prudence, given no credit, is 7 Diffident about losing interest

15 A solvent - one to use with pitch 17 Honourable, genteel, quiet 12 A good man - and yet coming to Conservatives (7).
29 Figure of Parisian once hard to a stop (10).

14 "— is but want of power to sin" (Dryden) (10).

16 Irresponsible conduct of a dunderhead in flight (8). get into shape (10). 21 A revolutionary act? (4).
23 Having to carry a seat some servicement find a beastly nuisance (8). 25 Frailty of the cat running out of 18 Inn later completely reconts quota of lives (8).

26 A run can make the traince 19 The climber's sole aid (7). 22 Fruit for artist's home (6).

24 Propellers going round changing the direction (4). 27 Separate country and town (10). The national final of the Collins Dictionaries Times Crossword Championship is on Sunday. September 9, at the Park Lane Hotel, London, at 1.30 pm. admission £2.

CONCISE CROSSWORD, PAGE 16

Art Gallery, 78 George Street, Perth; Mon to Sat 10 to 1 and 2 to 5 (until

Mon to Sat 10 to 1 and 2 to 5 (until Sept 29).
Drawings, watercolours, ceramics, oil paintings by three artists; Linton Court Gallery, Duke Street, Settle, North Yorkshire: Tues, Fri, Sat 11 to 5, Sun 2 to 5, closed, Mon, Thurs, Wed (until Sept 30).
Patricia 1984: Becky Cohen photo installation, and Living in the City—photographs by Robert Hamilton; both at Impressions Gallery of both at Impressions Gallery of Photography, 17 Colliergate, York: Tues to Sat 10 to 6, closed Sun and Mon (until Oct 13). Paintings and work in other media by Eileen Hemsoll; Walsall Museum and Art Gallery Lichfield Street.

Walszil. Mon to Fri 10.00 to 6.00,
Sat 10.00 to 4.45, Sunday closed.
(until Sept 22).

Paintings by Brian and Barbara Stevens, Hereford City Museum, Street

Hereford: Tues to Fri 10 to 6, Thur

Space shuttle calls

Space enthusiasts can eavesdrop by telephone on conversations between the latest space shuttle. Discovery, and mission control until touchdown on Wednesday,

The service uses British Telecom's international telephone links. The American telephone number to keep in touch with events in space is 010 1 900 410 6272.

National days

Libya celebrates its National Day today After a recent history of occupation and control by foreign powers including Turkey, Italy, Britain and France. Libya became in 1951 the first independent state to be created by the United Nations. The country's monarchy was overthrown by a revolution on September 1, 1969 and a republic declared, with a Revolutionary september 1. 1969 and a republic declared, with a Revolutionary Command Council lead by Colonel Gaddail. In 1977 the country's official title was changed to the Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, when governmental reorganization instituted a new form of direct democratic avolving form of direct democracy involving local and national peoples' congres Vietnam celebrates its National Day tomorrow. After colonial rule by France, the formation of the countries of North and South Vietnam, and the lengthy Vietnamese war, north and south were formally reunified in July 1976, in the Socialist Republic of Vietnam.

Anniversaries

TODAY: Births: Edward Alleyn, actor, founder of the College of God's Gift Dulwich, London, 1566: Edgar Rice Burroughs, novelist author of the Tarzan stories. Chicago, 1875.
Deaths: Nicholas Breakspeare.

Deaths: Nicholas Breakspeare, Pope Adrian IV, the only English pope (1154-59). Anagmt. Italy, 1159; Sir Richard Steele, essayist. Carmathen, 1729; Samuel Coleridge-Taylor. composer. London, 1912; W. W. Jacobs, short story writer, London, 1943; Siegfried Sassoon, poet and novelist, Heytesbury, Wiltshire, 1967 Germany invaded Poland, 1939. Poland, 1939.

Poland, 1939.
TOMORROW: John Howard, philanthropist and prison reformer was born. London, 1726.
Deaths: Thomas Telford, civil engineer. London, 1834; Henri Rousseau, painter. Paris, 1910. The Great Fire of London began and lasted until September 6, 1666.

All electrical wiring indoors and in sheds, garages, or greenhouses, and portable electric tools should be checked by a competent electrician every two or three years. Do not forget to have extension leads have extension leads checked as well. It is really wiser to have electric greenhouse heating equipment checked each autumn.

Cut back petunias that have become straggly and lobelias alyssum and calendulas to encour age another crop or now.... Greenhouse plants such as Primula obconica and cyclamen from seed carlier will now need repotting into a size larger pot.

Many indoor plants may be propogated by cuttings now.

Saintpaulia leaves root easily in water or sandy soil. If you wish to have really well flowered impressive saintpaulias, pull out the middle

Gardens open

P - Plants for sale Today: Caithness: (Queen Elizabeth Court. 3m NE of Chipping Castlent, National, National Casile Campden, adjacent Hidcote National Trust garden; many unusual plants and shrubs; old and species roses, including the largest rose plant in England. Also open Sundays, Wednesday and Thursday until September 30: P; 2 to 6. TOMORROW: Suffolk: five gar-dens at Milden: off A1141 to Milden between Levenham and Monks Eleigh. That of Milden Hall alone is well worth a visit; 2 to 6. Somerleyton Hall, or Loweston; 12 acres, fine trees and shrubs, maze, miniature railway, garden trail for youngsters: 2 to 5.30. Essex: Moyns Park, Birdbrook, Im SW of A604 between Halstead and Haverhill between Halstead and Haverhill; stud farm, moat, yew hedges, herbaceous, rose garden, ornamental ducks; 2 to 6. Globeestershire: Westonbirt School gardens, Tetbury, ½m from Westonbirt; 22 acres, line trees and shrubs; Arboretum and Dyrham Park nearby; 2 to 6. Somerset: Barrington Court, nr. Ilminster, 14m Yeovil, 14m Taunton; a garden constructed from dereliet farmland from 1920; walled rose and filly gardens; P. 2 to 6. Pilton Manor Vineyard. The Manor House, Pilton, 2½m SW of Shepton entrance fee £1 includes 2 free wine tastings; vineyard shop; 12 to 6. Keat: Withersdane Hall, Wye College, Wye, NE of Ashford, off A28; garden of botanical and educational interest, flower borders, alpines, flowering shrubs specially alpines, flowering shrubs specially suited to chalk, herbs; 2 to 5.30 Oxfordshire: Blenheim Palace, 8m N of Oxford; 11.30 to 5.

The pound

Camaca s
Denmark Kr
Finland Misk
France Fr
Germany DM
Greece Dr
Henglang S
Ireland Pt
(tely Lita)
Japan Yen
Notherlands

Roads

passi Wales und West: ASS (Chayo): Ros with contraflow in operation on Llanddulae by pass between Chester and Colwyn Bay A471 (Powys): Roadworks controlled by temporar Precions and a Enverod. ASS (Develop-Roadworks with lane closures on both carriagnessys between Exerter and Phymouth at Marsh Mitts vaculut.

North Mitt Roadworks between purchons 22 and 25, contration at use it pairs of Cheshins, Merseyside and Greater Manchester Resultacing work on southbound carriagnway between junctions 32 and 35 (Preston and Lancaster South); contration in use, delays to be expected. Mitte: Bridge matriansness between junctions 14 and 15 (Botton and Whitefield) hard shoulders and larses beneath Indigs closed, Roads affected Mitts westbound signoed to ASBB Mitt southbound signoad to ASSB and signoad to Mit sunny spells, Isolated showers; wind SW. moderate; max temp 22 to 24C (72 to 75F).

Chennel Islands, SW England, Wales; Rather cloudy moderate; max temp 19 to 21C (66 to 70F).

Lake District, Isle of Man, SW Scotland, Glasgow, central Highlands: Cloudy, outbraks of rain and drizzle, hill fog; wind SW, light or moderate: max temp 16 to 18C (61 to 64F).

Borders, Edinburgh and Dundee, Aberdeen: Cloudy, outbraks of rain and drizzle, hill fog, sunny intervals developing; wind SW. light of moderate; max 21 to 23C (70 to 73F).

Moray Firth, NE, NW Scotland, Argyll, Northern Ireland: Cloudy, rain at 1 mas, hill and coastal fog; wind variable, light, max temp 15 to 17C (59 to 63F).

Ordoey, Shetland: Sunny Intervals, scattered showers; wind NW, light max temp 14C (57F).

Cutlook for tomorrow and Monday: Rather cloudy with occassional rain and drizzle in the N, mainly dry with sunny spells in the S, perhaps isolated thundery showers later; warm or very warm in the S, near normal temperatures in the N.

SEA PASSAGER: S, North See: Wind

rorithbound.
Scotland: Mét. Roadworks at Kingston Bridge, Gasgow: lane closures southbound over weekend and horshbound tonorrow hrine ting road closed eastbound between junctions 17 and 15 today ASE: Roadworks 3 males N of Stonehaven, Kincardinesther; only one fane at use, temporary bights and chierstons, AZ: Roadworks 4 miles 5 of Selfaric missed a copy of The Times this week we repeat below the week's Portfolio price changes (today's are on P26)

29 - 1+5 +1 +2 +3

30 - +2 +2 +3 +2

31 - +5 +2 +5 +2 32 - +7 +5 +1 +2

33 - +4 +2 +2 +3

34 - +5 -2 +3 +2

35 - +4 +5 +1 +3

36 - +8 -2 +6 +2

37 - +5 +1 +4 +2

38 - +5 -2 +6 +2 39 - +7 +1 +1 +2

	Skara		,					-	temperatures in the N.
	40	Mag	Tres	Wed	The	H	Sat	Tetal	SEA PASSAGES: S. North Sea: Wind
	_1	-	+2	+3	+4	+2			SW, fresh, occasionally strong; sea
	2	-	+2	+2	+2	+5			moderate or rough. Stratts of Dover: Wind SW, tresh, decreasing moderate:
	3	-	+2	+5	+5	+2			sea moderate. English Charmel (E): Wind SW, moderate, decreasing light;
	4	-	+2	+1	+5	+4			sea slight. St George's Channel, titsh
	5	-	+3	+2	+4	+3			Sea: Wind SW, moderate or fresh; sea moderate.
	6	-	+3	+4	+3	+2
	7	-	+2	+1	+4	+3			NOON TODAY
	. 8	-	+2	+3	+5	+2			102 654 1
	9	-	+2	+4	+3	+4			50
	10	-	+3	+1	+4	+4			LIN DE CO
	11		+2	+1	+1	+2			1008
	12	-	+2	+2	+5	+2			The state of the s
	13	-	+3	-1	+1	+4			多 柳
	14	-	+2	-2	+3	+2		-
	15	-	+3	-2	+1	+4			15 60 60 15 15 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10
1	16	-	+2	+2	+2	+2
	17	ì	+2	-5	+4	+1
	18	-	+2	+2	+2	+4			1016
	19	•	+3	-2	+4	+2			6660 200 200
	20	•	+2	-1	+1	+2			-068-5
	21	-	+4	+1	+1	+2			660 CAS
	22	-	+2	+3	+5	+2			b-blue sky, bc-blue sky and cloud; c-cloudy;
	23	-	+4	+1	+1	+3			o-overcest 1-log, d-drazzle, h-hei; m-mist 1-rem; 6-snow; th-thunderstorm; p-showers
	24	-	+3	+2	+2	+2			APTOWS STOWN WITH CHROCOCK, WIND SCHOOL (MICH)
	25	-	+6	+1	+2	+2			circled temperatures tahrenten.
	26	-	+3	-1	+3	+4
	27	-	+4	-1	+1	+2			London
	28	-	+3	+2	+3	+2			Yesterday: Temp max 6 am to 6 pm. 24C
		-		_	_	-		_	1765) min 6 am to 6 am 200 (600)

Weather

A frontal trough will be slow

moving over Northern Ireland and Scotland, a moist

6am to midnight

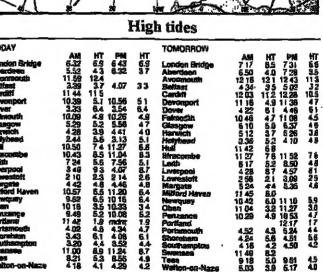

Angila, Miclands (E): Sunny intervals developing, isolated showers; wind moderate; max temp 23 to 25C (73 to 77F).

E. NE, NW, central N England, Midlands (W): Rather cloudy, some sunny spells, isolated showers; wind SW, moderate; max temp 22 to 24C (72

airstream will cover England and Wales.

Highest and lowest

© TIMES NEWSPAPERS LIMITED. 1984 Printed and published by Times Newspapers Limited, P.O. Box 7, 200 Grav's Inn Road, London, W.C.IX, SEZ. Fagland, Telephone: 01-837 1234, Telept. 26497; SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 11984 Resistered at 28 newspapers at the Post Office.

Tide mee: TOMORROW Sun rises: 5.15 em First quarter tomorrow, 11.30 am. Around Britain

Sun Rein Mazz

12 - 22 72 Suphi
12 - 21 70 Cloudy
12 - 21 70 Cloudy
12 - 22 72 Suphi
15 - 20 68 County
16 .08 21 70 Cloudy
16 .08 21 70 Cloudy
77 .08 19 68 Sunny
78 .08 20 68 Sunny
78 .08 20 68 Sunny
78 .08 20 68 Sunny
70 - 26 79 Sunny
19 .07 22 72 Sunny
19 .08 .08 .09 19 60 10 Sunny
19 .08 .28 18 64 Reinpi
10 .03 16 61 Rein
10 .03 16 61 Rein - 22 72 Brightam - 22 72 Cloudy

MIDDAY: G, cloud; d, dnzzie, f, fair. lg. fog. r rain; s, sun; an, snow-Brusaels Budapest Buan Aire: Care Ts Cape Ts Chicago hesiden:

kith rebar.

!'snobberra

1 to

Trail.

Abroad

حكذا من الاصل